FOUR RUNS AT START ARE ENOUGH TO TAKE GAME FROM SERAPHS

Hig Slams Ball in Addition to Pitching Puzzlers; Makes It Three Out of Four.

Four runs in the first two innings and some sparkling fielding afterward which held Los Angeles to two tallies gave Portland three out of four games yesterday. Had Manager Dillon started Tozer instead of Perritt there might have been a different story, but then we would not have been treated to the antics of Ralph in trying to sneak out of a double play that he witlessly let himself fall into in the eighth inning. Portland was there on double plays, as four of them will attest.

After letting two men reach base in the first inning, Higginbotham fanned Howard for the last out. After that he was not touched until the seventh, when the Angels put over half of their runs. Chadbourne started the scoring in the first by getting away with a walk. Derrick beat out a bunt past Perritt and Rodgers' out moved the pair up. Lindsay's out, Page to Moore, gave Chadbourne a chance to score, and Derrick registered on Doane's single to second. Walter stole but Mcormick ended the inning when Johnson threw Chadbourne singled between first and second, putting Hig on third, and then the pair pulled off a double steal, His scoring. Chad stole third and Derrick walked. Derrick was out tryig to steal second and Hodgers lofted to Metzger. Tozer took up the pitching in the third, and in ming Donne, struck out the first Portlander the Angel twirlers have been able to set down this week on strikes linggart walked to start the seventi inning, but was forced by Howard, Ivan ent around to third on Johnson's single to left. Here Dillon replaced Metz ger with young Goodwin, who singled through short and Howard scored. Mc Cormick, Rodgers and Derrick retired Goodwin and Arbogast.

In the eighth inning Tozer singled and reached second when Doane let the ball sift through his digits. Page singled to left. McCormick retired Wotell. Moore rolled a slow ground ball to Lindsay and was out at first. Tozer evidently thinking there were two outs, trotted eisurely toward the plate, Derrick ran over toward the third base line, suddenly bringing Ralph back to life. The Seraphic slanter tried to make it back to third but was relayed out, Herry to Lindsay,

With one out in the ninth, Howard tripled to center and scored while Rodgers was retiring Johnson. Goodwir lofted to Chadbourne and closed the Bill Redgers pulled off the most spectacular bit of infield work of the season in the fifth when, with one on and two out, he cut off what looked like a clean hit from Tozer's bat, and with a wide backhand motion tossed the ball to Derrick while going away. Johnson also got in a little of the dazzle stuff in the fourth, when he got Chadbourne's grounder back of third, whirled and threw Higginbotham out at second. The two teams will play a double-

SALLY SALVATOR BEATS O'LEARY IN FOUR ROUNDS

Los Angeles, Aug. 23.—Sally Salva-tor, of Sacramento, has a place in the hearts of Los Angeles boxing fans today as the result of a whirlwind finish that netted him a decision over Johnny O'Leary in a four round semiwindup to last night's Young-Willard battle at Vernon.

The match was the best preliminary seen at Vernon in many months, and Salvator's work in the final session brought the crowd to its feet.
Vic Barsante, a Los Angeles lad, sent Banty Williams, a sailor, to dreamland in less than a minute. Williams was hopelessly outclassed.

MULE CREEK IS SCENE OF JOLLY OUTING PARTY

Guest Prospect and Climb Steep Peaks.

Mule Creek, Or., Aug. 23.-George Billings and family and Miss Irene Baker recently enjoyed one of the finest outings ever held in this section of the country which also included some prospecting. The party, which consisted of six people, three men and three women, were all clad in men's clothing, while tramping the ladies abandoning worth trophy championship races in their skirts because they were so troublesome in climbing up steep places. The party left Billings' ranch early in the morning after loading the pacitrain and after a long walk, which followed up the zigzag course of Mule they arrived at Billings' house, located one mile from his mines.

A couple of days was spent working in the mines, but none of the party was able to secure any great amount of gold. The rest of the time was spent climbing up the rugged peaks of the mountains in Curry county.

Mrs. Billings was kept busy cooking for the hungry crowd, who had their appetites bettered by the outdoor living and mountain climbing. All devoured the food like hungry bears every time the meals were put before them.

Rain fell two days during the trip, but it did not dampen the fun and sport the party was having. On one occasion, Miss Baker and Miss Billings hiked over the hills and ascended several steep peaks, where they found snow. Miss Baker, who is one of the school teachers here, enjoyed every minute of the trip, it being her first one in the Jack Fitzgerald started the game for the Bees, but was chased from the box in the second inning, after the Colts had made eight hits and six runs off his delivery. Barham, an Oregon young-ster, next went in, and the Equines proceeded to pound him for four runs during the one and one third innings that he worked. It finally ended with Sladon, a Victoria youngster, pitching for the Bees, and he was clouted for three runs. In addition to Mahoney, Eastley and Mohler got homers, making five for Portland during the afternoon. Eastley fanned nine men,

FOR ALLEGED FRAUD

Judge McGinn Declares That Evidence in Civil Suit Before Him Warrants Inquiry.

Determined to stop shady business and real estate deals, Circuit Judge McGinn this morning held Ed Denison and Joseph I. Hull, barbers, and Jacob Solomon, a clothing merchant, lessee of building at 205 Morrison street, to the grand jury under $1000 bonds for obtaining $1025 from A. E. Koehler, 75 years old and a cripple. The three men were arrested and taken to the county jail on a complaint signed by Judge McGinn following the close of a suit by Koehler to recover the $1025. in which Judge McGinn gave Kochler a judgment in full.

According to the testimony of Koeh ler, Hull shaved him one day and learned that he had the money and desired to secure a confectionery store. Hull, he testified, told of the good business of the shop at 205 Morrison street in which they were, and which was owned by Denison. Denison became a party to the affair a little later and on February 17 this year, Koehler was persuaded to purchase the shop on the representation that it would pay a net profit of $5 to $10 a day.

Before purchasing the shop, he testhe place to him, and after the deal was consummated Solomon failed to make good his promise. After Kochler had owned the shop for a time and found it not paying he had been approached with an offer to buy at about $800, he testified.

'From the moment this poor, weakminded cripple was shaved by Hull, and Hull found out he had money, I believe Hull started out to separate him from this money," declared Judge McGinn in passing judgment. son and Solomon and the man who offered to buy the place, I think, were in the scheme. It looks to me like a pure case of bunco and I believe there is evidence enough in the record of this case to warrant these men being held to the grand jury."

SOUTH BEND EDITOR IS CITED FOR CONTEMPT

South Bend, Wash., Aug. 23 .- J. T.

Dorrien of Raymond has petitioned Su-perior Judge E. H. Wright to have F. Hazeltine cited to appear before him for contempt of court. It is alleged by Dorrien that the Journal, in its issue of August 8, violated a court order by Judge Wright forbidding the newspapers from making comments on the cases in his court which might prejudice said cases with any jury which might be called. The immediate cause of the orler was the bitter discussion which has been going on in the various newspapers of the county over the arrest of M and J. B. Welsh, P. W. Culver and J. W. Jackson, all of Raymond, on a charge of conspiring in securing what is alleged to be false testimony to defeat a suit for damages which had been brought against the city of Raymond. M. C. Welsh is Raymond's city attor-ney and Culver is one of the councilmen. A couple of Burns' detectives were here working up the case for two months and the Journal printed some sensational had been taken from a dictagraph which had been placed in Welsh's law office by the detectives.
