

TEXAS FLOODS WORSE AS RIVERS OVERFLOW

Rains Send Streams Up Again
—1,000,000 Bales Cotton Ruined.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Austin, Texas, Oct. 3.—Flood conditions became worse at noon as a result of a further rise in the rivers following continued rains in many sections. The damage at San Antonio alone is estimated at $25,000.

road damage estimated at $4,000,000. The waters have receded in the vicinity of San Marcos, but another rise is predicted as a result of today's rains. The crest of the flood of the Colorado river has not reached here, although the river now is 30 feet above its normal stage and it is practically certain to rise 15 feet higher.

MRS. MAUDE PINKLEY WAS NATIVE DAUGHTER

Freewater, Or., Oct. 3.—Mrs. Maude Pinkley, wife of Earl A. Pinkley of the Peacock Mill company, died at her home in Railroad addition, Freewater, Monday evening, from tuberculosis. Mrs. Pinkley was born April 25, 1858, in Union county, Oregon. She is survived by her husband and one child. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon from the Federated church. Services were conducted by Rev. Samuel P. Ray. Interment was in the L. O. F. cemetery at Milton.

WIDNEY IS UNASHAMED OF SCANDALOUS AFFAIR

San Francisco, Oct. 3.—Arrest on vagrancy charges today confronts Robert J. Widney, former wealthy Los Angeles real estate broker, and Mrs. Vivien Lyons, according to the declaration of Captain of Detectives Mooney.

"Widney and the woman are living together," Mooney said today. "They should be driven out of town. They both are bad ones."

Widney and Mrs. Lyons appeared at police headquarters last night and declared that Mrs. Mary E. Vaughn, a social worker, recently indicated for an alleged attempt to blackmail Widney's

PANAMA EARTHQUAKE WORSE THAN SUPPOSED

Panama, Oct. 3.—That the damage done by Wednesday night's earthquake was more serious in the interior than here was intimated by reports received here today. Few details were yet available.

No scientific information concerning the quake's strength and character was available, the first shock having jarred the automatic pen from the local seismograph.

RUBBER COMPANY HAS AN EDUCATIONAL STAFF

Forest Grove, Oct. 3.—William Nelson Ferrin, who was succeeded to the presidency of Pacific university in this city last month by Dr. Bushnell, left yesterday for New York, where he accepted a position with a commercial rubber company. Dr. Ferrin was connected with the university, as president instructor, for over 30 years.

For the present his family will remain at Forest Grove.

Professor Whittlesley and Professor Brady, both former instructors at Pacific university, are connected with the same company which has employed Dr. Ferrin.

NORTH YAKIMA HUNTERS AT LARGE IN PASTURES

North Yakima, Oct. 3.—Hundreds of Chinese pheasants were shot on the opening day of the season, many of the hunters getting the bag limit. A number of the birds were used at the breakfast for Governor Lister at the Elks club.

Sound and other outside points are here for the shooting. The first day accidents so far as reported were an amputated hand for Ralph Hall, a 14-year-old boy, whose gun exploded; a dead steer, property of T. H. Wheeler, and injuries to a number of horses and cattle pastured on the ranches.

NEGRO STILL IS SUSPECT IN GAY MURDER CASE

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 3.—Search for the murderer of Mrs. Rebecca F. Gay, Christian Science practitioner, who was beaten to death in her office here a week ago today, shifted today to San Diego. New clues have been found. Captain of Detectives Flannery said that point to a negro who had not been before brought into the case. The man is believed to be in San Diego, and Los Angeles detectives will join San Diego officers in the hunt.

Popular Bloomer Dresses for the Tots

Special 59c

—These practical dresses are for children from 2 to 6 years of age. Made of excellent quality materials of checked and striped ginghams and plain colored chambrays in two styles. One with square neck and kimono sleeves, the other with high neck and long sleeves. Both are the straight-from-shoulder style, with detachable belt below waist line. All have bloomers to match, which are detachable and can be fastened to the little underwaist, permitting the use of the dress with or without the bloomers. Colors pink, light blue and navy blue in stripes and checks, with white, also plain light blue or pink chambray. Some are trimmed with neat finishing braids, others with self or contrasting bias bandings. These little dresses are the most practical, as they are easily laundered and require no petticoats. —Fourth Floor

Children's New Hats

Special 98c
Regular $2.50 and $2.75

—We have a large number of hats for the wee lassie from 2 to 6 years old. Made of corduroy, velvet and plushes, in drooping brim, mushroom crowns, rah-rah and other new and desirable shapes to fit the little faces. Colors are white, navy blue, brown, black and combinations of these colors with white. Trimmed in dainty fashion with satin ribbons, rosettes, feathers and tiny flowers of ribbon, also Persian and self colored bands. Plain, neat little hats which still retain the daintiness essential for baby's wear, and will stand hard usage. —Fourth Floor

The Latest Hat for Little Boys

—These are made of suede in Rah-Rah or regulation style, with brim that may be turned up to suit the fancy. Come in golden brown or pearl gray, with corded silk bands to match. Well lined and made with sweat band. The workmanship on these little hats is equal to that on any of the men's high-priced hats. This is the first showing of suede hats, and they fill a long-felt need for a serviceable hat that will look dressy. Have a velvety appearance, but will wear like iron and hold their shape.

—The boys' Rah-Rah hats are made with turndown brim all around and six-piece crown with tiny button at center. Price, $2.00.

—The soft brim hats have regulation crowns and stitched brims. Price, $2.75. —Fourth Floor

Latest Novelties in the "Drayton Sweetheart" Series

—Our Art Needlework Department is showing the latest novelty in the "Drayton Sweetheart" series of stamped articles. These include sofa pillows, dresser scarfs, pin cushions, laundry bags and baby dress racks, stamped on fine Bulgarian linen ready for embroidering, and also baby towels and feeding bibs stamped on fine bleached huck. These designs include such well-known studies as "Gee, I Wish I Had Some Salt," "I'm the Father," etc., of the celebrated G. G. Drayton art studies. The first time applied to needlework. You will want the whole outfit for the nursery, and many of the articles would be appropriate for other parts of the house. The pillows come complete with backs, and the laundry bags are made up ready to embroider. We can also supply the fancy fringed braid to edge the pillows.
