

INDRA LIDER IS FIXED TO TAKE LUMBER FOR RATE OF 45 AND 60

British Steamer Chartered for China Trade; Two Finish Loading Today.

Among the new charters announced yesterday afternoon for the transportation of lumber from the Pacific coast to offshore ports, was the British steamer Indramayo, of the well known Indra line. She was taken by the Pacific Export Lumber Company to load for China at 45 and 60.

FOG AND SWELL REPORTED

Adverse Conditions Met Between Columbia River and Sound.

Thick fog and an extremely heavy swell between the Columbia river and Puget Sound are reported by Captain C. Kragh, of the British steamer Claverly, which reached Montgomery Dock No. 2, at 6:45 this morning from Vancouver. She will load a full cargo of grain for the United Kingdom under charter to Kerr, Gifford & Co.

REPLACING CHANNEL LIGHTS

Beacons had been carried out by recent freshets. Lights in the ship channel of the Columbia river which were carried out by the recent freshet are being replaced, Robert Warrack, superintendent of the light house service, heavily engaged down the river with a plectrifier to look after the work.

SAILING DELAYED BY ILLNESS

Breakwater held in port because of Captain's sickness. Marshallfield, Or., Sept. 5.—The steamer Breakwater did not leave for Portland last night as scheduled on account of the severe illness of Captain T. J. MacGinn. Arrangements were made to have Captain James Macego take the Breakwater to Portland this afternoon.

WINTER SCHEDULE STARTS

Breakwater will leave here in evening instead of morning. Announcement was made this morning by L. H. Keating, local agent of the steamer Breakwater, that beginning Sunday the steamer will go on her winter schedule, sailing from the lower Astoria dock at 8 o'clock in the evening instead of at 8 in the morning.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT

In tow of G. L. Blair, general manager of the San Francisco & Portland Steamship Company, W. D. Wells, the newly appointed chief agent for the line, was at the water front this morning getting acquainted. He arrived this morning from San Francisco.

FAILED TO SHOW WHERE CRIME WAS COMMITTED

Though Deputy District Attorney Dempsey produced evidence to show that George Pappas committed the crime of contributing to the delinquency of a young boy at Third and Burnside streets he neglected to prove that that corner is located in the city of Portland, county of Multnomah state of Oregon.

FOREST FIRE STARTED BY GROUSE HUNTERS

(Special to The Journal.) Pendleton, Or., Sept. 5.—Due to carelessness of grouse hunters from La Grande, fire started in timber and a close acre 2500 ft. high and was put out last night after three days of hard fighting, according to A. W. Rugg, local woodgrower, on whose sheep range the fire burned. About 190 acres of brush, grass, knee high, burned, and the fire got into timber. Rangers and sheep herds joined in battle against the blaze and by hard fighting saved 12,000 acres of fine range. Hunters will be barred from the range hereafter.

Fall Suggests Fuel

Now that fall is upon us, the fuel question looms large. It is very difficult to find a quarry as to where to buy your winter's supply, consult the "Coal and Wood" classification in the Business Directory of The Journal.
