

NOVEMBER DATE OF PAGEANT TO BOOST COLUMBIA RIVER PLAN

Pamphlets to Be Distributed to Public; Bridge Day Plans Discussed at Luncheon.

November 1, instead of October 25, is to be Interstate bridge day, according to action taken at luncheon today by the special committee to plan for the demonstration. The purpose of the day will be a parade in which agricultural, industrial, labor, fraternal and numerous other features will be prominent.

Pamphlets summarizing all the data gleaned by the advocates of the proposed Interstate bridge across the Columbia between Portland and Vancouver are being prepared for distribution to the public. These pamphlets will include statistics showing the resources of the country north of the Columbia tributary to Portland, once the span is constructed, and will also specifically the advantages of a highway to replace the old ferry.

It has been pointed out that the pageant is not to be for automobiles alone, but that floats symbolizing the numerous interests to be benefited by the bridge will be placed in line.

Nearly 200 members of the Retail Grocers & Merchants' association gave unanimous endorsement to the bridge proposition last night, after two speakers from the bridge committee had told of the benefits of the bridge. This was somewhat of a surprise, because the speakers had gone armed for the first opposition to the main bridge issue.

The opposition, it developed, was imaginary, as every hand went up when the retailers were asked how they stood.

A. Burnham of Vancouver, and L. M. Lupper will address the Portland credit men briefly tonight on the bridge question. Thursday afternoon, the Women's Civic League will hold a meeting in the public library. Afterward, the members will go to the courthouse to register.

Friday night, Judge R. G. Morrow, Frank B. Riley and Whitney L. Boise will address a union meeting of Webster and Multnomah camps of the Woodmen of the World in the hall at East Sixth and Alder streets. Mr. Riley will address the State Press Association some time during its sessions in the Portland Press Club Friday and Saturday. Speeches will be made by the sheet metal workers Friday night at Labor Temple.

H. L. Moody found hearty endorsement of the bridge at the Parkrose Improvement Club last night, and at the Men's League of the Sunnyside Congregational church Monday night.

JOINT PROTEST TO

ity of English and German withdrawal of recognition of his regime.

Some comfort was found in Foreign Minister Mohlen's remark that the Wilson and Bryan notes do not alter the status quo, the inference drawn being that Huerta will at least not make the communications an excuse for any act of violence.

Charge d'Affaires O'Shaughnessy of the American embassy, had a conference with Minister Mohlen in the course of the day, but no definite statement concerning its outcome.

The conference of the members of the diplomatic corps was called by the Spanish minister. It was said that he and the other diplomatic representatives were acting under imperative orders from their respective governments to let Huerta know how strongly they object to his arrest of the members of the chamber of deputies, to the dissolution of congress and to his own proclamation of a dictatorship.

WASHINGTON WAITING FOR RESPONSE TO NOTES SENT HUERTA

(United Press Special Wire.)

Washington, Oct. 15.—Convicted that Provisional President Huerta has no idea of relinquishing his grip on Mexico, but aims to emulate ex-President Diaz as practically an absolute ruler, the Wilson administration admittedly was considering today the possibility of the Mexican rebels as belligerents.

That a crisis had been reached in the relations between the United States and Mexico was admitted, but it was asserted that it was rather diplomatic than military in its nature, inasmuch as the administration was not considering intervention, unless Huerta's recent coup, which made him dictator, should result in a wholesale massacre of foreigners.

President Wilson told Huerta he was "shocked" to learn that he had employed General Huerta, the secretary he found it "impossible to regard otherwise than an act of bad faith toward the United States General Huerta's course in dissolving congress and arresting the deputies," and that he would not feel justified in accepting the result of an election held or in recognizing a president chosen under such circumstances.

The note from Secretary Bryan, which accompanied the one sent by President Wilson, had not been made public today, but it was known to be strongly phrased inquiry concerning the safety of the imprisoned deputies.

The state department has kept the powers informed concerning the correspondence between the American and Mexican governments and of all developments in connection with the crisis between them.

President Wilson and Secretary Bryan had a long talk today concerning the Mexican situation. The secretary afterward denied that he had ordered emissary Lind to return home.

Huerta had made no reply this afternoon to the president's or to Bryan's notes to him.

TEACHER INJURED IN AUTO CRASH RECOVERS

Miss Frances Hughes of the Hanover apartments, Washington, D. C., who was severely injured in an automobile accident last Thursday, has recovered sufficiently to leave her bed today. Miss Hughes, who is a teacher at the Holladay school, suffered a seriously sprained back when the taxi cab in which she was riding to school last Thursday morning, was hit by a large auto truck. The taxi was turned over on its side and the large car, throwing Miss Hughes sharply against the side of the vehicle. She has been confined to her bed from the shock of the accident till today. The taxi cab was driven by the Portland Taxi cab company.

CHIEF JUSTICE FAVORS ALTERNATIVE WRIT

Chief Justice McBride Decides to Issue Alternative Writ of Mandamus.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)

Salem, Or., Oct. 15.—Chief Justice McBride of the supreme court reversed his decision today and issued an alternative writ of mandamus against Judge McKinnon of the Multnomah county circuit court, directing him to appear before the supreme court October 21 and show cause, if any, why the indictments against E. C. Von Klein should not be dismissed, and Von Klein be released from custody.

When the application was first presented to Justice McBride he denied the application, but Attorney Hume appeared before him today and after consultation with the other justices the chief justice decided to give the case a hearing.

The writ is based on the ground that the circuit court continued the case against Von Klein, who is indicted both for larceny and bigamy, from one term of court to another without a proper reason being shown therefor by the district attorney.

GEORGE SORENSON IS AGAIN IN LAW'S TOILS

George Sorenson, convicted of land frauds by Special United States Attorney Francis J. Heney nearly 10 years ago, is again in the toils of the law. Yesterday he was arrested at down town hotel by Deputy Constable McCullough on a charge of larceny by bailment sworn to by Charles Dierke. He furnished $4000 bonds for his release. He will be arraigned in the district court.

According to the complaint Dierke and his wife paid Sorenson $500 on January 8 for which he was to procure for them 640 acres of timber land in Coos county, on which a stand of 60,000,000 feet of timber was guaranteed. Neither the land nor the money was forthcoming from Sorenson, according to the complaint. The land, it is said, was to be school land.

Two other complaints against Sorenson are in the hands of District Attorney Evans. John Romisch declared that Sorenson had deeded him property held by Franklin Pierce Mays to which Sorenson had no title. He said he had furnished $800 for the property.

Elizabeth Topken alleged that he received $480 as first payment on 320 acres of Coos county land with 20,000,000 feet of timber on it. These provisions were incorporated in a receipt she produced. She said no land or money had been furnished to her since.

AMERICAN LIFE IS GRANTED A LICENSE

Salem, Or., Oct. 15.—After protesting the policy of the American Life & Accident company by requiring the company, following the supreme court's opinion upholding the insurance commissioner in refusing to grant the company a license to transact a life insurance business, to reinsure its life insurance business in another company, State Insurance Commissioner Ferguson yesterday afternoon granted the company a license to transact a life insurance business in this state.

It will have to confine its operations entirely to a health and accident insurance business.

This company has made a complete reorganization and none of the officers who were connected with the company at the time its license was suspended will have any connection with its management or its affairs, said Commissioner Ferguson.

DOCK BOND COMPLAINT AMENDED BY LA ROCHE

Salem, Or., Oct. 15.—City Attorney Brewster today amended a complaint in the Portland dock bonds case.

The court yesterday handed down an opinion in the case in which it quashed a writ of mandamus directed against the mayor and auditor of Portland to compel them to sign an issue of bonds approved by the city council, because the complaint failed to state that if the bonds were issued the debt limit of the city would not be exceeded.

This caused the court to pass over the merits of the question as to who, under the new commission form charter, is authorized to issue the remainder of the Portland public dock bonds voted by the people. By amending the complaint to correct the defect it is hoped to yet obtain an early decision from the court on the merits of the case.

By stipulation between Attorney La Roche and Chairman Mulkey, the case was submitted to the supreme court under the amended complaint without further oral argument. The case now is in the hands of the court and will be considered on its merits.

EARTHQUAKE SHOCK SHAKES OREGONIANS

Halfway, Or., Oct. 15.—Residents of Lander and Clatsop, Idaho, in the Seven Devil mountains were thrown almost into a panic yesterday afternoon when quite a severe earthquake shock was felt. Shattered windows, chimneys were broken in several houses, dishes fell from the cupboard and the residents rushed from their homes, horror-stricken. A loud rumbling noise accompanied the shock, which was of more than a minute's duration.

Telephone communication is badly crippled further on, but it is believed the quake centered in and around Clatsop and Lander, in the heart of the mountains.

The shock was felt distinctly at Hopedale, on the Oregon side of the Snake river. This is the second shock in this same district within the past four years.

FORMER MONEY ORDER CLERK IS INDICTED

Emore McKenzie, former clerk in the money order department of the Portland postoffice, was indicted this morning by the federal grand jury for embezzlement of $25.15, and it is expected that he will plead guilty to the charge tomorrow. He was arrested about six months ago.

J. H. Field was indicted for sending seven threatening postcards to Mrs. Leonard Leverich, of Albany.

REMOVALS FAIL BEE HEARINGS IN STREETCAR FRANCHISE

Attorney for Proposed Oregon City Line Says Many Signers Not Property Owners.

Although today had been set for hearing remonstrances of property owners on Stark street opposed to the granting of a franchise to the Portland Oregon City Electric Railway company to operate over the United Railways tracks from Fourth to Tenth, none of the remonstrances was presented. A remonstrance they had presented was read, however.

M. G. Munly, representing the new company, stated that a number of those who had signed the petition were not property owners as set forth in the remonstrance, and had no right to protest on the ground that it would injure their property. It was pointed out that 12 out of 19 signers were not property owners on Stark street.

When the matter came up for discussion, Commissioner Brewster stated that all remonstrances coming into the city should be kept out of the business district. All of the members of the council agreed some action would have to be taken in the future to exclude all such suits from the business district.

The members of the East Side Business Men's club in a communication to the council asked that the franchise be granted to the company, as if the line was objectionable to those on Stark street it could be routed from the Hawthorne bridge to Fourth, to Yamhill, to Tenth, to Salmon, to Front and to the bridge.

Judge Munly stated that the company was rapidly nearing the city with its tracks and asked that action be taken soon.

TODAY'S WORK OF COUNCIL

The city council this morning transacted the following business:

Passed an ordinance compelling all persons owning property in the city to submit an amendment to the city charter for vote November 4 will be considered. If the amendment carries it will define the power either of the city or the commission to issue the $1,000,000 in bonds remaining from the issue first authorized of $2,500,000. Amendment is necessary, due to a defect in the commission charter. Consideration will probably also be given the commission's project to remove Swan Island and build deep sea dock at the Mock Bottom and Bridgeport.

Bartenders Sent to Rockpile.

Duke Evans, a bartender at the Cabaret grill, and Walter Newman, a bartender at 245 Burnside street, were sentenced to the rockpile by Municipal Judge Stevenson this morning for selling liquor to intoxicated men. Evans was given 60 days and will appeal the case, while Newman will serve 30 days.

ARCH-EPISCOPACY IS VOTED ON BY BISHOPS

(United Press Special Wire.)

New York, Oct. 15.—The house of bishops at the Episcopal church convention devoted itself almost wholly today to consideration of the legislation, already passed by the house of deputies, relating to the creation of an arch-episcopacy, and the election of a bishop at the head of each.

If this plan which low church men refer to as amounting to the establishment of an arch-episcopacy, and a step in the direction of creating an "American pope."

The house accepted the resignation of Bishop Wells of Spokane, Gray of Florida and Knickerbocker of Cuba.

Bishops Fuston of Idaho, Beecher of Nebraska, and Winchester of Arkansas, were scheduled to speak from the curb in Wall street this afternoon, with Henry Clay, the financier, presiding over the gathering.

PYTHIAN SISTERS ELECT AND IN STALL OFFICERS

The grand lodge of Pythian Sisters, which is meeting in Portland at the Women of Woodcraft hall, Tenth and Taylor streets, today elected and installed officers. The convention will adjourn into the afternoon.

Mrs. Mable Roberts of Myrtle Point was elected grand chief. The other grand officers selected for the forthcoming year are: Senior, Mrs. Mary Littlefield of Portland; Junior, Mrs. Nellie Vernon of Astoria; matron, Mrs. Emma Snyder of Aurora; mistress of records and correspondence, Mrs. Mary Hogue of Klamath Falls, who has been selected for twelve consecutive terms; mistress of finance, Mrs. Betty Clark of Rainier (re-elected); protector, Mrs. Minnie Vinton of McMinnville; guard, Mrs. Opal Fox of Portland; grand representative, Mrs. Laura Houghbair of Rainier; and two at-large, Mrs. Elizabeth Dunning of Portland and Mrs. Mary Stearns of Union.

Election Is Triumph for Tariff.

Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 15.—Vindication of the Democratic tariff policy, so far as West Virginia is concerned, was evidenced today, when the return from the special congressional election showed M. M. Neely, Democrat, elected with J. G. Hearne, Republican, second, and G. A. Laughlin, Progressive, third. Neely's plurality was 1399.

The fight is the first one made since the passage of the new tariff act and was based largely to the tariff question. The Democrats say it shows the popularity of the present tariff program. The others lay their defeat to the division of Republican and Progressive votes. Mr. Neely received a telegram of congratulation from President Wilson today.

LA FRANCE CASE IS EXPECTED TO GO TO JURY THIS AFTERNOON

Defendant in Insurance Swindle Takes Stand but Makes No Disclosure.

The case of the state against James C. La France, who is alleged to have swindled the Modern Woodmen of the World out of $3000 insurance money, was expected to go to the jury this afternoon. The last witness was examined this morning, and the state had finished its opening argument when the court took recess at noon.

Only two witnesses appeared for the defendant, including La France himself. La France was on the stand this morning, and was expected his testimony would be of a sensational nature. He occupied the stand for a bare minute and a half, however, in an effort to prove an alibi.

His only other witness, M. B. Leabo, a farmer of Donald, Or., testified last yesterday afternoon that La France had worked for him from June 21, 1913, until a little before the state fair, June 21, is the day La France is said to have disappeared. La France merely corroborated his testimony. Cross-examination brought forth the fact that Leabo was away for the day of Sunday, June 30. This is the date that the man said to be La France was seen in the woods on the Upper Clackamas.

Deputy District Attorney Arthur Murphy was on the stand following La France this morning. He related his meetings with La France at the time the defendant made the numerous contributions to officials of the district attorney's office. His story was a repetition of what had previously been told by Deputy Attorney Maguire and Chief Clerk Ryan.

A verdict is expected late today.

Dock Commission May Submit Amendment

At a regular meeting of the public dock commission in the Worcester building tomorrow morning the proposal to submit an amendment to the city charter for vote November 4 will be considered. COURT'S RULING TAKEN TO MEAN SULZER WILL LOSE GOVERNORSHIP

Impeachment Articles Held Broad Enough to Include Testimony of Peck, Et Al.

(United Press Special Wire.)

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 15.—The Sulzer impeachment court denied this afternoon the request of the prosecution for permission to amend the impeachment articles but the ruling was no victory for the governor.

It was the defense's view that the failure of the articles to mention Dunham Peck and Henry Morgenthau as witnesses whose testimony the executive had tried to suppress, coupled with the fact that they were the only witnesses there was any evidence he tried to tamper with, constituted a fatal defect in the prosecution's case.

The prosecuting lawyers feared the same thing, but the court held that the articles were broad enough to include Peck and Morgenthau. It held amendment, therefore, to be unnecessary.

The court decision concerning the Peck and Morgenthau testimony was generally accepted as meaning Sulzer's removal from the governorship. His friends heard it with deep gloom and admitted that under the circumstances, the ousting of the executive from office probably was only a question of time. The court then went into executive session.

ATTACKS VALIDITY OF MUNICIPAL TRIBUNAL

An attack on the legality of the municipal court, which it is declared is invalid, and without any jurisdiction whatever, is found in a motion filed this afternoon by Attorneys George Tawell and Joseph G. Richardson, to have the judgment against Grace Edwards, sentenced to 15 days in jail by Judge Stevenson, set aside.

The contention is that the new city charter failed to create a municipal court except by allowing certain sections of the old charter to be retained by ordinance, and that supreme court authorities have ruled that no court can be established by ordinance.

It recites that by reason of this fact the woman was not found guilty by any constituted or authorized person, officer, tribunal nor municipal judge.

It attacks the right of the circuit court to hear appeals or allow reviews from the municipal court, on the ground that a municipal court does not exist.

It is also declared that all acts of the municipal judge are unwarranted assumptions of authority and that any sentences passed are illegal and unconstitutional.

Should the contentions of these attorneys be sustained, it is likely that hundreds of similar cases will be filed by persons who are now in jail or under sentence from the municipal court.

CHINESE WEDDING TO BE ELABORATE AFFAIR

Handsome Wedding Gown and Costly Presents Features of Tonight's Nuptials.

By far the most elaborate marriage ceremony of the autumn will take place tonight at the White Temple, when Miss Rosaline L. Goon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Goon Dip of Portland, will become the bride of Lew Geste Kay of Seattle. Rev. W. B. Hinson will perform the ceremony, and afterward a large reception will be held in the parlors of the church.

Rumor has it that Miss Goon will receive a $10,000 dowry from her father, who is one of the wealthiest Chinese merchants of the city, and who has large canneries along the Columbia. Gifts of rare design and great cost are already being delivered from friends of the two families all over the northwest.

Miss Goon was born in Portland and has been a student at Portland Academy. Mr. Lew was born in Seattle and was educated in the Seattle high school and the University of Washington. Since his graduation from the University, he has been in China, where he is one of the officials of an engineering school.

Some of the rarest gowns that ever figured in a wedding in Portland will be worn by the bride party, Miss Goon's dress having been imported from Paris. Floral decorations costing hundreds of dollars are being arranged in the church.

The marriage will unite two of the most influential Chinese families on the Pacific coast. Geste Kay, father of the bride-elect, is now vice-consul at Seattle, where he makes his diplomatic headquarters. Mr. Lew's family was one of the earliest of the Seattle merchants.

Mr. Lew, as a youngster, sold papers on the streets and was one of the first Chinese "newsies" in the United States.

IMPROVEMENT BONDS BRING FAIR PREMIUM

More than $300,000 worth of 10 year 6 per cent improvement bonds were sold yesterday to the highest bidders by the city. The premiums ranged from 2.50 to 3.50 per cent above par, with several small investors bidding.

The purchasers are C. Ecks, $1000 at 2.50 per cent; L. J. Shell, $3500 at 3 per cent; J. F. Morgan, $1000 at 3 per cent; I. E. Solomon, $400 at 2 per cent; $1000 at 2.50; extension fund, $1000 at par; dock fund, $1000 at par; W. F. White, $174,887.69 at 2.50; Henry Teal, $25,000 at 2.50; Henry Teal, $25,000 at 2.50; Bank of California, $4000 at 3 per cent; Maud Campbell, $400 at 3 per cent; Ben A. Campbell, $2000 at 3 per cent; Lumbertons Trust & Savings bank, $15,000 at 2.50; same bank, $25,000 at 2.50; Q. H. Rande, $8000 at 2.10; John Holm, $5000 at 3 per cent.

City Treasurer Adams purchased a total of $1861 in street extension bonds for the street extension fund, paying par and accrued interest.

Mayor Discusses Budget.

The provisions of the municipal budget affecting the department of public safety were discussed by Mayor Albee today in an informal talk at the Wednesday luncheon of the University club.

Illinoisans Meet Tonight.

Former Illinoisans will make a Halloween party of their meeting in The Journal building tonight. Music, readings and reminiscences will make up the formal program. Former meetings of the Illinois Society have been held in Manchester hall. Invitations have been extended to all former residents of Illinois, whether members of the society or not.

Great Sale of Imported Scotch Woolens

From Bonnie Scotland's Looms

Guaranteed $50 to $60 Values—Matchless Weaves

For This Week I Will Place on Sale a special purchase of Imported Scotch Tweeds and Cheviots from the celebrated firm of Russell, MacFarland & Co., Glasgow, Scotland. These fabrics are noted for their matchless weaves, extreme durability and eternally permanent dyes. They snap with style and quality and are in every way the apparel of a gentleman. These materials can only be had ordinarily from the high-priced tailors at from $50 to $60.

I Will Make a Suit to Your Order for $25

from any one of these fine fabrics, with an ironclad guarantee that it will fit well and wear well. When your clothes bear the Tom Gallagher mark it means a suit of pure wool, doubly shrunk, hand-tailored inside and out with a thoroughness above criticism and equal in every respect to the $50 and $60 suits, for Twenty-Five Dollars for this sale.

Look into my show windows and see the extensive showing of high-grade woolens, and to prove that I do not display one thing and sell you another, as the fake tailor does, you may select goods from any windows and I will build them into a suit or topcoat for you—and, bear in mind, every suit contains the Journeyman Tailors' Union Label (not the garment-makers' ready-made label used by the misleading tailor), but the genuine label of quality. Come in and inspect my enormous stock of woolens, not alone the largest in Portland, but probably the largest carried by any tailor on the Coast.
