ierman Societies Celebrate Centenary of Birth of Wagner and Battle of Leipsic.

Celebrating the joint centenary of the birth of Richard Wagner and the battle of Leipsic, a vast audience gathered at the Armory last night representing the Confederation of German Speaking societies of Oregon to pay homage to the great composer and to honor the memory of those who fell in the war of liberation.

ilberation.

Decorated with German and American flags and the banners of German lodges and singing societies, the Armory presented a veritable atmosphere of celebration. Veterans of the wars of 1854 and 1866 and the Franco-Prussian war of 1870-71, were accorded the place of honor with seats in the first two rows.

The principal part of the program was devoted to Wagnerian music. The Philharmonic orchestra of 35 pieces led by Hermann S. Heller, rendered a number of the best known works of the famous composer, among them "Kaisermarsch." "Tannhauser," "Die Walkure." "Meistersinger" and "Lohengrin." Mrs. Elfrieda Heller-Weinstein sang the aris from "Tannhauser" and "Dich Teurs Halle," while a male chorus of 156 voices from six German singing societies sang "Das ist der Tag des Herrn."
