

SOCIAL EVENTS of the WEEK

delightful affairs for the coming winter. Plans for the "International Fete" which will be held next Wednesday and Thursday, September 24 and 25, at the Holy Redeemer hall, corner of Portland boulevard and Vancouver avenue, are being completed. From all indications it promises to be a very delightful affair, and the ladies of the parish deserve a great deal of credit for the amount of work and thought they have put into it. Mrs. P. E. Sullivan will have charge of the Irish booth, assisted by Miss Margaret Crowe. Miss Janice Harney and Mrs. C. D. Wilson. Miss N. Hogan will have charge of the Japanese booth, assisted by Miss Loretta Tompkins, Miss Ione Wilson, Miss Helen Littlejohn, Miss Leah Wilson, Mrs. J. C. Eulberg, Mrs. J. D. Conlogue and Mrs. W. J. Prendergast.

The Alaska booth will be presided over by Mrs. M. G. Clancy, and her assistants will be Miss Hannah Donnerberg, Miss May Clancy and Mrs. L. L. Littlejohn. The fancy work booth will be in charge of Mrs. F. X. Ledoux, assisted by Miss Mayette, Miss Lucia Ledoux and Miss Moore. Mrs. J. Winthrop Terry will have charge of the candy booth, assisted by Mrs. W. G. Clarke.

Mrs. George Deardorff, who was honored with a party this week on the event of her 68th birthday.

The Corriente club will hold their next meeting at the home of Mrs. C. L. Sarno 1073 Cleveland avenue, next Tuesday. Luncheon will be served, and a delightful program has been arranged for the afternoon.

Miss Mae Hopkins left Friday morning for Salem where she will resume her duties as teacher in the high school.

Mrs. Dillon Rogers entertained in a very charming manner Monday evening, in honor of her sister, Miss Nan Hunter, who has just returned from an extended southern trip. The decorations were especially attractive, bowls of dainty pink roses, being used in all the rooms. Among those who enjoyed Mrs. Rogers' hospitality were: Miss Nan Hunter, Miss Mae Morris, Miss Nina Killingsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Morris, W. H. Rogers, Frank Morris, and Earnest Morris.

Mrs. C. L. Sarno was a delightful hostess Monday afternoon when she entertained with a theatre party and tea. Mrs. Sarno's guests were: Miss Fay Killingsworth, Miss Nell Peterson, Miss May Peel, Miss Lou Killingsworth, Miss Dora Harkins, and Miss Jess Peterson.

Mrs. D. L. McDaniels with her small son, David, will leave in October for San Francisco to join Mr. McDaniels who left the first of this month. They expect to make their home in the Bay City.

Mrs. Wencke of 1465 Mallory avenue entertained with an informal tea Friday, honoring her sister, Miss Elsa Hunter, who has been visiting in Portland for the past six weeks. Miss Hoffman left on Saturday for her home in T. Louis.

The ladies of the Piedmont Presbyterian church held their annual mission-ary tea at the Manse on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Edward C. Jehn, assistant secretary of the Louise Home, gave a very interesting talk on her work, and urged the ladies to assist in the annual day, which will be held Saturday, October 4. A delightful musical program was rendered during the afternoon by Miss Margaret Gibson, Miss Taylor, and Miss Snyder, with Miss Jessie Wilson as accompanist. And later a silver offering was taken. The rooms looked very attractive with masses of autumn leaves and bright hued dahlias. In the dining room Mrs. J. O. Gibson and Mrs. Lawrence poured, and they were assisted by Mrs. McAnde and Mrs. Reynolds.

ROSE CITY PARK

Among some of the more recent residents of Rose City Park are Mrs. E. F. Gilstrap, 555 East Fifty-first street, formerly of Irvington, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Danley, 640 East Fifty-second street, from Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Dayton, 525 East Fifty-fifth street, formerly of Wilson, Mrs. M. and Mrs. E. L. Lueddemann, son, Dan, 609 East Fifty-fifth street, from Colorado Springs, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Allen, 619 East Fifty-sixth street, formerly of Spokane, Mrs. A. F. Moore, son, Virgil, and the Misses Arlie, Katherine and Jess at 634 East Fifty-sixth street, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Horner, 639 East Fifty-sixth street, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Harris, 626 East Fifty-sixth street.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Rose City Park Presbyterian church will hold its first meeting of the season next Wednesday afternoon at Vincent's hall, corner of Forty-third street and Sandy boulevard.

Mrs. W. O. Freeman, 485 Forty-fifth street, with her children, Maxine Kenneth and Miss Dorothy, returned home Sunday evening from a three months' absence in the east. Mrs. Toby of New York city returned with them and is their house guest.

Ray Ben McMin, 405 East Forty-seventh street, went yesterday to Corvallis to attend the O. A. C.

Thursday evening, September 11, Mrs. H. G. Parker and Jennison Parker, 522 East Sixty-fifth street north, returned from a two months' visit in Minnesota. Mrs. Parker's brother, Fred Bowen, of Minneapolis, will be with them for some time.

The Rose City Park Birthday club was entertained at luncheon Wednesday by Mrs. O. L. Ferris at her home on East Forty-second street north. Mrs. Toby of New York was the guest of honor.

Friday morning Miss Anna May Thompson of East Fifty-first street, near Sandy boulevard, and Miss Grace McMin, 405 East Forty-seventh street north, left for southern Oregon, where they are to teach the coming term. Miss Thompson at Grants Pass, Miss McMin at Albany.

Mrs. J. Bryson Moore, 1282 Alameda drive, was hostess Wednesday afternoon at a most enjoyable 500 party. The rooms were tastefully decorated with autumn suggestions, the living room autumn foliage, pink and white asters and sweet peas, the dining room foliage and yellow nasturtiums. Cards were played at four tables by Mrs. R. E. Dennison, Mrs. William Milligan, Mrs. W. A. Lovett, Mrs. Elmer C. Johnson,

Mr. Patrick J. Smith, formerly Miss Katherine Mary Dernbach, who was married last Monday in San Francisco.

Mrs. E. N. Satterfield, Mrs. A. R. Beeson, Mrs. D. A. Milne, Mrs. Charles B. Duffey, Mrs. J. Zehnbauer, Mrs. M. Herron, Mrs. J. Dilk, Mrs. B. Malling, Miss Malling, Mrs. Davies and Mrs. Chiem. Mrs. Dennison was the winner of the first prize, Mrs. Milligan the consolation.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Gauglier, 606 East Fifty-eighth street north, entertained a dinner Saturday evening at the Automobile club for Mr. and Mrs. L. Hutchins, who are leaving for San Francisco for two years.

Mrs. Sidney C. White, 1420 The Alameda, has had as her guests Mrs. T. W. Elliott, Master Roger and little Jean from Kallispell, Mont.

Mrs. Haldane Dickson entertained the Ladies Guild of St. Michael's Episcopal church Wednesday at a picnic at her home on the Base Line road. About 30 ladies enjoyed the holiday.

The women's department of the Rose City Park club has chosen the second and fourth Monday afternoons of each month for parties, the fourth Monday to be card afternoon, the second some other form of entertainment. Tomorrow is the fourth, therefore plans are made for a very pleasant card party for club members and friends. Mrs. Philo L. Jones is chairman of arrangements, assisted by Mrs. Floyd J. Campbell, and Mrs. W. E. Carlton, Mrs. M. Gauglier, Mrs. C. W. Steele, Mrs. F. T. Houk and Mrs. Sidney C. White have charge of the refreshments.

Leo Conlin, 526 East Forty-first street north, has just completed a six weeks' engagement as soloist at one of the theatres in Salem. He leaves tomorrow to fill a similar position in Albany.

Tuesday evening the Rose City Assembly of United Artisans held a meeting at Vincent's hall with special initiation work put on by the University Park cadet team and officers.

The opening party for the fall and winter season of the Rose City Park club will occur Friday evening, September 26, at the club house. It is to be an informal evening with dancing and cards for the club members and guests. The first children's dancing party will be the following Friday evening, October 3, for members' children and guests. The first Friday evening of each month is to be for the children.

A special meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of Rose City Park M. E. church was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. W. De Young, Fifty-first street north and The Alameda, Circle 2 of the aid met Monday evening with Mrs. Norris H. Atchison, 635 East Forty-fourth street north. Circles 1 and 3 had a pure food sale yesterday at the Rose City Park drug store at Fifty-second and Sandy boulevard.

A most enjoyable beach party was given Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Birney R. West, who have recently moved from East Sixtieth street to their cozy home at the foot of Horney street. Corn was roasted at a large bonfire made on the beach in the rear of their houseboat. Delightful refreshments were served inside, followed by music. The invited guests from Rose City Park were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Thresher, Mrs. Carrie Bates, Mrs. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick T. Houk, Mrs. Deane, Miss Florence Deane, Clayton Deane, Mr. and Mrs. W. Sheridan Wilson, Clyde Wilson, Mrs. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Myron E. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur T. Himes, Mr. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney C. White, Miss Mary Corbin and Miss Mollie Walsh.

The defeated team in the membership contest for the Rose City Park club feted the winners at a beautifully appointed luncheon Wednesday in the spacious dining room at the club. The decorations were in green and yellow with just a suggestion of brown. The long table was centered with a large candelabrum shaded in green with yellow 4 o'clocks. The place cards were done in the same colors.

There was music the guests found their places and following the luncheon Mrs. Clyde Meach gave vocal selections. The hostesses or losers were Mrs. Arthur Laidlaw, captain; Mrs. Sam J. Silverman, Mrs. V. G. Ripley, Mrs. C. C. Shay, Mrs. Morris Bromberger, Mrs. Harry Brown, Mrs. Elmer C. Johnson, Mrs. George B. Raymond, Mrs. E. P. Allshaw, Mrs. J. B. Moore, Mrs. D. A. Milne, Mrs. Mann and Mrs. Philo E. Jones; the victors were Mrs. Frank Schlegel, captain; Mrs. Max Smith, Mrs. H. J. Blaesing, Mrs. Fred Brookler, Mrs. Carl Christensen, Mrs. F. T. Houk, Mrs. James C. Logan, Mrs. Franklin Perry, Mrs. W. A. Lovett, Mrs. George Perkins, Mrs. V. M. C. Silva, Mrs. J. A. McDonald, Mrs. Frank E. Miller and Mrs. Goughier. A most delightful afternoon was enjoyed by all the winners and losers.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Alderson, 577 East Fifty-second street north, are spending the week end in Tacoma and Seattle.

Charles W. Steele, 585 East Fifty-second street north, was in Spokane part of the past week.

WEDDINGS

One of the pretty home weddings of the week was that of Miss Helena Earles Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Scott, and William Henry Blake, son of Rev. P. H. Blake, who performed the ceremony, on Friday, September 19, at the bride's home, 87 East Sixty-ninth street. The bride wore cream tulle, trimmed with lace. Mr. and Mrs. Blake left for a short trip and will be at home to their friends after November 1, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott and their son Carrie will leave for Kankakee, Ill., on Monday, September 22, where they will make their future home. Mr. Scott is plant in a furniture manufacturing plant at that place.

A wedding of interest to Portlanders was solemnized last Monday morning at 9 o'clock in St. Theresa's Catholic church, San Francisco, when Miss Katharine Mary Dernbach became the bride of Mr. Patrick J. Smith, Rev. Father Gaudet officiating. A nuptial mass was celebrated after the wedding service.

The bride looked beautiful in a gown of cream Charmeuse trimmed with duchesse lace. She wore a picture hat and carried orange blossoms. Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Marshall, cousins of Mr. Smith, were the only attendants.

An elaborate wedding breakfast was served at the home of the groom's aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Moran, 924 Minnesota avenue, immediately after the service, where places were set for 20. From 2 to 3 a reception was held, Mr. and Mrs. Smith left late in the evening for Los Angeles and Southern California. They will be at home to their friends after October 7, at 1884 McAllister street, San Francisco.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Smith have lived in Portland for a number of years, and have a host of friends here.

Miss Dorothy Davenport (Eva Horats), a charming young local soprano with a wide circle of friends and admirers, was married September 11 to Harry K. Evenson, the well known director of the Pantheon theatre orchestra.

A quiet home wedding took place Wednesday afternoon, September 17, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Stipe, 943 Hawthorne avenue, when their daughter, Miss Ione L. Stipe, was united in marriage to Roderick M. McCalley, by the Rev. J. J. Staub, D. D., of the Sunnyside Congregational church.

The wedding of Rev. Henry Marcotte, pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church in Irvington, and Miss Mary Wiggins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wiggins, took place Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, 751 Clackamas street, Dr. W. S. Holt officiating.

Following the ceremony the couple left for a week's honeymoon journey. They are keeping their destination secret.

During Rev. Marcotte's absence Dr. Holt will fill the Westminster pulpit.

Married at the Centenary Methodist parsonage, 644 East Ankeny street, Wednesday evening, September 17, at 8 o'clock in the presence of friends, Gerard William Stein and Miss Ada Wayne Lakin. The Rev. Delmer H. Trimble performing the ceremony.

The marriage of John B. Midden, a prominent young business man from Springfield, Ill., and Miss Gertrude Trutter, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beckhouse, was solemnized Tuesday, September 16 in St. Lawrence church at 9 a. m.

Father J. B. Wand an old friend of their respective families came over from eastern Oregon to perform the ceremony.

The church was richly decorated and the well known choir of the church sang a spiritual mass. The best man was Austin W. Wiams and the bridesmaid was Miss Clara Vogelsang from Springfield, Ill.

A royal reception was given at the home of Mr. Charles Beckhouse, 805 First street and toward evening the happy newly weds started on their honeymoon through California and back to Springfield, Illinois where they will make their future home.

Married at the Portland Hotel September 17, Miss Nettie Ricker of Union, O., and Arthur J. Baird of Kirkland, Wash. Rev. Benjamin Young, pastor of First M. E. church, officiating.

A very delightful wedding service was witnessed by the close friends and relatives of the contracting parties at 998 East Ninth street, north, on Sunday evening, September 14, in the marriage of Raymond A. Culton and Agnes E. Carse. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. S. Bollinger, of the Highland Congregational church. Mr. and Mrs. Culton will be at home to their friends at 714 Gilliam street after October 1.

Miss Henrietta Rothchild was married Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock to Arthur Senders at the Portland hotel parlors. An assemblage of friends and relatives including about 80 guests in all, witnessed the ceremony. The bride was artistically decorated in autumn carnations and autumn foliage. About 50 of the bride and bridegroom's relatives and intimate friends were present at the ceremony. Rev. W. S. Ken officiated. The bride was stunning in her gown of white lace with a band of rosebuds in her hair.

Miss Jeanette Gansko and Gus Loeb were married last Sunday night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Gansko, by the Rev. Dr. Bloch. The service was followed by a large reception.

The bride was beautifully gowned in white Charmeuse with real lace trimming and seed pearl embroidery. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and orange blossoms. Her maids were Miss Fannie Gettman and Miss Hattie Goldman. The groom was attended by Charles Cole and Barnett Goldstein ushered the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Loeb left immediately for Seaside for the wedding trip. They will be at home after two weeks at 352 College street.

Thursday evening at 8 o'clock the wedding of Miss Florence Taubenhelmer and Emmanuel May was solemnized at the Oregon hotel in the pink drawing room. Rev. Jonah B. Wise read the ceremony before a gathering of relatives and intimate friends. An elaborate dinner followed. Miss Mabel Taubenhelmer, a sister of the bride, was the only attendant.

They went to the sound and British Columbia for a few weeks, to return in October to prepare for an extended visit abroad.

A luncheon was given at the Hazelwood Thursday in honor of McKinley Kane, a well known University of Oregon student, who left Friday evening on an extended trip throughout the east. Those present were: Carleton Spencer, Blaine Hildock, Louis Mills, Harry Peares, McKinley Kane, Beth Smith, Raymond Singletary, Charles Hohit, Thomas Ryan, Lewis Lundberg, Charles Hodges, Emmett Gillespie, Walter Stott, Max Taylor, Rudolph Cabell, Walter Nollander, Joseph Kehoe, Louis Streck, Jr., Arthur Langguth, C. R. Meloney, Walter Gillard, Herbert Cooke, Chester Campbell, Leroy McDuffee and Walter McGuirk. Mr. Kane will be in the east about six weeks. While there he will attend the annual convention of Theta Lambda, Phi legal fraternity at the Hotel La Salle, Chicago, on September 26.

A delightful surprise party was given to Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford, of 727 East Eighteenth street. A very enjoyable evening was passed with games and dancing. William Phillips called for the dances. Among those present were Miss Margaret Steuart, Ernest Kinkle, Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Ebeling, Miss Bertha Bushnell, Budd Gallagher, John Frazer, Mr. and Mrs. Croall, P. A. Stewart, William Phillips, Miss Martha Bushnell and Mr. and Mrs. McDaniels.

Little Billy Roberts on East Forty-fifth street celebrated his first birthday anniversary, September 18. His guests were: Lucy Rowling, Billy Conely, Catherine Dodson, Marion Davies, Florence May Chisholm, Harry Chisholm, Catherine Suterfield, Dorothy Conly, Jack Foley, Millard Rowlings. They played games.

Mrs. Mae C. Beaver gave a luncheon in honor of her niece, Mrs. George A. B. Walker, a recent bride at her attractive apartments in the Cumberland. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George A. B. Walker, Miss Ruth M. Walker, Mrs. Church C. Smith, Mrs. J. E. Harvey, Mrs. Mae C. Beaver, Mrs. B. Trenton of Roseburg Or.

Mrs. Rose Goldberg received Sunday, September 14, the occasion being the announcing of the engagement of her sister, Miss Sophie Rosenbaum to Mr. Sam Adler. Quite a number of the friends of Mrs. Goldberg and her sister called during the evening and many valuable presents were received.

An outsider, by chance straying into the midst of the gathering at the home of the genial writer, poetry and prose, Mrs. June McMillan Ordway, on Monday evening, might well have been bewildered. Not particularly by the bright and shining literary lights, but by the diversity of local talent represented there. The occasion was that of a reception tendered by the members of the State Woman's Press club to their youngest member, Miss Mary Davies. Miss Davies has returned from a very successful year at Berkeley, where she more than paid her way by her pen with enough margin to his way to the center of the literary market, where she will continue to ply her pen while abroad.

(Continued on following page.)

EVENTS OF THE WEEK

A luncheon was given at the Hazelwood Thursday in honor of McKinley Kane, a well known University of Oregon student, who left Friday evening on an extended trip throughout the east. Those present were: Carleton Spencer, Blaine Hildock, Louis Mills, Harry Peares, McKinley Kane, Beth Smith, Raymond Singletary, Charles Hohit, Thomas Ryan, Lewis Lundberg, Charles Hodges, Emmett Gillespie, Walter Stott, Max Taylor, Rudolph Cabell, Walter Nollander, Joseph Kehoe, Louis Streck, Jr., Arthur Langguth, C. R. Meloney, Walter Gillard, Herbert Cooke, Chester Campbell, Leroy McDuffee and Walter McGuirk. Mr. Kane will be in the east about six weeks. While there he will attend the annual convention of Theta Lambda, Phi legal fraternity at the Hotel La Salle, Chicago, on September 26.

A delightful surprise party was given to Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford, of 727 East Eighteenth street. A very enjoyable evening was passed with games and dancing. William Phillips called for the dances. Among those present were Miss Margaret Steuart, Ernest Kinkle, Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Ebeling, Miss Bertha Bushnell, Budd Gallagher, John Frazer, Mr. and Mrs. Croall, P. A. Stewart, William Phillips, Miss Martha Bushnell and Mr. and Mrs. McDaniels.

Little Billy Roberts on East Forty-fifth street celebrated his first birthday anniversary, September 18. His guests were: Lucy Rowling, Billy Conely, Catherine Dodson, Marion Davies, Florence May Chisholm, Harry Chisholm, Catherine Suterfield, Dorothy Conly, Jack Foley, Millard Rowlings. They played games.

Mrs. Mae C. Beaver gave a luncheon in honor of her niece, Mrs. George A. B. Walker, a recent bride at her attractive apartments in the Cumberland. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George A. B. Walker, Miss Ruth M. Walker, Mrs. Church C. Smith, Mrs. J. E. Harvey, Mrs. Mae C. Beaver, Mrs. B. Trenton of Roseburg Or.

Mrs. Rose Goldberg received Sunday, September 14, the occasion being the announcing of the engagement of her sister, Miss Sophie Rosenbaum to Mr. Sam Adler. Quite a number of the friends of Mrs. Goldberg and her sister called during the evening and many valuable presents were received.

An outsider, by chance straying into the midst of the gathering at the home of the genial writer, poetry and prose, Mrs. June McMillan Ordway, on Monday evening, might well have been bewildered. Not particularly by the bright and shining literary lights, but by the diversity of local talent represented there. The occasion was that of a reception tendered by the members of the State Woman's Press club to their youngest member, Miss Mary Davies. Miss Davies has returned from a very successful year at Berkeley, where she more than paid her way by her pen with enough margin to his way to the center of the literary market, where she will continue to ply her pen while abroad.

(Continued on following page.)

A luncheon was given at the Hazelwood Thursday in honor of McKinley Kane, a well known University of Oregon student, who left Friday evening on an extended trip throughout the east. Those present were: Carleton Spencer, Blaine Hildock, Louis Mills, Harry Peares, McKinley Kane, Beth Smith, Raymond Singletary, Charles Hohit, Thomas Ryan, Lewis Lundberg, Charles Hodges, Emmett Gillespie, Walter Stott, Max Taylor, Rudolph Cabell, Walter Nollander, Joseph Kehoe, Louis Streck, Jr., Arthur Langguth, C. R. Meloney, Walter Gillard, Herbert Cooke, Chester Campbell, Leroy McDuffee and Walter McGuirk. Mr. Kane will be in the east about six weeks. While there he will attend the annual convention of Theta Lambda, Phi legal fraternity at the Hotel La Salle, Chicago, on September 26.

A delightful surprise party was given to Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford, of 727 East Eighteenth street. A very enjoyable evening was passed with games and dancing. William Phillips called for the dances. Among those present were Miss Margaret Steuart, Ernest Kinkle, Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Ebeling, Miss Bertha Bushnell, Budd Gallagher, John Frazer, Mr. and Mrs. Croall, P. A. Stewart, William Phillips, Miss Martha Bushnell and Mr. and Mrs. McDaniels.

Little Billy Roberts on East Forty-fifth street celebrated his first birthday anniversary, September 18. His guests were: Lucy Rowling, Billy Conely, Catherine Dodson, Marion Davies, Florence May Chisholm, Harry Chisholm, Catherine Suterfield, Dorothy Conly, Jack Foley, Millard Rowlings. They played games.

Mrs. Mae C. Beaver gave a luncheon in honor of her niece, Mrs. George A. B. Walker, a recent bride at her attractive apartments in the Cumberland. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George A. B. Walker, Miss Ruth M. Walker, Mrs. Church C. Smith, Mrs. J. E. Harvey, Mrs. Mae C. Beaver, Mrs. B. Trenton of Roseburg Or.

Mrs. Rose Goldberg received Sunday, September 14, the occasion being the announcing of the engagement of her sister, Miss Sophie Rosenbaum to Mr. Sam Adler. Quite a number of the friends of Mrs. Goldberg and her sister called during the evening and many valuable presents were received.

An outsider, by chance straying into the midst of the gathering at the home of the genial writer, poetry and prose, Mrs. June McMillan Ordway, on Monday evening, might well have been bewildered. Not particularly by the bright and shining literary lights, but by the diversity of local talent represented there. The occasion was that of a reception tendered by the members of the State Woman's Press club to their youngest member, Miss Mary Davies. Miss Davies has returned from a very successful year at Berkeley, where she more than paid her way by her pen with enough margin to his way to the center of the literary market, where she will continue to ply her pen while abroad.

(Continued on following page.)

A luncheon was given at the Hazelwood Thursday in honor of McKinley Kane, a well known University of Oregon student, who left Friday evening on an extended trip throughout the east. Those present were: Carleton Spencer, Blaine Hildock, Louis Mills, Harry Peares, McKinley Kane, Beth Smith, Raymond Singletary, Charles Hohit, Thomas Ryan, Lewis Lundberg, Charles Hodges, Emmett Gillespie, Walter Stott, Max Taylor, Rudolph Cabell, Walter Nollander, Joseph Kehoe, Louis Streck, Jr., Arthur Langguth, C. R. Meloney, Walter Gillard, Herbert Cooke, Chester Campbell, Leroy McDuffee and Walter McGuirk. Mr. Kane will be in the east about six weeks. While there he will attend the annual convention of Theta Lambda, Phi legal fraternity at the Hotel La Salle, Chicago, on September 26.

A delightful surprise party was given to Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford, of 727 East Eighteenth street. A very enjoyable evening was passed with games and dancing. William Phillips called for the dances. Among those present were Miss Margaret Steuart, Ernest Kinkle, Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Ebeling, Miss Bertha Bushnell, Budd Gallagher, John Frazer, Mr. and Mrs. Croall, P. A. Stewart, William Phillips, Miss Martha Bushnell and Mr. and Mrs. McDaniels.

Little Billy Roberts on East Forty-fifth street celebrated his first birthday anniversary, September 18. His guests were: Lucy Rowling, Billy Conely, Catherine Dodson, Marion Davies, Florence May Chisholm, Harry Chisholm, Catherine Suterfield, Dorothy Conly, Jack Foley, Millard Rowlings. They played games.

Mrs. Mae C. Beaver gave a luncheon in honor of her niece, Mrs. George A. B. Walker, a recent bride at her attractive apartments in the Cumberland. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George A. B. Walker, Miss Ruth M. Walker, Mrs. Church C. Smith, Mrs. J. E. Harvey, Mrs. Mae C. Beaver, Mrs. B. Trenton of Roseburg Or.

Mrs. Rose Goldberg received Sunday, September 14, the occasion being the announcing of the engagement of her sister, Miss Sophie Rosenbaum to Mr. Sam Adler. Quite a number of the friends of Mrs. Goldberg and her sister called during the evening and many valuable presents were received.

An outsider, by chance straying into the midst of the gathering at the home of the genial writer, poetry and prose, Mrs. June McMillan Ordway, on Monday evening, might well have been bewildered. Not particularly by the bright and shining literary lights, but by the diversity of local talent represented there. The occasion was that of a reception tendered by the members of the State Woman's Press club to their youngest member, Miss Mary Davies. Miss Davies has returned from a very successful year at Berkeley, where she more than paid her way by her pen with enough margin to his way to the center of the literary market, where she will continue to ply her pen while abroad.

(Continued on following page.)

A luncheon was given at the Hazelwood Thursday in honor of McKinley Kane, a well known University of Oregon student, who left Friday evening on an extended trip throughout the east. Those present were: Carleton Spencer, Blaine Hildock, Louis Mills, Harry Peares, McKinley Kane, Beth Smith, Raymond Singletary, Charles Hohit, Thomas Ryan, Lewis Lundberg, Charles Hodges, Emmett Gillespie, Walter Stott, Max Taylor, Rudolph Cabell, Walter Nollander, Joseph Kehoe, Louis Streck, Jr., Arthur Langguth, C. R. Meloney, Walter Gillard, Herbert Cooke, Chester Campbell, Leroy McDuffee and Walter McGuirk. Mr. Kane will be in the east about six weeks. While there he will attend the annual convention of Theta Lambda, Phi legal fraternity at the Hotel La Salle, Chicago, on September 26.

A delightful surprise party was given to Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford, of 727 East Eighteenth street. A very enjoyable evening was passed with games and dancing. William Phillips called for the dances. Among those present were Miss Margaret Steuart, Ernest Kinkle, Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Ebeling, Miss Bertha Bushnell, Budd Gallagher, John Frazer, Mr. and Mrs. Croall, P. A. Stewart, William Phillips, Miss Martha Bushnell and Mr. and Mrs. McDaniels.

Little Billy Roberts on East Forty-fifth street celebrated his first birthday anniversary, September 18. His guests were: Lucy Rowling, Billy Conely, Catherine Dodson, Marion Davies, Florence May Chisholm, Harry Chisholm, Catherine Suterfield, Dorothy Conly, Jack Foley, Millard Rowlings. They played games.

Mrs. Mae C. Beaver gave a luncheon in honor of her niece, Mrs. George A. B. Walker, a recent bride at her attractive apartments in the Cumberland. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George A. B. Walker, Miss Ruth M. Walker, Mrs. Church C. Smith, Mrs. J. E. Harvey, Mrs. Mae C. Beaver, Mrs. B. Trenton of Roseburg Or.

Mrs. Rose Goldberg received Sunday, September 14, the occasion being the announcing of the engagement of her sister, Miss Sophie Rosenbaum to Mr. Sam Adler. Quite a number of the friends of Mrs. Goldberg and her sister called during the evening and many valuable presents were received.

An outsider, by chance straying into the midst of the gathering at the home of the genial writer, poetry and prose, Mrs. June McMillan Ordway, on Monday evening, might well have been bewildered. Not particularly by the bright and shining literary lights, but by the diversity of local talent represented there. The occasion was that of a reception tendered by the members of the State Woman's Press club to their youngest member, Miss Mary Davies. Miss Davies has returned from a very successful year at Berkeley, where she more than paid her way by her pen with enough margin to his way to the center of the literary market, where she will continue to ply her pen while abroad.

(Continued on following page.)

A luncheon was given at the Hazelwood Thursday in honor of McKinley Kane, a well known University of Oregon student, who left Friday evening on an extended trip throughout the east. Those present were: Carleton Spencer, Blaine Hildock, Louis Mills, Harry Peares, McKinley Kane, Beth Smith, Raymond Singletary, Charles Hohit, Thomas Ryan, Lewis Lundberg, Charles Hodges, Emmett Gillespie, Walter Stott, Max Taylor, Rudolph Cabell, Walter Nollander, Joseph Kehoe, Louis Streck, Jr., Arthur Langguth, C. R. Meloney, Walter Gillard, Herbert Cooke, Chester Campbell, Leroy McDuffee and Walter McGuirk. Mr. Kane will be in the east about six weeks. While there he will attend the annual convention of Theta Lambda, Phi legal fraternity at the Hotel La Salle, Chicago, on September 26.

A delightful surprise party was given to Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford, of 727 East Eighteenth street. A very enjoyable evening was passed with games and dancing. William Phillips called for the dances. Among those present were Miss Margaret Steuart, Ernest Kinkle, Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Ebeling, Miss Bertha Bushnell, Budd Gallagher, John Frazer, Mr. and Mrs. Croall, P. A. Stewart, William Phillips, Miss Martha Bushnell and Mr. and Mrs. McDaniels.

Little Billy Roberts on East Forty-fifth street celebrated his first birthday anniversary, September 18. His guests were: Lucy Rowling, Billy Conely, Catherine Dodson, Marion Davies, Florence May Chisholm, Harry Chisholm, Catherine Suterfield, Dorothy Conly, Jack Foley, Millard Rowlings. They played games.

Mrs. Mae C. Beaver gave a luncheon in honor of her niece, Mrs. George A. B. Walker, a recent bride at her attractive apartments in the Cumberland. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George A. B. Walker, Miss Ruth M. Walker, Mrs. Church C. Smith, Mrs. J. E. Harvey, Mrs. Mae C. Beaver, Mrs. B. Trenton of Roseburg Or.

Mrs. Rose Goldberg received Sunday, September 14, the occasion being the announcing of the engagement of her sister, Miss Sophie Rosenbaum to Mr. Sam Adler. Quite a number of the friends of Mrs. Goldberg and her sister called during the evening and many valuable presents were received.

An outsider, by chance straying into the midst of the gathering at the home of the genial writer, poetry and prose, Mrs. June McMillan Ordway, on Monday evening, might well have been bewildered. Not particularly by the bright and shining literary lights, but by the diversity of local talent represented there. The occasion was that of a reception tendered by the members of the State Woman's Press club to their youngest member, Miss Mary Davies. Miss Davies has returned from a very successful year at Berkeley, where she more than paid her way by her pen with enough margin to his way to the center of the literary market, where she will continue to ply her pen while abroad.

(Continued on following page.)

A luncheon was given at the Hazelwood Thursday in honor of McKinley Kane, a well known University of Oregon student, who left Friday evening on an extended trip throughout the east. Those present were: Carleton Spencer, Blaine Hildock, Louis Mills, Harry Peares, McKinley Kane, Beth Smith, Raymond Singletary, Charles Hohit, Thomas Ryan, Lewis Lundberg, Charles Hodges, Emmett Gillespie, Walter Stott, Max Taylor, Rudolph Cabell, Walter Nollander, Joseph Kehoe, Louis Streck, Jr., Arthur Langguth, C. R. Meloney, Walter Gillard, Herbert Cooke, Chester Campbell, Leroy McDuffee and Walter McGuirk. Mr. Kane will be in the east about six weeks. While there he will attend the annual convention of Theta Lambda, Phi legal fraternity at the Hotel La Salle, Chicago, on September 26.

A delightful surprise party was given to Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford, of 727 East Eighteenth street. A very enjoyable evening was passed with games and dancing. William Phillips called for the dances. Among those present were Miss Margaret Steuart, Ernest Kinkle, Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Ebeling, Miss Bertha Bushnell, Budd Gallagher, John Frazer, Mr. and Mrs. Croall, P. A. Stewart, William Phillips, Miss Martha Bushnell and Mr. and Mrs. McDaniels.

Little Billy Roberts on East Forty-fifth street celebrated his first birthday anniversary, September 18. His guests were: Lucy Rowling, Billy Conely, Catherine Dodson, Marion Davies, Florence May Chisholm, Harry Chisholm, Catherine Suterfield, Dorothy Conly, Jack Foley, Millard Rowlings. They played games.

Mrs. Mae C. Beaver gave a luncheon in honor of her niece, Mrs. George A. B. Walker, a recent bride at her attractive apartments in the Cumberland. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George A. B. Walker, Miss Ruth M. Walker, Mrs. Church C. Smith, Mrs. J. E. Harvey, Mrs. Mae C. Beaver, Mrs. B. Trenton of Roseburg Or.

Mrs. Rose Goldberg received Sunday, September 14, the occasion being the announcing of the engagement of her sister, Miss Sophie Rosenbaum to Mr. Sam Adler. Quite a number of the friends of Mrs. Goldberg and her sister called during the evening and many valuable presents were received.

An outsider, by chance straying into the midst of the gathering at the home of the genial writer, poetry and prose, Mrs. June McMillan Ordway, on Monday evening, might well have been bewildered. Not particularly by the bright and shining literary lights, but by the diversity of local talent represented there. The occasion was that of a reception tendered by the members of the State Woman's Press club to their youngest member, Miss Mary Davies. Miss Davies has returned from a very successful year at Berkeley, where she more than paid her way by her pen with enough margin to his way to the center of the literary market, where she will continue to ply her pen while abroad.

(Continued on following page.)

Mrs. George Deardorff, who was honored with a party this week on the event of her 68th birthday.

Emmanuel May was solemnized at the Oregon hotel in the pink drawing room. Rev. Jonah B. Wise read the ceremony before a gathering of relatives and intimate friends. An elaborate dinner followed. Miss Mabel Taubenhelmer, a sister of the bride, was the only attendant.

They went to the sound and British Columbia for a few weeks, to return in October to prepare for an extended visit abroad.

A luncheon was given at the Hazelwood Thursday in honor of McKinley Kane, a well known University of Oregon student, who left Friday evening on an extended trip throughout the east. Those present were: Carleton Spencer, Blaine Hildock, Louis Mills, Harry Peares, McKinley Kane, Beth Smith, Raymond Singletary, Charles Hohit, Thomas Ryan, Lewis Lundberg, Charles Hodges, Emmett Gillespie, Walter Stott, Max Taylor, Rudolph Cabell, Walter Nollander, Joseph Kehoe, Louis Streck, Jr., Arthur Langguth, C. R. Meloney, Walter Gillard, Herbert Cooke, Chester Campbell, Leroy McDuffee and Walter McGuirk. Mr. Kane will be in the east about six weeks. While there he will attend the annual convention of Theta Lambda, Phi legal fraternity at the Hotel La Salle, Chicago, on September 26.

A delightful surprise party was given to Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford, of 727 East Eighteenth street. A very enjoyable evening was passed with games and dancing. William Phillips called for the dances. Among those present were Miss Margaret Steuart, Ernest Kinkle, Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Ebeling, Miss Bertha Bushnell, Budd Gallagher, John Frazer, Mr. and Mrs. Croall, P. A. Stewart, William Phillips, Miss Martha Bushnell and Mr. and Mrs. McDaniels.

Little Billy Roberts on East Forty-fifth street celebrated his first birthday anniversary, September 18. His guests were: Lucy Rowling, Billy Conely, Catherine Dodson, Marion Davies, Florence May Chisholm, Harry Chisholm, Catherine Suterfield, Dorothy Conly, Jack Foley, Millard Rowlings. They played games.

Mrs. Mae C. Beaver gave a luncheon in honor of her niece, Mrs. George A. B. Walker, a recent bride at her attractive apartments in the Cumberland. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George A. B. Walker, Miss Ruth M. Walker, Mrs. Church C. Smith, Mrs. J. E. Harvey, Mrs. Mae C. Beaver, Mrs. B. Trenton of Roseburg Or.

Mrs. Rose Goldberg received Sunday, September 14, the occasion being the announcing of the engagement of her sister, Miss