ONION COMBINE IS HOLDING THE PRICE AT EXTREME QUOTATION HERE ASKING ADVANCE FOR NOMINAL SUPPLIES OF

RANCH EGGS LOCALLY

Market Stands Between 43 and 44 Cents Per Dozen, but There Is Scarcely a Sufficient Amount Coming to Establish Quotations.

Eggs very scarce,
Hens in good demand.
Veal market firmer.
Hop trade quiet,
Country hogs are weaker,
Butter market mixed,
Potatoes being held,
Onlon growers holding.

Fresh egg supplies along Front street are extremely light and the price is being held very firm. While most sales are still reported at 43c a dozen for best select ranch, still some dealers report transactions a cent above this.

The question at this time is not so much as to prices, but how to get sufficient stock to fill the limited requirements of the trade.

The trade here at the moment is being almost entirely taken care of by ice house stock. Fully 35 per cent of the business in the local wholesale market today is in storage goods. There is so much of this available both here and in the east that there is no inclination to force values higher, even though it was possible.

Considering the almost total lack of offerings of fresh ranch stock at this time it is scarcely believable that cold storage interests are not taking advantage of the situation. The only explanation is that most of them have heavy supplies on hand with the banks calling for their loans. This, therefore, necessitates as quick movement as possible.

HOP MARKET IS QUIET

Reports of better than 20c sales in the hop market since Saturday have been proven to be old transactions. No business is now passing above 20c a pound, and little at that. Uniman purchased 250 bales of the Ranzau lot at Sherwood at 20c. All other markets are stagnant.

MORE CALIFORIA LETTUCE

Notwithstanding the fact that there are ample supplies of home grown lettuce available for all the wants of the trade, another carload of California stock is rolling in this direction. Such tactics are against the welfare of the home producer who should be allowed a market for his product.

HOG PRICES ARE EASIER

For country killed hogs there is an easier feeling throughout the Frent street trade. Recepits are rather fair and the extreme top today is 1146 a pound. Vests are firm at the recent advance in values.

BUTTER FIGHT IS STILL ON

Fight for control of the butter mar-ket is still on. City creameries are still selling their prints at 34@35c a pound, the former being the same price as they are paying for butter fat, in which no change was made.

PEACHES ARE BEING DUMPEL

Owing to the inability of wholesalers to effect a movement at any price, large amounts of peaches are being dumped emounts of peaches are being dumped. Prices were lowered to the extreme point fecently, but even this falled to stim-plate the call. The quality is poor as asual at this period of the year.

GRAPE PRICES ARE HOLDING Prices in the grape market are holding rather well in the Front street trade. For best Tokays the market is being held firm at $1.35 generally. Stocks of this variety are getting scarce and values may advance again.

of Germany Forces a General Advance in Stocks.

New York, Oct. 27.—The better financial conditions abroad were the big help to the stock market in forcing a general sharp advance in prices today. The Imperial Bank of Germany announced a cut in the minimum discount rate of 1/2 per cent, making the new rate 5/2 per cent. The minimum has been 6 per cent since November 14, 1912.

Establish Higher Values but Will Not Fill Orders; Most Interests Today Asking at Least $2 Per Hundred: Market May Go Higher.

California interests are after Oregon fancy potatoes but they are not at present offering above 75c a cantal, I. o. b. country shipping points.

Market for potatoes in the south is somewhat better and there is really a keen call for supplies at the prices quoted, but buyers refuse to go above this figure.

Locally the market is in excellent shape. Offerings of late have been as ilmited that the wholesale trade has been at a complete mercy of country interests. What little stock is coming to the local market is finding wholesalers anxious to pay from 85 to 90c a cental here, but even at these figures they are unable to purchase more than a sparing amount.

On the other hand there continues a rather weak market for potatoes in Arity sons and Terus. The shipping season at Idaho points is about to end and holders there are making desperate efforts to unload as much as possible before it gets to cold that they must store the stock until spring.

North Pacific Distributors Paying Growers for Stock Sold; Railroad to Pay for Wreeked Cars.

Hood River, Or. Oct. 37.—The North Pacific Fruit Distributors are handling from 10 to 15 cars of apples per day out of Hood River. H. F. Davidson, president of the distributors associaout of Hood River. H. F. Davidson, president of the distributors association, says:

"The distributors have shipped to date 3000 cars of fruit from the states of Oregon, Washington, Idahe and Montans, and we have madescollections on 1408 of these cars which have brought $710,500, or a little over $500 per car on the average. The larger proportion of this fruit consisted of peaches, plums and other soft fruits.

"Out of the first 1000 cars shipped there are 24 cars for which we have not as yet made settlement, eight of which were in a wreck on the Illinois Central, and we have just received a wire from Mr. Smith, our Chicago manager, that he had concluded a settlement with the railroad and they allewed invoice price for all of these cars destroyed.

"It is needless to state that the distributors are greatly pleased with the results of the business up to this time, and while the volume has been greater than we had anticipated, we have been able to make profitable distribution of the fruit.

"The associations that are affiliated with the distributors through the four northwestern states have been gery prompt in placing the fruit orders of the distributors in transit and the entire system has operated like clockwork."

Intense quiet is shown in the local grain situation. No business is passing in coarse grains, owing to the weakness in California and the general lack of local demand. However, as there is lit-

As Result of Battle Yesterday Governor Ammons Tells the State Troops to Prepare.

(Colted Frees Lessed Wirs.)

Denver, Colo., Oct. $7.—Governor Ammons had compisted preparations today to send militis into the strike bound coal fields in southern Colorado. He was holding up orders for the departure of the troops, however, in the hope, he said, of speedily terminating the strike by an agreement between miners and operators.

"In the meantime," he said, "I have been assured from both sides that every effort will be made to prevent further outbreaks pending a settlement."

The executive's activity was the result of a 12 hours battle in Berwind canyon, at Hasting and in the vicinity of the Colorado & Southern railroad station at Ludlow, in which a mine guard was killed, a miner was reported missing and eight men were wounded.

The guards had the worst of the engagement and retreated toward Cedar Hill and Tobas county. More than 700 armed strike sympathiners, they declared in dispatches to Denver, were patrolling the district in the vicinity of Ludlow.

Thus far, since the strike began, mine men have been killed, and at least 20 seriously wounded. Concerning the exact number of injured, figures are unobtainable, many of them having been concealed.

AT WILLAMETTE "DORM" DUKE AND AMERICAN GIRL MARRY TODAY

Geneva, Switzerland, Oct. 27.—Despite the opposition of the prospective bridegroom's family, all preparations had been completed today for the civil marriage of the Duke of Croy to Miss Nancy Leischmann, daughter of John G. C. Leischmann, former United States ambassador to Germany.

The duke and the Leischmanns were guests at the Hotel National here. They refused to make public the place where the civil ceremony will be held, and announced that no one but the closest friends would be permitted to attend it. Both precautions were taken lest tais duke's relatives attempt, at the last moment, to veto the wedding.

To the religious coremony, which will be held tomorrow, many guests have been invited, inasmuch as the couple having been civilly united, it will be too late for anyone to interpose a valid objection.

Chehalis, Wash., Oct. 27.—The funeral of Mrs. Dinah Pearsali was held here yesterday. Mrs. Pearsali was 17 years old and was a native of Pennsylvania. She had been a resident of Lewis county over 20 years. Two daughters, Mrs. T. J. Rusself and Mrs. S. C. Carrier of Chehalis, and one son, J. A. Pearsall of Pe Ell, survive her.
