

ADMIRAL'S WIDOW ON STAND TELLS OF HIS USING DEADLY DRUGS

Declares She Left Him After Their Adopted Child Died Under Peculiar Conditions.

(By the International News Service.) Plymouth, Mass., Oct. 25.—Mrs. Jennie May Eaton today became the chief witness in her own defense in her trial for the murder of her husband, Rear Admiral Joseph G. Eaton.

The significance of much of the prosecution's testimony, including rambling letters written by the defendant, became apparent today when three alienists employed by the prosecution observed Mrs. Eaton every moment she was on the stand.

"One of the first cases I had was as nurse to Admiral Eaton's wife, who died," the witness said. "At that time I saw Mr. Eaton intoxicated on many occasions."

"The admiral proposed marriage to me several times after I had become his housekeeper after his wife's death, but I had not accepted him. We moved to Hull, Mass., one summer. The admiral and I were married in Brooklyn, N. Y., about a year ago."

"The letters were then introduced and read to the jury by William A. Moraw, chief counsel for Mrs. Eaton."

CENTRAL BANK PLAN, SPRUNG AT ELEVENTH HOUR, FOUGHT BY OWEN

Character is wanted by the senate just as seriously as by the executive and the house. Public Ownership Favored. Today there was a strong and rapidly crystallizing sentiment in favor of applying the public ownership principle to the regional banks that will be provided for.

These senators believe they can abandon the central bank plan and avoid friction with the president. H. P. Parker Willis of New York continued his statements before the committee today.

Senator Hitchcock read the telegram from 30 wholesale houses in Omaha, criticizing the bill and contending that credits would be largely concentrated under the proposed law.

The hearing closed this evening after an executive session in which National Bank Examiner Charles Starck of New York city was examined. The committee desired to learn from him how banks were examined and what fees were paid by the banks for that service.

Monday morning the committee will begin the task of putting its bill into shape. It is believed a report may be made in 10 days.

TAMMANY HALL IS REAL ISSUE IN NEW YORK'S PRESENT MAYORALTY CAMPAIGN

Mitchel Looks Favorite in the Contest With McCall; Intense Interest Prevails.

(By the International News Service.) New York, Oct. 25.—Are the days of Tammany Hall numbered?

It is the famous organization that brought into being a "Boss" Tweed, a "Dick" Croker and a Charles Francis Murphy, about to lose political control of New York City, where it has nested and grown fat these many years?

Figuring Dope Is the Key. The more complex a situation is, the more New York likes to dope it. It is human nature to desire to talk about something one doesn't know anything about, and discouraging with an appearance of profound knowledge upon a subject of which he is profoundly ignorant.

MITCHEL FAVORITE IN STRAW BALLOT

New York Herald Poll Leans Towards Fusion Candidate.

New York, Oct. 25.—Mitchel Fusion candidate 9601; McCall, Tammany Democratic 7123. That was the recapitulation of the carefully taken straw vote polled by the New York Herald in the majority election for three weeks and ended tonight.

Charles Francis Murphy, chieftain of Tammany hall, who is the issue of the mayoralty campaign in New York City, and to the left of him John Purroy Mitchel, Fusion candidate for mayor.

They have vivid recollections of other campaigns where it appeared difficult for Tammany to beat Fusion. But regardless of old Tammany! It has so many political tricks up its sleeves.

Judge Edward E. McCall, late of the supreme court, is a very admirable gentleman in many respects. His reputation is good, barring his associations with Tammany. But William Sulzer had a long Tammany record when he ran for governor, and the people of the state of New York elected him with enthusiasm.

Some months ago it looked as if Lieutenant Becker, the Rosenthal murderer and the police problem would constitute the issues of the campaign. It wasn't particularly clear in anyone's mind how this was to be brought home to Tammany, but still, the plan was to somehow shunt the whole thing on to the shoulders of the Tiger.

VON KLEIN WILL FIGHT WIFE'S DIVORCE SUIT

Files Answer in St. Paul Denying Wife's Complaint, Alleging Home Is His.

(Special to The Journal.) St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 25.—Edmund E. C. Von Klein will fight the divorce suit filed against him in Minneapolis as well as the bigamy charges in Portland, Or., where he is now held on the complaint of Miss Ethel Newcomb. The trial of the criminal case in Portland is set for Monday, but the divorce case will not be reached for several months.

Tammany Hall. Campaign spell binds on Fusion band, wagons will address the listening citizens, thusly: "Fel-low citizens! There are no issues in this campaign but one. Do you want Mr. John Purroy Mitchel and Fusion, or McCall and Tammany Hall? Do you want Mr. Mitchel and good government for and by the people? Or do you want Mr. McCall and government for and by Charles F. Murphy?" etc.

The Progressive, Republican, Independence Leaguers, Independent Democrats and Gaynorites have united on John Purroy Mitchel for mayor. Against this formidable array there is only Tammany Hall and McCall. Then, Mitchel has the endorsement of the national administration. This counts for a great deal with those Democrats who are not directly associated with Tammany. It means in their minds, that some of the federal patronage will be thrown the way of the supporters of Mr. Mitchel. Therefore, Hurrah! Three cheers for Mitchel!

MAKES INSPECTION OF ROAD TO TILLAMOOK

Krutzschmitt, Chairman of Directors, Completed First Leg of Journey.

Julius Krutzschmitt, chairman of the board of directors of the Southern Pacific railway, completed the first leg of his inspection tour over the Oregon lines yesterday with a round trip to Tillamook. The chief operating official of the big system did not alight from his private car, "Grandair," when the special train pulled into the Union station late last night, for the simple reason that he was sound asleep.

The chairman has lots of work to do on this trip and so, instead of seeking some stately house of worship to pray in, he will fare forth again over the steel rails. This time he will go over the Portland, Eugene & Eastern to Eugene, with President William Sprague of the Southern Pacific, President Robert E. Strahorn of the P. E. & E. and General Superintendent D. W. Campbell, as his escort.

Saturday's trip was over the P. E. & E. the beach line built two years ago out of Hillsboro through the Nehalem region to the Tillamook country. Mr. Krutzschmitt had not been over the line since his first trip after its construction.

As a safeguard, every section foreman between Portland and Corvallis and from Corvallis to Eugene, last night received telegraphic orders not to take out his gang for track work either today, tomorrow or Tuesday, but to make a close personal patrol of the line under his jurisdiction.

WIFE SLAYER WHO SHOT HIMSELF IMPROVING

Charles Haas, the meatcutter held at the St. Vincent hospital for killing his wife and shooting himself, was reported as improving last evening. The man fired a bullet into his left side, the missile making nine perforations in the intestine. His condition at first was considered fatal, but within the last 12 hours he has improved to such an extent that there are prospects of a recovery to face the first degree murder charge. An officer is kept on watch at his bedside.

Of Detective Hyde last evening, Haas asked what the detective thought the authorities would do with him if he got well. "The detective replied that was a matter to think about after recovery. This appeared to satisfy the man, for he asked no more questions."

(By the International News Service.) San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 25.—The big transcontinental railroad companies are making extensive preparations already to handle the enormous westward movement in passenger traffic that they anticipate in 1915.

We have also made preparations for additional eating accommodations at the stations along our line."
