

THE JOURNAL

Published every evening (except Sunday) and every Sunday morning at The Journal Building, Broadway and Yamhill-sts., Portland, Ore.

Choose the company of your superior whenever you can have it; that is the right and true pride.—Chatterfield.

WHOSE SONS?

JAMES L. BLACK, owner of a mine in Mexico, returns to the United States with claims that Mexicans slap the faces of Americans in the streets of the Mexican capital, and that the Americans are laughed at when they protest.

FELLOWSHIP

PERHAPS the most notable address delivered by Secretary Lane on his western trip was his "fellowship" talk to San Francisco women a week ago.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE

ON the athletic field of a Catholic college in Chicago, Sunday games are played regularly on Sundays. Recently the Society of Friends in Flushing, L. I., turned over the grounds surrounding its place of worship for use on Sundays for youthful play.

works in a kitchen. Which girl is the mental and which is the equal, depending only upon her ability to establish her standing?

AN EQUAL BURDEN

A HIGH note in the swelling symphony of public conscience was sounded by Mrs. Mary Wood of New York in an address before the recent International Congress of Social Hygiene held in Buffalo, when she declared that "Not only should Caesar's wife be above suspicion but Caesar himself should be above suspicion."

THE ROUND-UP

IN no other year has the Pendleton Round-Up shown such popularity. In no other year, from all accounts, have the events of the show been so thoroughly the events of the real prairies.

THE AGE OF FIFTY

ARNOLD BENNETT, the English novelist, says the man of 50 has reached the interesting age. Lowell said he hasn't much hope after rounding that cape.

PORTLAND AND THE ORIENT

THE Hamburg-American steamship Brigavia, which docked in Portland harbor yesterday, has a capacity of 10,600 tons. She brought 500 tons of cargo to Portland.

THE SUNDAY DINNER

KANSAS university philosophers have started a crusade against the big Sunday dinner. Their slogan is, "Plain living and high thinking for the Sabbath motto of Kansas." Thousands of women have expressed faith in the slogan and are following it.

ly toward the good Quakers; Chicago boys will better understand Catholicism. Nothing can be very sinful which gladdens the heart and broadens the sympathies.

IMMORAL PLAYS

TWO plays, "The Lure" and "The Fight," have stirred New York's moral foundation. Both are condemned as immoral; both are commended as educative of morals.

SECRETARY LANE AND THE PUBLIC DOMAIN

By Honore Wille in Harper's Weekly. There is a renascence in Washington. It has to do with a matter of things, but it really touches the rebirth of simplicity.

A GENTLEMAN NATION

By Dr. Frank Crane. (Copyright, 1913, by Frank Crane.) The nations of Europe still labor under the error that they are the leaders of civilization.

NEWS FORECAST FOR THE COMING WEEK

Washington, D. C., Sept. 13.—The high court of impeachment, composed of the judges of the court of appeals and the members of the state senate, will meet Thursday for the trial of Governor William Sulzer of New York.

IN EARLIER DAYS

By Fred Lockley. "You often hear people nowadays talk about what a good time the pioneers had," said Mrs. Mary Stewart at her home in Corvallis.

her husband scattered throughout the house, waits on her like lord at odd intervals, goes to church, cooks a big dinner, washes the dishes and drops into a chair exhausted.

SECRETARY LANE AND THE PUBLIC DOMAIN

By Honore Wille in Harper's Weekly. There is a renascence in Washington. It has to do with a matter of things, but it really touches the rebirth of simplicity.

A GENTLEMAN NATION

By Dr. Frank Crane. (Copyright, 1913, by Frank Crane.) The nations of Europe still labor under the error that they are the leaders of civilization.

NEWS FORECAST FOR THE COMING WEEK

Washington, D. C., Sept. 13.—The high court of impeachment, composed of the judges of the court of appeals and the members of the state senate, will meet Thursday for the trial of Governor William Sulzer of New York.

IN EARLIER DAYS

By Fred Lockley. "You often hear people nowadays talk about what a good time the pioneers had," said Mrs. Mary Stewart at her home in Corvallis.

most of the facts are negative, and only the exceptions are positive. The very meaning of "heredity" is not understood. If any quality is truly hereditary, then it is always hereditary. It never occurs except in the results of heredity.

SECRETARY LANE AND THE PUBLIC DOMAIN

By Honore Wille in Harper's Weekly. There is a renascence in Washington. It has to do with a matter of things, but it really touches the rebirth of simplicity.

A GENTLEMAN NATION

By Dr. Frank Crane. (Copyright, 1913, by Frank Crane.) The nations of Europe still labor under the error that they are the leaders of civilization.

NEWS FORECAST FOR THE COMING WEEK

Washington, D. C., Sept. 13.—The high court of impeachment, composed of the judges of the court of appeals and the members of the state senate, will meet Thursday for the trial of Governor William Sulzer of New York.

IN EARLIER DAYS

By Fred Lockley. "You often hear people nowadays talk about what a good time the pioneers had," said Mrs. Mary Stewart at her home in Corvallis.

eventually none can forestall; but in the process there will be some who will dogmatically contend that "Whatever is right, is right," and others who will march under the red flag of revenge and exploitation.

SECRETARY LANE AND THE PUBLIC DOMAIN

By Honore Wille in Harper's Weekly. There is a renascence in Washington. It has to do with a matter of things, but it really touches the rebirth of simplicity.

A GENTLEMAN NATION

By Dr. Frank Crane. (Copyright, 1913, by Frank Crane.) The nations of Europe still labor under the error that they are the leaders of civilization.

NEWS FORECAST FOR THE COMING WEEK

Washington, D. C., Sept. 13.—The high court of impeachment, composed of the judges of the court of appeals and the members of the state senate, will meet Thursday for the trial of Governor William Sulzer of New York.

IN EARLIER DAYS

By Fred Lockley. "You often hear people nowadays talk about what a good time the pioneers had," said Mrs. Mary Stewart at her home in Corvallis.

"The Dalles will soon be manufacturing pulping at the Dalles 40 machines. The Dalles 40 pulping machinery for the manufacture of this product is being installed and active work will be started soon.