

REVIEW OF THE WORLD'S NEWS IN PICTURE AND PARAGRAPH

Principal Events of the Week Stated in Brief for the Information of Busy Readers.

Foreign

THE engagement of Princess Olga, third daughter of the Duke of Cumberland, to Prince Moritz of Schaumburg-Lippe, is announced.

Sarones de Mallarme, reports that her apartment in the Place de la Chapelle, Paris, has been robbed for the fourth time. Jewels and valuable papers were taken the last time.

Sir Alfred East, president of the Royal Society of British Artists, who was born in 1814, is dead at London.

A new model monoplane of which the body hangs nearly three feet below the single wings, has been invented and tested out by A. Santos Dumont, a pioneer aviator of France.

For attempting to reopen suffragist headquarters in London Miss Harriet Kerr and Mrs. Beatrice Sanders were arrested. Four other women who attacked policemen with umbrellas were arrested. Prisoners threaten hunger strike.

Bertram Dickinson, aviator, died a natural death in London.

Efforts to abolish its tenderloin service of deportation warrants has been begun on men and women detainees, mostly Japanese.

Ex-King Manuel of Portugal strenuously denies the stories that were published that his bride of a few weeks, the daughter of Prince William, is ill.

It is understood that Japan and the United States are discussing a new commercial treaty.

Several looters were shot in the streets of Mexico, Mexico, by constitutionalist troops to suppress a spirit of anarchy.

Commissioner of immigration of Canada states that 140,000 Americans settled in western Canada during the season which has just passed.

Disruption of the upper house at Copenhagen has been ordered as result of third reading of the bill granting suffrage to women and depriving the crown of the right to name 12 members of the upper house.

The marriage of Victoria Mary Seckville-West, daughter of Lord and Lady Seckville, to Harry Stanley Nicholson, son of Sir Arthur Nicholson, under secretary of state for foreign affairs, has been announced from London.

At the church congress at Southampton suffragettes received but little encouragement from Dean Weldon. He told them that women were treated with greater honor because they were the weaker sex.

Greece is said to be about to go to war with Turkey. The immediate evacuation of Dedeagach is demanded. Greece has issued a call for the reserves to rally to the standards.

Police in Lima, Peru, have discovered an ancient cemetery containing 60 bodies, in the church of San Francisco. The presence of the cemetery was not known before.

Local News

roads which would withdraw the privilege of concentrating shipments of butter, eggs and other dairy products from eastern points to points on the Pacific coast have been suspended by the interstate commerce commission.

Brigadier General Birby of the army engineers, disapproves of Chicago's plan of making a park on the lake front on the ground that the project would interfere with the commercial development of the water front.

The Dallas citizens are preparing petitions on the saloon license question to be voted on in November at the writing of this. Foundation is making plans to vote on the commission form of government charter.

President Wilson will address a meeting in Baltimore in 1914 at the celebration of the centennial of the writing of the "Star Spangled Banner" by Francis Scott Key.

George W. Loft, a manufacturer of New York has been named by the Democratic congressional committee of the thirteenth district of Washington, as Conservative. The woman was Miss Mary Harriman, daughter of the late Edward H. Harriman.

Clifford Johnson, while testifying against E. N. Pigg, who had shot him, being taken with a fit of coughing, finally coughed at the bullet. The slug was introduced in evidence and the accused was fined $50.

A jury in Los Angeles, Cal., acquitted millionaire George Bibby, accused of contributing to the delinquency of Cleo Helen Barker, aged 18.

Juvenile court charges against Marsha Warrington and Lola Norris, who eloped with Cammett and Diggs, and for which crime the men were sentenced to the penitentiary in California, have been dismissed.

Mrs. Edith M. Ivy of Los Angeles, killed her former husband at the door of his home where he was living with his second wife, because of wrongs said to have been done to her 15-year-old daughter.

Conscience drove Clarence Boatwright of New Orleans to reveal a plot to rob a train, and implicated Alfred E. Oliver, his confederate. Both were arrested.

Snatching off the mask of a high wayman who held a revolver at her head, Mrs. S. C. Standard of Huntington, Or., frightened the robber away. The man was captured.

State supreme court has denied motion to dismiss appeal of suit brought by state to contest validity of workmen's compensation referendum petition on ground of fraud.

When sentenced to be hanged for the murder of Frank J. Taylor of Astoria, Or., C. H. Hessel collapsed and was carried from the court room.

Harry Clark, a half breed, was charged with the murder of Old Henry, the Molalla Indian who was slain in Clackamas county.

An injunction has been issued in Tacoma restraining C. C. Darling from building a "spite" fence, which is said to shut out light from the apartments of Mrs. C. H. Wheeler.

In an address at Bandon, Dr. Bailey K. Leach, who was recently deported, denies that he is an anarchist. There was no demonstration against him.

Sharif William Esch of Salem, attempted to disarm a morphine fiend who had threatened to commit suicide, and received a knife wound in the thigh for his pains.

Frank Seymour and Mike Spanos, convicted of murder in Jackson county,

Congressional News

PRESIDENT WILSON Friday night signed the administration tariff bill passed by both houses of the national legislature.

Representative Moore, of Pennsylvania, has introduced a resolution in the house, asking that June 1 be set aside as Father's day, and requests that the rose be made the official emblem.

The seaman's bill, designed to aid working conditions of seamen, has again been introduced by the senate committee. The bill was formerly vetoed by Taft.

Congressman Gordon, of Ohio, has asked President Wilson to discuss in his general message to congress the question of tax exemption of brandies used in manufacture of sweet wines.

A bill has been introduced by Representative Humphreys, of Washington, prohibiting the making of lott selections. Despite the fact that the Hawaiian law has been repealed, there is still a certain amount of Hawaiian land script outstanding, which is being used in the northwest.

To investigate rural credit and agricultural loans, Chairman Glass, of the house banking committee, has been authorized to name a subcommittee.

Municipal and Legislative

THE city council of Portland has taken up the question of putting amendments to the commission form of government charter before the people in November, in order to correct defects in the present charter.

County commissioners of Multnomah have ordered placed on the November ballot the proposed $1,200,000 interstate bridge bonds question.

The Portland public docks commission proposes to remove Swan Island, for the purpose of creating a turning basin for ships. Mock's bottom is to be filled in, the entire work to cost about $3,000,000.

Civil service commissioners of Portland will lay facts found in the police civil service examination scandal before chief of police and district attorney. High police officials may be involved in charges.

Residents of the Watson station section have been denied 5 cent fares by the state railroad commission on the ground that they are outside the 5 cent limit for traffic.

The Washington-Oregon corporation has transferred its water system at Kelso, Wash., to the Independent Electric company.

National Wholesale Grocers' association favors a uniform pure food law, 2 one way in which to reduce the high cost of living.

The Spokane county court is planning

- 1—Harry Thaw and his mother, Mrs. Mary Copeley Thaw, at Concord, N. H.
- 2—Mrs. Clarence Mackay, defendant in a $100,000 alienation suit filed by Mrs. J. A. Blake.
- 3—Governor Felker of New Hampshire (at end of table) conferring with counsellors concerning Thaw case.
- 4—World leaders in scientific research recently assembled at Birmingham, England. Standing, left to right—Professor R. W. Wood, H. A. Lorentz and Dr. Anthonio. Sitting, left to right—Sir Oliver Lodge, Mme. Curie and Gilbert Barling.
- 5—Five thousand gymnasts from every country of Europe and from Canada assembled in St. Damascus Court of the Vatican to receive the Pope's blessing.
- 6—Interior of the senate chamber in New York state capitol at Albany, as it was reconstructed to accommodate the impeachment trial of Governor Sulzer.
- 7—President Wilson, leaving his former home in Princeton, N. J., to cast his vote in the recent New Jersey primaries.

General News Notes

THE mother of James Johnoff of St. Louis has written her son that she witnessed the crucifixion of another of her sons by the Bulgarians.

Thomas W. Osborne, chairman of the New York Prison Reform association, will enter the state prison at Auburn where he will undergo the same treatment that is given the real prisoners. He will endure the hardships of the dungeon.

Dr. James E. Angell, president emeritus of the University of Michigan, aged 85, is ill with heart trouble, and may not recover.

An expedition to the Antarctic is being planned by Professor Eugene Oberhammer, of Vienna, president of the Austrian Geographical society. The explorers will work south from the Weddel sea.

Opponents of the "Catholic party," in the conference of the Episcopal church are planning to fight the election of Dr. William T. Manning, candidate for president of the house of deputies.

Former Congressman Longworth, and wife, who was Miss Alice Roosevelt, have left for Panama for the purpose of taking passage on the first boat that goes through the Panama canal.

In an involuntary petition in bankruptcy filed in New York, the assets of Charles Murphy, nephew of the Tammany Boss, who is treasurer of a tobacco company, are placed at $10,000, and liabilities $25,000.

"Little Tom" Kena, the midget, died at Chicago at the age of 44.

As a result of being kicked by a horse 23 years ago Edward Wimple, 45, died at New Orleans.

Fred Lucas, 7, fell off a log raft at Hoquiam, Wash., and was drowned.

An unidentified man committed suicide by jumping under the wheels of a moving train at Irvin, Wash.

Mrs. Margaret B. Platt of Seattle, has been elected president of the Washington State W. C. T. U.

J. M. Schmelzer, late conciliator of Hood River, who died suddenly, was buried last Monday.

Disappointment in love caused Rudolph A. Johnson, a Northern Pacific telegrapher at Tem, Wash., to commit suicide by shooting.

Educational forces of Oregon are considering a longer compulsory school term and a larger general school fund.

Governor Lister of Washington died November 3 as Purdy day, Min-

Commercial and Industrial

CLATSOP COUNTY'S assessed valuation is $30,000,000, nearly double that of last year, owing to the value of the timber which has just been cruised being added.

Professor Holden's "corn and alfalfa special" is receiving much attention from farmers on its tour of Oregon and Washington.

Frank Pennington and E. K. Matson, of the Grand Dalles section have bought from Frank Aldrich the holdings of the Toppish Livestock Co. for $50,000.

School and road funds in Idaho are enriched by $72,163, in receipts from sale of forest reserve land by the government.

The Chicago Reduction company threatened to close up its plant and let the garbage rot if the city refused to buy the plant on terms proposed by the company.

Personal tax assessment of John D. Rockefeller of New York, amount to $5,000,000, the largest individual assessment of the kind in that city.

The National Highway association will attempt to forbid the use of the streets of big cities for roller skating and other forms of juvenile amusement, in order to lessen the number of accidents to boys and girls.

The state bank examiner has closed the Citizens' Savings & Trust company at Missoula. Liabilities are said to be $1,000,000.

Andrew E. McCreery, who died in California recently, left an estate valued at over $5,000,000. An inheritance tax of $155,321 has been paid.

Oregon City business men are looking into the plan of quitting the use of the Bu. Run water system and have the city get the supply from the south fork of the Clackamas river.

The steamer Harvard and Yale of the Pacific navigation company, will hereafter use the Los Angeles harbor, because of the four-mile speed limit, but will dock at Redondo instead.

Promoters of the Panama-Pacific exposition are planning to have a banquet given at every banquet and luncheon held in the country on October 10 in honor of the completion of the Panama canal, and the fair to be held in San Francisco in 1915.

William Bryant, a farmer near the Cowlitz river, marketing all strawberries from his place. Cars in cultivation is said to have caused the splendid yield.

County Judge Bushey, of Salem, declines to have the timber of the county letters and newspapers are requested to consider social problems on that day.

Letters and News

Two inches of snow fell at Greenhorn, 5348 feet above sea level.

Frank J. McNulty has been elected president of the Brotherhood of Medical Workers. C. P. Ford was made secretary-treasurer.

Portland Good Roads boosters returned from a trip to Hood River where the party was royally entertained by the citizens of that section.

Protest against the appointment of William Plympton as secretary of the state printing board has been filed with the board by the Allied Printing Trades council, of Portland, on the ground that he is not a practical printer.

The Great Northern liner Minnesota, which left Seattle for the Orient with 300 first class passengers, turned back for repairs to her engines.

A statement has been issued from anti-trustists' headquarters in Pittsburg, that no reception will be given Mrs. Pankhurst, militant leader of London, on her arrival in the United States.

Representative Gardner, Republican candidate for governor of Massachusetts declares that he is opposed to woman suffrage.

There are 53 heirs warring in court over the estate of Mrs. Arcadia de Hulse in Los Angeles. The estate is valued at $7,000,000.

The state executive committee of the anti-saloon league of Southern California is against the proposition of an initiative vote on the prohibition question in California in 1914.

Cyrus Walker, millionaire lumberman, died at San Mateo, Cal., aged 84.

Francisco Cutting, president of the Cutting Packing company, well known in financial circles, died at Oakland, Cal.

Mrs. Fannie Birby, secretary of the Socialist party at Long Beach, Cal., has declined the nomination of mayor on the Socialist ticket.

Folk county public school children are taking up the study of dairying. W. S. Barr, of the Oregon Agricultural college is directing the work.

Fifty veterans of the Civil War had a reunion at Corvallis, Or.

An aged couple is believed to have starved to death in Mount Vernon, Ariz. Mr. and Mrs. Cooper are the victims.

Whose deaths have been reported are Marie Lloyd, English music hall entertainer and Bernard Dillon, an English jockey, were ordered deported from New York because it was discovered that although they were living together, they are not man and wife.

Troubles

From Sacred Heart Mission:
"Mal" said "Willy" "do me some good to my soul or my friends."
"Why, what is the matter?" was the surprising reply.
"Well, you don't stay in your own house and wash your face every day."