The strength of the market is further helped by the fact that some of the leading importers of eastern stock have about decided to discontinue further purchases there for awhile and allow their present holdings to clean up. It is likewise stated that storage egg prices in the east are now so high that further purchases would force an advance in the price here. This cannot be secondished until these has been further purchases would love where in the price here. This cannot be accomplished until there has been a similar movement of values on ranch stock. At the present time there is a differential of 5c a dozen between the price of best storage and ranch goods wholesale and retail. Most both at wholesale and retail. Most consumers are quite willing to pay this differ ntial, therefore the call for fresh goods is much more pronounced than it

Clothing Man Killed in Indianapolis Hotel; Slayer Tells of Deed.

(United Press Loused Wire.) Indianajolis, Ind., Sept. 23.—With a cord bound tightly about the neck and the left eye almost torn from the socket, the body of Joseph Schlansky, a dothing merchant, was found in a room at the Oneida hotel here today. The police are seeking a youth who regis-tered as W. R. Anderson of Louisville, and who induced Schlansky to go to his coom. Schlansky's watch, worth $125, and $20 in cash are missing. A note signed by "Laury Anderson" was found beside the body. It read:

"I started to take his money and I had to kill him." Another note read: I started to take his pants, but didn't The slayer washed his bloody hands in the lavatory. Schlansky was murdered before noon yesterday. Schlansky's body was found near the door and it is believed he was in the act of leaving when felled. The blow frac-tured his skull. The blood spurted on the murderer's collar, and he changed collars, leaving the bloody linen in the
