

PORTLAND, OREGON, SUNDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 19, 1913.

CLASS ROOM SPACE AT THE STATE UNIVERSITY WHOLLY INADEQUATE

Proper Conduct of Work Severely Hampered by Lack of Housing Facilities.

(Special to The Journal.)
University of Oregon, Eugene, Or., Oct. 18.—That the $175,000 appropriation for a new building and repairs to present buildings at the state university, upon which the people will pass at the special election next month is much needed, is indicated by the congestion now prevalent on the campus. In several departments the class room facilities are totally inadequate and detrimental to the work pursued and even to the health of the students.

Pictures which show congestion on University of Oregon campus. Top, left to right—Lecture room occupied by the department of journalism, in which every available inch is utilized; a corridor passageway that in addition serves as an emergency book room and emergency hospital.

Bottom—Basement room that houses the English literature department. It is intended for 40 students at a time; it cares for 75. It is in use five hours a day by 350 students.

OLDEST THEATRE UPON WESTERN CONTINENT IS IN CITY OF MEXICO

Spanish Priests Get Credit for Erecting Ancient Playhouse in 1721.

The oldest theatre on the American continent is in the City of Mexico, says the Los Angeles Times. It is the aged Teatro Principal, the history of which goes back to 1721. There is nothing particularly distinctive about its architecture, however, for its two stories of repaired facade covered over with lurid posters corresponds in general style to the other playhouses of the city. Then, too, there is a certain animation about the crowds that pass in and out the entrance that is somewhat misleading to those on the outlook for relics of the past.

ANTI-SALOON TICKET IN WOODBURN FIELD

Woodburn, Or., Oct. 18.—The local anti-saloon factions last night put the following ticket in the field for city officers to be voted upon November 11. Mayor, R. Landon; councilmen, D. Boyer and J. G. Iddings; recorder, C. V. Conyne; treasurer, A. C. Althaus.

DR. AND MRS. LISLE CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)
Salem, Or., Oct. 18.—The golden wedding of Dr. and Mrs. James Lisle of this city was celebrated last night in the parlors of the First Methodist church. Dr. Lisle is librarian of the Willamette university. For 53 years he has been a minister of the Methodist church. He was married 50 years ago in Iowa. Dr. Fletcher Homan presided at the festivities last night, which were attended by a large number of the friends. A program was given.

S. P. Veteran Is Dead.

Berkeley, Cal., Oct. 18.—F. S. Rollins, superintendent of telegraph for the Southern Pacific, died at his home here. Rollins had been in the railroad's employ since 1875.

TO REGISTER

Secretary of State Quotes Some Law for Benefit of Those in Doubt.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)
Salem, Or., Oct. 18.—Secretary of State Ben W. Olcott states that letters reaching his office indicate that many voters of the state are still in doubt as to whether they will be entitled to vote at the special referendum election to be held November 4 if they are not registered under the new permanent registration law, which went into effect June 3. He points out that a voter is entitled to vote at the special election under his old 1912 registration, if he has not removed from his precinct, or under his new registration if he has registered since the permanent registration law went into effect, or by swearing in his vote on election day under blank A. In simple words, any citizen of the state can vote at the special election under his old or new registration or whether he is registered or not.

UNCLE SAM PROTECTS ALL MIGRATORY FOWL

Washington, Oct. 18.—Migratory birds have come into their own, for Uncle Sam has put into effect a set of uniform federal laws protecting the many species of the feathered tribe which threaten to become extinct through the ravages of the stars.

PARISIANS HAVE IDEA JAPAN BACKS MEXICO

Paris, Oct. 18.—That Japan is backing Mexico in her belligerent attitude towards the United States is a fact which is one of the intimations constantly finding expression here.

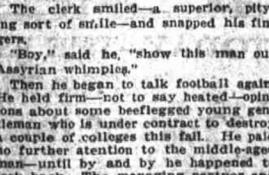

LITTLE REELS FROM REAL LIFE

Word Pictures by Herbert Corey

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Ever hear why August Herrmann is known to all the world as "Garry"?
Herrmann is the chairman of the National Baseball commission. Other baseball diplomats may be the clearest and coldest thinker in the business. Herrmann devised the plan of organization under which modern baseball is conducted, and his meditative talent has kept the leagues operating under the plan. Forty years ago he was a small German boy in Cincinnati. His first job was in a printing office. "Another and an older boy was employed there. "The tradition of the office," said one of Herrmann's old friends, "was that the boy should always be nicknamed 'Bismarck.' So that the first boy was so known in the shop. When this second boy came along the shop intellectuals were strained almost to the bursting point. Obviously there could not be two Bismarcks. Also there were inter-tribe troubles to be feared.

THE DOUBLE-PAGE FIRST SECTION

Conveys News to the Public of Important Sales of Gripping Interest

The Double-Page First Section Conveys News to the Public of Important Sales of Gripping Interest

Lipman & Co. Merchandise of the East and West