News for Tomorrow from Meier & Frank's of Intense Interest to You

Striking New Models in Two-Piece Suits Are Arriving Daily

—and surely there's never been a larger assortment of attractive styles to choose from than now. Every day we receive large shipments of new fall Suits and each Suit has a striking individuality of its own. The plain tailored Suits are models of simplicity and favorites with all, while the semi-fancy and fancy models are charming and modish. The approved coat length ranges from twenty-four to forty inches, though in some models this maximum is exceeded. Sleeves are set in without fullness and on many coats the shoulder is short. During the last few weeks, a tendency towards making the skirts have a one sided effect is noticeable. These have the suggestion of the "spiral" or the "tier" skirt, the former having a short side brought to the back, with the opposite side much longer, the effect being separate from the under part and lined with a contrasting tone or a solid color of some approved kind. Some of the favored materials are serges, chevot, pebble chevot, matelasse, wool ottoman, duvetyne and honey comb weave, in two toned effects, and the colors are the new, subdued fall like shades. Prices range from $17.50 to $125.00 —Second Floor Garment Salons—Mail Orders Filled

Latest Showing in Stunning Coats for Dress or Street Wear

Every day we're receiving large shipments of the latest Coats, direct from our eastern buyers, who make it their business to see that we get the latest and most approved styles. A leading feature is the three-quarter model with the cut-away front, extremely loose back and kimono sleeves with a long armseye. For afternoon wear the dark colors, with fur collar and cuffs are most popular. Other beautiful models are in light tones with light colored furs for trimming, and are unsurpassed for evening wear. You've no idea how graceful and pretty these Coats are, until you see them in their fascinating loveliness. There's a wide range of three quarter and medium length styles in Silk Plush, Tweed, Duvetyne, Chevot, Broadcloth and Novelty Cloaking. There's an elegant array of all the lovely new fall shades. You'll be well repaid for a visit to our Garment Salon, for you can gain some idea of the favored modes, materials and colors, even though you do not purchase.
