

HAFEY IS A STEPPING STONE FOR STROUD'S $500 GUNNING BONUS

Sailor Ralph Wins His 25th Game and It Is Lark All the Way.

(Special to The Journal.)
Sacramento, Oct. 24.—Of course the mere matter of Sailor Ralph Stroud getting a $500 bonus from the Sacramento club for winning 25 games this season, had nothing to do with Portland sending young recruit Hafey to the mound so that Sacramento could roll up five runs on four hits in a third of an inning. That put the game on for the Solons for Stroud put everything he had on the ball with the 500 round ones in sight and the champions never had a chance.

The score was 14 to 3 and it was the first time this season that Stroud was able to put a shutout on the Beavers. Hereafter when any of our pitchers have a bonus in sight and it means ham and eggs all winter, just tip it off to the Beavers, that is, after they have won the pennant. Ralph can afford to set "var up all around," but will he? Not if he is like other ball players—nay, not in 1000 years.

In exchange for the 14 runs Sailor Ralph turned around and allowed the generous Beavers 14 singles to feed up their batting averages. But Ralph was not so generous when it came to the run. He fastidiously put pretty strongly when the Beavers were in danger of making a few tallies.

Rip Hagerman replaced Hafey, but with the game already gone, Rip was not overexciting himself, and besides all that, he had little or nothing on the ball with which to foil the locals. Briefly, here is what happened to the pitcher who gives cards and spades to Gene Krapp. He walked Shinn and Young. Lewis beat out a hit to Davis and Shinn scored when the shortstop made a wild throw to first. Young stole home and after Tennant popped to Korea, Lewis stole second. Then Moran got a home run inside the park, counting two more. Hallinan ripped off a three base hit and Stark singled. That ended Mr. Hafey of San Francisco. Hagerman replaced Hafey and fanned Blinn, making Stroud fly to Speas.

And that's enough of the game, patient reader.

Oakland, Cal., Oct. 24.—The Seals advanced to one game from the 500 mark by trimming Hogan's Beavers yesterday, 6 to 3. The stick work of Schaller and Downs, and Fanning's steady pitching, enabled the Seals to win. Schaller won 550 by hitting a tobacco sign in center field.
