

A FIELD DAY WILL BE HELD BEFORE BEAVER-COLT GAME NEXT MONDAY

ATHLETIC PROGRAM IS TO BE STAGED AHEAD OF NICK-MACK JOUST

Beavers and Colts Will Engage in Championship Game on Monday; Also Be Benefit.

Next Monday afternoon the Beavers and Colts will settle the question as to which is the better Portland team. The contest will be staged on the Vaughn street grounds following field events, which start at 2:30 o'clock.

Carl Mays, Nick's star pitcher, will start the game against the Beavers, while Stanley will likely be used against his former team mates.

Manager McCredie will sit in his grandstand box and watch the contest. The judge and probably several other Northwestern league magnates will likely be in the stand.

The field events, which will precede the game, will consist of fudge hitting, accuracy throwing, base running and beating buns to first base.

Two seasons ago the Portland Coast champs defeated the Spokane North westerners by the score of 1 to 0. Krapp and Baker were the opposing pitchers. Last year the Beavers beat the Colts easily.

The game will also be in the nature of a benefit for the Colt and Beaver players, and it is hoped that a large crowd of the loyal fans will be out to the game.

Owing to the fact that the San Francisco club is due to arrive on the Shasta Limited on the 12:00 mile jaunt from Los Angeles, the Beaver-Seal game this afternoon will probably not get under way before 3:30 o'clock.

Relative to a rumor that Buddy Ryan, two years ago the idol of the Portland fans, would leave the Naps, President Somers, of the Cleveland club, yesterday informed the Cleveland correspondent of The Journal as follows: "There is little likelihood of Buddy Ryan being sold or traded to the White Sox."

Mr. and Mrs. J. Cal Ewing and daughter of San Francisco arrived in Seattle yesterday after a pleasant trip up the coast on the steamer President, during which the silver wedding of the Ewings was celebrated on board by the initiative of Purser Hopkins, who heard from an intimate friend that yesterday was the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage.

The owner of the San Francisco baseball club will be in Portland during the latter part of the week to see the Seals play the Beavers.

WILLIE HOPPE, PUG, IS NO "PIKER" WHEN IT COMES TO HIS BENEFIT

San Francisco, Sept. 23.—Willie Hoppe, a former pugilist for whom a benefit ball was given last Saturday night, caused the arrest today of Frank Worthington, manager of the benefit.

The specific charge is that Worthington withheld $57 of the receipts from the former prize fighter. Hoppe says that all he got of the $500 netted by the entertainment was $130. One thousand tickets, he says, were sold at 50 cents each. In addition to these, Worthington, according to Hoppe, sold another 1000 tickets and pocketed the proceeds. On July 3 Hoppe's hands were badly injured by the explosion of a toy cannon.

RAIN FALLS AFTER 1ST INNING, STOPS GAME

Manager Nick Will Give Recruits Chance to Work Against Spokane.

Spokane, Wash., Sept. 23.—The opening game of the Portland-Spokane series was postponed on account of rain. The two teams had played one inning when the Empire Outfield decided that the rain was falling too hard.

Nick Williams is well satisfied with the result of his team's showing. He sent Matt Hynes and Carl King home from Seattle in order to let them rest up for the contest with the Portland Beavers.

Nick will give Miel, his Oregon recruit, and Small, another twirler, a chance to show their skill against the locals during the closing series of the season.

Local and State Games

Striking out 35 batters in two games was the record established Sunday by Bobby Hewitt, ex-California State league twirler. Hewitt pitched for the Eagles team of the Meier & Frank league, and as a result of his good throwing the Eagles are now tied for the league championship with the U. S. Laundry team.

In the morning Hewitt and Winterbottom of the U. S. Laundry team engaged in a twirling duel. Hewitt's team mates winning, 3 to 2. Hewitt fanned 21 batters and Winterbottom 17.

In the afternoon the Eagles shut out the Pawnees, 7 to 0. Hewitt pitched against Loser and fanned 14 batters.

The Beaverton team clinched the championship of the A-W Senior league Sunday by defeating the Sunset team by the score of 8 to 1.

The Arme mills team defeated the Weonas by a 4 to 2 score. Telford pitched great ball but received poor support.

The St. Mary's team defeated the Columbia Park team by the score of 14 to 9.

The Silverwood and Timms-Cross teams played a tie game Sunday in their fight for the city championship. The score was 8 to 8. O'Dell was sent to the mound for the Painters and saved the game in the ninth.

WONDERFUL BOY GOLF CHAMPION IN ACTION

Francis Guimet, pronounced "Wemay," the former Brookline caddy, who defeated the British wizard, Harry Vardon, and the famous Edward Ray of England, last Saturday over the Brookline course for the American open championship, which, with the foreigners competing, is virtually the championship of the world. Eight thousand golf enthusiasts saw the 20-year-old boy defeat the men who were playing the game before he was born. Guimet's father is a Frenchman and his mother is Irish. His name now ranks with that of Maurice McLoughlin, champion of tennis, and Harry Payne Whitney, the polo leader.

Vardon won the national open championship in this country 13 years ago. He has five times been the English open champion. Ray won the English open championship once.

A coincidence of the fight for golf supremacy between the United States and England is that Guimet is a Massachusetts product and was comparatively unknown as was Heinrich Schmidt, also of Massachusetts, who forced Harold Hilton to the limit to defeat him in the match for the British amateur title in England this spring.

LEATA J., FROM COAST WINNER AT COLUMBUS

California Mare Shows Wonderful Burst of Speed in Hotel Stake.

Columbus, O., Sept. 23.—The victory of Leata J., a California mare, driven by Lou Childs, in the 2:13 pace, Hartman Hotel stake, was the feature of the opening program of the Grand Circuit meet here. Childs landed the California mare in front of the field in the second and third heats, and repeated again in the fifth. Frank Bogash, Jr., won the first heat, and Del Rey led the field in the fourth heat.

Leata J. showed a wonderful burst of speed and was credited with doing the last half mile of the event in 1:00 1/4. The results: 2:05 pace, 3 in 5—Directum I, 1, 1, 1, 1, 1; Walter Cochato, 7, 2, 2, 2, 2, 2; Flower Direct, 2, 5, 6, third. Best time, 2:04 1/4, in first heat.

2:11 trot, 3 in 5—Omar, 3, 2, 1, 1, 1, 1; first; Newzel, 1, 1, 2, 2, 4, second; Leo A. 2, 7, 5, 3, 2, third. Best time, 2:09 1/4, in second heat.

2:12 pace, 3 in 5—Leata J., 2, 1, 1, 2, 1, 1; first; Frank Bogash, Jr., 2, 2, 2, 2, 2, 2; second; Del Rey, 3, 2, 3, 1, 5, third. Best time, 2:05 1/4, second heat.

2:15 pace, 3 in 5, unfinished—Cleo B. 1, 1, 3; Zanibar, 3, 5, 1; Princess Margaret, 2, 2, 2. Best time, 2:08 1/4 in first heat.

FOOTBALL SEASON IN THE EAST WILL START IN EARNEST SEPT. 27

Yale Has First Game Tomorrow but Practically All Colleges Are Ready.

New York, Sept. 23.—Although a few college teams met on the gridiron last Saturday, the regular football season will not be opened until next Saturday, when Harvard, Princeton, Yale, Dartmouth, Pennsylvania, Brown, Dartmouth and Syracuse take the field in the east and Indiana, Minnesota and South Dakota enter into the first fray of the season in the west. Yale starts her season next Wednesday, when the Eli boys will play Westvay at New Haven and on the same date Cornell meets Ursinus at Ithaca.

While most of the eastern schools will get into action next Saturday, it will not be until the following week that the big teams of the more prominent western schools will make their first appearance in regular games. On October 4, Michigan, Nebraska, Chicago, Wisconsin, Notre Dame and Ohio State will throw their eleven into action. The first game of the Annapolis schedule is set for October 4 and is also the first game of Vanderbilt University.

Conditioning is important. The pre-season practice and conditioning of the players has become one of the most important parts of the game. In the west among the "conference" colleges there is a distinct race against time to get the conditioning started in the east it has been the rule to start work at the very earliest opportunity. Of late years there has been much discussion about this method of early practice and Yale was one of the loudest in condemnation of it. This year, however, the Eli boys were among the first to start in at regular practice.

The ignominious defeat by Harvard last year and the general slump which the Bulldogs has taken in the last two or three years was probably the cause for the issuance of the early call this year.

The early date it is practically impossible to get a line on the relative strength of the various eleven which will be thrown into the field next Saturday. The revolution at Yale, which led to the early practice has also changed the coaching system. The graduate coaching system, whereby the captain of one year's eleven was named as the coach for the succeeding year, has given way to the professional coach.

Howard Jones, who one time wore the blue with distinction, and more recently turned out some excellent gridiron machines at Syracuse, is in charge of the Eli warriors. Jones coached Yale in the fall of 1909, but after that the Blue returned to the graduate captain coach system with disastrous results.

Has Been Working Men. Jones has been giving his men a stiff workout in the last two weeks and Douglas Homelster and Carl Gallauer, the former stars, have been giving individual coaching to the linemen while Jesse Spaulding has handled the backfield. The squad this year is one of great promise, and when a more complete line-up of the team has been shown up for practice no one is assured of his position. The lineup for next Wednesday's game has not yet been given out. Ketcham, the captain who starred at center the past two seasons, is being worked on and a good deal of work will be done in the backfield and there is strong probability that he will start the season in either one of these two positions.

Percy Youngster started the Harvard youngsters at strenuous work more than a week ago and for work-out in Cambridge last spring. Captain Bob Storer made the statement that any man who hoped to make the Crimson eleven this fall would have to present himself in perfect condition. This evidently had the desired effect, for the squad was in the pink of work-out the first day of practice. Charley Brickley, the boy with the "educated toe," has lost none of his drop kicking form and will undoubtedly add to the many laurels he gained on the gridiron last fall.

Princeton Prospects Bright. Over half of last year's team, together with some promising material from the second varsity and freshman members make the prospects at Princeton very bright and promising for the coming season. By their defeat of Yale last year the Princeton men have become imbued with a confidence that spells trouble for the big teams they will meet on the striped field this year. Princeton has one of the heaviest schedules of any of the big eastern colleges. The Princeton eleven will meet both Dartmouth and Syracuse before the big games with Yale and Harvard. Dartmouth and Syracuse have been formidable foes on the eastern fields, especially the former, which has produced some teams of late years that rank with the best in the east.

The Princeton cadets under the tutelage of Lieutenant Daly, the ex-Harvard and West Point star, are looking forward to evening up the score with the navy. The cadets have only one game on the schedule before the clash with the midshipmen, which looks at all formidable, the game with Notre Dame on November 1. Both West Point and Annapolis are at a disadvantage in the football field owing to their limited time for practice and the fact that all games except the annual army-navy game, must be played at the home grounds. Yale has dropped the cadets from the schedule this year, because the army usually gave the Eli boys a tough struggle and there was nothing in it for Yale from a financial standpoint, as the games were all played at West Point. The middies, too, have only one heavy game before the final struggle with the army. On November 15, they meet Pennsylvania State college which, for the past few years has been throwing an exceptionally strong team into the field.

The Army-Navy game, the most prominent football battle in the country outside of Yale, has been a game of great interest and the number of spectators it attracts, will be played at the Polo grounds in New York on November 23. As a social event this game surpasses any other. Heretofore the annual clash has taken place on Franklin field, belonging to the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia, but this field has proved to be too small to accommodate the thousands who desire to see the game.

League Bowling to Start Soon. Matches in the Class A Bowling league will be started within the next two weeks. The captains of the teams met last evening and discussed the rules of the league. The schedule will be arranged as soon as it is definitely decided which teams will enter the league.

TY LOBER LEADS AND DERRICK LOWEST REG WITH AVERAGE OF .265

That's One of Reasons Why Beavers Are Showing Way to Other Coast Clubs.

San Francisco, Sept. 23.—Marcus Marcolowitz—Musky for short—tops the batters of the Pacific Coast league this week. Musky has a perfect record. He played in one game, was at bat once, made one hit, scored one run and stole three bases, which was as many bases as he could possibly steal in one time on the path. If Musky plays in no more games, which is possible, he will have the honor of appearing in the season's official averages with a percentage of 1000.

In spite of Musky's grand little performance, the real honors belong to Ty Lober of Portland. Ty is only batting .322, but as he has played in 129 times as many games as Musky, the honors will have to be handed to Ty. He is followed in the list by his teammate, Heine Spens, who has been hitting at a .315 clip since McCredie recalled him from the Northwestern league.

Dicky Bayless, with .312, sandwiches into third place, just one point ahead of Doane, also of Portland, and then comes Maggett, Johnston and Shinn, leading the Los Angeles, San Francisco and Sacramento teams. Johnston's average is .307, and he is the only San Francisco regular batting over .275. Kaylor leads the Oakland team with .280.

The averages of the Portland players are worth looking at. The lowest regular is Derrick, with .265. Kores is batting .283, Chadbourne .284 and Lindsay .299. All the others are over .300. Jimmy Johnston has stolen 101 bases. Maggett is second with 72 and Leard third with 66.

Azevedo to Meet Dundee. Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 23.—Joe Azevedo and Johnny Dundee may be the card with which Pugilistic Promoter Tom McCarey will reopen his Vernon arena October 24. Dundee is willing to make the match, McCarey said today, and an offer will be made. Azevedo in case he decides to stage these men. Another possible match for the reopening date is Tommy Murphy and Joe Rivers. McCarey expects to announce his card late this week.

French Boxer to Meet American. Paris, Sept. 23.—Georges Carpentier, the French champion, and Jeff Smith, an American middleweight, are matched here today to box 20 rounds at the Paris Wonderland October 11.

Ledoux to Meet Benyon. London, Sept. 23.—Charles Ledoux of France and W. Benyon of England are matched today to box here early in October for the bantamweight championship of Europe. The boys will fight for a purse of $2500.

Watson Wants Long Match. San Diego, Cal., Sept. 23.—"Red" Watson, the lightweight, left yesterday for San Francisco, where he expects to get a return match with Louis Rees. En route he will stop over in Los Angeles and confer with Tom Jones, who hopes to get Watson a 20 round bout at Vernon with some topnotcher. Watson was until recently the kingpin, four rounds of San Francisco and intends to try to recapture the title. He recently lost a 10 round decision to Frankie Burns and a four round decision to Rees.

There isn't anything more pitiful than a hero out of a job.

RITCHIE TO MEET TOM MURPHY IN NOVEMBER FOR JAMES COFFROTH

Bout Between Champion and New Yorker May Be Staged Thanksgiving Day.

San Francisco, Sept. 23.—Except for the exact date and the question of weight, Willie Ritchie, the lightweight champion, has accepted terms from Promoter James W. Coffroth for a 20-round match here in November with Harim Tommy Murphy. Harry Foley, Ritchie's manager, has requested that the weight be 135 pounds ringside, but Coffroth insists on 133 pounds, the standard set by Battling Nelson and Ad Wolgast, former lightweight champions. Foley was unable to say just when Ritchie would defend his title in November, but thinks he could be ready on Thanksgiving day. The Ritchie-Coffroth bout is to be staged in New York October 31, and this would give Ritchie time to return here to prepare for his November battle. Foley, however, is anxious for Ritchie to fight in Milwaukee, and the Ritchie-Murphy fight may yet be declared off.
