Social and Personal Parker

today is the wedding this evening of Miss Adelaide Loewenson to Dr. Laurence Selling at the Mult-pomah hotel at 9 o'clock, Rabbi sence of both the families of the arids and groom make this an event of aspecial interest. Miss Loewenson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Loewenson, and Dr. Selling is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Selling, two old and preminent Portland families, identified with the ploneer history of the city. There will be 100 guests present for the wedding and reception and dance, which will follow. The bridesmalds will be Miss Frieds Baruh, Miss Ruth Rosenfeld, Migs Helen Simon, Miss Ellouise Loewenson, Miss Dorothy Loewenson will be attended by Harbert sichel and the ushers will be Mason Ehrman, Lester Sichel and James Rosenfeld.

feld.

Another event of much interest will be the wedding of Miss Romains Wood to Henry Wessinger, which has been set for November 5. Mr. Wessinger is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wessinger, and is one of the popular men of the younger set. Miss Wood is of Aberdeen, Wash, where the wedding will take place. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alanson D. Wood, and a sister of Mrs. Fred Green of this city.

Friday Night Dancing Club to Meet. The subscription parties of last sea-son which were among the most popu-lar events with the younger set of smart society have reorganized this year as the Friday Night Dancing club. The first party of the series had been

Mrs. Parrish to Entertain.

Cards are out for a large afternoon bridge party to be given by Mrs. George Parrish November i, at her charming home "Five Acres," at Thirty-third and Tillamook streets.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Coovert Hosts.

Principally about People

"We are having a delightful time," ber company, of Goos Bay and San declared Miss Marr, daughter of Frank S. Marr of Philadelphia, who, with her father, is a guest at the Multnomah. "We are just taking a pleasure trip about the country and think the west is fine."

The Thompson family, all interested in the Thompson estate, is well represented at the Multnoman today, for L. C. Thompson, wife and daughter of Carlton, Mrs. Clarke W. Thompson of Cascade Locks and H. W. Thompson of Eugene are registered there.

A tourist party from Fitchburg.
Mass, which is touring the west, and who are on their way south, arrived at the Portland yesterday and are seeing Portland today. The guests are Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Bowker, Carl L. Bowker and Mrs. P. E. Belding.

Rebert McCrow, a stock man of Gol-dendate, is a guest at the Cornelius. W. H. Ward, a business man of Gol-icodale, and wife as a control of Goland wife, are at the Cornelius. H. Holterman, a merchant of Boring, registered at the Cornelius. R. M. Mowrey, a business man of ents matter greatly, as does the manner Corveills, and wife, are at the Cor- of their application and elimination.

P. M. Baldwin, a banker of Prinaville, is registered at the Imperial. R. A. Booth, a lumberman of Eugene, and wife, are at the Imperial.

A. B. Thompson and wife and H. L. Stanfield are the members of a party from Echo. They are guests at the Imperial.

Albert Dunbar, a merchant of As-toris, is registered at the Imperial. J. B. Ecclestone, a manufacturer of design, antiques and art objects is just now receiving some of the most fascinatile, is stopping at the Oregon.

Lester L. Wilkins, a merchant of Settle, is stopping at the Oregon. Lester L. Wilkins, a merchant of Seattle, is stopping at the Oregon.

Vernon A. Forbes, an attorney of Bend, is a guest at the Oregon.

T. B. Degman, a railroad man of Seattle, is registered at the Oregon.

C. J. Bovie, a merchant of Eugene, is at the Perkins.

Andrew Johnson and J. J. Turrell, size, all of which we have heretofore mper men of Hoquiam, are guests at C. R. Coyle, a merchant of St. Paul,

Or., is stopping at the Perkins.
Frank Thebault, a cannery man of Astoria, and wife, are at the Perkins.
Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Robertson, of Victoria, B. C., are guests at the Multnomah.
H. W. Simpson, of the Simpson Lum-

Start Them Off Right With a

Good Laxative and Then

Watch Their Food.

Mothers are often unconsciously very careless about the diet of their children, forcing all to eat the same foods. The fact is that all foods do not agree alike with different persons. Hence, avoid what seems to constipate the child or to give it indigestion, and urge it to take more of what is quickly digested.

Watch Carefully

Dr. Lawrence Selling, whose marriage to Miss Adelaide Loewenson will take place this evening at the Multnomah hotel.

the Friday Night Dancing club. The club, which has a membership of about first party of the series had been planned for October 21, but in courtesy to the Japanese consul and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ida who will hold a large ball of Portia club some six years ago and their party of the series of Portia club some six years ago and that evening at the Multnoman, in cele-bration of the birthday of the emperor of Japan, the committee have set their date shead to Wednesday evening, Oc-tober 29.

have met every two weeks at luncheon functions. Since then they have arranged for an evening af-fair, including the husbands, a number of times each season. Last evening the Irvine-Jackson Wedding. time was passed at conversation and Mrs. Strain Hostess.

Mrs. James Strain entertained at din Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Coovert at their charming home, 826 Johnson street. The ding will take place early next month.

Horace Hull and Mrs. Hull (Margaret Anglin) and maid are stopping at the W. P. Davidson, of the Land Coloni-sation company of the Northern Paci-fic railway, is registered at the Portland from St. Paul, Mrs. John L. Rand, of Baker, is stop-ping at the Portland.

By Vella Winner

Beauty Mint.

ment than you would think of consult

Vogue for Italian Art.

tints, some covered and some uncovered,

The rich, beautiful old Italian art is

drs. Lockwood Card Hoste

M. A. A. C. Dance.

Thursday evening, October 20, the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club will entertain with a Hallowe'en party at Portland Man Weds in New York. Invitations have been sectived from New York city to the marriage of Miss Elsa Adele Laue of New York to Arilington O'Rollin Caughey of this city at Hartem Presbyterian church, with Rev. John Lyon Caughey, an uncle of the groom, officiating. The wedding will take place Thursday evening at $3.30 o'clock. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Caughey of Portland and a brother of Mrs. Joseph Gill (Bertha Caughey). He is well known here, where he formerly lived. The bride is the daughter of Arp S. Laue of Invitations have been seceived from bride is the daughter of Arp S. Laue of New York city. She is a clever and talented girl, an illustrator on the Mo-time was passed at conversation and music, John F. Logan entertaining them with an interesting talk on his recent trip abroad. Mr. and Mrs. Logan returned a week ago last Sunday from a three months' delighful travel on the continent.

One of the pretty fall weddings was that of Miss Hazel A. Jackson and William G. Irvine, which took place Wednesday evening, October I, at the home weights and measures of the city of portland. The nuptial parlors were beautifully decorated with fern, Oregon stood beneath a bower of autumn follows. age, ferns and chrysanthemums, where Rev. J. E. Snyder of the Piedmont Presbyterian church read the impressive

The bride was attractive in her wedding gown of white charmeuse and chiffon daintily trimmed with shadow lace and pearl ornaments. She wore a spray of liles of the valley in her hair and carried a beautiful bouquet of Bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss-Isa Bell Stewart, niece of the groom, was the charming and attractive little flower girl. She scattered pink and white rose petals ahead of the bride and groom, who marched down the stairs, which were banked with Oregon grape, ferns and maple leaves, Miss Hazel Bowman played the Lohengrin wedding march and after the ceremony a few selections on the plane were played by Clarence Myrton Olm-stead. The bride's mother received at the door. She was gowned in a charm-ing dress of pale pink chiffon over crepe

A buffet luncheon was served. As-sisting about the rooms were Mrs. S. Everett Jackson, Irene Jackson (sister For Shopper Housekeeper

NEWS OF THE THEATRICAL WORLD

Friday afternoon Mrs. Sam Lockwood vill preside at five tables at bridge at ter home in Irvington.

Daniel Frohman, whose photoplays at the People's theatre are having their premier this week in Mrs. Fiske in "Test of the D'Urbervillen," discusses the advantages of the photoplay in the November issue of the Woman's Home Companion. He says in part:

"One advantage that the moving picture has is to supplement the imagination of the audience. No noted play ever begins at the beginning. There are many anjecedent events necessary which take place in dialogue and are not always wholly grasped, which the moving picture is able to viviry by commencing at the first stage of interest.

"It takes certain training to fit even the most accomplished actor or actress Mr. and Mrs. Tanner Bridge Hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Tanner will be card hosts Saturday evening, when they have asked guests for 13 tables at bridge.

Hallowe'en Party.

An event of much interest will be the Hallowe'en party Friday evening. October 31, to be given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kundredt, 730 East Broadway, when they will be joint hosts with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jenning. Unique and appropriate invitations have been sent out expressed in rhyme, which were very elever. The evening will be devoted to dancing and cards.

Tanner Bridge Hosts.

"One advantages of the Woman's Home Companion. He says in part:

"One advantage that the moving picture has is to supplement the imagination of the audience. No noted play ever begins at the beginning. There are many aniccedent events necessary which take place in dialogue and are not always wholly grasped, which the moving picture is able to vivify by commencing at the first stage of interest.

"It takes certain training to fit even the most accomplished actor or actress for the moving picture. Mechanical limitations have to be mastered and the player must know something concerning the scientific requirements before the scientific screen. He must know that a violent and rapid action on the stage will have to be less intense before the camera. "It takes from three to four weeks for

of the bride), Violet Davidson, Mrs. Emery Olmstead, Mrs. E. H. de Bran-were and Mrs. R. A. Stewart,

Many beautiful gifts attest the popu arity of the couple. They left in a shower of good wishes for their new home at Mount Tabor, The wedding guests included Mr. and Mrs. S. E.

Culbertson-Canright Wedding.

At the home of the bride's parents Calls magazine. The young couple At the home of the bride's parents, plan to make their home in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Culbertson in Dayton. Wash. Saturday, October 18, at ton, Wash., Saturday, October 18, at high noon, occurred one of the prettiest weddings of the season when Miss Portland. The nuptial parlors were beautifully decorated with farn, Oregon grape and asters. While the Mendelssohn's wedding march was being rendered by Miss Laura Lyman of Whitman conservators. Wells Wells Whitman conservatory, Walla Walla, the groom, attended by George Hill of Seattle, and the minister, Rev. Ellis B. Harris of Waitsburg, Wash., pastor of the Christian church, took their places. The bridal party was led by pretty Zella Culbertson, niece of the bride, scattering white rose petals in the path of the bride, who followed leaning upon the arm of her father. The bride was beautifully attired in white crepe de chine. The ceremony was very impres sive, being an original composition for the occasion by the minister.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Culbertson of Dayton, a retired farmer. She graduated from the Dayton high '09, and University of Washington '13. She is an accomplished musician. The groom is son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Canright of Portland. He graduated from Portland high '04 and is an ex-'12 University of Washington. He is now deputy sealer of weights and measures of the city of Mr. and Mrs. Canright will make their

Mrs. Duniway Will Be Honored.

Preceding a reumon of her family at a 6 o'clock dinner, at the home of her clated, and they range all the way from tiny jewel receptacles to great tall floor of her seventy-ninth birthday, October This is the time of year when the hair baskets—a suitable throne for gorgeous 22, a unique luncheon will be given at in the Olds, Wortman & King tea room

White Temple Women to Meet. All the women of the First Baptist church are invited to attend an experi-ence party to be held tomorrow after-noon at the lecture room of the White Temple. Miss Isabel Crawford will be a guest of honor on the occasion,

The H. R. S. Girls have issued invitations for their dancing party, Friday evening, October 31, at Green's hall. Committee in charge of the affair is: Margaret Dannerberg, Nina Leader, Frances Schuwiler, Mary Clancy, Hannah Donnerberg, Maude Littlejohne and Frances Keating. The patronesses will be: Mrs. James J. Hogan, Mrs. Win-throp Terry and Mrs. P. E. Sullivan.

Exact reproduction of our famous U. S. Blue Serge Skin-ner Satin-Lined Suit.

At $18.50 Worth $25 of Anybody's Money which has charmed New York, will do seen here for the first time. Henry Miller is said to be one of the most talked about actor managers of a the American stage. The comedy is one rather of sentiment than of heart interest and centers about a rich young ma of the world who has been estrange from his wife for many years.

UPSTAIRS

The approach of inclement weather is dreaded by members of the Baker Players for the reason that will and their delightful raise. Increase garden of the hotel where most of them live. As the stage of the theatre is used all week for the building of next week's scenic production, Stage Director Bliss conceived the happy notion of using the roof garden.

ountry se does "The House Next Door."
which the Baker Players offer next week, is curtain to attract unusual attention. It is a daring subject for my playwright to handle without offending someone, but that is just what Hartley Manners has done. One critic said: "It is begause he has extracted the sting and dilected a whimsical humor in its lace—an infectious humor which none in withstand."

Portland theatre goers are to see "The Lure," George Scarborough's white slave drama, at the Heilig theatre Sacurday and Sunday evenings. Outober 25 and 26. "The Lure" is a vital and powerful play, dealing with a subject that cannot very well be veiled it is filled with essential truth and has been indorsed by judges, clergymen and police commissioners.

"Get-Rich-Quick Wall cling good commissioners."

"Get-Rich-Quick Wall cling good commissioners." Henry Miller, in 'The Rainbow,' unwars, and points out a way of avoid-opens an engagement at the Heilig Mon-day evening. October 27. The comedy, of sudden riches through investments in vantage of this liberal offer. With a purchase of $10.00 or over we make a beautiful enlargement, absolutely FREE, from any photograph medallions in our store. Bring your photo

FOR FREE

dolern

Outfitting (O.

very acceptable gifts to friends or relatives.

you bring us.

with you.

Hundreds of men and women have taken ad-

These exquisite porcelain medallions make

Come in and see the beautiful display of these

We Will Make

A Beautiful

Enlargement

Photo

"Ask the Driver

be cleaned. Rest assured that they will be handled with care by experts who know how to retain the most delicate colors-how to clean the filmiest garment without damage to the texture of material or trimming.

DRY CLEANING US LAUNDRY CO

$100 Diamond Ring GIVEN ABSOLUTELY HOREISON ST. PREE. ALSO $10 IN

Have you given your Xmas Photos a serious thought? If not, now is the time we make beautiful Photos from $3.50 per dozen up. Present this ad at studio—it is worth $1.00 to you as part payment on any style Photo you may Ask at studio regarding Diamond Ring. See ring on exhibit at

A. & M. DELOVAGE JEWELRY 324 Wash. St., Bet. 6th and 7th

ROYAL BLDG.

346 % MORRISON ST.

FREE FREE FREE

AN OPPORTUNITY FOR ALL

THIS BEAUTIFUL $400 JESSE FRENCH PIANO

Will Be Given Away Free to the Person Sending us the Largest List of Complete Words Found in Webster's Dictionary Made From the Words

"Reed-French Piano"

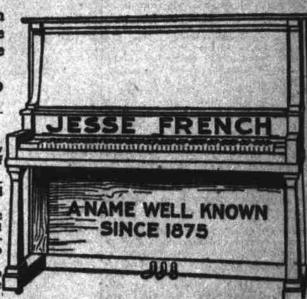

OUR NEW STORE

Our idea is to draw attention of the public to our new store, Tenth and Stark streets, and the fine line of Pianos that we carry.

Many other fine premiums will be given for second best list, third best list, and so on. Put on your thinking cap and send in a list. Some one will get these prizes—why not you? So get busy! Make your list and send it in right away. Free to everybody. We want everyone who would like a fine Plano or Player Plano to enter this competition.

A little study and numberless words will come to you. Send in your list right away—it might be the one to win the plano.

All Answers Must Reach Our Store Before 6 P. M., October 28, 1913. THE FREE PRIZES CONDITIONS

The first prize is a beautiful $400 Jesse French Piano for the largest list of words, the second prize to be a credit certificate of $150 and a gentleman's gold watch, the third prize a credit certificate of $150 and a ladies' gold watch, the fourth prize to be a credit certificate of $150, the fifth prize to be a credit certificate of $135; for the next five best answers a credit certificate of $125 each will be given, to the next ten a credit certificate of $122.50 will be given, and then following these in groups of twenty-five the next best lists will receive credit certificates of $2.50 less than the previous group, until 25 have been awarded at $50. All other answers will receive credit certificates of not less than $25 each. These credit certificates are good for the amount stated toward the purchase of any new Piano or Player Piano at the regular price. Time of certificate is limited and is not good on any purchase made prior to its date. Only one certificate can be applied on one plano.

Only the letters contained in the words "REED-FRENCH PIANO" can be used. No letter can be used in any word more times than it appears in these words. The letters can be used for different words as many limes as desired. Make as many limes as desired. Make as many two as a possible that are taken from Webster's dictionary. Write the list plainly and number your list. Fill out the coupon below and bring to our store. Tanth and Elari Six, or mail to Contest Manager Free to all except employee of this store and immediate families. Only one answer allowed from one person. The judging will be left to three The judging will be left to three prominent men of Portland, whose names will be annuated later.

In the event two or more contestants the for either of the primes division will be made on equal basis.

As to Our Line of Pianos-Our Prices-and Our Methods

Tou will find at our store such well-known standard makes of Pianos as the Henry & S. G. Ishdeman, Rallet & Davis, French & Sons, Schubert, Starck, Conway, Jesse Frenth, R. S. Howard Co., Lagenda, Holmes & Son, and the wonderful Virtuole and Melidogrand Si-Note Player Planos. Every one guaranteed.

We guarantee to apply all credit certificates on any instrument selected at the regular established Eastern Factory Retail Prices, adding only the actual shipping expense to Portland. This gives you the opportunity of buying a Plano at the very closest price.

Our object in doing this is to give direct to the buyer of advertising and high runt that you are required to pay to dealers who only sell a few planos by the olithod of House-to-House Canwassing."

We want every household in Oregon and Southern Washington to know our house and the line of Plano we carry, which are of the world's standard makes we carry, which are of the world's standard makes are in our new store, our stock of Planes is new and we have a proportion to the plano Maker's Art. Or write for catalogues, price and full particulars.

I herewith submit my answer, subject to conditions of competition, and agree to abide by decision of judges.

Sign Your Name Here.....

Street State: State:

TREES AND STARK STREETS

more of what is quickly digested.

If the child shows a tendency to constipation it should immediately be given a mild laxative to help the bowels. By this is not meant a physic or purgative, for these should never be given to calldren, nor anything like saits, pills, etc. What the child requires is simply a small dose of the gentlest of medicines, such as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which, in the opinion of thousands of watchful mothers, is the ideal remedy for any child showing a tendency to constipation. Be many things can happen to a constipated child that care is necessary. Colds, piles, headaches, sicsplessness, and many other annoyances that children should not have can usually be traced to constipation.

Many of America's foremost families ances that children should not have can usually be traced to constitution.

Many of America's foremost families are never without Syrup Pepsin, because one can never tell when some member of the family may need it, and all can use it. Thousands endorse it, and all can use it. Thousands endorse it, and ple bottle can obtain it postpaid by admining them Mrs. M. E. Patten, Valley Junction, Iows, who is never without it in the house. Mrs. Patten says that Syrup Pepsin has done wonders for her will do.

Everypleasant to the taste. It is also fabric.

There is a marked liking for various shales of red, wine, rose and coral. Sheer white waists of batise and lawn are effectively atteched with black.

The fichu and long jabot are outrunning the flat collar so long in favor, sington St. Monticelle, Ill. A postal card with your name and address on it will do.

BALFE E. PATTER

boy Ralph, who was constipated from birth but is now doing fine. Naturally she is enthusiastic about it and wants other mothers to use it. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold by druggists at fifty cents and one dellar a bottle, the latter size being bought by those who already know its value, and it confains proportionately more.

Everyone likes Syrup Pepsin as it is proportionately more.

Everyone likes Syrup Pepsin as it is fabric.

Beattle, is at the Nortonia.

This is the time of year when the hair baskets—a suitable throne for gorgeous 22, a unique luncheon will be given at william E. Laycock, a fruitgrower requires especial attention, if you would long-stemmed chrysanthemums or American Beauty roses.

Scott Duniway, by Mrs. H. R. Reynolds, At this same shop I was also shown a well as its life. It is true that the heir bedroom suite and an entire dining room has a "moulting season," and in the spring and the fall it should be watched suite of Italian oak of quaint, old fashoned design. The panels are of cane, lest'it carry the moulting too far. Es-pecial care should be given to the ghamalso stained brown, the ornamentation is oo at this time. The proper ingredi-Drying should be performed so that the of dead black ebony and the metal mountings are of dull hammered bronze of unique design. The dining table is of old "leaf" design, making it a square topped affair when the leaves are down. hair is not overheated-baked into life-This beautiful furniture is finished at lessness. In fact you should no more think of going to a quack for hair treatthe bottom with a single rope twist of H. R. S. Girls' Party. cak which just completes and adds the distinctive feature to it. ing a quack physician for physical ills. Rome Relps.

One of the very best things for a dust cloth is a red bandanna handkerchief. coming into its own. A Tenth street dealer in artistic furniture of exclusive They can be bought for 8 cents each, wash beautifully, and on account of color are easy to find. In scalloping edges much time is lost in padding. If two or three cords are many of them are first being shown in Portland by this enterprising dealer. The graceful brown baskets and dainty little splint baskets of the natural laid on and worked over, this time is saved, and the scallops are nice and smooth. Have the cords long enough to work several inches when more can b I found my steel needles which had been put away in a box for some time had a number of rusty spots on them, so seen only in the Japanese shops, have been glorified by the deft Italian artists wiped them over first with kerosene, then took pumice stone and rubbed them with it a few times and they were as smooth as when new-no trace of the

Vinegar works well in cleaning all white enamelware and does not injure

Egg shells may be used for cleaning vinegar cruets, water bottles and small jars one cannot get one's hands into. Crush the egg shells and put into bottle. Add a little warm water and shake well. Not only will this clean the bottle, but the Child's Diet The Whole Pea Pamily.

The new crop of canned peas has just rrived, and if you want to see the entire pea family, just pay a visit to the grocery department of a big Fifth street shop, for there you will find Granddaddy Pea, the father of them all, which is really the big old fashioned garden pea, also Baby Pea, the tiny little round ones, just the thing to serve with French lamb chops to serve in cases. there are all the generations between. These delicious new peas are put up in all sized cans all ready to season, heat and serve.

To Whiten Ivory.

To whiten ivory rub it well with un-salted butter and place it in the sun-shine. If it is discolored it may be whitened by rubbing it with a paste composed of burned pumice stone and water and putting it in the sun under

SPECIAL SALE

203-4-5 Swetland Building, 5th and Washington NATIONAL SAMPLE SUIT AND CLOAK CO.