

AMERICANS LINGER IN MEXICO CITY DESPITE PRESIDENT'S WARNING

Majority Remains to Look After Their Interests in the Southern Republic.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Mexico City, Sept. 1.—The expected exodus of American residents from Mexico as a result of warnings issued in President Wilson's message to congress has failed to materialize. A few Americans left the capital today, but the majority will remain, being unwilling to sacrifice business interests unless the situation becomes alarming.

Provisional President Huerta is expected to ignore anonymous charges that a group of Americans here plotted to bring about American intervention.

Protection for Americans. Washington, Sept. 1.—The Mexican situation was practically unchanged today. Senator Bacon, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, conferred with Secretary of State Bryan. Later Senator Bacon issued the following statement:

"The president did not intend that his statement on the Mexican situation should be construed as an order for American citizens to leave Mexico. Neither should it be construed as a preliminary warning of armed intervention. It simply meant that fighting between the two factions is likely to become more serious than ever and he suggested that it would be better for them to leave the country."

"The president did not mean that this country will not continue to protect American citizens in Mexico, or demand satisfaction if any harm should befall them."

"The state department has not been officially advised of the alleged killing of six Americans at Torreon, but press dispatches to that effect are being investigated."

No Transports for Refugees. Vera Cruz, Mexico, Sept. 1.—Fifty American refugees are here, and no transport is available to carry them to the United States, and no regular vessel sails for several days. United States Consul Canada has arranged to accommodate the penniless at a local hotel.

Hale Touches at Havana. Havana, Sept. 1.—William Bayard Hale, one of President Wilson's emissaries to Mexico, arrived here this morning from Vera Cruz, sailing later on the Ward liner Morro Castle for New York. He refused to comment on the Mexican situation.

LEVY "SHOULD WORRY" ABOUT OLD UNCLE SAM. Washington, Sept. 1.—Representative Levy who represents the New York financial district in congress, is solicited because he says it is costing Uncle Sam $50 a minute to prosecute the steel trust.

"Next Tuesday, I intend to introduce a resolution ordering the attorney general to dismiss the suit," Levy said tonight. "It will get nowhere for years, and meanwhile it is costing $20 a minute."

ACCUSED OF ILLEGAL TRAFFIC IN LIQUOR

Thirty Men Arrested by Police as Result of Raids Sunday.

Thirty men were arrested yesterday by the police for illegal sale of liquor. The raids began early in the day with the arrest of Frank McNamara, bartender at 117 1/2 Knott street, for selling liquor to Louis Lavroy. Two charges stand against the bartender, one of selling on Sunday and the other of selling to an intoxicated person. Sergeant Harris and Patrolman Wise made the arrest.

Sergeant Van Overn later arrested K. Hasekawa and 11 Japanese at 105 North Fourth street for selling liquor in an unlicensed grill. They sold sago, a Japanese liquor.

Louis Nissen and four men were arrested at Grand and Hawthorne avenues by Patrolmen Foster, Richdahl and Ferry for selling liquor in an unlicensed grill. The same officers later arrested John Dunn, F. Rhymer, E. E. Southard, Lyman Van Horn and Thomas O'Conna at 283 Grand avenue, for disposing of liquor in a grill that they say has no liquor license. Patrolmen Schmide, Epps and Miller arrested John Erickson and Henry Katz at Third and Couch streets for selling liquor on Sunday. The several cases are to be heard Tuesday in the municipal court.

AMERICAN FLAG FINDS DEFENDER IN JAPANESE

Man Claiming to Be I. W. W. Attempts to Pull Emblem Down and Is Kicked.

The American flag found an earnest and successful defender yesterday afternoon in the person of a little Japanese in a pool room at Third and Couch streets, when Charles Blake sought to tear it from the wall.

Blake claims to be a recent arrival from Canada and professes to be an ardent member of the I. W. W. movement. About 4 o'clock he entered the Japanese pool hall. The first thing he saw was a large American flag on the wall near the cash register. He walked up and attempted to pull it down. The Jap grabbed the man, turned him toward the door, and kicked him into the street.

Patrolman Cameron passed the door at this time and investigation led to the report of the above facts, together with the arrest of Blake on a charge of intoxication.

LETS ANOTHER WOMAN RIDE ON WIFE'S PASS

Because he failed to let his wife know he was traveling to Huntington with another woman, E. H. Shafer and the woman, whose name is unknown, are today returning to Portland in the custody of Deputy Constable Hunter. The charge against the two is a violation of the "anti-pass" law. Shafer, who is a telegrapher, secured a pass for himself and wife and took the other woman along. Inquiries made by his wife led to the discovery and the arrest of the pair in Huntington on a complaint filed by the O. W. R. & N. company followed.

OREGON'S EXHIBIT AT SAN FRANCISCO FAIR

CONFERENCE OBJECT

Exposition Committee Calls in Many of State's Leading Men for Advice on Subject.

How can Oregon's exhibit at the Panama-Pacific exposition in San Francisco, 1915, be made worthy of the state?

Seeking an answer to the question, O. M. Clark, chairman of the Oregon exposition commission, has called a conference of the heads of leading Oregon organizations to be held in the commission's headquarters, 418 Commercial club building, at 2 o'clock next Friday afternoon.

One of the plans is to have the "Oregon First" record maintained, arranging it so that Oregon will be first to complete plans and let contract for the state building on the exposition grounds. Mr. Clark believes that nothing is more important than to secure the cooperation of the organizations which do much of the work for public good in Oregon. The following delegates have been selected for the Friday afternoon conference:

Delegates to Conference. J. Henry Booth, president of the board of agriculture; R. H. K. Newell, president of the state board of horticulture; Gaston W. L. Finley, state game warden; R. E. Clanton, master fish warden; J. D. Mickle, state dairy and food commissioner; H. N. Lawrie, chairman state bureau of mines commission; C. E. Spence, master of the state grange, Oregon City; Thomas C. Burke, chairman of the state board of immigration; Joseph N. Teal, president of the Oregon conservation commission; W. B. Mackay, West Coast Lumber Manufacturers' association; J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of public instruction; Dr. Calvin S. White, state health officer; John H. Lewis, state engineer; A. F. Swift, farmers' union; Baker O. P. Hoff, commissioner of labor statistics; N. C. Maris, pure bred livestock association; M. Plummer, Oregon Eugenics association; W. H. McMonies, Oregon Manufacturers' association; E. L. Campbell, president University of Oregon; W. J. Korr, president Oregon Agricultural college; J. H. Ackerman, president of the state normal school; John G. Hope, Oregon Woolgrowers' association; Medical Springs; J. M. Dickson, Oregon Dairy association; Shedd, Theodore B. Wilcox, president Oregon Development league; William Hanley, Burns; W. M. Colvig, Medford; John E. Gratie, Astoria; J. S. Van Winkle, Albany; Bruce Dennis, La Grande, vice president of the Oregon Development League; C. C. Chapman, secretary of the Oregon Development League; Governor Oswald West, Secretary of State Ben Olcott, State Treasurer Tom Kay, President of the Senate Dan J. Markey, Speaker of the House, C. V. McArthur, and the members of the exposition commission, O. M. Clark, chairman; W. L. Thompson, secretary; John F. Logan, R. A. Booth, Eugene; C. L. Hawley, Monmouth.

PREPARING SITE FOR NEW S. P. & S. DEPOT

Old buildings that have encumbered the site of the proposed new freight depot and warehouse of the S. P. & S. near Union avenue and Belmont street are being moved away, preparatory to beginning work on the new building.

"This does not mean that we will begin actual construction work there at once," said Frank A. Pell, assistant to President J. H. Young of the North Bank this morning. "We expect to build a depot there and we want to get ready, that's all. Nothing definite has been decided on when the work will start."

PLAN CULTIVATION OF WINTER CAULIFLOWER

(Special to The Journal.) Roseburg, Or., Sept. 1.—The strangers of Douglas county are forming a society for the growing of broccoli and winter cauliflower for shipment to Minneapolis in carload lots. Already it is assured that more than 20 acres will be devoted to this product. It is said that conditions in Douglas county are ideal for the growing of these products.

POLICE ARREST 1584 PERSONS IN AUGUST

Over Half Taken Up for Intoxication; Crusade Against Unlicensed Dog.

The report of Harry Circle, record clerk for the police department, shows there were 791 persons arrested for being intoxicated during the month of August.

Twenty were arrested for automobile speeding, while 10 were arrested for motorcycle speeding. Fighters to the number of 27 were taken into custody, while 48 were arrested for gambling. Thieves to the number of 34 were caught. Vagrancy caused 207 men to be arrested. The crusade against unlicensed dogs resulted in the arrest of 18 owners. There were 75 accidents, 126 injured persons were assisted by the police, 101 lost children were taken home, 5 suicides were reported, the patrol wagon made 950 calls, and 161 nuisance notices were served. The total number of persons arrested during August was 1584.

S. P. NOT TO PUT ON EXTRA TRAIN SERVICE

No extra train between Portland and San Francisco is to be put in service by the Southern Pacific, at least not for some time, according to Passenger Agent J. M. Scott, who returned from San Francisco yesterday. Mr. Scott was in conference with high officials of the road for two weeks, at which nearly every phase of passenger travel was taken up.

"To be sure, we talked about the proposed new train service," said Mr. Scott this morning. "But we made no decision and probably will not for the present. Our business has been exceptionally good, but we figured it out that the putting on of an extra train now would cause such a sweeping rearrangement of schedules that we will get along with increasing travel by putting on extra equipment and no new train."

WHEN HIS FATHER DIES, SON COMMITS SUICIDE

Davenport, Iowa, Sept. 1.—Thomas Lynch, 26, received a telegram Saturday announcing the death of his father in Pennsylvania. The son bought a bottle of carbolic acid and drank the contents, dying soon afterward.

TICKLED HIS PALATE

Los Angeles, Sept. 1.—Omar Wolf-orth, after laughing himself into hysteria, arrived at the receiving hospital in an ambulance unable to tell his troubles. His wife substituted. He swallowed a sardine tail first. He said it tickled his palate, and then began laughing at himself.

ACCUSED WOMAN SINGS RAGTIME IN CITY JAIL

Inmate Passes Hours Away With Light Heart, Confident of Outcome.

Musical airs, ranging from rag time to grand opera, were heard all day yesterday from the woman's quarters at the police station.

The singer was Eva Ferris, 19 years old, arrested Saturday evening for obtaining goods by a method not approved by the law.

To herself and Matron Simmons, the young woman hummed and sang, then beat a tattoo on the dusty window pane, trying to pass away the time until Tuesday morning, when she proposes to tell Municipal Judge Stevenson why and how she secured $60 worth of woman's finery from a local department store.

August 5, 1912, the young singer married a $200 mortgage Ferris held against her mother.

The marriage proved unhappy and separation followed in May. Since that time, the girl-wife has been making her way the best she could. She filed a few engagements as a singer, but could not find steady employment, and took work as a domestic in the home of Ralph Chrysler, 574 East Pine street.

A trip to St. Paul to live with her grandmother was planned, as she says, to start life over. To make this trip, new clothes were needed. The husband failed to keep his promise to send money, while waiting for the money, the young woman obtained the needed goods upon the credit of the Chrysler family. The department stores learned of this before she had time to adjust it, and her arrest followed.

"I have telegraphed my husband to come and help me out of this," she said this morning at the police station. "If he had given me any attention, I would never have been in this trouble. If I never have been in this trouble, if I work as a domestic, I guess I can't be very bad. I would even do hard work in a laundry, rather than steal to get clothes, but at the time there appeared no way to get my clothes on time, other than secure them as I did and pay later."

GOVERNOR WEST HAS NO PATIENCE, HE SAYS, WITH KAY AND LEWIS

Likens Them to Governor Sulzer in Their Stand in Land Controversy.

Salem, Or., Sept. 1.—Comparing State Treasurer Kay and State Engineer Lewis to Governor Sulzer of New York, by saying that like him they are afraid to face the music and are attempting to shift responsibility for their acts, and charging that in the Deschutes land company fight they, and Attorney General Crawford are allied in protecting a shoestring promoter engaged in practices the blue sky law is aimed to prevent, Governor West today issued a reply to a statement appearing in a Portland morning paper signed by the three, and outlining their positions in the fight.

The fight also took on a new angle today when Corporation Commissioner Watson announced that he had advised the irrigation company that it is behind two years in its annual fees, and subject to a $200 fine. He also says that it has failed to provide the preliminary statement provided for under the Blue Sky law, and that it must settle these matters at once.

Governor's Statement. The governor's statement is as follows:

"In his statement made through the columns of the Oregonian this morning, Mr. Kay insists that my charge that a certain petition addressed to the interior department asking for an extension of time upon the contract between the state and federal government covering the Morson project was prepared by Lewis and himself is untrue, that it was prepared by Assistant Secretary Van Winkle, an employe in the office. Mr. Van Winkle could not doubt with propriety clear himself by saying that it was prepared by the stenographer and the stenographer in turning the blame on her machine.

"I have no patience with heads of departments who, when trouble comes and they find they have put their foot into it, try to shift the blame to some helpless employe. I have always stood ready to assume responsibility for the acts of those in my employe."

Sympathies Change. "My sympathies were with Governor Sulzer until he began to shift the blame for some of his acts onto his wife. I

IF R. MORGAN HANGS MAY BE NEW WARDEN

Understanding Is That Lawson Will Resign Rather Than Conduct Execution.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.) Salem, Or., Sept. 1.—That before he will execute Robert Morgan, sentenced to hang here next Friday for killing his sweetheart, Virgie Hart, at Condon, in October of last year, he will resign from his position, is the ultimatum delivered to Governor West by Colonel Lawson, warden of the penitentiary, according to an authoritative source here today.

Since his imprisonment Morgan has been a model prisoner, and this and the fact that he is but a boy, and that his crime was committed while he was insane with jealousy has caused the warden to reach a decision that he would rather resign his position than hang the boy.

The ultimatum was given the governor when Colonel Lawson called on him some time ago to plead with him to commute Morgan's sentence. Failing to get from the governor a statement as to whether or not he would do so, he told him that if he decided to hang him that he could depend on his resignation, and that he would have to look for some other warden to take charge of the execution. Since then he has repeated the statement, and demands that he be advised soon of the governor's decision.

Colonel Lawson is temporarily out of the city.

believe in a man facing the music on all occasions. I find, however, that my charge that Messrs. Kay and Lewis prepared this petition needs a little modification, further investigation reveals the fact that with the exception of the introductory and closing paragraphs, which were prepared under the direction of Messrs. Kay and Lewis, that the nine remaining paragraphs were prepared by Mr. Morson.

"Most of the troubles of the desert land board have sprung from the practice of State Engineer Lewis and Attorney General Crawford permitting promoters of these projects to prepare most of the contracts and petitions which the board was called upon to approve and sign. In this fight Messrs. Kay, Crawford and Lewis are lined up to protect a shoestring promoter who is engaged in practices which the Blue Sky law is aimed to prevent. I am thankful that I am lined up and making the fight in behalf of the public."
