Purse, Miss Laura Shay, U. S. Ackles and reading by Mrs. Morton Doty.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. C. C. Shay, 481 East Thirty-ninth street North, invited a few ladies of the neighborhood to meet Mrs. W. P. Huriburt, her daughter, Mrs. Harold Huriburt and Mrs. Levan, who have recently come to Rose City Park. Auction bridge was played, Mrs. C. H. Lewis winning the prize. The decorations were baskets of autumn leaves and garden flowers.

Mrs. Myra Babblidge, East Sixty-first street North and Hill Crest drive, has returned from the Salmon lake where she had an exhibit of her burnt wood, oil and pastel paintings. She was one of the fortunate winners of several blue ribbons.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Candlish, 609 East Fifty-third street North, have issued invitations for a large evening party for October 17, which will honor their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The lovers of each enjoyed them in the club parlors; prizes were won by Mrs. E. J. Mann and Frank Schlegel. Those who preferred dancing were occupied with the diversion in the ballroom.

The monthly business meeting for the women's department of the Rose City Park club will convene at the clubhouse tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. J. J. Spise, of Creston, Iowa, will arrive this week to spend Mrs. Linger with her daughter, Mrs. Ward Woody, 641 East Fifty-fourth street North.

Friday evening Miss Clarence Candlish, 609 East Fifty-third street North, was hostess for the Theoburn Epworth league of Centenary church. A most pleasant evening was spent with music, games and refreshments. Mrs. A. V. Goddard presided at the luncheon table.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. Melvin Lewis, at East Forty-second street North and Hill Crest drive, gave a children's party, in honor of her little daughter, Marjorie's sixth birthday. Pink and white appointments were used throughout the luncheon. The decorations were with the pink and white cake and the favors, little hats which the guests later trimmed, were of the same delicate colors. The little friends present were: Bobbie Knapp, Elizabeth Mary Linger, Beatrice Allen Anderson, Dorothy Louise Anderson, Darrell Torrey.

Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Harry Allen Anderson, 581 East Forty-first street North, entertained at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Platt and the Misses Erlins and Adelaide Platt.

usually artistic and elaborate. In the living room an improvised altar of ferns, palms, white asters, dahlias and pink carnations was arranged, centered by a huge bell, suspended from the ceiling, under which the bridal party stood. In the library the fireplace was banked with purple asters, dahlias and ferns, while the halls, both on the first and second floors, were artistically arranged autumn leaves and red geraniums. After the ceremony and congratulations a buffet wedding luncheon was served from the beautifully adorned dining table. A large centerpiece was arranged of red geraniums, salvia and autumn foliage with tulle festooned from it to the chandelier.

The bride was gowned in white charmeuse with train and rhinestone trimmings. Her full length veil was fastened with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids wore a yellow chiffon over satin, with pearl trimmings, and carried a shower bouquet. The bride's mother wore black satin and lace. Mr. Belland's mother, Mrs. Herman J. Blasing, wore a white charmeuse with lace and rhinestones; Mrs. Heardt black crepe mink and cream duchesse lace, rhinestones and a touch of Hall Caine silk; Miss Treasa Heardt yellow chiffon over silk and crystal trimmings; Miss Lenore Blasing white marquisette with pink rosettes.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK

A very enjoyable affair of Thursday evening was the card party given by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bates at their home 151 East Twenty-ninth street. Twenty-four of their friends participated in the popular game of bridge. Honors were won by Mrs. Harry Smith and Mrs. Frank Mead.

A miscellaneous shower was given last Wednesday night for Miss Hilda Granstrom by Mrs. D. P. Shepherd, sister of the bride-elect, and Mrs. A. W. Ledbury (Miss Eva Herscher) at the latter's home, 814 East Fifty-fourth street.

The evening was very much enjoyed by 20 friends of Miss Granstrom. A unique feature being a luncheon served cafeteria style.

Miss Granstrom's marriage to Mr. L. A. Hoyt takes place on the 14th of this month.

Carl Anderson and Miss Lena Nord were united in marriage by the Rev. J. Allen Leas last Sunday morning at 8 o'clock at the parsonage, 137 West Park street. They left on the 9 a. m. train for Seattle where they will spend a short time before Mr. Anderson takes up his work in the city.

The annual fall reunion of the Oregon Society of Engineers took place at the Commercial club Tuesday evening in the form of a unique banquet. One hundred and sixty members attended, many dressed in khaki field togs and high topped, hobnailed boots. One end of the main dining room was arranged as a mess tent with familiar camp signs and notices attached to the canvas walls such as "All time checks will be cashed by the paymaster on the 25th of the month." "All supplies must be purchased monthly from the company's commissary." "A hospital fee of $1 monthly will be deducted from the wages of the employees," etc. The paymaster held forth in an improvised stand and a hospital tent was provided for the emergency of the camp doctor. At the sound of the mess bell the diners were ushered to their places at board covered tables on which was served a dinner, which covered much of camp life in the open. A printed program quite in keeping with the occasion announced the following list of speakers and their subjects: W. H. Graves, toastmaster; W. H. Crawford, "25 cents a pound per square inch," Henry E. Wood, "Concrete designs I have met," Orrin Beckus, "The stimulation of the muskrat," F. A. Ballin, "The newspapers and naval architecture," D. C. Henny, "The aesthetic value of ivory," R. J. Grace, "High explosives," J. E. Horton, "Fats, not vegetables," R. F. Randa, "With a tin rope," Mark R. Colby, "When a pump is not a pump," Robert S. Edwards, "How to know sand," H. L. Vorse, "Why is an underwriter equitable?" C. E. Stanley, "That which is on my mind," W. S. Turner, "Early trolley days," F. A. Narramore, engineering and gray hair; W. H. Graves, "Renovating the Oregon landscape." A series of impromptu dramas followed the regular program during the course of which each one was pressed for his definition of the term "engineer."

Miss Rose Reich entertained a number of girl friends at her home, 784 1/2 Lombard avenue, Monday evening, in honor of her sister, Miss Anna Reich's birthday. Many beautiful gifts were received. Games and music were indulged in until a late hour, when delicious refreshments were served. The tables were decorated with pink rosettes. The guests included Miss Janice Lema, Mrs. Mary Schwarman, Miss Ethel Lethbridge, Miss Margaret Mann, Miss Elma Rehwalt, Miss Eleanor Love, Miss Laura Willbanks, Miss Bell Murray, Mrs. George Dangelos, Miss Alice Foster, Miss Josephine Jametgard, Miss Ethel Caythorn, Miss Winetta Marx, Miss Ida Johnson, Miss Florence Melnhoff, Miss Lillian Kruger, Miss Bess Kratzer, Miss Anna Gillis, Miss Dorothy Bliss, Miss Elsie Peterson, Miss Muriel and Jennie Borland, Miss Nettie Kelm, Miss Elizabeth Schaefer, Miss Agnes Johnson, Miss Lena Sherrett, Miss Augusta Helzer, Miss Clara Goodburn, Miss Ellen English, Miss Isabel Jenkins, Miss Abbie Lewis, Miss Genevieve Landon, Miss Bernice Meyer, Mrs. L. Thompson.

An affair of the week was the informal Kepis luncheon presided over by Mrs. Allen T. Anderson of 172 West Webster street, in honor of Mrs. Reeves from Memphis, Tennessee, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Fred Allen. A profusion of asters in tones of lavender, pink and white were used to decorate the rooms, and also adorned the Kepis luncheon table. Covers were marked for Mrs. Roy Arnie, Mrs. Fred Allen, Miss Inches, Mrs. Inches, Mrs. Charles William, Mrs. Reeves, Mrs. Harry Fyrmale, Mrs. Frank Purae, Mrs. L. Treand.

After luncheon the guests played a drawing contest of songs. The prize was won by Mrs. Reeves.

One of the most interesting meetings of the Mount Scott W. C. T. U. for the year was held at the home of Mrs. Lucia Additt Tuesday afternoon, in honor of the birthday of the hostess. A short business session was followed by sketches from the state convention by S. J. Belland, the president, Mrs. Dunbar, then presented a 70 piece china dinner set, the gift of the union. There were also several individual gifts. Waters and oranges were served, and the birthday cake with a single candle was cut amid much merriment. The meeting closed with an informal reception to Mrs. Garlock, who is about to leave for an extended visit to New York.

A quiet home wedding occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hauck, 181 Thirty-first street, Monday morning, September 29, when their daughter, Miss Ruth Hauck, was united in marriage to Maurice E. Fuller, by the Rev. J. J. Straub, D. D., of the Sunnyside Congregational church.

Mrs. S. Newell of St. Johns and her little daughter. Mrs. Newell entertained last Friday for Gordon Granger W. R. C.

Victor Darling and Miss Anne Hagner were married at St. James' Lutheran parsonage on Saturday afternoon, September 29th. The Rev. J. Allen Leas officiating.

Bessie E. Thompson and Miss Barbara Sauter were principals in a quiet wedding which took place at the parsonage of St. James' Lutheran church on Wednesday evening, October 1. The Rev. J. Allen Leas officiating.

Miss Echo Ruth Othout was married to Royal Randolph Worthington at the home of her mother, Mrs. L. Othout, 4660 Seventy-first street, S. E., Saturday afternoon, September 27, by the Rev. J. J. Straub, D. D., of the Sunnyside Congregational church.

Last Wednesday evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Parker on Glenn avenue was the scene of a surprise miscellaneous shower given for their daughter, Miss Hazel Parker, bride-elect, by about 20 of her friends. The occasion was delightfully informal and the guests supplied the impromptu entertainment. Among those present were: Mrs. Myrtle Vadala, Misses Bernice Cermak, Dorothy Davis, Stella Fadden, Leona Rodgers, Sophie Madison, Francis Nichols, Edith Payette; Messrs. Harold Rife, Frank Soderback and Abraham Nelson.

Miss Parker is to marry Hugh Tranchell of Tillamook, Wednesday, October 8; the wedding to take place at the home of the bride's parents. The bridesmaids will be the Misses Leona Rodgers and Edith Payette and the groom will be attended by his brother, Frank Tranchell. Miss Parker is a charming and attractive girl and is being much feted by her friends at pre-nuptial affairs.

A theatre party at the Orpheum was given last Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Bessie Duxon, whose marriage to Joseph M. Montag will soon take place. After the theatre the party partook of a dainty luncheon at the Portland hotel. The hostesses were Misses Grace P. Burnett and Birdie Merrill. This Saturday afternoon Miss Lena Spinnay entertains with a card party complimenting Miss Dupee.

A very pretty luncheon was given last Tuesday by Mrs. Charles Sweney in her apartment at Haddon Hall, complimenting Mrs. E. Little of Edmondton, Alberta, and her daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Arnold of Portland. The other guests were Mrs. E. P. Rosenthal and Mrs. A. Halloway.

The B. E. Card club, which is organized by a group of young women to celebrate their birthdays, met last Wednesday at the home of Miss Nanoe O'Neill, at the Housman apartments, the occasion being the birthday of Miss O'Neill. Card honors fell to Miss Jessie McGuire and Miss Katharine McCabe. The rooms were prettily arranged with clusters of yellow chrysantheums. The club members are as follows: Mrs. P. F. Fish, Miss Jessie McGuire, Miss Katharine McCabe, Miss Lillian Brown, Miss Marie O'Connor, Miss Belle Shields, Miss Kate Wilcox, Miss Ada Allen, Miss Margaret McKelton and Miss O'Neill.

On Tuesday evening the Ladies Auxiliary No. 1, N. A. L. C., called on Mrs. and Mrs. Harry Coleman at their residence, East Sixth and Almsworth avenue. Many interesting events relating to the national convention recently held in San Francisco were recalled. Light refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. (Continued on Following Page).
