

WASHINGTON ROAD BUILDERS PLAN MEET

North Yakima, Oct. 24.—A tentative program of the meeting here November 20 and 21 of the Washington Good Roads association has been received from President John P. Hartman of Seattle by Secretary Jennings of the Commercial club. County engineers, county commissioners, masters of granges and farmers' unions not only in Washington, but in Oregon, are expected to attend. For list of names and State Highway Commissioner W. J. Roberts, E. H. Thomson of Seattle and specialists in the various kinds of road construction will speak. Proceeding the good roads convention, there will be a two days' convention of the County Engineers' association.

NORTH YAKIMA "SONS" DIG UP THE PAST

North Yakima, Wash., Oct. 24.—Male descendants of Revolutionary war fighters are planning a local chapter here, the organization to be perfected as soon as it is decided whether the "Sons of the Revolution" or the "Sons of the American Revolution" is correct. There are 15 or 20 men here eligible to membership. If the preliminary meeting is sufficiently enthusiastic, the state society will be petitioned for a local chapter.
