RAY CAMPBELL'S WORK TONIGHT TO BE WATCHED

San Francisco, Oct. 17.—The work of Ray Campbell, who clashes here tonight with Louis Rees, topping a card of nine 4 round events, will be watched with in-terest. Campbell is heralded as a much improved boxer. Since he left San Fran-cisco several months ago he has been fighting in the northwest and has an unbroken string of victories until he clashed with Freddie Welsh at Vancou-ver. Welsh gained the decision after 15 rounds of boxing. Campbell is a 10 to Salvadore Is Favorite. Sacramento, Cal., Oct. 17.—Sally Salvadore of Sacramento is a slight favorite over Johnny O'Leary, the northwest lightweight, for their scheduled 20 round bout here tonight. Each lad holds a hairline decision over the other. Both boys made the weight, 128 pounds, Billy Murray of Sacramento and fight. The charges followed the death of Bull Young, as the result of a box-go will box a 10 round special event.

Frankie Burns or Canadian Barrieau May Go 10 Rounds With Lightweight.

Oakland, Cal., Oct. 17,-The Bud Anderson-Joe Azevedo 10 round bout scheduled to be staged here October 29, is off. According to Jimmy Rohan, Azevedo's manager, the Sacramento boy is suffering from an abcess on his lip and unless a decided improvement is shown will have to submit to an operation.

Anderson, who is training at San Rafael, will not lose out, however, as the Wheelmen's club is after a substitute for Azevedo. The choice now lies between Frankie Burns of Oakland and

Frank Barrieau of Victoria. If Burns will accept a reasonable of-fer for his services he and the Medford lightweight will be the card. Burns has been clamoring for a return match with Azevedo for some time, and it is expected he will accept the Anderson date in the hope that if he wins he will be in line for a Thanksgiving date around Dundee After Kilbane. Les Angeles, Oct. 17.—Promoter Mc-Carey is awaiting today a reply from Featherweight Champion Johnny Klibane to an offer for a Thanksgiving day match at 126 pounds or catch weights with Johnny Dundee. Pullman, Wash., Oct. 17.—Coach Bend. er will invade Moscow today with his men primed for the battle of their lives. All this week the former Nebraska quar Stort is still seeking a game with Whitworth college and is also angling for other college games. He expects to get a contest with the University of will make no statement as to the prospects of winning, merely saying "Idaho will know they have been in a game when they get through with us." He has the team that will open the game picked and will start a heavy line and a comparatively light backfield. Captain Coulter will be at right half. Foster at full and Satterthwaite at left half. Billie Smith is due as quarter, although he was out of the two practice games with a cracked shoulder.

The line is much stronger this year than last with "Shorty" Harter at center, Joe Harter at right guard, Landon at left and Alvord and Hinderman tackles. Ends will be well taken care of with Tyrer and Dietz both playing far better ball than at any time last year.

AGREEING ON WEIGHTS

Vancouver Has No Heavy Wrestler and Multnomah CONFERENCE BATTLE No 135 Pounder.

Chairman Edgar E. Frank of the Mulnomah club wreatling and boxing committee, and Chet McIntyre, instructor of the Vancouver, B. C., Athletic club, are trying to reach a decision in regard to the weight questions in the interclub meet scheduled for October 31.

Vancouver has no heavyweight wrestler, one of the weights named by Multnomah, and the local club has no 135 pound mat man, as named by Vancouver.
Frank has named Duff, a 150 pound grappler, instead of the heavyweight, and has asked McIntyre to name some other than a 135 pound wrestler.
