

REVIEW OF THE WORLD'S NEWS IN PICTURE AND PARAGRAPH

All the Principal Events of the Week Briefly Sketched for the Information of the Busy Reader—Foreign, Eastern, Political and Congressional News Notes to Be Preserved for Reference.

Executive and Political

SEVEN warships have been ordered assigned to San Francisco during the celebration of the centennial of the city's incorporation.

President Wilson's press of official business prevented his acceptance of an invitation to occupy a box at the Polo Grounds to witness the world series baseball game.

Commissioners of 204 midshipmen, the largest class to enter the Annapolis naval academy, have been signed by Secretary Daniels.

Settlers in the district bordering on the Horvath station of the Klamath reclamation project, ask release from federal government from double assessment by state and nation.

President Wilson, in a conference with senate leaders, proposed, it is said, to force recalcitrant democrats into line by holding them to their caucus promises, on the currency bill.

Commissioner of Mediation Stewart of the department of labor will ask congress to investigate the coal strike, following refusal of operators to accept offers of a settlement. Operators refuse to grant any recognition of the union in the Colorado affair.

Lottery of 17 farms in the Yakima irrigation project has been authorized by the secretary of the interior. Applicants may obtain information from the land office at North Yakima.

Propositions whereby the railroad may avoid prosecution under the Sherman law were made to the attorney general by President Elliott, T. D. Quylver, and President Hadley of Yale, directors of the New Haven road.

Municipal and Legislative

THE Progressive party's fight under the Oregon direct primary law, to name state, district and precinct candidates at the next primary election, has been referred to the attorney general by the secretary of state.

Marshfield "wet" and "dry" forces are rallying for a strenuous campaign. A new registration of voters is being sought by both sides.

Clatsop county will vote on a proposed $400,000 good roads bond issue November 4.

J. J. Lindeau, a saloon keeper of San Francisco, may have to forfeit his license because he procured the arrest of a woman who broke a whiskey flask on the curb in front of his place. The saloon man had been warned not to sell the woman's husband liquor.

The Everett, Wash., board of education, will expel students found belonging to any sorority or fraternity, after November 1.

Glendale and Sutherlin, Oregon, will not vote on local option issues November 4 because of technicalities in the petitions.

Governor West has instructed Treasurer Kay to abide by the law which provides that no member of the board of control shall be financially interested in any contracts for state supplies.

The commission form of government has been adopted by Joplin, Mo.

Springfield, Mo., defeated the proposed commission form of government charter.

Napoleon Rice was elected mayor of Roseburg and Miss Agnes Pitchford was elected treasurer. Plan to increase occupation tax defeated.

The question of permitting the sale of intoxicating liquors in Springfield, Or., will be voted on November 4.

E. A. Franz, a merchant, was elected councilman at Hood River to fill vacancy caused by death of J. M. Schmeitzel.

Seattle, Wash., will vote on the question of election of freeholders to prepare a commission form of government charter.

Drygoods merchants at Oregon City will sell elevator bonds in the sum of $1,000,000 over their counters, in accordance with action by the city council.

Newport and Waldport, Oregon, will

Legal and Criminal

FRED WALLACE, detained at Lewiston, for forgery, was identified as Fred Faulkman, wanted by federal authorities at Seattle.

Suit against suspended Bank of Nampa, has been brought by state of Idaho, for recovery of $45,000 which was on deposit when the bank failed.

Burr Harris, a negro, arrested at San Diego, Cal., admits slaying Mrs. Rebecca P. Gay, a Christian Science practitioner, at Los Angeles, recently, and says he killed Mrs. Haskins in the same city two years ago.

Police were set to guard the residence of Superior Judge Ogden of Oakland, Cal., following the judge's receipt of a threat of vengeance by a supposedly insane man.

Mrs. Clara Bibb, has brought suit for divorce on grounds of desertion, against D. H. Bibb, ex-state senator and wealthy lumberman, of California.

The famous baby substitution case involving the Slingsby estate will be revived in the taking of testimony by the British consul at San Francisco.

The municipal league of Seattle has started an investigation of the acts of Superior Judge Humphries, who in a week sent 24 men and women to jail on charges of contempt.

William Warning was arrested at Val on a charge of passing forged checks on business men of that place.

Guy M. Lindsay, former cashier of the Citizens National Bank of Baker City, was freed of the charge of misappropriating funds, because of the government's failure to produce any damaging evidence against him.

The C. A. Smith lumber company has been asked by Governor West of Oregon to defend its title to 10,000 acres of land which, it is intimated, has been obtained by use of dummy school land selections.

Suit has been filed by the attorney general of Oregon against the governor, secretary of state and treasurer, for recovery of $14,000 said to have been unlawfully spent out of the penitentiary revolving fund.

The suit of Louis R. Glavia for $50,000 libel against Phil Francis, a newspaper man, has been stricken off the court calendar at Stockton, Cal.

William Walker, who escaped from a chain gang at Alameda county last year, made a fortune in Alaska, and returned to serve out his sentence.

The Wendemere hotel, Santa Monica, Cal., reports that jewelry and cash estimated at $6000 has been stolen from young guests, and that a well dressed hotel man who mingled with the patrons is suspected.

The three latest objections raised against the workmen's compensation act, have been declared invalid by the Washington supreme court, and the case will go to the United States supreme court.

Cashier C. A. Koebel of the American Velvet company's plant, at Stockton, Conn., was robbed of $16,000 by two masked men, as he was en route from the bank to the plant.

Henry Spence, who is under arrest, and who admits having slain 11 persons, formerly lived in Philadelphia.

Judge Humphries of Seattle released 27 prisoners whom he had sentenced for contempt of court. Complaint had been made to Governor Lister of Washington.

San Diego police are searching for a man who held 6-year-old Stella Kerr captive in a vacant building over night. Governor West had no right to incur debt in carrying on vice crusade work, and the emergency board had no authority to declare legal such action, according to Attorney General Crawford of Oregon.

Delegates at the convention of the North Central Missouri Dental association tion were stamped and attacked by a party whose rent insane during a dental operation.

Mayor Gaynor's widow may seek annulment of the will. She says the income given her is insufficient.

Three men were shot, and one was fatally hurt, in a fight between constables and striking miners at Cheswick, Mich.

Suit of the government against the American Telephone & Telegraph company, under the anti-trust law, may not be begun until after the conclusion of the suit against the Bell company now pending in Portland.

Commercial and Industrial

VANCOUVER and Prince Rupert parties have contracted for the entire coal supply of the Riverton Coal & Development company and the Libby mine on Coos Bay and the surplus of the Smith-Powers mine, for the next six months.

Tax collections in Jackson county for the quarter just ended, amount to $44,148. Unpaid 1915 taxes are $152,000.

Fourteen thousand farmers heard the lectures of Professor Holden in his tour thus far in the "corn and alfalfa" special train through Oregon and Washington.

The cat and mouse act was denied a third under sentence in London, and the man died as result of a hunger "strike."

Princess Louise of Saxa-Coburg, Germany, is said to be more than $4,000,000 in debt. It broke, and carried by a small army of collectors.

The French war office is testing a new invention called the P-ray, which, it is claimed, is a battleship can be destroyed by wireless at a great distance.

An alliance of France and Spain is said to be on the political chess board of Europe, now that the Balkan war is over.

Suffragettes in London interrupted services in the Westminster Abbey, with chants for suffragettes now in prison, when the clergy failed to mention the women in their prayers.

President Poincare will be guarded closely on his present trip to Spain, because of rumors of an attempt will be made to assassinate the ruler and King Alfonso.

Suffragettes in London engaged the police in an exciting fight, using flats, umbrellas and hat pins on the blue-coats. Miss Annie Kenney, militant leader during the absence of Mrs. Pankhurst, was arrested.

Fuan Shi Kai has been elected president of China by the two houses of the republican parliament. He will rule five years. Twenty candidates were nominated.

Slight earth shocks have caused but little damage to the Panama canal. Unimportant slides were reported.

The plan to dethrone King Otto of Bavaria and place Prince Regent Ludwig on the throne, has been renewed by the Bavarian government. The prince on a former occasion vetoed the plan.

An aviator lost his life at Barcelona, trying to save a spectator who has been taken up by a guide rope by accident. The other man was uninjured when the balloon descended.

Peace resolutions have been adopted by Buddhists in Tokio, expressing friendship toward President Wilson, and wishing for a continuance of friendly relations between the two countries.

United States Consul General J. E. Jones was guest at a public banquet at Winnipeg, just before departing for his new post at Genoa, Italy.

King George and Queen Mary will act as sponsors for the heir to the title of the Duke of Roxburg when the child will be baptized in the Chapel Royal, St. James palace, October 10. The Duchess was Miss May Goelet of New York.

Preliminary to his deportation Harry Kemp, who eloped with Mrs. Upton Sinclair some time ago, was sentenced to 21 days' imprisonment at hard labor, at London, where he had come from New York as a stowaway.

The village of Tomasi, in Panama, is reported to have been totally destroyed by an earthquake. Population 300.

Mud for the use of the careworn who is suffering from a malady, has been ordered shipped from the salt lakes near Odessa, Russia, to the imperial palace at Malta.

McGill university has conferred the degree of doctor of laws on Sir Gilbert Parker, Canadian novelist, and P. E. Benson, American Shakespearean actor.

In the dispute over the estate of $800,000 left to Emperor William by Herman Knorr, an eccentric character, the emperor has decided to retain half of the property and let the widow have the other half.

Embarrassed over the indiscretions of the Hanover legitimists and publicity over the affair which has come to the emperor of Germany and the imperial office and duke of Cumberland, Emperor William has sent a special envoy to arrange for a settlement of the trouble.

Prince Katsura, ex-premier, who has been ill for some time in Japan is reported as worse, and his death is expected momentarily.

To keep Mexican beef home and equalize the American tariff the Mexican constitutionalists imposed an export tax of $5 a head on beef cattle.

Domestic herds in the mountains of Styria, Austria, are being killed by lions, wolves and hyenas, which escaped from a menagerie, and the Austrian government has organized an expedition to kill the beasts.

General News Notes

THE Tenth United States Cavalry, negro troopers, were praised by Major General Wood, chief of staff of the United States army, for their bravery and efficiency.

Maxwell Everts, general counsel of the Southern Pacific, and son of the late William M. Everts, is dead at the age of 51.

Sympathizing with striking miners of that section school children left the schools at Ahmeek, Alton, and Moshaw, Mich., and prosecutions for violating the compulsory education law may follow.

J. Wesley Browning, a pioneer merchant who was one of the drivers who helped Brigham Young's family across the plains, is dead at Ogdon, Utah, aged 71.

New York customs officers seized plumes valued at $10,000 received from Europe in violation of the Underwood tariff bill. They will be returned to Europe.

A bear worked the latch of the cabin of H. J. Rohmme, a homesteader in Douglas county, ate the provisions, and broke dishes and furniture.

Miss Bertha Olson of Hillboro, was queen of the Washington county fair for school days, October 16.

Benjamin F. Cornelius, postmaster at Hillboro, has been succeeded by J. C. L. Lambin, an ex-confederate soldier.

Mrs. Lucinda Sawyer, a pioneer of 55, died at Eugene and was buried Wednesday.

Consolidated Life Insurance company of Portland, has been granted permit to sell stock by Corporation Commission.

Watson. Permit had formerly been denied.

Ollie Tool, a section hand of Turclass in New York that if Christ should come to that city and find theologians quibbling over doctrine, he would tell them to quit, and devote themselves to other more useful things.

Apple growers of Denver rather than sell the fruit to commission merchants for 60 cents a hundred pounds, gave hundreds of barrels away free of charge.

A plague believed to have been brought by rats arriving from the orient in ships, is cause of critical illness among children in Bellingham, Wash.

D. V. McGilena, private secretary for Thomas P. Ryan, testified in the Sulzer impeachment case, that he has given the government $10,000 in cash in behalf of Mr. Ryan's son.

Complaining they have received no increases within the last 12 years, engineers and assistants employed on lumber carriers on the Great Lakes have asked for a wage increase of 25 per month, while chief engineers of bulk freighters have asked for an increase from $125 to $140 a month.

- 1—Hans Schmidt as he appeared at the coroner's inquest into the death of Anna Amuller of whom he is the confessed murderer. Since his confinement Schmidt has grown a beard.
- 2—Millionaire jury which conducted the inquest into the death of Anna Amuller. Theodore P. Shonts and Vincent Astor are the first two figures in the front row.
- 3—Chester G. Platt, secretary to Governor Sulzer, who was a witness in the Sulzer impeachment trial.
- 4—John Boyd Gray, New York stock broker who testified at the Sulzer trial.
- 5—Herman Oelrichs, the second richest young man in America, who was recently arrested in New York following an automobile accident in which a young woman was injured.
- 6—Senators Sage and Wagner, important figures in the Sulzer impeachment trial.
- 7—James C. Garrison, friend of Governor Sulzer, who was put in jail on a contempt charge.

—Photographs copyright by International News Service.

Rheumatism
A Home Cure Given by One Who Had It

In the spring of 1903 I was attacked by Rheumatism and Inflammatory Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have it can know. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted and were bedridden with Rheumatism, and it effected a cure in every case. I want every sufferer from any form of Rheumatism to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. If, after you have used it and it has proven itself to be the best looked-for means of curing your Rheumatism, you may send the price of it, one dollar, but understand I do not want your money unless you are positively satisfied to send it. Don't delay. Write today. Have H. Jackson, Box 207, Grand Rapids, Mich., send you a copy.