no uncasiness over this weight, al-though it is practically certain that Bob will have to continue his training grind right up to the time Referee Giffin sends them away on their 20 ound journey. "Bob is a little overweight." admitted Al McAllister, "but he can dry out part of it, and if necessary he can be sent on the road for a little work today and tain fuesday morning. That ought take off the extra weight easily and rain The Tillicums earned but one of their bring him down to the required condi-tion without any trouble.

"I think the fans will fird that Bob hitting harder than he was in his last contest with Petroskey and he ex-pects to win by a knockout. I know his training has been everything that could be desired and he is confident of victory. He beat Petroskey handily be-fore and he is going to do it again." Petroskey weighs 159. Odds' still stand 10 to 7 with McAllister favorite.
