A Most Sensational Trimmed Hat Sale
282 Models Selling to $30.00 Each
Tuesday, Special $6.95

Sale Starts at 10 A. M.

"TELEGRAM"

—"Shipped today, Thursday, by express, two hundred and eighty-two trimmed Hats — Hyland Brothers' entire sample line in show room. A remarkable assortment, latest models. Should create greatest enthusiasm.

—If every woman in the city appeared in the same style of hat, how commonplace they would look and how uninteresting a millinery department would be! As a matter of course no enthusiasm could be aroused under such conditions. It is just plain logic to strive at all times to offer millinery so distinctive, so unique and attractive, so uncommon, so chic, that for each hat a dozen women will strive to secure it.

—In this sale we offer 282 models—no two alike in style, trimming or appearance. None exchanged. Velvet, Velour, Plush, Duvetyne, Satin and Leather Hats. Ostrich and Aigrette trimmed. Every one representing a certain note in new Fall millinery. Tomorrow they go on sale. See window display.

—None reserved, no mail orders filled, no C. O. D. or telephone orders.

Unusual Even at Lipman, Wolfe's.
Such Fancy Lingerie Blouses at $3.45
Regularly They Would Be $5.00

—New and distinctive blouses of soft shadow lace and net. These identical styles are all the rage in Paris right now. This is a season of simple lines, and an individual touch is added by various trimmings. These seemingly simple, though distinctive blouses, possess the correct lines and the little fashion touches that mark them as individual. They are made with the low V-shape neck and the trimming consists of dainty frills and fancy pearl buttons. A few show a colored ribbon between the lining and the waist part, a fad so popular just now. Also some very fetching models with turn-down collars of crepe de chine and colored silk pipings. Both long and short sleeves are shown, trimmed to correspond with the waist. You will be delighted with these dainty blouses, as they are of that adaptable style which can be worn both afternoon and evening.
