JAMES' ERROR PUTS OAKS IN WAY TO WIN OUT IN 12TH INNING

Big Pitcher Drops Ball at First in Sixth and Kores Throws High in 12th.

San Francisco, Sept. 4.—Shortstop Arthur Kores of the Portland Beavers, who has been out of the game for a couple of weeks with a right hand spiked by Earl Maggart, hasn't got his range finding machine carefully adjusted as yet. This was proved when he batted back into the game yesterday at short and threw high to Gus Fisher in the twelfth inning of a terrific struggle with the Oaks to morgan Kid Kaylor at the plate. Fisher couldn't pull the ball out of the sky in time and the Commodore carried off the first game.

Harry Ables and Bill James, the two behemoths of the league, both pitched great ball. Ten hits were made off the Oakland southpaw, while Oakland gathered eight biffs off the Beaver right-hander.

Portland got away to a temporary lead on the Oaks in the sixth inning when Derrick and Rodgers singled and the former took third on Kretz's error. Lindsay was an infield out, but Speas singled and scored Derrick, sending Rodgers to third. Lober fanned and Speas stole, but Cook and Gardner disposed of Kores.

Oakland came right back in their half and assumed the lead. James fanned Kretz and Ables but Leard got away with a triple when Lober misjudged the ball. Then James hit Gardner, who stole second. Then James ran over to cover first on Helling's grounder but failed to hold Derrick's throw and Leard and Gardner crossed. That beat Portland.

Singles by Lindsay and Speas and Lober's walk followed by Kores' sacrifice fly to Cuy, gave Portland the tying run in the eighth.

In the last half of the twelfth Kaylor started with a single to center but Cook fanned. Kretz surprised everybody by shooting to right center, sending Kaylor to third. Here Mitz sent in a pinch hitter, Schirm. Schirm, with three and two on him, tapped the ball to Kores, who shot it high to the plate and Kaylor slid under Fisher.

HIS BALL AND CHAIN

LITSCHI'S TRIPLE IS TOO MUCH FOR FANNING

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 4.—A triple by Litschi in the seventh inning with the bases full gave Venice a victory over the Seals yesterday, 4 to 2. The Seals had a two-run lead up to the seventh and Fanning was pitching shut-out ball.

With two down and the bases full, Fanning put one over the center of the plate and Litschi labeled it a triple to centerfield on its return journey. Koestner twirled for Venice and was touched up for six hits.

Medford, Or., Sept. 4.—Medford, the city that made Bud Anderson famous, is about to venture forth again on the pugilistic waters with Bud Lloyd as the aspirant for Anderson's place in the hearts of the Medford sports. Lloyd has given Los Angeles and will box ten rounds next Thursday night with Frankie Edwards of Oakland, Cal.

Diek Donald, manager of Anderson, will promote the bouts, having reorganized the Medford Athletic club, the organization before which Anderson paved the way for his fights with Troit, Brown, Mandot and Cross.

Brown is working out daily in the gymnasium of the club, and looks good to the fans here. Edwards will arrive tomorrow from San Francisco and begin active training.

Barrieau Helps Welsh

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 4.—Freddie Welsh, British lightweight champion, his ankle now apparently as good as ever, today admitted Archie Barrieau to the corps of sparring partners with whom he is training for his coming fight with Willie Ritchie. Welsh had done no boxing until yesterday since he injured his ankle. Yesterday exhibition bouts at the Imperial rink, English bay, with Eddie Moy, Bud Brackett and Charlie Patton convinced the many fans who saw him perform, however, that he is again in perfect condition. Ritchie has gone up to the mountains for a short rest, but will be back tomorrow to resume training.

Al Palzer Knocked Out

New York, Sept. 4.—Through the knockout here last night of Al Palzer, the Iowa giant, Frank Moran of Pittsburg, only four men remain in the white hope ranks today who are deemed worthy of note—Gumbath Smith, Jess Willard, Moran, and the alleged title holder, Arnie Pelkey.

Palzer's finish came before a crowd which jammed the St. Nicholas Athletic club. Moran, though 23 pounds lighter, had forced the fight all the way. Palzer went down in the third, again in the sixth, and in the seventh round a right to the jaw sent the big fighter down flat on his face for the count.

Jack Johnson Hurts Back

London, Sept. 4.—Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist, sustained slight injury to his back here today when a taxicab collided with his automobile. The driver of the taxicab was arrested.

The taxicab driver was remanded to jail without bail. The negro's white life testifies that Johnson feared Johnson's spine is seriously injured.

Azevedo to Meet Rivers

San Francisco, Sept. 4.—Joe Azevedo of Sacramento, the latest scrapper to best Al Wolgast, is soon to get against Jack Rivers of Los Angeles, according to reports here today. The Oakland Wheelmen's club, before which Wolgast and Azevedo fought, already is at work on an October Azevedo-Rivers match. The Los Angeleno is said to be willling and anxious to test Azevedo's punch, and the latter, after a few weeks of theatrical "realizing" on his Wolgast win, will be ready to make another bid for fame.

Watson to Meet Dalton

Marietta, Cal., Sept. 4.—"Red" Watson and "Kid" Dalton are signed here today to box 20 rounds before the Marietta Athletic club Sept. 13. The winner may be matched with Joe Azevedo, the Sacramento lightweight who defeated Al Wolgast at Oakland on Labor day.

From 105 to Light Heavyweight

San Francisco, Sept. 4.—Jumping in a year and a half from the 165-pound class, Willie Alesha of San Francisco will show here in a four-round bout tomorrow night as a light-heavyweight against Roy Kennedy, who has been fighting in Australia, with success. Alesha has never taken the count in two of his fights.

Other attractions will be Willie Robinson of San Francisco against Kid Exposito, a Portland boy, and Eddie Miller, a good bantam, against Maurice Flynn of St. Louis.

GOLF—Thoughts Regarding Improving Short Game

The average golfer who follows the play of some important test of skill between class players cannot help be impressed with the deadly accuracy of the experts when once the putting green has been closely approached. There is little or no lost motion in their operations of getting the ball dead to the hole and then safely to the bottom of the cup.

If the average player could by practice, bring himself to go down in two from all distances up to say five yards off the green, he would cut perhaps 15 and perhaps 15 strokes off his record for the round. This is just about the requirement of winning golf between experts. The saved puts equalize trifling irregularities on the way round.

To the average player the display of such ability may seem an impossibility, but it is not, if he will but devote as much practice to the short game as he now does and has done in the past to develop a straight drive down the course for 200 yards. A short approach to the green or an approach putt counts just the same in the total score for the round as a full drive.

There is no special instruction that can be given short of diligent practice at trying to enudge the ball closely up to the pin with midiron, figger, mashie, or putter. There is no royal road to accurate approaching and putting. Salvation must be sought and attained by faithful practice, backed by a determination to get up or past the hole every time.

When the player has made up his mind that he must improve his short game in order to accomplish what ambition induces him to seek, he must not be dismayed if for round after round his ball persists in rolling yards past the cup. In time, and as a matter of fact, in a very short time he will be surprised to find that he has acquired a deft, accurate touch and control that he never before thought could be secured.

On the shots from off the green let him, first, consider them as simply elongated puts with midiron or putter. If the grass is rough off the green, it may be necessary to give the ball a little chip at the start. Make the shot with due allowance for any slope or irregularity in the surface of the green just the same as you would make a longish putt.

There is no easier way for improving the play of the game than by saving the strokes so ruthlessly thrown away at the green side and on the green itself by the average player. When the player is confident of holding out in two from any point on the green, the holes where he gets down in one putt through accurate approaching close up to the pin from off the green constitute the secret of low scoring. STRAIGHT DRIVE.

RAIN SPOILS NICK'S PLAN TO FATTEN P. C. COLUMN OFF GIANTS

If Rain Does Not Fall Too Heavily Grounds Will Be in Shape for Today.

If the grounds clear up sufficiently this afternoon there will be a ball game between the Portland Colts and the Seattle Giants. Two games have been lost already by rain, and Judge McCredie is planning on a double header for Sunday. Two more games remain to be played off from the last series here of the Seattle club, when they got in but four of the seven scheduled games. One of the postponed games was played off at Seattle and unless there is a double header Saturday morning of the games will have to be played off in the Giants' new park on the next visit north of the Equines.

Manager Nick is sorry to see the rain. He figured on stepping all over Seattle this week in order to regain some ground recently lost at the hands of the Victoria and Vancouver clubs.

D. E. Dugdale, the Seattle baseball magnate, is sending out invitations for the grand opening of the new Seattle baseball park, Monday afternoon, September 8, at 3 o'clock. Seattle and Spokane being the opposing teams. The game will be preceded by an automobile parade.

Harry Todd, whose real name is Dr. Henry Theilman, dentist, has been released by the Portland Colts. Todd joined the Beavers several months ago, pitched and lost one game and was then turned over to the Colts, where he has not had much success. Several years ago he was a star pitcher with Jersey City and was given a trial by the Brooklyn club. Todd came out to the coast on a vacation and took up baseball to pass the time. He will likely return east to resume his practice.

Spokane gets another San Francisco pitcher in the person of Frosty Thomas, provided the San Francisco club can get waivers. Thomas is known as one of the hard luck pitchers of the league. It seems that no matter how good a game he pitches he invariably has the break against him. He has won 6 and lost 10 games so far this season.

Reports from Philadelphia have it that Jack Coombs wrenched his side during batting practice on Labor day, after having rejoined the White Elephants after a several months' absence on account of illness. The doctors say he will hardly be in shape for the world's series.

Bill Steen, the ex-Portlander, with Cleveland, who was bumped out of the box on his first start after being out for a long spell with an injured arm, bids fair to give the Naps a lot of help in the last month of the American league race. Bill is said to be in pretty good shape again.

An Acid Test

Charlie Crawford, designer of one of America's most popular medium priced automobiles, is visiting Portland on a testing tour, the first of the kind to reach the Pacific northwest. Mr. Crawford has driven his test car more than 5000 miles over every conceivable kind of road. When the steepest hills were encountered, the car was made to do all kinds of fancy stunts, such as backing up and down the hill, to find if possible any weak spots in the car. Mr. Crawford is authority for the statement that the car is now in just as good condition as the day it left the factory. The classified columns of The Journal are full of second-hand automobiles that have run not more than 5000 miles that can be bought at half their original cost. TRAIN CREW BLAMED FOR WRECK NEAR L. A.

Los Angeles, Sept. 4.—Carelessness of a flagman and a motorman's disregard of regulations caused the wreck at Vineyard station, on the Pacific Electric railroad, July 13, in which 14 passengers met death, according to the report on the accident of the interstate commerce commission which was made public here today. Inspector Belknap severely criticised the railroad company and recommended the installation of an automatic train control system.

There were 1011 fatalities on British railroads last year, 59 less than the year before.

KNABENSHUE DIRIGIBLE FLIES OVER PASADENA

Pasadena, Cal., Sept. 4.—After months of preparation, accompanied by mishaps and hard luck of various sorts, Roy Knabenshue made a successful flight today in his huge passenger dirigible, with which he proposes to institute the first regular aerial passenger service in the United States from this city to nearby beach and mountain resorts in this vicinity today. Mothersford and Miss Bardin slipped quietly into San Jose yesterday and were wedded at St. Paul's Methodist church.

Knabenshue was accompanied by two passengers and carried more than 2,000 pounds extra weight, representing what his dirigible could do as a passenger carrier. He rose about 800 feet, circled around the city for 20 minutes and returned to his starting point.
