2 RIVER STEAMERS IN COLLISION; ONE RESTS ON CAMP AT CT TOUNC

Towboat Shaver Strikes La Center and Cuts Deep Gash in Hull.

Crossing the bows of the steamer Shaver, the steamer La Center was struck and badly damaged at about 9 clock last night off St. Johns, later inking after she was assisted to the beach by the Shaver. Confusion of signals between the La Center, Shaver and Alarm is said to have been the cause of the collision. No lives were lost.

The Shaver put a line on the La Cen-ter as soon as it was seen that the lathour's work succeeded in getting the little steamer ashore near the woolen wills dock at St. Johns, where she now lies on her beam ends with her stern under water. She was beached about

According to accounts of the accident the La Center was bound up stream from the Lewis river with freight for Portland, while the steamer Shaver was on her way down the river when they approached each other at St. Johns and assing signals were given, the Shaver owing one passing whistle and the La Center answering with one.

Behind the La Center was the tug Alarm coming up the river with a tow and she blew two passing whistles, according to the account, and these were answered by the Shaver after which the La Center blew two whistles and ed the bows of the Shaver when the ellision occurred.

After assisting the La Center, the haver proceeded down the river and this morning the Shaver Transporta-tion company received from her the telene message telling of the accident, orts have not yet been sent to the

The La Center is lying near the yards Portland Shipbuilding company and as soon as she in raised she will be aken there and pulled out onto the ways

SERVICE DEPENDS ON WEATHER Gas Schooner Della May Tie Up Soon for Winter.

Soon for Winter.

Unless the weather remains as it is at present, the gas schooner Della will only make two more trips to Nestucca before being tied up for the winter, says Captain Cassidy. She will continue in commission as long as the weather permits, and he admits that it has been an unusually good fall—in fact, the best in four seasons for his business.

The Della arrived from Nestucca at 5:30 last night, bringing 75 cases of cheese, and she will sail again for the southern Oregon port Tuesday morning with a full cargo of general merchandiss. The skipper reports the sea undise. The skipper reports the sea un-usually smooth on the up voyage with plenty of tog.

PLEASED WITH PORTLAND

Captain Paulsen Finds Many Important Improvements.

On his first trip to Portland for about three years, Captain B. Paulson, master of the steam schooner Mayfair, which arrived at 5:30 last night from at the change in the appearance of the port this morning. He had just been for a stroll up through the business dis-trict and the new buildings that have up since his last visit here were a great surprise to him. When he made hts last voyage here he was on the steamer Tahoe, which is now tied up along the Hoquiam at San Francisco. Another navigator who has not been here for three years is Captain C. E. Lindquist, master of the steamer Weltesley, which vessel is here for the first time in that period loading a full cargo of lumber for San Pedro. Since she Humboldt bay.

The Mayfair will load an outward cargo of grain and lumber for San Fran-cisco after discharging 400 tons of general merchandise at Couch street, while the Wellesley is scheduled to sail this afternoon from the Inman-Poulsen mills with 740,000 feet of lumber.

ROYAL MAIL LINER NAMED

Steamer Vennachar Will Bring

Cargo From Japan. For the transportation of general cargo from this port to Japan, the British steamer Vennachar has been chartered by the Royal Mail for a round voyage. She will bring cargo from Japan to this port, and return with a cargo made up principally of wheat and flour. The Vennachar was last reported ter was sinking and after about an at Manila, where she arrived on October 11, for Hlogo and Yokohama.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT

With lumber for San Francisco, the steamer Saginaw was scheduled to sail After a very fine voyage up the coast, the steamer Beaver, Captain Mason, Arrived at 2:10 yesterday afternoon from San Francisco and Los Angeles. She had a light list of 150 passengers and 1100 tons of freight.
To take the first of her grain cargo for the United Kingdom, the British bark Birkdale was shifted from the Linnton ballast dock to the elevators at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Captain M. D. Staples, the veteran bar pilot, is in Portland today from Astoria on a business trip. Laden with 500,000 feet of lumber and also grain, the steamer Yellowstone is scheduled to sail from Linnton at 4 this afternoon for San Francisco.

LEADS MAN TO JAIL

Tacoma, Wash., Oct. 25 .- Conscience stricken, James Cameron Munford of Spokane has, according to Detective

Captain Wiley today, confessed that he passed forged checks amounting to $75 in that city. Munford entered the police station to give himself up, and waited quietly until Captain Wiley was disengaged, when he told his story. He said he had passed four checks in all, but claimed the signatures had been forged by another man, who turned them over to him. He is being held for the Spo-

Screen for Women Witnesses.
