

Oriental Rugs At Cost For One Week

$50,000 Stock of Finest Rugs
THAT WILL MAKE AUCTION SALES
LOOK RIDICULOUS

Oriental Rugs From This Sale That Will Prove Assets to Their Future Owners
—$50,000 worth of Oriental rugs and carpets at prices less than would rule in the bazaars at Constantinople. We shall see to it that our reputation for never being undersold in Oriental rugs is maintained. Hence this sale.
—This event is noteworthy, in that one may select rugs from this sale, take them to their homes, place them in comparison with rugs purchased elsewhere, offer them for critical inspection as to quality, and return them, if our rugs in each instance are not from a quarter to a half less than those offered at auction sales.
—Our experts have closely watched rug transactions in this city during the past two weeks. We are more than satisfied, and convinced that we can demonstrate beyond the shadow of a doubt the absurdity of buying rugs at auction.
—Here you need feel no influence of the capper, nor the persuasive eloquence of the auctioneer. Instead we allow the rugs to do the talking for us.
—Tomorrow then we start the greatest Oriental rug sale ever known and incidentally offering to illustrate the remarkable opportunity this sale affords. We name—

We Are Proud of Our Art Needle Section

—Never has the art of needleworkers been so prolific as at the present time. A stroll through our needle art section is like a visit to Wonderland.
—Flowers that almost have fragrance, grow here the year around, without caring as to the season. Quaint little sweethearts look at you from round eyes; Darling little Japanese maidens smile at you over their fans; queer conventionalized poppies, in fresh dainty greens; rich mulberry shades that have almost the glow of rare jewels; arts and crafts designs in bold outlines and restful colors; materials that have taken unto themselves the peculiar lustre of metals, but retain all their original softness.
—Hosts and hosts of articles of every kind imaginable. All in readiness for the early Christmas shopper who anticipates her gifts early in the season—for the needleworker who can complete her many little gifts in time to travel to distant friends.
