Latest Fashions Tollian

bright colors are much in evidence, so too, is there a very pronounced tendency to make dull, rich tones do service for evening, but it is wise to make the selection by ficial light, for some of the shades tints have scarcely a resemblance ight to what they show in daylight. This is particularly true of the ma-ority of the new blues, which take on greenish tinge that is too harsh to a universally becoming, and of the cllowish browns, which produce the opite effect; while they are harsh by afft and can be used harmoniously with almost any color. And all the grays and greens are immensely popular, al-belt they have to be treated with dis-

While the costume of the sketch is ot, strictly speaking, for evening wear, et it is essentially a calling costume or late afternoon that will, in most asiances, be seen under an artificial ight, hence judgment must be used in selection of an appropriate color. lorings are exceptionally good and this design is carried out in a charming tone known as twilight mauve. It has a slightly pinkish tint that robs it of that cold effect found in the bluer mauves. The gown is developed in brocaded crepe and velour.

The crepe has a shimmering silver running through the brocaded which is another good note un-er artificial lighting. Fine shadow lace is used for th pstanding neck ruche, and aside from sep band cuffs of velour the simple pleasant blouse is not further adorned. A broad girdle of velour separates blouse and skirt and is caught together n front with a buckle of brilliants.

The skirt is gathered to a round waist ine and puffed up under either hip with drapery arranged from these points hat falls gracefully down around the

The back is completed with a very ep facing of velour that drags around he feet in the most approved manner he effect is gained by lifting the velous

The National Women's Trade Union ague advocates widows' pensions in idition to a minimum wage law for The winter calling gowns are softly

IN OUR SCHOOL---By Paul West

peated this morning. Great Disappointment.

Hayes disappointed his olmates this morning and has lost popularity. Miss Palmer hal d if Bolivar didn't have his elling lesson today she would make m stand on the platform and make

Bolivar Haines disappoints his school mates, ce like a rynosserhorse, whitch wa perfeckly simple word Bolivar uldent spell. We were looking for ward with mutch pleasure to Bolivar a d all by spelling the word. Bolivar

Excuses for Being Late.

By Torphy Stebbins.

Well, you see, Miss Palmer, the reason I'm so late is—well, you see, Miss Palmer—I started in plenty o' time; but—no, honest, Miss Palmer, I ain't tryin' to make one up, because I had it all made up as I was comin' round the corner, but—well, anyhow, Miss Palmer, I'd of been in plenty o' time planter. I'd of been in plenty o' time this morning, only, you see — but if found later under Fatty Bellowes' seat, Burt, as it seemed like as if Torpy give. wasn't taking his usual interest in her. This was the first time, she said, orpy had come to school without takng the trouble to make up an excuse, she was worried about his health. said she thought she knew what he When Torpy came out he sai! he didn't give him nothing new at all just a reg'lar licking.

What the Explosion Was. If they is any one that hasn't yet ound out what the explosion was in the hall today, it was Fatty Bellowes. Fatty had been excused to leave the room, and when the noise was heard nobody thought about him, thinking it was the roof failing in or something, till they searched the girls' coat closet, where fatty wal found, he having : vallowed peach out of Lilac Grimes' lunch bas. set, including stone and all. It was him rying to choke that made the noise. Fatty said he didn't go in the closet to took Lilse's lunch—he thinks he was salking in his sleep or something.

Criminals Boware! Andy Anderson has gave up his rober band, they not being anything to in these parts. It is now called lawk-Eye Anderson's Detective Agen-

if there's a cup of hot bouillon waiting when you get indoors, The best bouillon is made by drop-ping an ARMOUR BOUILLON CUBE in a cup of hot water.

Per Pres Samples Address ARMOUR & COMPANY

rest some desperate crim'nal for some-thing, he don't know what. Miss Palm-er says she's a good mind to hire Hawk-Bye to see can he detect any signs of intelligence in her class, only she don't wish to put him up against an impos-

Genevieve Hicks appeared at school oday wearing a crown made of silver with a couple of gumdrops stuck She said they was the crown jewels and was peeved when Miss Palmer made her put it in her desk and gave her four marks. Gen says if she had her rights all she'd have to this morning, only, you see — but if found later under Fatty Bellowes' seat, you'll let me off this oncet, honest, Miss but the crown jewels was ate, so till At this point, Miss Palmer said she drops the coyal curse ain't going to be Dramatic Motes. eded, though, and if he'd come in the Sad, Spartacus, Horatius at the Bridge sessing room a moment she'd give it Anything Any Fellow's Spoke Yet. thing learned,

IN FAIRYLAND

A long time ago, an old couple dwelt in the very heart of a high mountain. They were very different in character. est, and the wife very greedy and quar-

front of his cottage, when he saw flying toward him a little sparrow, followed at length her fury broke out. She threw her broom at the bird, who was perched on a bracket high up on the wall. Then she chased it from place to place, and at last had it safe between her fingers, almost as frightened as on the day that, it had made its first entrance into the her.

By this time the woman was mor ous than ever. If she had dared, would have killed the sparrow, but cy, Hawk-Eye Anderson, Chief Slooth. If anybody han anything they want detected, Hawk-Eye Anderson will detect it. He expects at any moment to ar-

Genevieve Hicks appeared wearing a

Speaking next Friday and everybody has got to get something learned.
The following are barred by Misa Palmer: Mary Had a Little Lamb The Dagger Scene from Macbeth, Anything This kind of narrows the list down as they isnt mutch more to speak, and they will be some hustling to get some-

> The Sparrow. Retold by Anne Bunner

ing, he put it into a cage.

The old man was very fond of all lin.

affection for the bird, and would gladly have done it some barm had she dared. At last, one morning her opportunity came. Her husband had gone to the town some miles down the mountain and would not be back for several hours, but before he left he did not forget to open the door of the cage. The sparrow hopped about as usual, twittering bappily, and all the while the woman's brow became blacker and blacker, and as it was she only ventured to alit its tongue. The bird struggled and piped, but there was no one to hear it, and then, crying out loud with the pain, it flew from the house and was lost in the tepths of the forest. By and by the old man came back and at once began to ask for his pet His wife, who was still in a very bad temper, told him the whole story, and scolded him roundly for being so silly as to make such a fuss over a bird But the old man, who was much troubled, declared she was a bad, hardhearted woman to have behaved so to s poor, harmless bird; then he left the house and went into the forest to seek his pet. He walked many hours, whistling and calling for it, but it never came, and he went sadly home.

One hot summer morning, the old man was walking in a bamboo thicket. As the bamboos became thicker, he found himself opposite to a beautiful garden, in the center of which stood a tiny spick-and-span little house, and out of the house came a lovely maiden, who of the house came a lovely madden, who unlatched the gate and invited him in the most hospitable way to enter and rest. "Oh, my dear old friend," she exclaimed, "how glad I am you have found me at last! I am pour little sparrow, whose life you saved, and whom you took such care of."

The old man selzed her hands eagerly, but no time was given him to sak any but no time was given him to ask any questions, for the maiden drew him into the house, and set food before him, and waited on him herself. While he was eating, the damsel and her maids took their lutes, and sang

Thus, in dancing and singing, and talking over the days when the maiden was a sparrow hopping in and out of her cage, the night passed away, and when the first rays of sun broke through the edge of bamboo, the old man started up, thanked his hostess for friendly welcome, and prepared to farewell. "I am not going to let depart like that," said she: "I have a present for you, which you must take as a sign of my gratitude." And as she spoke, her servants brought in two chests, one of them very small, the other large and heavy. "Now choose which of them you will carry with you."

drew the chest from under his cloak and opened it. Oh, what a blaze met his eyes! gold and precious stones were heaped up to the very lid, and lay dancing in the sunlight. At the sight of these wonders even the scolding tongue ceased, and the woman approached and took the stones in her hand, setting greedily aside those that were the largest and most costly. Then her voice softened and she begged him quite politely to tell her where she had spent his evening, and how he had come by these wonderful riches. So he told her the whole story, and she listened with the whole story, and she listened with amasement, till he came to the choice which had been given him between the two chests. At this her tongue broke loose again, as she abused him for his folly in taking the little one, and she never rested till her husband had described the exact way which led to the sparrow-princess' house. When she had sparrow-princess' house. When she had sorn in the same place. They were sor, it into her head, she put on her Yea, sir, they were. They were born in

"You will not let me go without a parted company.

But by this time night had come, and there was no light in the house, and the woman was in too much hurry and the woman was in too much hurry to get to her treasures to go and look for one; so she tugged at the lid, in the dark, until at length the lock gave way, and the lid flew open, when, O horror! instead of gold and jewels, she saw before her serpents with glittering eyes and forky tongues. And they twined themselves about her and darted poison into her veins, and she died, and no man into her veins, and she died, and no man

Women's Clubs

Tuesday Afternoon Club.

There were two guests for the after-noon, Mrs. Lewis Macomber and Mrs.

toward him a little sparrow, followed by a big black raven. The poor little thing was very much frightened and cried out as it flew. But as they drew near the old man, he jumped up, and beat back the raven, which mounted, with hoarse screams of disappointment, into the sky, and the little bird, freed from its enemy, nestled into the old man's hand, and he carried it into the house. He stroked its feathers, and told it not to be afraid for it was quite safe; but as he still felt its heart beating, he put it into a cage.

The old man was very fond of all The old man was very fond of all creatures, and every morning he used to open the cage door and the sparrow flew happily about.

The woman, who was always on the lookout for something to grumble at grew very lealous of her husband's affection for the bird, and would gladly have done it some barm had she dared.

Madame French Builder of Gowns

Miss McGuire formerly manager for Beston Hy-gienic Corset Co., will continue the sale of THE BOSTON HYGIENIC CORSET in connection with MADAME FRENCH. TILFORD BLDG., 10th a MORRISON Room 200. Phone Main 3521.

Health and Beauty Helps

Marjory Pearson makes her own face creams,

Your Homes.

ment, and in the experiment much harm may be done.

I am sure, then, many of you will be glad to know of some tried formulas. I do not say that each is harm, less or efficacious on all skins, but morely that, knowing the ingredients, you can exercise more discretion in what you use and not be so entirely at the meany of the complexion special-out on his homeward way.

But as he drew near the house his heart sank a little for he knew what a fury his wife would be in. And it was even worse than he expected. The woman was still raging, and did not seem likely to stop, when her husband drew the cheek force wider by the cheek force wider Creams, Lotions, Powders Made at make any difference. It might not, but you cannot afford to take a chance.

Your Homes.

By Ablgail Moore.

The skin of the face is more sensitive than that of any other exposed part of the body, and in order to have free action its pores must be healthy and must not be obstructed, as certain cosmetics tends to do.

There are many harmless and even helpful cosmetics and lotions on the market no doubt, but the only way to select these aomng the numberless ones alluringly advertised is to experiment, and in the experiment much harm may be done.

I am sure, then, many of you will be glad to know of some tried formulas. I do not say that each is harm, less or efficacious on all skins, but merely that, knowing the ingredients, you canned afford to take a chance.

Here, then, is a face powder that I am sure will be liked: Take 20 grams of powdered falcum, 50 grams of p apoke, her servants brought in two chests, one of them very small; the other large and heavy. "Now choose which of them you will carry with you." So the old man chose the small chest and hid it under his cloak, and set out on his homeward way.

But as he drew near the house his heart sank a little, for he knew what a fury his wife would be in. And it was even worse than he expected. The woman was still raging, and did not simple ways and means to beauty.

In another article I shall suggest scent. Lettuce cream similarly prepared is especially good for tan and practical methods, but I talk there are many women to whom the simple ways and means to beauty.

A massage cream is made of three compounded and strained.

A massage cream is made of three compounded and strained.

simple ways and means to beauty would not be the inspiration that the more complicated ones would.

In compounding the following preparations remember that you must follow instructions implicitly to insure success, and do not substitute or omit any ingredient, thinking it will not pounded and strained.

A massage cream is made of three oil of bitter almonds, two grams of balsam of tolu, two grams of beneath two drops essence of lemon. The benzoin and tolu should be rubbed to a powder in the cils, kept for 24 hours and then drained off from the sediment.

Little Stories for Bedtime

Old Mr. Toad Visits Grandfather Frog.

sparrow-pincess nouse. When she had born in the same place. They were so it into her head, she put on her Yes, sir, they were. They were born in best clothes and set out at once. She the Smiling Pool. Both had long talls walked boldly up to the door and entered the room as if the whole place swam together without ever going on belonged to her and drift frightened. belonged to her, and quite frightened the poor girl, who was startled at the sight of her old enemy. However, she concealed her feelings as well as she could, and bade the intruder welcome, placing before her food and wine, hoping that when she had eaten and drunk she might take her leave. But nothing of the well of the water. And people who saw them didn't know the difference between them and called them by the same names—tadpoles or pollities take her leave. But nothing of the well of the water. But nothing of the water well as the well as the well as the warrant commany. Yes, sir, they warrant commany. Yes, sir, they they parted company. Yes, sir, they Ittle present?" said the greedy wife.

"Of course not," replied the girl, and at her orders two chests were brought in, as they had been before. The old woman instantly seized the bigger, and the woman instantly seized the bigger, and the series of the s the chest seemed to grow heavier at and wouldn't believe that there could be father Frog's throat.

own door.

But by this time night had come.

would live there always. that he could hide under a clover leaf. sulky and just grunted when Mr. Toad Grandfather Frog didn't expect to see told him how glad he was to find Grandhim again. But he did, though it wasn't father Frog quite recovered. for a long, long time. And when he did come back he had grown so that Grandfather Frog hardly knew him at first, but kept right on talking.

And right then and there began a disinto the Great World or remain in the wasn't giving you that fish for nothing." The Tuesday Afternoon club held its home of childhood. Each was sure that said he second meeting of the season yester- what he had done was best, and each is Grandfather Frog swelled right out view Drive. The club started in its study, taking up Mexico yesterday. Roll call was answered with descriptions of Mexico. Mrs. William F. Amos read a splendid paper on the "People of Mexico," and Mrs. A. Balley told many interesting things concerning the religion of the country. Mrs. Henry Berger Jr., gave a splendid review of Lew Wallace's "Fair God."

Three new members were possible. So, whenever Old Mr. Toad visits Grandfather Frog, as he does every once in a while, they are sure to argue and and learn to mind your own affairs, Mr. Toad."

So, whenever Old Mr. Toad visits in his deepest, gruffest voice. "Chugarum!" he exclaimed in his deepest, gruffest voice. "Chuga

Three new members were voted into the club, Mrs. Donald McKay, Mrs. Frank P. McKay and Mrs. G. I. Staht. Othello and a Winter's Tale will be E. Bondurant will speak. Other speak-Beside the officers and committee, the the man being good natured and honest, and the wife very greedy and quarelsome.

One day the old man was sitting in front of his cottage, when he saw flying toward him a little sparrow, followed by a big black raven. The poor little thing was very much friehtened and honlittle shares and committee, the members of the club are: Mrs. W. H.
Davis, Mrs. Free Dawson, Mrs. G. E.
Hamilton, Mrs. W. H. Holman, Mrs. U. H.
A. McCullough, Mrs. J. A. McKillip,
Mrs. F. P. Nutting, Mrs. H. M. Palmer,
Mrs. F. M. Powell.
The Shakespeare Study club of Albany
Mrs. F. M. Powell.

The Shakespeare Study club of Albany
Mrs. F. M. Powell.

Oregon Parent Teacher Circles A very enthusiastic meeting was held at the Hawthorne school yesterday at which time a new Parent-Teacher circle was organized with 85 members, each of whom pledged herself to bring in another member for the next meeting. Miss Harriet Monroe, treasurer. Prof. Herdman, principal of the Washington high school, tendered the use of the high school for meetings of the circle, as the Hawthorne auditorium is not advantages to be gained from a circle were given by Superintendent Alderman, Mrs. Buland and Mrs. R. E. Bondurant.

At the Shattuck school a circle was organized yesterday with $3 members and the following officers: President, Mrs. J. Kelley; vice president, Mrs. A. J. len Welch Smith; secretary, Mrs. A. J. Fanno; treasurer, Mrs. Donald Roblin. Mrs. F. S. Myers, president of the Portland Council, gave an enthusiastic address. This circle will concentrate its efforts on a new school building and a public playsround, both of which are greatly needed in that consented district.

Dyer's At the Shattuck school a circle was Three now circles will be organized tomorrow, one at Shaver, one at Kern and one at the Couch school. At the Shaver school a short address will be delivered by Mrs. Martin Wagner, vice president of the Portland Council. At the Kern school Superintendent Alder-right away had started for the Smiling staggering under the weight of it, dis- heard all about the Great World and Frog and tell him how glad he was that sppeared into the forest. what a wonderful place it was, just the Spotty the Turtle had come along just it was a long way to her house, and same as Mr. Toad did. but he couldn't in time to pull the fish out of Grand-

Now, all day long Grandfather Frog had had to listen to unpleasant remarks But Mr. Tond wanted to see the Great about his greediness. It was such a World. He could hardly wait to get rid splendid chance to tease him that every-of his tall before turning his back on body around the Smiling Pool took adthe Smiling Pool and starting out to see vantage of it. Grandfather Frog took the Great World. Nothing that Grand- it good naturedly at first, but after a father Frog could say would stop him, while it made him cross, and by the time and away he went when he was so small his cousin, Old Mr. Toad, arrived he was Old Mr. Toad pretended not to notice how out of sorts Grandfather Frog was,

"If you had been out in the Great pute which they have kept up ever World as much as I have been you since. Whether it was best to go out would have known that Little Joe Otter ers will be present at the Couch school. Club Notes.

The Psychology club will hold a ger tral meeting open to the public in the public library tomorrow afternoon Mrs. Alice Weister, the president, will pre side and plans will be made for the

Mrs. G. L. Buland was elected president; Mrs. E. J. Hadley, secretary, and The Empty Tin

bring it back if you aren't better satisfied with its contents than you have ever been with any other brand of pork and beans. And just think You get 38% more of these delicious beans in every 15c tin. Ask for

Pork and Beans

Mount Tabor.

The Shakespeare Study club held its regular analytical meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. C. Hare.

The first act of Othello was taken up will meet Friday afternoon at the hom of Mrs. R. G. Brand, 1303 Seneca street Philanthropy will be the topic and the program is in charge of the philan thopic committee; Mrs. Loomis, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Harney and Mrs. Mann.

COPY IS SUBSTITUTED FOR FAMOUS PAINTING

Spello, Italy, Oct. 15.—It was discovered yesterday that a copy had been substituted for Pinturicehlo's $46,000 madonna in the Capella Del Sacramento, and though two greats were made the and though two arrests were made, the lost painting was not located,

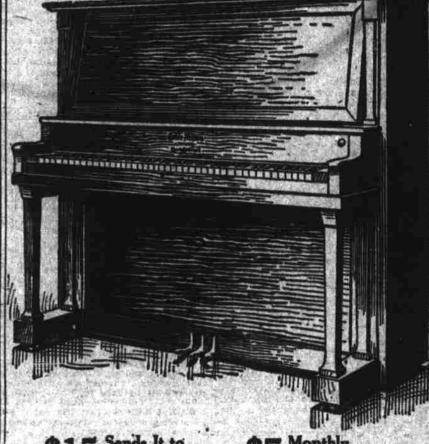

Killed in Drainage Ditch.

In the autumn minds turn gloomily to thoughts of fuel.

Think of paying for thissame grade and quality-new Piano elsewhere when you can now buy it at

Graves Music Co. Removal Sale

For $265

$7 Monthly Keeps It There

You Thus Actually Save $160

New and Used Pianos $65, $145, $195 $210, Etc.

Player Pianos $365, $415, $465, $565, Etc. Terms of Payment, $1.00 or $2.00 Weekly

START WITH $1

Make your selection now and pay $1 down, if you do not want to pay the full payment, and then, before delivery, you pay the balance in cash or $5 or $9, or whatever agreement you make for the first payment, and the balance $6 monthly, etc., until the piano is paid for in full.

Out-of-town buyers-It is safe and satisfactory to buy one of these pianos by mail. Write us, and we will send you full description, or, if you like, ship the piano subject to your approval. We pay freight to any point in Oregon, Washington or Idaho. Buy now and have it shipped when ready.

Every piano or player piano purchased carries with it the Graves Music Co. guarantee of satisfaction, as also the usual guarantee from each manufacturer of these new musical instruments; besides, we take it in exchange within one year, allowing the full amount paid, if desired.

Graves Music Co. Removal Sale 111 FOURTH STREET

GREAT BOOK BARGAIN

Five Big Volumes $1.98 You Can't Duplicate the Offer at the Price

The Oregon Journal EVERYBODY'S CYCLOPEDIA

DAILY COUPON

For $1.98

The flots are too bulky to be sent by mail, but out-of-town readers can have them for the $1.00, the set to be sent by express, shipping charges to be paid by the receiver.