OCIAL EVEN.

Margaret Thompson and T consolation by Miss Catherine was W. Rechers. The conpany then repaired to the ball room, where refreshments were served and several musical numbers were sung by Miss Anna Matchiner and Leo Conlin, dancing following. Those having charge of the evening were Mrs. C. H. Still, Mrs. Catherine Conlin, Mrs. Dawson, Mrs. Eugene Murphy, Mrs. Ernest Hecht, Mrs. Hollendeck and Mrs. T. J. Calenna.

Mrs. O. S. Hubbell, 605 East Fifty-third street north, will return tomorrow from a 16 days' absence in San Fran-

Mr. and Mrs. M. Goughler, 606 East Fifty-eighth street north, with their guest, Mrs. Guy L. Anderson, from Bamotored to the Automobile for dinner last Sunday.

Tomorraw afternoon at 2 o'clock, the man's department of Rose City Park ib will have its once a month card arty for all members and their friends. Iridge and 500 have been arranged for nd a most enjoyable afternoon is an-leipated. Mrs. T. T. Geer, Mrs. Mary eerdt, Mrs. C. M. Wheeler and Mrs. M. Coppack are making arrange-

A quiet wedding of interest will occur als afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, when ics Mary S. Barlow will become the ide of Henry Jasper Wilkins, at Miss fariow's residence, 476 East Forty-sixth treet north. Rev. W. G. Ellot, of the Initarian church, will officiate. Miss tarlow will be gowned in a gray crepe chine with silver and Venetian po She will be attended by Miss Mil-Huntley, a grand-niece of Oregon Mrs. Cassius G. Tull, another from Barlow, will play the wedmarch. The home is beautifully ink and white carnations. Miss Bar-w is widely known in Portland, Ore-on City, Salem, Roseburg and Barlow, er father, William Barlow, was one the pionests of 1845, her grandfather. the pioneers of 1845, her grandfather, amuel K. Barloy is remembered as he Mount Hood road builder. She her-elf was affiliated with Portland's pubc schools as teacher and vice princi-al of Failing school, and for several ears was one of the board of educaon in Clackamas county. As a D. A. and a member of Portland's Woman's on, she has a host of friends. Mr Vilkins comes from the south but is eer of Rose City Park, having ded here three years. The wedding ests are only the relatives and im-

Mr. Wilkins and his bride leave irrediately for Japan and the Philip-nes, where they will spend the winer, returning by way of Honolulu and lalifornia, arriving home March 1.

Saturday afternoon, October 18, Miss Cinma Boyd entertained a few friends orth, and Brazee, in honor of her aphing nuptials with Burton Paul. afternoon was spent with needlevork. The guests were Miss Gertrude Vade. Miss Marion Hunt, Miss Myrtle on, Misses Amelia and Louise Hob-

The organization of the Fernwood Pa-ent-Teacher association was fully cometed at its second meeting, which was Phursday afternoon at the school Tha fficers are president, H. M. Barr, the chool principal; vice president, Mrs., ordan; secretary, Mrs. Zollinger; treasrer, Mrs. Riddell. Appointments were made for the playgrounds, program, school furnishings and teachers' com-mittees. The first Thursday in each

About forty friends joined Mr. and Mrs. John B. Candlish, 609 East Fifty-third street north, Friday evening, Oc-tober 17, in celebrating their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Yellow chrysanthemums and autumn leaves formed the parlor decorations, and red carnations and potted plants were used n the dining room, Miss Claressa Candilsh and A. V. Goddard received ie guests. A most delightful impromptu musical program was given by Miss Verna Smith, C. M. Hadley, J. L. Finley, R. H. Robertson and Mrs. Edward Drake. Miss Smith presided over tip bunch bowl and Mrs. A. V. Goddard, laughter of Mr. and Mrs. Candlish, cut the ices. The affair was also of special significance to Mr. and Mrs. Goddard, for it was their first wedding anni-

The members of the Deta Sigma club entertained their husbands. Thursday evening at 500 at the home of Mrs. Morris D. Bromberger, 481 East Thirty-eighth street north. Prizes were won oy Mrs. Arthur Laidiaw and Mrs. Erni-est Dingman.

A most interesting army wedding took place in Vancouver Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in St. Luke's Epis-

Mrs. Oliver G. Hughson was hostess at a pleasurable luncheon Monday after-noon at her home, 598 East Fifty-second by a pumpkin filled with white blossoms. Tellow shaded candlesticks were at either end and vividity colored autolithm. I leaves were scattered on the cloth. The place cards were the proverbial black cats and witches. After function the darkened living room was lighted by a large grate of the colors. About the massed of the colors and white chrysanthemums and carnations. About the massed of the colors and white chrysanthemums and carnations. were Mrs. W. W. Youngson, Mrs. W. A. Lovett, Mrs. Floyd J. Campbell, Mrs.

Have you given your Xmas Photos serious thought? If not, now is the time we make beautiful Photos rom $3.50 per dozen up.

Present this ad at studio—it is worth $1.00 to you as part pay-nent on any style Photo you may

Ask at studio regarding Diamond See ring on exhibit at

A. & M. DELOVAGE JEWELRY 324 Wash. St., Bet. 6th and 7th

SARONY STUDIO

ROYAL BLDG. 3461 MORRISON ST.

bride, was attired in blue and striped silk trimmed with lace.

The bride and groom left late in the evening for Seaside, Or., for a short

Mrs. Taylor is the charming daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Foster of Vancouver barracks and is an accomvery popular among his brother officers. He received his appointment from Wyoming to the United States military academy at West Point, from which he was graduated with high honors and was immediately commissioned a second Heutenant of engineers. Only the honor graduates from West Point are eligible

Lieutenant and Mrs. Taylor will be at home to their friends at their quarters in the Bachelors building, where they will make their home temporarily after

Miss Brambila, sister of Captain Rob

to such appointment.

November 1,

F. E. Hilton, Mrs. Philo E. Jones, Mrs. salad and Mrs. Gilbert Wilkes served T. T. Geer, Mrs. L. R. Bailey, Mrs. E. F. Allsbaw, Mrs. Day, Mrs. C. B. Merrick bride, was attired in blue and white and Mrs. E. H. Carlton.

Wednesday evening at the home of evening Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Miller, 423 East stay. Fiftiets street north, an auction bridge club was organized to convene fortnightly. Mrs. Charles Lindner won the first prize. The personnel is Mr. and Mrs. Lindner, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brooker, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Manner, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Laidlaw, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Daniel, Mr. and Mrs. Miller.

The Rose City Park assembly of United Artisans gave a dance Tuesday evening at Vincent's hall, St. Michael's league met Friday even-ing at the home of Mrs. Dickson on the Base Line road. After a pleasant evening those attending were taken to the car in hay racks. The ride was the source of much enjoyment.

The first meeting of the Rose City Park Parent-Teacher association met at the school Tuesday afternoon with an attendance of 70. Several working plans were discussed before Mrs. F. S. plans were discussed before Mrs. F. S. Myers, of the Portland association, gave an informal talk on the work and conditions of some other associations. Miss Newell also gave much information concerning the university refereu-

Invitations have been issued by the Rose City Park club for a nard times costume party with cards, dancing and refreshments, Friday evening, October 31. The club's hospitality has been greatly enjoyed on numerous occasions and this affair is planned for all members and their school of the control bers and their friends. A full orchestra will render selections and also play for dancing. The committees are Mrs. H. J. Blaesing, Mrs. E. J. Mann, Mrs. C. C. Shay, Mrs. Frank R. Miller, Dr. Arthur Laidlaw and Fred Brooker, Thu spacious club rooms are splendidly adapted to cards and dancing without conflicting and the committee can easily care for the pleasure of all its evening at 8 o'clock in St. Luke's Epis-copal church, when Miss Mae Foster became the bride of Lieutenant Charles J. Taylor. Rev. Ellsworth B. Collier, rector of St. Luke's church, read the o'lanterns, then while some of the guests served, selections savoring of Halloween were read from Robert Louis Stevenson, James Waitcomb Riley, Euchstein Blad and Spakespeare. The guests contraits; Edward M. Rogers and Otis Contraits and C ment Scott, Mrs. Leslie Laipple, Mrs. White, tenors; Clement Scott and Irving Heindricks, bassos, rendered several se-lections. "O Perfect Love" was sung as the bridal party entered the church and "The Voice That Breathed o'er Eden" as the ceremony closed. Ernest Knight accompained on the organ. The ushers were Lieutenants Herbert L. Taylor and Gilber Van Buren Wilkes, The bridal party took their places with Miss Dorothy Eichenlaub, bridesmaid, leading. She was beautifully gowned in blue brocaded crepe meteor and carried a bouquet of white roses.

BARRACKS NEWS

The bride came in on the arm of her father, Dr. Frederick Foster. She was a strikingly pretty bride, her rich color-ing, combined with the white of her costume, being most effective. The gown was fashiened of hand embroidered white pineapple tissue which was brought by her father from Manila. Her veil of white chiffon was fastened with a wreath of valley lilies. In her arms she carried a bouquet of white roses and valley Illies. Lieutenant Taylor and his Jest man, Lieutenant Robert T. Snow, met her at the chancel rail. Among the guests were Colonel and Mrs. George S. Young, Major and Mrs. Jere B. Clayton, Lieutenant and Mrs. Gilber B. Clayton, Lieutenant and Mrs. Gilber Van B. Wilkes, Captain and Mrs. Fred W. Bugbee, General and Mrs. John Page, Lieutenant and Mrs. Harold T. Taintor, Lieutenant and and Mrs. Herbert L. Taylor, Miss M. Brambila, Miss L. Brambila and Miss Marjorie Page. After the coremony a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Foster. The house was prettily decorated with autumn foliage and white chrysanthemums. Mrs. J. B. Clayton served the George S. Tiffany, Miss Brady of Phil-adelphia and Miss Marjorle Page.

Miss Elizabeth Grady, sister of Mrs. John B. Richardson, who has made an extended visit in the post, left Tuesday for her against in Ediladelphia In the springyshe will be married to Lieutenant William H, Gill of the Twentyfirst infantny.

An informal hop was given by all the bachelor officers of the post at their quarters Friday evening.

Captain Raiph H. Van Deman has been granted a month's leave of ab-sence and left last week for a visit to his old home in Ohio.

Major Samuel E. Smiley of the Twenty-first infantry, is to be sent to the Philippines and will leave for the islands early in December, sailing on the government transport from San Francisco

Mrs. Robert T. Phinney and her sister, Mrs. William W. Taylor, who has been visiting her during the summer, left Tuesday for Fort Leavenworth, Kan., witer Mrs. Taylor will join her husband, Captain Taylor. He is attending the school of the line. Mrs. Phinney will visit at El Reno, Okla., with her parents Mr and Mrs. J. H. with her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nail, before going to lows City to join her husband, Lieutenant Phinney, who was recently detailed to act as instruc-tor of military science and tactics at Schneider returned last week from a hunting trip east of the mountains.

Mrs. Edgar A. Frye entertained in-formally last week Wednesday at a sewing party. Among the guests were Mrs. George S. Young, Mrs. Herbert C. Gibner, Mrs. James Ossewaarde, Mrs. John F. Morrison and Mrs. George Clarke Rockwell.

Mrs. Tiffany, mother of Captain George S. Tiffany and Miss Helen Parwho have been guests of Captain ker. ker, who have been guests of Captain and Mrs. Tiffany, left last week for the east. They will visit in New York city before returning to their home in Washington, D. C. Many parties were given for Miss Parker during her stay here. Miss Polly Young of the post and the Misses Louise Burns. Sally Hart and Violet Erskine of Portland Were Vancouver barracks and is an accomplished musician. She is very popular in the army set at the post and among the young people of Vancouver and Portland society. The groom is a first lieutenant in the engineering corps and is in command of the company stationed at Vancouver barracks. He is Captain Charles T. King, detailed as n additional doctor at the post hospial. is expected to arrive here soon. Captain King, who is an army surged recently ordered here from the Mrs. Howard Young, who has been the ruest of Colonel and Mrs. George foung for the past few days, has left or her home in Wyoming. Mrs. Harry A, Hegeman, wife of Captain Hegeman of the quartermaster's corps, entertained at a prettily appoint-ed card party Wednesday afternoon. Five hundred was played. ert M. Brambila, entertained Monday In compliment to Miss Mae Foster of the post, Miss Dorothy Eichenlaub afternoon at a charmingly appointed of the post, Miss Dorothy Eichenlaub sewing bee. The house was decorated of Vancouver entertained on Monday

Captain and Mrs. Fred W. Bugboe are entertaining Captain Hugbee's mother at their quarters.

The band of the Twenty-first con-tinues to give the concerts each after-noon between 4 and 5 o'clock, alternat-ing between band stands.

Mrs. E. J. Troup and her daughter, Miss Fannie Troup, are the guests of their cousin, Mrs. M. L. Coovert of $14 Franklin street, Vancouver. They arrived Tuesday from Fort Liscum, Alaska. They make their home with Lieutenant Colonel Joseph P. O'Neill, Mrs. Troup's son-in-law, who was formerly stationed at Vancouver barracks with the Pourtcenth infantry.

Piedmont - Walnut Park

Miss Alice Cornwall arrived Friday rening from Corvallis where she is attending college, to spend the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Cornwall on Garfield ave.

Miss Dalsy Rush of Marshfield, Or., is the house guest of Mrs. Walter H. Slusser, 1286 Rodney ave.

The Altar Guild of the Piedmont Presbyterian church has changed the date of its meeting from Tuesday until Wednesday evening of this week. Miss Amy Klum will be the hostess at her home on Commercial street.

the lowa State University.

Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Foster and children will leave next Saturday for Fort Sam Houston, Texas Dr. Foster was recently transferred from the Second Field artillery, ordered to the islands, to the Third cavalry, which is now stationed at Fort Sam Houston. During their three years here they made many friends who will view their acparture with regret.

Major Adrian's, Fieming, Captain Ellmer W. Clark and Lieutenant Frank U. Schneider returned last week from a

During the afternoon, Mrs. Hill read a review of "The Kingdom of Siender Swords," and Mrs. Lee's paper was on the customs, women and children of Japan. Later Miss Killingsworth gave a very instructive and entertaining talk panied by stereopticon views of Japan.

Miss Mae Morris left on Thursday for Salem to be the house guest of Miss Mac Hopkins for the week end.

Mrs. Mary Keemer of Des Moines Iowa, arrived Friday evening to be the guest of Mrs. Fred Perry, 1176 Commercial street.

Mrs. George Foster was a delightful hostess last Saturday afternoon, when she entertained the members of the "Luncheon Bridge" club at her home, 1185 Vancouver avenue. The rooms were very attractively decked with masses of autumn foliage and bright hued marigolds, and the luncheon table was especially pretty, being centered with yellow flowers and candles shaded with dainty yellow lilies. During the afternoon five tables of bridge were made up. High honors fell to Mrs. Clifford Fones and Miss Ida Stife. Mrs. Foster's guests were: Mrs. Hiram Stife, Mrs. Clair Bullan, Mrs. Arthur Finley, Mrs. Ed. Stife, Mrs. M. Barcroft, Mrs. Heury Gagger, Mrs. Charles King, Mrs. Charles Motinn, Mrs. Walter Montague, Mrs. Clayton Seaman, Mrs. Rose Strauhal, Mrs. W. A. Van Atta, Mrs. Fred Webber, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Clifford Fones, Mrs. Savage, Miss Pennicard and Miss Ida Stife.

Mrs. Apperson was the inspiration sewing bee. The house was decorated of Vancouver entertained on Monday for a delightful surprise party last with autumn foliage. Miss Brambila afternoon, at her home on Washing- Monday afternoon at her home on Union and her sister, assisted by Miss Marton Street. The afternoon was very jorie Page, served tea. The guests were pleasantly spent in heedle work. The sewing and chatting a dainty lunchwon in the Served. The guests were: Mrs. Apperson. T. Phinney, Mrs. George S. Young, Mrs. unusually attractive dining room. Au- Mrs. F. R. Holpes, Mrs. Faber, Mrs.

Bulletin No. 31

sed to corret-discomfort

that they would al-most feel lost with-

That's a bad state of mind. It means seedless misery, and almost certain

BE WISE!

harts you—not even for a

A Nemo Corset, properly

selected and correctly fitted by the methods of the Nemo Hygienic-Fashion Institute, will give you per-fect up-to-date style, and correct-comfort that you can't get otherwise.

Your Dealer

-ought to know; probably he does. And perhaps, if he's an up-to-date mor-

chant, he sells cornets scientifically-the Nemo Hygienic-

To become "cornet-wise," nek us to send you the Nema Hygienic-Fashion Magazine, just out—free.

Fashion Institute way.

Don't wear a corset that ill-health.

single day.

Mrs. Alex Donaldson.

Miss Mae Morris, the much feted guest of Mrs. J. H. Nolta, was the honor guest at a slumber party given by Miss Nan Hunter at the home of her sister, Mrs. Dillen Rogerson, Commercial street, Miss Hunter's guests were. Miss Morris, Miss Christine Benholm, and Miss Nancy Killingsworth. After a delightful southern breakfast, the morning was spent in shopping, the guests returning in time for luncheon to which, Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Dillen Rogers were also bidden.

Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Wilkins arived Friday from Corvallis to spend the week-end as guests of Mr. Wilkins' sister, Mrs. Sarah E. Moore They came to attend the wedding of Mr. Wilkins' brother, Jasper Wilkins and Miss Mary

Mrs. Sarah E. Moore entertained in a very delightful manner last Thursday evening with four tables of bridge. During the evening the guests organized a club which will be held on the second and fourth Thursdays of each month, and will be composed of the following members: Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Ring, Dr. and Mrs. J. Emil Nelson, Mrs. Netta B. Baker, Mrs. Jennie M. Hogge, Miss Hattle Granm, Miss Millie W. Pennicard, Dr. H. S. Stone, Charles A. Fry, W. W. Work, W. Quigley, E. W. Hillurs, Leslie Parker, Miss Gladys Moore and Mrs. Sarah E. Moore.

The opening party of the Holy Re-deemer society will be held Friday even-ing. October 31, in Green hall. These dancing parties are held once a month

Boredemeyer, Dom Vrahizan, Anthon Aviana, Carl Setchell, James Setchel Leonard Murry, James Vranizan, Georg

Music, dancing and cards were en-joyed throughout the evening. Luncheon followed and the birthday cake was cut by Miss Margaret Vranisan. Leonard Murray received the first prize and Miss Myrtle Jacobson received the second

A pleasant family gathering was given to Mr. George Deardorff in honor of his sixty-third birthday anniversary Sunday at the home of his daughter. Mrs. James Edward Harvey. The dining room was decorated with autumn foliage, Oregon grape and the table was centered with a large bunch of yellow chrysanthemums. The living room was artistically arranged with ferns and dahlias. Covers being taid for 12. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Deardorff, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Harvey, Paul Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. E. Hubbard, Rae Glen, Esther Hubbard, and Mr. and Mrs. James Edward Harvey.

On Saturday, October 25, Mrs. Thom-

On Saturday, October 25, Mrs. Thomas Hill Barnett entertained with a theatre party at the Orpheum, followed (Continued on Following Page).

Girlish Complexion Now Easily Acquired

The opening party of the Holy Redeemer society will be held Friday evening. October 31, in Green hall. These dancing parties are held once a month during the winter and are eagerly anticipated by the younger smart set of the community. The committee in charge of the first party is: Miss Margaret Donnerberg, Miss Mary Clancy, Miss Nina Leader, Miss Frances Schwinler, Miss Frances Keating, Miss Hannah Donnerberg and Miss Maud Littlejohn.

EVENTS OF WEEK

Miss Margaret Vranizan entertained a number of friends on Friday evening at her home, 540 Clay street, it being the seventeenth anniversary of her birthday. The house was beautifully decorated with the dining room in autumn leaves, roses and ferns. Those present were Miss Margaret Aviana of

See the High Grade Tailored Suits

Extra Special Values for Monday and Tuesday
—two days only. The newest popular materials, including: Basket Weaves, Pebble Cheviots, Poplins, Bengalines and Staple Serges.
Regular values $27.50, $30 and $35. The most desired colors: Guaranteed linings. Newest styles. Other good values . . $29.50, $34.50

New Fall and Winter Coats

Your choice from 2 dozen splendid styles and as many different materials. Coats for street and evening wear. Full length and three-quarter length Cutaways—and Sport Coats. Not a value in the lot less than $25, and up

A Grand Collection New Dresses Dresses with complete style, quality and smart-ness. Materials are serges, poplins and messa-line silk. Values $18.50 to $25

New Shadow Lace Waists Distinctive dashing styles, trimmed with satin ribbon underlaid in pink and blue. Our regular $4 quality

Silk Petticoats

Silk Messaline, Taffeta and Jersey tops. All wanted colors. Come early, they are easily a $2.98

CORNER SIXTH AND ALDER, OPP. OREGONIAN

corsets, no matter what anybody tells you or how much they may look like the genuine Nemo. Find the trademark, "LASTIKOPS"-it's your only safeguard. The Nemo "Lasticurve-Back," shown in this picture, is being imitated by nearly all "Me-Too" manufacturers, here and abroad The DIFFERENCE is that the Nemo feature is made of semi-elastic Lastikops Cloth, which outwears the corset, while the imitations have just the same old elastics you used to get in hose supporters-likely to "give out" in no time. This No. 326, by the way, is a wonderful corset for $3.50. Has comfortable low bust; skirt is so long that it would be uncomfortable if the Lasticurve-Back didn't make it flexible. Self-Reducing, low bust; for all full figures. Other Nemo Corsets, For All Figures-$3.50 to $10.00.

The woman who doesn't know all about the Nemo has something to learn that should demand her immediate attention.

In Good Stores Everywhere Nemo Hygienic-Fashion Institute, N. Y.