

DOCK COMMISSION TO OBTAIN OPINION UPON BUDGET ESTIMATES

Expense Matter Will Be Referred to City Attorney, in Near Future.

Before the public dock commission approves the budget of expenses estimated for 14 months following January 1, 1914, it will secure an opinion from the city attorney to learn whether it has power to include in its budget the expenses of the first four months of 1915. If it does have this power then the commission's funds will not be exhausted before the taxes of 1915 begin to be paid in.

The expense budget, estimated from January 1, 1914, until March 1, 1915, and submitted yesterday, totals $207,337.31, including the interest on bonds which will be sold if the commission's bond issue is decided favorably to it by the state supreme court. The estimate includes the following items:

For two semi-annual interest payments at 4 1/2 per cent on $50,000 dock bonds, series "A".....	2,250.00
For 2 per cent sinking fund on $50,000 dock bonds, series "A".....	1,000.00
For two semi-annual interest payments at 4 1/2 per cent on $1,250,000 dock bonds, series "B".....	68,250.00
For 2 per cent sinking fund on $1,250,000 dock bonds, series "B".....	25,000.00
For two semi-annual interest payments at 5 per cent on proposed issue of $1,200,000 dock bonds.....	60,000.00
For 2 per cent sinking fund on proposed issue of $1,200,000 dock bonds.....	24,000.00
Allowing 4 1/2 per cent for delinquencies.....	1168,500.00
Amount to be levied for payments of interest and sinking funds.....	7,939.79
For administration, salaries and general office expenses.....	11,500.00
For maintenance and operation of public docks under construction.....	19,397.52
.....	$207,337.31

The commission has expected to have both east and west side public docks completed by 1915.

MAMMOTH MUSKMELONS FROM LYLE, WASH.

Lyle, Wash., Sept. 19.—Muskmelons as big as watermelons and luscious and firm, are a product of the Lowry Armstrong farm near Lyle. Two melons picked this week and sent to the S. P. & S. railroad company at Portland for exhibit, measured 28 inches from tip to tip when placed end to end.

These two specimens are by no means the only ones of large growth to be found in this section, in which such products thrive. The Lyle district is suitable for the growing of all fruit and vegetables.

EMERGENCY BOARD WILL MEET NEXT FRIDAY

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)
Salem, Or., Sept. 19.—Complying with the request of Governor West, a meeting of the emergency board has been called by Secretary of State Ben W. Olcott, secretary of the board, for next Friday. The meeting is called to act on the request of the governor for funds to continue his law enforcement activities. The members of the board are the governor, secretary of state, state treasurer, President Dan Malarkey of the senate, Speaker C. N. McArthur of the house, Chairman T. L. Perkins of the senate committee on ways and means, and Chairman J. D. Abbott of the house ways and means committee.

ONE DRUNK IN FIVE MONTHS NOT SO BAD

"Once in five months isn't so bad," commented Judge Stevenson in Municipal court this morning, when John Kram appeared before him and admitted that he was "good and drunk" last evening. "Were you ever here before me, previous to today," asked the court. "Not before you, Judge, but I was here about five months ago," answered Kram. "Well, your honesty is commendable and you may go," answered the judge.

You Can't Beat It.

"Rum and Pine," the remedy that cures a cough, while other remedies merely think about, is the only remedy in Oregon that will cure your cough in time for you to catch another before the weather changes. In the language of the lad who carries his wit on the ends of his fingers, it gets busy quick. Half of Portland can tell you about "Rum and Pine." See the bottle, at the Clemenson Drug Co., cor. POWERS BLEEDS FREELY WHEN AX CUTS ARM

Centralia, Wash., Sept. 19.—Mike Powers, a member of a crew of Centralia engineers working on the local water plant on the Newaukum river above Forest, was walking through the woods yesterday with an ax over his shoulder when he tripped and fell, the blade severing an artery in his arm. One of the crew telephoned Dr. David Livingstone in this city. The physician pressed an automobile into service and the trip to the camp was made in 39 minutes. The bleeding was stopped temporarily, after which Powers was placed in the machine and rushed to this city.
