

Boston, 5 a. m.	41	Portland, 5 a. m.	51
Washington, D. C.	48	San Francisco, 5 a. m.	50
New York, 5 a. m.	50	Seattle, 5 a. m.	50
Chicago, 5 a. m.	50	San Diego, 5 a. m.	50
St. Paul, 5 a. m.	50	San Jose, 5 a. m.	50
Kan. City, 5 a. m.	50	Portland, 5 p. m.	51
Portland humidity, 5 a. m.	51

THE WEATHER

Rain tonight and Tuesday, cooler tonight. Westerly winds.

DESPAIR CAUSED THOSE ON VESSEL AFIRE TO TRY SEA

Jumping Overboard, Volturno's Passengers Met Death by Drowning; Only Few Killed by Explosion and Fire.

OIL FROM TANK SHIPS USED TO STILL STORM

Eleven Ships Instead of Ten Took Part in Rescue; Survivors Begin to Arrive.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
On Board Steamship La Touraine, Via Wireless, Oct. 13.—In addition to those of the burned steamship Volturno's crew and passengers, who lost their lives by the smashing of the lifeboats against the sides of the doomed vessel and a few members of the crew who were killed when the boilers exploded, most of the victims were drowned, when, in despair, they jumped overboard.

EXPLOSION IN HOLD STARTED FIRE, SAYS ONE OF THE RESCUERS

(United Press Leased Wire.)
New York, Oct. 13.—Off Nantucket lightship with 103 survivors of the burned steamship Volturno, Captain Spangenberg of the liner Greater Kurfuerst, began sending by wireless to the North German Lloyd's New York office early today his account of the disaster.

VOLTURNO'S DECKS SO HOT PASSENGERS HAD TO JUMP INTO OCEAN

Soles of Their Shoes Burned Through; Crew and Men in Disgraceful Rush to Boats

Fishguard, Oct. 13.—The Cunarder Carmania, which took the leading part in rescuing members of the crew and passengers from the burning steamship Volturno, arrived here today.

SPANISH KING SO LAME PARIS TALKS ABOUT IT

Paris, Oct. 13.—The lameness which has hampered King Alfonso's participation in the entertainments at Madrid in honor of French President Poincaré's visit is merely another symptom, it was said today, of the illness which has necessitated repeated removals of pieces of bone from his head.

CROSS CONTINENT IN AUTO; KILLS CHILD

Newark, N. J., Oct. 13.—Completing a previously eventless automobile ride from Santa Barbara, Cal., Edward Moore yesterday ran over and killed Dorothy Hughes, a girl of 8.

PHYSICIANS GATHER FOR MEETING OF THE GRAND LODGE

Seven Hundred Out-of-Town Members Expected to Be in Attendance at Oregon Session; Opens Tomorrow.

100 WILL BE INITIATED AS PAGES THIS EVENING

Effort May Be Made to Bring 1916 Supreme Lodge to Portland.

To attend the thirty-second annual meeting of the grand lodge, Knights of Pythias, of the domain of Oregon, which begins formally tomorrow forenoon in the Knights of Pythias hall, Eleventh and Alder streets, hundreds of members of the order are arriving in Portland today from every point of the state. It is estimated that fully 700 out-of-town Knights will be in attendance when the meeting convenes, in addition to probably 1500 local members of the fraternity.

WILKINS SOUGHT AS MURDERER OF LOU L. WINTERS

Victim Was Found With Head Crushed Sunday Morning—Befriending Wife of Missing Man Believed Cause.

LETTERS ARE DECLARED TO CONTAIN THREATS

Mask Found Near Scene of Crime Also Said to Add Strength to Evidence.

Police departments of the cities of three states are searching today for Lloyd H. Wilkins, believed to be the murderer of Lou L. Winters, 333 Milwaukee street, Sellwood, who was found early Sunday morning lying in the street at the intersection of Milwaukee and Boise streets, near his home, his head crushed in.

VALIDITY OF BALLOT TITLE TO UNIVERSITY ACT MOOTED QUESTION

Effect of Omission of $10,000 Item Is Discussed by Portland Lawyers.

PERFECT PAIR SOUGHT BY EUGENICS SOCIETY

$1000 Awaits Them—$500 on Marriage and $500 at Birth of First Child.

WILKINS SOUGHT AS MURDERER OF LOU L. WINTERS

Victim Was Found With Head Crushed Sunday Morning—Befriending Wife of Missing Man Believed Cause.

LETTERS ARE DECLARED TO CONTAIN THREATS

Mask Found Near Scene of Crime Also Said to Add Strength to Evidence.

Police departments of the cities of three states are searching today for Lloyd H. Wilkins, believed to be the murderer of Lou L. Winters, 333 Milwaukee street, Sellwood, who was found early Sunday morning lying in the street at the intersection of Milwaukee and Boise streets, near his home, his head crushed in.

WILKINS SOUGHT AS MURDERER OF LOU L. WINTERS

Victim Was Found With Head Crushed Sunday Morning—Befriending Wife of Missing Man Believed Cause.

LETTERS ARE DECLARED TO CONTAIN THREATS

Mask Found Near Scene of Crime Also Said to Add Strength to Evidence.

Police departments of the cities of three states are searching today for Lloyd H. Wilkins, believed to be the murderer of Lou L. Winters, 333 Milwaukee street, Sellwood, who was found early Sunday morning lying in the street at the intersection of Milwaukee and Boise streets, near his home, his head crushed in.

WILKINS SOUGHT AS MURDERER OF LOU L. WINTERS

Victim Was Found With Head Crushed Sunday Morning—Befriending Wife of Missing Man Believed Cause.

LETTERS ARE DECLARED TO CONTAIN THREATS

Mask Found Near Scene of Crime Also Said to Add Strength to Evidence.

HUERTA TAKES ALL POWERS OF DICTATORSHIP

Provisional President Issues Decree Saying He Will Handle Military, Financial and Domestic Affairs of Republic Himself.

COURTS CAN RUN IF THEY LEAVE HIS ACTS ALONE

Dictatorship Is Modified Only by a Promise He Will Render an Account of His Actions to Government to Be Elected October 26.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Mexico City, Mex., Oct. 13.—Provisional President Huerta issued today a decree to the effect that he has assumed all powers hitherto vested in the Mexican congress, suspended by him last week.

JACK JOHNSON'S BOND OF $30,000 DECLARED FORFEITED TO COURT

Attempt Will Be Made to Levy Judgment Against Negro Pugilist in France.

THAW INDICTMENT MYTH, ASSERTS HARRY, SMILING

Concord, N. H., Oct. 13.—Harry Thaw grinned when asked today for some comment on the persistent statement that there was no record of the rescinding of an indictment against him in Dutchess county, New York.

DOZENS OF WRECKS ON ALASKA AND SIBERIA

Nome, Alaska, Oct. 13.—Reports from up and down the coast indicated today that the toll of dead in the recent storm is as yet far from complete. Wrecks, it was said, are scattered along the beach for many miles, and arrivals from the Siberian coast tell of several vessels lost there.

AVIATOR KILLED SELF 2000 FEET IN THE AIR

Oran, Algeria, Oct. 13.—Evidence at the inquest here today showed that Justin Soul Blandin, military aviator, ascended 2000 feet in a monoplane and then shot himself. His gliding hand removed the monoplane tail.

SMOKERS' PETITION IS HELD

New York, Oct. 13.—Seventy-two thousand New Yorkers went to smog on a petition today to the public service commission asking for that agency which was so bold as to suggest an elevator to the commission's offices.

HUERTA TELLS BRYAN NONE OF DEPUTIES IN PRISON WILL BE HURT

Charge d'Affaires O'Shaughnessy Makes Strong Representations on Behalf of U. S.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Washington, Oct. 13.—Responding to Secretary of State Bryan's strong representations, through Nelson O'Shaughnessy, United States charge d'affaires in Mexico City, Provisional President Huerta of Mexico today assured O'Shaughnessy that the imprisoned members of the Mexican chamber of deputies will not be harmed.

MEXICO KEEPS STILL AS RESULT OF COUP; ARMY REMAINS LOYAL

Mexico City, Oct. 13.—Indications today were that Provisional President Huerta did not overestimate his strength last week when he arrested the members of the chamber of deputies in a body, with the exception of the Catholic party delegation, and locked them up pending the election, October 26.

PRINCE CHIMAY DIES AFTER STORMY LIFE

Belgian Nobleman, Deserted by Princess for Rigo, Gypsy Violinist, Is Dead.

ARTIST CHARLES BACON KILLS HIMSELF IN N. Y.

New York, N. Y., Oct. 13.—The most perfect man and woman, judged by the laws of genetics, are to be mated in an effort to produce a perfect child, according to the terms of a contract to be held by the sociological committee of the Medical Review of Reviews, as announced today by Frederick H. Robinson, president of the committee.

SECRETARY TO WEST GOES TO WASHINGTON IN STATE'S INTEREST

Miss Fern Hobbs Carries Information Expected to Be of Value to Lawmakers.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)
Salem, Or., Oct. 13.—Supplied with tentative drafts of several measures and a large amount of data that is expected to be of value to the Oregon delegation in congress, Miss Fern Hobbs, secretary to Governor West, left yesterday for Washington, D. C., in connection with a number of important state land matters.

GIANTS AND WHITE SOX WILL PLAY IN PORTLAND

National League Champions and Comiskey's Chicagoans Here Nov. 18.

CHAMBERLAIN FRAMES PLUMAGE BILL

Washington, Oct. 13.—A bill to prohibit the use of feathers and other plumage of birds is being framed by the United States Senator Chamberlain of Oregon.

CONVERTED TRANSPORT OFFERED AS SOLUTION FOR DREDGE PROBLEM

Dr. Alfred Kinney Suggests That Meade Could Be Equipped for Bar Work.

If the war department hasn't a dredge to assign to work at the mouth of the Columbia it can order the conversion of a transport into a dredge and the state of Oregon can, through appropriation by special legislative session meet the cost, declares Dr. Alfred Kinney, chairman of the Ports of Columbia committee, in a letter sent yesterday to United States Senators George E. Chamberlain and Harry Lane.

WANTS CAPACITY INCREASED

Dr. Kinney asks the Oregon senators to secure favorable action, if possible, from the war department in having the pumping capacity of the Chinook increased at least 50 per cent. If it is possible to induce the department, even after its refusal, to assign a dredge for work on the Columbia bar, it would be a service appreciated by the people of Oregon.

GIANTS AND WHITE SOX WILL PLAY IN PORTLAND

Portland baseball fans will see the New York Giants and the Chicago White Sox, who are to tour the world, in action on the Vaughn street park Tuesday, November 18, Judge McCredie having accepted Charles A. Comiskey's proposition to play here at noon today.

SMOKERS' PETITION IS HELD

New York, Oct. 13.—Seventy-two thousand New Yorkers went to smog on a petition today to the public service commission asking for that agency which was so bold as to suggest an elevator to the commission's offices.