

REVIEW OF THE WORLD'S NEWS IN PICTURE AND PARAGRAPH

All the Principal Events of the Week Briefly Sketched for the Information of the Busy Reader—Foreign, Eastern, Political and Congressional News Notes to Be Preserved for Reference.

Congressional News

It is announced from Washington that the close of the tariff debate is drawing near, and the final vote on the measure will soon be taken in the senate. Except the two senators from Louisiana, the Democrats are expected to vote solidly for the bill, while both the progressive and regular Republicans will vote solidly against it.

Congressmen Allen of Ohio and Stephens of New Hampshire, are drafting a bill to provide for the abolition of all wooden cars in the United States within five years. At the currency bill hearing before the senate finance committee, Festus Wade of St. Louis, said that the American Bankers' association regarded the issuance of currency by the United States treasury as "weakening the republic."

Colonel Martin Mulhall declared Thursday in testifying before the house lobby investigating committee, that Congressman Stafford of Wisconsin, a member of the committee itself, was a representative of the N. A. M., and a better attorney for that organization "than Littlefield ever dared be."

Declaring that the trusts now control the country's ammunition output and are charging extortionate prices, Representative Kent of California has introduced a resolution in the house proposing government monopoly of munitions of war. Senator Miles Poindexter of Washington, has introduced a bill in the senate which would allow land entrymen failing to perfect a first entry, to make a second entry. It is provided that fraud or a sale of right would debar entrymen from this second chance.

Executive and Political

ABSOLUTE assurance was received Thursday afternoon by the administration at Washington that Provisional President Huerta had eliminated himself as a candidate for the presidency of Mexico at the October election. It is also stated that Huerta has assured President Wilson that the election will be conducted in a legal and orderly manner.

President Wilson's nomination of Henry Morgenthau as ambassador to Turkey, and that of John McMurtry to be secretary of the United States legation at Peking, have been confirmed by the United States senate. Governor Edward F. Dunne of Illinois has recognized Acting Governor Martin M. Glynn of New York by honoring Glynn's requisition for the return of a prisoner. While acting governor of Illinois, Barrett O'Hara had refused to honor Glynn's requisition.

Joseph Willard, former governor of Virginia, is mentioned at Washington as the man most likely to be named by the president as ambassador to Spain, which position will pay $17,500 a year, now that the American legation at Madrid has been raised to the rank of an embassy. Governor Sulzer has made public at Albany, N. Y., the contents of a letter from Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, in which the latter advises him to make a "full and straightforward explanation and answer in reference to the charges" that resulted in the governor's impeachment.

According to a dispatch received at the war department at Washington from Colonel Goethals, chief engineer of the Panama canal, water will be admitted to the basin by October 5. The Culcha cut will be finished September 15.

The state printing board of Oregon has decided by a unanimous vote to purchase the printing plant of the late State Printer W. S. Dunaway for $15,470. It was also decided to adopt the Salem scale of wages for the printers in the state printing office.

Municipal and Legislative

THE "Municipal Spoonery" is the name given by Denver young men to the Neighborhood house established by the city park board in connection with the municipal playgrounds at Elyria, a Denver suburb. Under municipal regulations young lovers may bill and coo therein, it is said, as their hearts content. Following a short private session of the city council of Albany, Or., it was announced that James Kennedy, a Eugene contractor, was the successful bidder for the laying of trunk sewers on three streets. His bid was $17,325.80. City Hall park at New York was jammed Wednesday with 20,000 people when Gaynor men representing the five boroughs asked the mayor to run as an independent candidate for reelection. Gaynor accepted. That the water used at the Dallas, Or., ice plant is pure in every respect is the gist of a report received by its manager from Dr. Calvin S. White, state health officer. The plant is relieved of any responsibility for the recent cases of typhoid fever at Dallas. An effort is being made by the Baker, Or., commercial club to have the architects of the new federal building at Portland consider the use of Baker county building stone in at least part of the structure. It is announced from Tacoma, Wash., that some time within the next 12 months that city will offer for sale 10,000 lots located in all parts of the city, on which assessments for municipal improvements are delinquent. The campaign of street improvement continues at Pendleton, Or., where the property owners of West Alta street have now come forward with a petition asking that it be hard surfaced. West Webb street has been paved to the city limits, and work on Raley street has just begun. It is expected that almost two-thirds of San Francisco's new bond issue of $2,500,000 will be sold over the counter at the treasurer's office in small denominations. Applications are already in for $1,000,000, and no trouble is expected in disposing of the entire issue. H. B. Smith has resigned as water superintendent of Hood River, Or., because of a reduction in his salary from $125 to $100 a month. E. S. Simcox was appointed by the council to fill the vacancy. Mayor Clara C. Munson of Warren, Or., has appointed her predecessor, George Moore, as a member of the city council to fill a vacancy.

Commercial and Industrial

ALL the Oregon Short Line railroad bridges across the Snake river near Nyssa, Or., are to be replaced with modern steel structures, on which work has been begun. The new bridges will be double-tracked, and of the very latest and heaviest type. The local land office at Vale, Or., has been doing a rushing business, $20,000 acres of government reserve land in Malheur county having been thrown open to entry in August. It is expected that 100 families will be added to the population of Malheur county. The threshing crews of eastern Coville county, Washington, have completed their work after a successful season. Oats turned out well, running from 30 to 100 bushels to the acre. Some of the wheat fields averaged as high as 40 bushels, and barley did better than 50 bushels per acre. The farmers of Douglas county, Or., are doing a flourishing business in growing and winter cauliflower for shipment to Minneapolis in carload lots. The Chamber of Commerce at Spokane, Wash., has authorized President Charles Hebbard to appoint a special committee to investigate the status of the Columbia river from Pasco to the British Columbia boundary, with a view to opening the river to traffic. Wednesday and Thursday were designated as "Good Roads days" by the governor of Arkansas, and it is estimated that 75,000 men joined in the work of road improvement throughout the state. In many cities business was suspended. According to the American representative of the Royal Mail Steam Packet company, San Francisco is to be that company's headquarters and terminus when the Panama canal is thrown open to shipping. The company is now building nine steamers of 16,000 tons each on the Clyde and in Belfast. William Hurst, one of the largest individual prune raisers in the Walla Walla valley, has already shipped 18 carloads of prunes from his orchard this year, for which he received $9900. His net profit is $9000.

Legal and Criminal

ANOTHER suit has been filed by the government in the United States court at Philadelphia, Pa., to smash the anthracite coal trust. The Reading system, it is believed, including the railroad, coal companies and subsidiaries, is attacked. The government alleges that the Reading owns 75 per cent of all the anthracite coal mined in the United States. At Salem, Or., Judge Galloway has dismissed the suit brought in the circuit court by Ernest Klingo to enjoin Secretary of State Clegg from referring the workmen's compensation act to a vote of the people. Harvey Fields shot and killed Dr. E. O. Gordon at Cairo, Ill., and surrendered himself into custody. He sought to avenge his wife, whom he declares to have been assaulted while in the physician's office. A seven-year-old boy at Munich stunned a three-year-old girl with a club, and then split her head open and severed her arms and legs. The young murderer is thought to be insane. The deputy sheriffs clashed with a mob of strikers Monday at Calumet, Mich. Margaret Faszaka, the daughter of a striking copper miner, was fatally injured. Reports indicate that the deputies fired at the strikers when the latter refused to leave mine property. William Tweedie, a former prison guard, was arrested Monday at Salem, Or., and the police say that they have evidence tending to implicate him as a white slaver. He is charged with maintaining a disorderly house. Sheriff Fred Smith and ex-Sheriff Mel Warner, now a deputy, succeeded Sunday in recapturing Billy Jim, an alleged Indian horse thief, who made a sensational escape from the sheriff on August 14. When located again he put up a desperate fight, and it required the combined efforts of both officers to subdue and handcuff him. Attempts of Socialists to speak on the streets of Aberdeen, Wash., Sunday night, resulted in several arrests. The immigration board at Coaticook, Quebec, has found Harry Thaw to be deportable on two counts, and has ordered his immediate deportation. Thaw's counsel at once entered an appeal. It is said that a writ of habeas corpus obtained in Montreal will bar Thaw's deportation. Crawford has filed suit in the circuit court at Salem against the governor, secretary of state and treasurer of Oregon to recover to the state the sum of $16,518.82. The action is said to be based upon a purely technical interpretation of the law gov-

Foreign

MUCH rioting occurred at Dublin, Ireland, in connection with the tramway strike. Numerous battles in the streets took place Sunday between strikers and the police. Two persons are known to have been killed, and at least 500 were injured. The hospitals were filled with injured men, women and children, and scores of strikers and their sympathizers were remanded to jail without bail. Reports from London say that King George has developed a passion for racing equal to that of his father, and has instructed Lord Marcus Beresford to obtain a half-dozen of the best yearlings obtainable. Queen Mary is opposed to the penchant of her royal spouse for "the sport of kings." Work was begun Monday at Duisburg, on the Rhine, on the first municipally-owned hotel in Germany, and the experiment will be watched with interest throughout the Fatherland. Private capital not being available for a first-class hotel, the city itself decided to undertake the enterprise. A German-American mineralogist who was prospecting in New Guinea, was killed and eaten by cannibals, according to a dispatch received Monday at London. The wreckage caught fire when the Manchester Express of the Midland railroad telescoped the London Express near Carlisle, England, and the bodies of nine passengers were cremated before they could be removed. The engineer of one of the trains was instantly killed. During a flight near Juvisy, France, the daring aviator Pegoud caused his monoplane to describe a gigantic letter "S" in the sky, during which "process-

General News Notes

WHEN the White Mountain express of New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad crashed into the rear end of the Bar Harbor express near New Haven, Conn., 16 lives were erling the penitentiary "revolving fund." Reports from Stuttgart, Germany, say that 13 persons were killed and 11 others injured, five perhaps fatally, when a demented school teacher named Wagner ran amuck in two German villages. William T. Jerome, former district attorney of New York city and known as the Nemesis of Harry K. Thaw, has been arrested at Coaticook, Quebec, on a charge of gambling. Jerome was led through the streets to jail, with a hostile mob hooting at his heels. "We are not going to hang your boy," were the words of a cheering message sent by Governor West of Oregon to Mrs. Susie Morgan of Richmond, Ky., whose son, Robert Morgan, was to have hung Friday for the murder of his sweetheart at Condon. Morgan's sentence was commuted to life imprisonment. William Hines, 65 years old, was arrested Wednesday night at Baker, Or., following an attempted criminal assault upon a 10-year-old girl, the daughter of M. M. Shepherd. Receivers have been appointed at Tacoma for two large Oregon concerns operating in Washington, each of which is mortgaged for $1,000,000. They are the Oregon-Washington Timber company and the Washington Northern Railroad company. he flew upside down for about a quarter of a mile. His feat is regarded as epoch-making in aviation, and quite exceeds his exploit on August 30, when he made a parachute drop from an aeroplane flying at a height of 900 feet. The city of Nankin was captured Sunday by the Chinese government forces, and the rebels fled into the country by the southern gate. Several foreign ships were struck during the battle, and a sailor on board the United States cruiser Cincinnati was wounded. According to an announcement from suffragette headquarters at London, Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst will spend October in America. When a monoplane turned turtle during military maneuvers at Brieg, Germany, Lieutenants Eckenbrecher and Prince fell 300 feet and were killed. Princess Augustine Victoria and ex-King Manuel of Portugal, were married Thursday in accordance with the rites of the Catholic church in the ancient castle of the Hohenzollerns at Sigmaringen. At Como, Italy, Peter Charlton was forced to examine the bloody trunk in which he is accused of hiding the body of his murdered wife. Charlton did not flinch under the ordeal. The date of his trial will be fixed next week. Violent popular anger is expressed against China in Tokio because of the killing of four Japanese by rioting troops of the Chinese government at Nankin. The Tokio press denounces the affair with much bitterness, and the Japanese foreign office has protested vigorously to the Peking government.

lost. A searching probe into the disaster will be directed, it is said, by the Interstate Commerce Commission, as wooden Pullman sleeping cars are held responsible for the fatalities, and had been recently condemned by the commission. An enormous eagle seized a five-year-old baby at San Felipe, in the Imperial desert, California. Postmaster W. J. Hartall and Dr. Harvey Ham of San Bernardino, Cal., fought the bird, but not without injury to themselves. Ham clubbed the fierce bird with his rifle, whereupon it turned upon him and tore his face and shoulders with its beak and talons. C. O. Grimes, a Payette, Idaho, merchant who was almost fatally burned when a gasoline stove exploded, is now thought to have a fair chance to live. One hundred brother Masons contributed 500 strips of skin, which were grafted upon his body. Former President William H. Taft, now a professor of law at Yale, was elected president of the American Bar association at its session in Montreal. John R. B. Willing, a millionaire banker of Philadelphia, died Wednesday of diphtheria. A dispatch from Washington says that a round-the-world jaunt will be started next week by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leiter on Howard Gould's hand. (Continued on following page.)

- 1—Lillian Lorraine, Broadway actress, is here shown wearing an ankle watch, which is water proof, it is claimed, and suitable for bathers. 2—This picture shows the steamship Imperator, listed to one side, after a great quantity of water had been poured in her hold to extinguish a fire that raged there. The fire occurred when the steamship was in New York harbor. 3—Viscount Haldane and party, upon their arrival in America. From left to right—Attorney General of the United States McReynolds, Sir Kenneth McKenzie, secretary to Viscount Haldane; Miss Haldane, Viscount Haldane, lord high chancellor of Great Britain, and Francis Rawle. 4—Former Governor Stone of Pennsylvania, one of the leading attorneys for Harry Thaw. 5—Crowd outside the courthouse at Sherbrooke, Quebec, during Thaw's hearing. 6—Firemen aboard the steamship Imperator, pouring water in her hold. 7—Former Judge Lynn J. Arnold, publisher of the Knickerbocker Press in Albany, N. Y., who is Governor Sulzer's chief ally and is practically in charge of the accused executive's defense to impeachment. 8—Funeral of one of the victims of the Londonderry, Ireland, riots.

Webber's 20th Century Gray Hair Restorative Will positively restore gray hair to its original color. Starts new life and vigor, and is beneficial to the scalp. R. WEBER 555 Milwaukee St., Portland, Or.