

CRATER LAKE PARK IS SEEN BY THOUSANDS DURING PAST SEASON

More Than Ten Miles of New Road Built; Auto Traffic Is Doubled.

The growing popularity of Crater Lake Park is attested to by the fact that during the season just closed the total number of visitors was six thousand, an increase of one thousand over last year. Automobile traffic has doubled.

During the season over ten miles of road were graded by the war department in pursuance of the general system of roads in the park. The system embraces a mileage of 65, and when completed will include a roadway around the entire rim of the lake, 25 miles in length.

Two years ago W. G. Steel, the present superintendent of the park, secured an appropriation from the war department of $700,000 to construct the system. From this appropriation there was drawn this season $125,000, nearly all of which was used. The balance will be carried over to next year. Mr. Steel estimates that a total of $75,000 will be expended next year.

The system will be completed within six years.

Had Busy Season.
"We had a very busy season," said Superintendent Steel on his arrival in this city yesterday. "The patronage at the hotel was 63 per cent greater this year than last, and the automobile traffic was doubled. The number of visitors registered was 6000, an increase of 1000 over last year. The new modern hotel of cut stone under construction has been enclosed this fall. It will be ready for business next season."

"During the year the war department has graded ten miles of roadway. The last stretch to the rim of the lake on the old road, which had a grade of 33 per cent, will be abandoned, and next year a new stretch with a maximum grade of 12 per cent will be ready for use."

New Road Graded.
"The new southeast entrance to the park leading from Kierker to the rim of the lake at Kaer Notch has been graded and it also will be ready for use next season. The road follows Sandy Creek canyon, in which are the Pinnacles. Between this road and the old one from the lake to park headquarters, a distance of eight miles, has been mostly cleared and over two miles have been graded and will be ready for travel next year. This eight miles will form a portion of the road around the rim of the lake."

New Roads Planned.
"Between the hotel and park headquarters grading has been done for two miles, leaving three miles to be completed early in the spring."

"The road between park headquarters and the Klamath entrance will be ready for active construction next spring. The corkerew on the Meador road will be replaced by an eight per cent grade next summer."

"While all this road making has been going on Mr. Steel said he had been clearing away the dead timber and underbrush in the park and trimming the trees. He also opened up an automobile road into the rugged Devile canyon and had built a trail up the canyon to the Devile falls. In the Klamath language Devile means 'rapids.'"

"A great convenience for visitors to the park has been the establishment of the office of the superintendent on the main road."

New Features Planned.
In planning further improvements for the park Superintendent Steel has in mind two plans regarding which he wishes to receive suggestions as to which one would be most in accord with public desire. One plan is to gather up all the natural flora of the park and plant it in a garden at headquarters so that it might be viewed easily by the public. The other plan involves the gathering and planting in the park of all foreign flora that can live there, that it may be contrasted with the native flora."

"I have talked with many relative to these plans and opinions have been divided," said Mr. Steel. "There are strong arguments in favor of both propositions. I would like to know what the public in general think of them, however, before I put them up to the interior department with the arguments in favor of each. Whichever plan the interior department approves I will follow."

WATSON WANTS TEST OF NEW BLUE SKY LAW

Brokers Would Sell Stocks in Companies That Have Been Dissolved.

(Salem Bureau of the Journal.)
Salem, Or., Oct. 11.—Corporation Commissioner R. A. Watson said today that he would welcome a test of the constitutionality of the Blue Sky corporation law. He has been advised that a number of dissatisfied stock brokers in Portland are preparing to test the law in the courts or else endeavor to have it repealed by an initiative measure.

Corporation Commissioner Watson has just received a report from the Fletcher Investment company of Portland, stock brokers. In the list of stocks on hand at the end of the month, Watson said the company reported 39 different stocks that would be illegal to sell in this state.

"Of these 39 stocks 12 are those of Oregon corporations that have not complied with the Blue Sky law and have not filed preliminary statements," said Watson. "The rest of them are stocks not of record in this state. They are either stocks of foreign corporations that have not been admitted to this state, or are stocks of Oregon corporations that have been dissolved."

"Many of these stocks are absolutely worthless, and it would be a fraud to sell them."

In the list were stocks of the following dissolved corporations: Automatic Gas Light company, California Consolidated Oil company, Consolidated Copper Mines, Midway Oil company, Oregon Development company, Portland Coal and Development company.

"These companies have gone out of business and they have been dissolved, yet their stocks are listed for sale."

INTERSTATE BRIDGE TO GIVE CONNECTION TO TRADE ARTERIES

met the other day and made estimates of the number of people who will come to Portland to trade after the bridge is opened.

Portland's Interest Indicated.
They found that it would be 2,500,000 a year after ten years if the increase were but half as fast here today as during the past ten years.

But their assurance is that the increase would be much faster. Then they got to figuring how much money that many people would spend. They gave up in despair but Henry Cross, president of the Vancouver Commercial club, said, "I guess it certainly is to Portland's interest to vote her share of the interstate bridge bonds, especially when over there the state pays the interest and we of Clarke county with not a twentieth of Multnomah's assessed valuation will have to pay the interest on our own bonds ourselves."

He had heard of Governor Lister's honor camp on Hood canal and did not want to go to the Monroe reformatory. "Your motive is a good one," said the judge, but he sent him to the reformatory for from 18 months to 15 years.

CAMPAIGN MADE FOR REMEDIAL LOAN FUND MAKES FINE PROGRESS

Necessity for Relief From the Sharks Shown by Pathetic Story of Woman.

The fund for establishing a remedial loan association, for which a special two weeks' campaign is being waged, made a jump of $2500 Friday and Saturday. The Meier & Frank company gave an additional $500, bringing its subscription to $1000. A man from Baker City called at temporary headquarters, 412 Commercial block, yesterday and made a subscription of $500 and another $500 was subscribed by a "friend."

The need of such an organization was emphasized yesterday afternoon, when a husband and wife made application for a loan and told their story.

They came to Portland about a year ago and the man is steadily employed by the Portland Gas & Coke company at a salary of $15 a month. A short time ago the wife's mother was sick in California and application was made at a local loan office for a loan of $50 to enable the wife to go to her mother. The loan company asked a charge of $12.50 for eight months, although his employer was given as reference for the borrower.

The man refused to pay such a rate and he was unable to get the necessary loan anywhere else. The mother grew worse and died and the daughter could not go to her. Their furniture is in storage in California and they applied yesterday for a small loan to enable them to bring their furniture here. A memorandum was made of the case and it will be taken up by the manager of the loan association as soon as the required funds for beginning business are obtained.

A special effort is being made by the volunteer solicitors from the Progressive Business Men's club to reach a high figure by Tuesday morning. Volunteers for soliciting or subscribers to the fund should report to Wilfrid P. Jones, vice president of the Merchants National bank; Robert S. Howard, assistant cashier of the Ladd & Tilton bank; or Y. B. Manning, general secretary of the Associated Charities, who constitute the finance committee of the fund campaign, to Jacob Kansler, telephone A-1511, chairman of the campaign committee, or to James Hamblen, manager, 412 Commercial block.

Subscriptions were received Friday and Saturday as follows: Meier & Frank, $500; in addition to former $500; "Citizen," $500; M. Michel, $50; C. K. Williams, $250; H. K. Sargent, C. J. Mathis, Jacob Kansler, Ernest H. Morgan, E. Fulton, Hiesling, H. Doney, Owen Summers, Eugene Brookings, S. C. Rasmussen, Bertha Matheson, $50; $10; Baker City man, $50; "Friend," $500; John Urkow, $50; Dan J. Maloney, $10; Henry M. Esterly, $10; H. V. Stahl, $10.

BUSINESS MEN SHOULD HELP CURRENCY BILL PASS, SAYS J. N. TEAL

have excellent committee appointments and both are doing the greatest possible service for us. Senator Chamberlain is doing everything he can in every way to secure Major McIndoe's retention at Portland. The matter is not yet settled. It is possible Senator Chamberlain may yet win out although the traditions of the department as well as other influences are against him."

Mr. Teal left tonight for Detroit to attend a meeting of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. He said: "Some important matters will come up at the meeting for consideration. Tuesday, by invitation of the Chamber of Commerce of Detroit there will be a gathering of all Chambers of Commerce from neighboring cities to attend. I understand, the dedication of a new building for the Detroit chamber."

MAYOR STRAW DENIES CONDUCT UNBECOMING AN OFFICER OR CITIZEN

Says Governor Told Him It Would Not Be Necessary to Attend All Meetings.

(Special to The Journal.)
Marshfield, Or., Oct. 11.—Dr. E. M. Straw, mayor of Marshfield, member of the state naval board and Lieutenant Commander in the Oregon Naval Militia, was shown a telegram this evening stating that Governor West had moved him from the board on account of non-attendance, and had threatened to revoke his commission for conduct unbecoming an officer.

Dr. Straw said that his office on the board was created by an act of the legislature and that he only accepted it at the urgent solicitation of the Governor, who insisted upon his accepting the position for the purpose of assisting the governor in getting the naval militia affairs straightened out; that he accepted it contrary to his own wishes, and that the Governor assured him at that time that it would not be necessary to regularly attend the meetings of the naval militia board.

Dr. Straw said: "I have earnestly endeavored to carry out the wishes of the governor and the other members of the state naval board, and I know of no conduct of my own unbecoming an officer of the state naval militia, or unbecoming a citizen."

"I can hardly believe that the governor would make an accusation of this kind without first notifying me according to the laws governing the state naval militia."

Straw is one of the most popular men in the county personally and politically, and for years past has been mayor of Marshfield. He has refused to run again, owing to have given so much of his professional time to municipal affairs.
