This week Miss Mary Monks, bride-elect of Frank Healy, has been the inspiration for a number of delightful events. Tuesday afternoon the Misses Helen and Evelyn gave a most beautifully appointed pink luncheon. All the decorations and the service throughout the luncheon were cleverly carried out in pink. A center of carnations and ferns graced the table, the guests were Mrs. John DeWalt, Mrs. Clara Wiley, Miss Mae Healy, Miss Josephine Healy, Miss Myrtle Helen Flynn, Miss Theresa Jennings, Mrs. J. C. Costello and Mrs. Calbreath. The afternoon was passed at bridge and Mrs. Daly won the high honor and Miss Monks received a handsome guest prize. Mrs. T. J. Seufert gave a bridge party of five tables Wednesday afternoon for Miss Monks. The decorations were of pink roses and ferns. After the card game, at which honors fell to Miss Hazel Morrow and Miss Millicent Hansen, the guests were all seated in the dining room at one large table for the refreshments. Roses were artistically arranged to center the board with large pink bows of satin ribbons and streamers of smilax were draped over the table. Favors at each place were suggestive of the coming wedding and at the honor guest's place a guest prize was placed. This was a handsome set of a dozen each of the four dillies for luncheon which were crocheted by the hostess.

Those who enjoyed Mrs. Seufert's hospitality were: Mrs. J. C. Costello (Margaret Monks), Miss Mae Healy, Miss Helen Calbreath, Mrs. J. E. Gilder, Miss Tess Jennings, Miss Ann Healy, Miss Viola Barensteeher, Miss Hazel Morrow, Miss Josephine Healy, Miss Agnes Corcoran, Miss Millicent Hansen, Miss Gene Spencer, Miss Edna Minsinger, Miss Beatrice Miller, Miss Katherine Kern, Miss Beatrice Miller, Mrs. Owen Summers Jr., Miss Mary Jessop, Miss Miriam McDonnell.

Many prenuptial affairs are filling the days with charming events for the pleasure of Miss Elsie Barr prior to her marriage October 14 to Ray Florence, formerly of this city, but now residing in Vancouver. Miss Ruby Archambeau will give a bridge October 7 for Miss Barr and her two house guests, Miss Laura Moore of Los Angeles, and Miss Abbie Oliphant of Berkeley, Cal. Miss Moore and Miss Oliphant will remain for the wedding at the Barr home. Guests for an informal luncheon and Orpheum party Saturday in honor for her guests.

The annual meeting of the Rose City Dancing club was held last Thursday evening and arrangements are already completed for a repetition of the functions that have been so successfully conducted several seasons. The parties will be given at Christensen's hall, that has housed the club for several years. The first party will be given early in October. There will be two parties each month during the winter. The Rose City club holds a distinctive position in Portland's society for its camaraderie.

The executive committee elected a corps of officers who are well known among the younger set, and popular among their business associates. The officers for the ensuing year are: Dean Vincent, president; Will H. Chatten, vice president; Arthur C. Callan, secretary and treasurer. The general arrangements committee consists of Frank A. Freeman, Newell U. Carpenter, Frank C. McCrillis, J. B. Hayek, Arthur C. Dayton, W. H. Chatten, H. E. Carr, C. J. Wellman, D. G. Tomasi, Charles H. Runyon, W. F. Groh, Charles G. Irwin and W. W. Banks.

Appreciation of the splendid efforts of L. E. Peters, retiring president, was expressed by all members present at the meeting and a resolution conveying the thanks of the club was passed for presentation to Mr. Peters.

The first party was given Thursday evening.

The annual Spring ball to be given by Al Kader Temple, A. O. N. E. S., on Thursday evening, October 16, in the Masonic temple will surpass anything socially given by this body heretofore. The Arab Patrol in full uniform will have charge of the floor and card parties and during the evening will give a fancy drill. The patronesses include Mrs. D. G. Tomasi, Mrs. Harvey Beck with Mrs. George W. Stapleton, Mrs. W. E. Grace, Mrs. James P. Moffett, Mrs. John E. Cleland, Mrs. Hugh J. Boyd, Mrs. Thomas McCusker, Mrs. W. J. Hofmann, Mrs. Frank S. BARRACKS NEWS

The troops have returned from the Proebstel target range during the week. One could hardly ask for finer weather than has been enjoyed during the target practice.

When the abandonment of the Oregon range became necessary, a lease was taken of the Proebstel range. This lease ran out on the first, so that it was necessary to return the troops even had the practice not been finished.

Lieutenant Phinney, who belongs to the Twenty-first, having come to Vancouver barracks with that regiment, has been detailed to Iowa City, Iowa, as military instructor to the state college situated at that place. Each first lieutenant is liable to details such as this. Lieutenant Phinney expects to leave for Iowa City in the near future.

Lieutenant Colonel Morrison of this regiment, has been stationed in Seattle. Mrs. Morrison left last week to join her husband there.

Chaplain Osewards preached at Orchard in the Methodist chapel last Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service.

Major John Canby, for some time past, quartermaster at Vancouver bar-acks, has been transferred to the quartermaster's department in Washington, D. C. Captain Robert M. Bramble has been appointed quartermaster of this post. Major Canby was for many years stationed in Portland, in charge of the paymaster's office so that both he and Mrs. Canby have a host of friends in that place. Many entertainments have been given in their honor by their Portland friends.

One of the most charming of these entertainments was a delightfully appointed luncheon at the home of Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd last Monday in compliment to Mrs. Canby. The afternoon was passed at bridge, card honors falling to Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, Mrs. E. C. Shewlin, Mrs. Morton H. Inley, Mrs. Robert Howard, Mrs. Adrian Fleming of Vancouver barracks, Mrs. Frank E. Hart, Mrs. William C. Alford, Mrs. J. D. Young, Mrs. Walter F. Burrell and Miss Hirsch.

Richards, and Mrs. Carr.

Miss Etta Gardner and Mrs. Ostrand were joint hostesses at the home of the former on Church street, when they entertained the members of the Altar Guild of the Piedmont Presbyterian church. This was merely a business meeting, as the young ladies are busy planning for the coming season. They were to give a "Japanese opera" early in November and the first rehearsal under the direction of Mrs. Rose Coursen Reed, was held on Friday evening at the home of Miss Ruby Scott. The next meeting of the guild will be held at the home of Mrs. Albert Chambers in Ross City Park.

Mrs. G. W. Henderson of The Dalles is the house guest of Miss Eugenia Keating. Mrs. Henderson was a former resident of Piedmont and has a host of friends here, who have planned a number of affairs for her pleasure.

Delightful in all its appointments was reception given on Monday evening by Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Snyder at their home on Cleveland avenue, honoring the Presbyterian ministers of the city and their wives. Receiving with Dr. and Mrs. Snyder were Dr. and Mrs. Palmer, and Mr. and Mrs. George Lawrence. The receiving rooms were artistically decked with masses of autumn leaves and bright red dahlias, while red roses buds were used effectively in the dining room. Assisting in the dining room were Miss Ruby Scott, Miss Grace Berkeley, and Miss Marie Snyder. During the evening a very enjoyable musical program was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Ave of Springwater, Or., and Miss Foy.

On Saturday evening Misses Mae and Ethel Slusser and Miss Eugenia Keating entertained in a delightfully informal manner for the pleasure of Mrs. Henderson of The Dalles, at the home of the Misses Slusser on Cleveland ave.
