Northwestern Ass'n Meets in Portland to Consider Vexed

For the purpose of taking action that will result in the standardization of the size and shape of fruit boxes, a score

The forencen session was given entirely over to the discussion of the various kinds and sizes of boxes now in use and a resolution presented by O. C. Feniason of Raymond, Wash., calling upon the association to recommend the use of standardized packages.

In presenting his resolution, Mr. Fen.

lason declared that there are 72 different sizes of fruit packages being manuardization whereby this number can be reduced to 3 sizes of boxes, all of which will fit in the same size crate.

In the absence of F. A. Douty, vice president of the association, J. P.

SCARCITY

Market Shows Cleap-Up Sales of Hens Down to 1814 Cents Per Pound; Some Receive a Fraction More but Cannot Clean Up.

> Today's Produce Trade, Poultry trade weaker. Chicken supplies liberal. Eggs continue firm. Some shade butter price. Hops are very weak. Country hose in demand. Local cabbage remains firm. Apple situation strong. otatoes very quiet.

There was a weaker feeling in the chicken trade along Front street during the last 24 hours, and a further reduction in the price has been forced. Sales of cleanups were made as low as 13½0 a pound for hens, with springs generally at 150. Some of the trade received 140 for their hens, but were unable to clean up at that figure.

Receipts of poultry are increasing along the street, and there is a noticeable lack of snap in the general trade. Even turkeys, which have been in rather liberal request with limited arrivals up to this time, are today showing an easier feeling, with somewhat more liberal offerings. While sales are still being made for live birds at 21@22c a pound, the market lacks the snap in buying so prominently shown harestore.

Somewhat more fiberal supplies of ducks are coming forward. The market is rather quiet, owing to the fact that the Chinese have not been on the street in any great numbers during recent days. As they are the principal buyers of ducks here, the market is naturally quiet, owing to their absence.

POTATOES ARE VERY SLOW

A very slow trade is shown in the po-tate market. An advance from Texas says that 32 cars were recently rejected in one city there because of the very liberal offering by Idaho and the lower price that stocks are obtainable at.

EXCELLENT CALL FOR HOGS

A very good tone is showing in the local hog situation for country killed offerings. Receipts along the street are extremely limited, and the price is held firm at 12c a pound. Veals are weak at former prices.

CUTTING BUTTER PRICES

While general quotations on butter are showing no change, it is reported that some of the leading makers are reducing their quotations about 2c a pound. The weakness is due to the easier feeling in the south, as well as the fear of foreign shipments.

PEACH MARKET VERY POOR.

Extremely poor tone is showing in the market for peaches. Holdings along the street continues very heavy. One leading house reports the sale of a big block of fruit of good quality at 20 to 200 a box.

ONIONS ARE VERY SCARCE

Supplies of onions along the street are very scarce. Growers continue to hold, and even the recently advanced quotations have failed to loosen more than a nominal amount of stock. Jobbing prices therefore firmer.

CRAB FIGHT IS WAGING A rather fierce fight is waging for control of the crab trade of this section. Values are being cut by some of the ex-clusive crab houses, and this has caused regular wholesale fish inserests to join the fight. Prices are now even lower than a year ago in some quarters.

Trade Is Stagnant With the Prices Quoted Nominally Lower; Reports Indicate That Big Interests Are in a Combination.

There is a very quiet tone in the hop trade and values are generally considered lower. There is an almost total lack of business available at the moment, and it would be extremely hard to say what the exact price is today. Nominally the market has been placed at 23c as pound for best quality offerings by the local trade, but there seems to be little desire to take hold even at this height.

Foreign markets continue rather neglected and there are so reassuring cable from abroad to atimulate the market here. It appears as if there is a concerted action among leading interests to break the price of hops. Most of the local interests have sold their speculative purchases, therefore are not desirous of high values at this time.

In some quarters it is asserted that there is a combination among leading world's interests to hold off purchases of hops until the price here drops to 20c a pound. Whether this is so or not cannot be confirmed, but it is a fact that many of the leading interests are working very close together and whenever a grower offers hops at Salem it is instantly known at Portland by means of the long distance telephone.

Chicago Market Closes 14 to 16 Cent Higher After Opening With a Smart Loss,

Chicago, Oct. 12.—Thereswas a firm tone after the initial weakness, and the wheat market closed with a net gain of 5c for December and 4c for May.

There was considerable weakness at the opening, and values were 5, to 4c below the finals of yesterday. The low mark was made at the start, while closing prices were either at the high point or within a fraction of it.

Broomhall cabled from Liverpool that the wheat market opened steady. Later there was free realizing on the weakness in Winnipeg yesterday, pressure of near Manitoba offers, and increased Canadian visible supply. The weakness in corn helped the decline.

PORTLAND GRAIN BECEIPTS

Season to date...6343 1115 Teo Year ago6412 885 741 The scarcity of alfalfa hay is causing nuch concern among tidewater interests and bids are higher. Even these are not sufficient to induce general offering by the interior, for the very good reason that stocks there are much lighter than had been generally anticipated. Bids for No. 1 alfalfa here have been advanced to $13.00@13.35 a ton, and stocks offering at the advance are very small. Demand is far better than supsmall. Demand is far better than supplies.

While there is a firmer tone generally in the hay market and timothy is showing considerable strength, no further changes in the price are announced here. There is a mixed tone in the wheat trade. For some time Japan has been endeavoring to purchase club wheat at extreme low prices, both here and on the Sound. As a rule these values were below what interests here had been bidding for milling account. The result is for an immediate small supply. Japanese buyers have advanced their bids a cent a bushel. This is the extent of the strength in the trade. The Oriental call is confined entirely to club and red fife; the latter being about 1/2c less than the former.

The general foreign situation in the wheat trace is still very weak. Insofar as cargoes are concerned, there is no demand whatever. No recent sales have been reported by Pacific Northwest parties. Considering this, the slight flurry caused by the Japanese business is of very small moment, because it would take but little to fill the wants of the trade there.

PORTLAND LIVESTOCK RUN Year ago 600 Two years ago 651

There was a weaker tone for swills and cattle today at North Portland. The weakness in the hog trade was the direct result of the sharply lower prices that have been put into effect at other stockyard points in the country. Values this morning were considered 15 to 350 this morning were considered is to see alower than yesterday here. There was another big run for the day, totals being 777 head and this caused buyers to lower their prices sharply.

At Chicago there was a weaker tone in the hog trade for the day, values being 10 to 20c lower than yesterday.

Kansas City hog trade showed severe weakness with a loss of 15- to 25c from yesterday.

stocks of the Pacific northwest have already been cleaned up, acording to advices received today by the Northwestern Fruit Exchange from its affiliated organizations. A wire from Wenatchee says that all the Jonathans of that section have been shipped and there are no more to offer.

Bids for Jonathans are firm at $1.50 to $1.60 a box, f. o. b. shipping points, but the smail iots remaining have caused selling agencies to ask a nickel more than the extreme prices being bid. While the entire apple crop of the Pacific oast was very short this season the decrease in offerings of Jonathans has been most noticeable. Probably this is due more to the very extensive demand that has been a constant and insistent demand for Jonathans and prices have advanced almost every day during that period. Now with the season for this variety closing, the demand is stronger than ever.

There is a rather good tone all threuen the world's apple market at this time. Domestic markets, with the possible exception of the southwest, and the European trade have alike shown wooderful strength. While there have been more liberal receipts abroad and this has in a measure affected prices, such a course is always expected whenever the movement of fruit begmes general.

The forenoon session was given and the filed in the matter can be reconsidered at an adjourned meeting to be held Friday morning. last week in authorizing Commissioner be held Friday morning.

Mr. Daly stated this morning that he did not thoroughly understand the mat-ter when he voted for the purchase and he was supported by Commissioner Bigelow in the contention that the ordinance should be reconsidered. Commissioner Brewster stated that he was opposed to reconsidering the action of the council as everything had been regular and the contract had been drawn with the own ers of the property. Instead of purchasing the entire Strobel piece, Commissioners Daly and Bigelow propose to cut a strip through the property as wide as Sixth street president of the association, J. P. and connect with Terwilliger boulevard Knapp, the manager of the organization, and abandon the scheme of a boulevard extending to the park, blocks.

Mr. Daly stated that the property needed for the street extension could be condemned and the owner could be assessed benefits. Commissioner Dieck argued that on account of a cut through the property the city would be liable to damages It was agreed that the members of the council should make a trip to the scene before taking up the matter again.

DIAZ IS PRACTICALLY PRISONER ABOARD SHIP IN VERA CRUZ HARBOR

promises for the future." Plan Warm Beception, General Vidaurazaga and his delega-tion rushed ashore. They conferred briefly with the port authorities. Then hastened to get into communication with Huerta. That they were planning a warm re ception for Diaz if he landed seemed certain. It did not appear so certain, however, that he would land. Vidaurazaga had hardly left the quay before the port authorities had tied him fast with miles of red tane.

It was the consensus of opinion that Huerta will keep Diaz afloat in Vera Cruz harbor until after election if he can, and that if he cannot and Diaz does land, his life will not be worth much. The arrest of his friends in Vers Cruz was momentarily expected. Out-breaks of fighting were looked for at any time. Several skirmishes between the rival partisans actually did occur here, at Mexico City and elsewhere, but thus far they have been of small consequence and the police have suppressed

The situation was more tense than at any time since the present crisis be-
