We don't know what to do with supplies."

With all early requirements of oats and barley exported taken care of at this time, indications point to a slight lowering of values. Now that two of the big exporters have forced another interest to pay for the "licking" they received a year ago, the outlook is not so strong, although it is still quite possible that revenge may force values up again.

THROUGH RATES WILL BE MADE BY RAILROAD ON ORIENTAL TRAFFIC

Effect Will Not Affect Local Shippers but Will Increase Tonnage of This Port. Los Angeles, Sept. 26 .- Both sides in

"The significance of the readjustment is not at all great," continued Mr. Miller. "It merely allows a straight tariff through to the orient, with differentials have been regular attendants at the adjusted so that all Pacific coast ports may get an even chance. A good deal of traffic, of course, will be routed through Portland, but Portland handlers will not notice any difference."

The reduction is believed to be a re-sult of a conference of steamship officials representing practically all the Pacific coast lines, held at the Multnomah hotel some months ago in which the movement for uniform differentials was set afoot to avoid complications at the port of destination. Mr. Miller said so far no negotiations had been made with the steamship lines, but expected these negotiations would follow.

was lying near. Examination proved that none of the bullets touched Rief, al-though he thought he was badly A few minutes later wounded. Rief found himself in the police station. "What caused you to do the
