TALKED AT LUNCHEON

Development of Manuracturing District Urged; Trades School for East Side.

proposed enlargement of Holladay

The proposed enlargement of Holinday park, the only large park in the central east side, and the development of Sullivan's gulen property, were discussed at length at yesterday's luncheon of the East Burnside District Improvement association at the Grand Union grill, by A. F. Swensson of the Anglo-Pacific Realty company.

The company, which recently acquired the Oregon Real Estate company holdings, proposes to put a street through from Eleventh and Oregon streets, in the guich, to East Irving and East Sixth, with a 6 per cent grade, and to establish on the guich property the closest-in warehouse property in the city, with the warehouses and factories below the level of surrounding residence property. The district will be surveyed by the Southern Pacific and Spokane, Portiand & Seattle and Oregon-Washington Railway & Navigation company between East Second and East Eighteenth streets. The S. P. & S. has a 36-foot right-of-way to East Eighteenth street. Furthermore, the guich is expected to serve in the future as a natural subway for rapid transit streetcar facilities.

In the first unit of the gulch devel will be made.

The company has offered the city a tract adjoining Holladay park on the east, to enlarge the park to East Fifteenth street and south to the O.-W. R. & N. Co.'s right-of-way, making it 11 acres in extent, in return for a tract at the west end of the park, and opening of Twelfth street north from Multnomah street through the present park and a street through the present park and a syment of $120,000. Mr. Swensson also pleaded for the city raz-support of east side improvement clubs collapse in securing? the establishment of the persons, proposed trade school on the cast side, where three of the five members of the school board favor its location, and in securing playgrounds for Sunnyside and upper and lower Albins.

Specialised Instruction Urged.

Oscar E. Heintz president of the ciub, discussed Mr. Swensson's propositions, and H. C. Thompson, president of the Greater Irvington Improvement association, spoke in favor of the enlargement of Holladay park and of the Trade school, declaring that the needs of the present were not for study of the dead languages, but for specialized instruction in trades and industries for the general run of people.

After L. M. Leoper had detailed the plans for the proposed auditorium on the east side Dan Kellaher, also of the East Side Business Men's club, humorously discussed the east side's relation to the city as a whole. Believing in placing public utilities and institutions where conditions warrant, regardless of sectional ambitions, Mr. Kellaher urges east side taxpayers to gardless of sectional ambitions, and the Kellaher urges east side taxpayers to secure the Trade school for the east side owing to the majority of children residing there. Commenting on the locating of the new dock on the east side, Mr. Kellaher, who is a member of side, Mr. Kellaher, who is a member of the dock commission, declared that the deep water on the east side of the river and the east side's geographical loca-tion would make of the east side a manufacturing and industrial center, not merely a residential district.

A committee, consisting of G. E. Wol-ter, chairman, J. J. Coder, and J. P.

ter, chairman; J. J. Oeder and J. R. Widmer, which is furthering the opening of East Burnside street from East Forty-seventh to East Fifty-second, was instructed to continue its efforts in cooperation with the Center Addition Improvement club.

TWO WOMEN PREFER TO REMAIN IN JAN

ing by the police for attempting to opment now in progress, between East Second and East Twelfth streets, 235, of respectively and East Twelfth streets, which is within the congested and used in filling up the gulch, tog, Lena Uksala and Margarst Rice. The Uksala woman is 18 years old, and blocks on the south side of the gulch was released on her own recognizance will be made. this morning by Judge Stevenson, of the municipal court. The other two women are held under ball of 125. They stated this morning to the judge they preferred staying in jail. Their cases will be heard next week.

Louis Kaufman Anspacher Believes Stage to Be Book. of the People.

"The drama is and always will be the iterature of the unreading public. Our theatre is a democracy in which the public accepts what it likes and rejects the rest," declares Louis Kaufman Anspacher, lecturer and dramatist, who will talk upon "the place of the drama among the arts" at the Multnomah hotel Saturday morning.

Mr. Anspacher, who is appearing here this week in vandeville with his wife, Kathryn Kidder, has had a busy and interesting career. Born in Cincinnati in 1878, he was educated in the public schools of New York and later at Cor-nell, whence he entered West Point and was graduated. Preferring literary work to the army, he resigned and re-sumed his studies in the college of the city of New York and at Columbia. was appointed to the faculty of league for political education and be-came a lecturer at Cooper Union, Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences and the Civic Forum.

Mr. Anspacher's first dramatic work of importance was a play called "Tris-tan and Isolde," a work which he says won his wife for him and which won lishers after the manuscript had been stolen by an English actor and again recovered. "Embarrassment of Riches, "Kingdom of Contempt," acted by Vir ginla Harned, "The Woman of Impulse" and "The Glass House" are other works
