

GIRL'S JEWELRY FOUND IN STOVE IN CABIN OF HINDUS, NEAR FRISCO

Four Sikhs Arrested in Connection With Her Murder;
Police Hunt for Fifth.

(United Press Special Wire.)
San Francisco, Oct. 8.—Musa Khan, Tasa Khan, Said Ameer and Said Cashi Kahn, the four Hindus under arrest in Alameda county in connection with the murder of Rose Domingo, the Portuguese girl, whose nude, heavily weighted body was fished from the bay at the foot of a wharf at Stege, were subjected to a searching examination today as to the fragments of the girl's clothes found in the cabin occupied by Musa Khan and Said Ali Khan, the Hindu actually charged with the killing.

Detectives were positive that, heavily weighted as Rose's body was, three or four men must have been needed to carry it from the cabin to the wharf, and it was this that led to the arrest of the three Hindus in the cabin adjoining the one where it was believed the crime was committed.

The charred portions of the dead girl's gown and underclothing found in the ash pan of the Hindus' stove might have been impossible of identification, but there was no question concerning her gold ring, buttons, belt and shoe buckles, garter clasps and the metal decorations of her handbag.

With positive evidence that the murder was committed in his cabin, the authorities also redoubled their efforts to find Said Ali Khan. They thought Musa Khan might know something of his whereabouts and have done everything possible to write the information from him, but as yet without success.

They doubted the story that the girl was sacrificed in some Hindu rite, believing she was killed either in a quarrel or out of sheer brutality.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)
Salem, Or., Oct. 8.—Because he be- lieves that A. H. Powers of the Smith- Powers Logging company was the in- stigator of the L. W. W. deportation af- fairs in Coos county, Governor West is going to call upon Mr. Powers to pay the expenses of the recent grand jury investigation of the cases. The governor sent the following telegram to the Coos county judge at Marshfield today:
"Kindly send me detailed statement showing expenses caused your county by reason of the recent grand jury in- vestigation of deportation cases. I wish to present bill covering same to A. H. Pow- ers, Smith-Powers company, for pay- ment in order that the taxpayers of your county may be reimbursed."

Streff Predicts Bloodshed.

Salem, Or., Oct. 8.—"If something isn't done to see that the laws are en- forced in Coos county, there is going to be bloodshed," declared Albert Streff of Portland, here today in the interest of Dr. Bailey L. Leach, the socialist editor who was deported from Brandon. "People are aroused in Coos county and already they are arming themselves."
He said that Leach was considering filing affidavits in disbarment proceed- ings against two more lawyers in that county. He was advised by the clerk of the supreme court to withhold any further action in that line until the disbarment case against C. O. Graves, an attorney of Marshfield, is settled.
The supreme court today received a copy of resolutions passed by the Coos county local of the Socialist party, protesting against the appointment of C. B. Peck as referee to take the testi- mony in the Graves case. The resolu- tions say that Peck is a member of the Coos County Bar association, and the association has passed resolutions of confidence in Graves.

INDIAN CHARGED WITH VIOLATING LIQUOR LAW

Harry Redford, one of the best known Indians of the Umatilla reserva- tion, is on trial in the federal court today on a charge of introducing liquor on the reservation. Government wit- nesses testified that he had taken a keg of beer to the reservation. The principal witness for the prosecution was Billy Mackye, famous Indian policeman of the reservation, who chased Redford in a furious race the latter was more than a mile before the latter was caught and the keg was confiscated.

Power-Giving Potenta.

From the Teronito Star.
It is alleged that the use of oatmeal porridge in the Scotch cities and towns is falling off, and that there is danger of a decline in physique from the sub- stitution of bread and stewed tea for the old national food of Scotland.
On this continent, we have probably benefited a good deal from the aggres- sive advertising of various cereals. No doubt some of the claims were exagger- ated. But the laudation of each par- ticular brand of oats served the purpose of drawing attention to the unques- tioned value of oats. So with various preparations of wheat. Some of these articles, being already cooked, are largely used by shop-girls and others who have no facilities for cooking and no money to eat square meals at res- taurants. All this has been beneficial, though the intention may not have been philanthropic. The use of beans has also increased enormously through ex- tensive advertising, and pulse is a good food today as it was in the days of Daniel, when the faces of the pulse eat- ers "appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat the portion of the King's meat."

The One Truly Artistic Player Piano

The Angelus

Every intending buyer of a player-piano should see the Angelus before making a final selection. It costs no more to own the best, the most artistic of players, than the indifferently good, and the Angelus is so far superior in construction, in ease of control, in perfection of musical results, as to place it a generation in ad- vance of its competitors.

There are two kinds of player-pianos—the ANGELUS AND THE OTHER KIND. No other player has the "MELODANT," the marvelous device which separates melody and har- mony just as in hand-playing. None has the PHRASING LEVER, which places the entire control of phrasing under THE TOUCH OF ONE FINGER. No other player has the dia- phragm pneumatics, the automatic self-opening and closing pedals, and none gives such perfect musical satisfaction.

Seeing and hearing the Angelus enables the buyer to make intelligent comparison. There- fore, do not neglect your own interests.

Angelus player-pianos are no more expensive than the ordinary types of players, and may be purchased on easy payments. Your old piano taken in exchange at its full value.
