

FORTUNE SMILES ON LINCOLN'S TEAM AND TITLE IS CLINCHED

Coach Borleske's Men, Outplayed in Three Quarters, Put Over Points in Last.

Good fortune had a great deal to do with the 13 to 0 victory of the Lincoln High school eleven over the Portland Academy team yesterday afternoon. For three periods, Coach Borleske's team was outplayed by the prowess of "Spec" Hurlbert, but the "breaks" of the contest favored the wearers of the cardinal and white.

The Academy players threatened to cross Lincoln's goal line in the first period. Two minutes after play started, Lincoln fumbled in mid-field and the Academy players recovered. After a couple of linebacks, which netted good gains, a forward pass from Schoenburg to Woodcock brought the ball to Lincoln's 10 yard line. The Academy players suffered two losses on the next two downs and Schoenburg tried a place kick, but failed.

Borleske's plan of sending second team men into the game did not work and he was forced to put his two injured regulars, Finke and Hanson, in the scrimmage at the start of the third period. Hanson was forced to leave the game on account of a sprained ankle and Clarin was substituted.

A 37 yard forward pass from E. Gross to Clarin put the ball in play on the Academy's nine yard line. Clarin's tuck and basketball ability helped him hold the ball. He caught it on the tips of his fingers and then dropped it, but by taking a quick step he managed to grab the ball in his arms before being tackled by Schoenburg and McClung. A line smash by Newman and a crossback play by Gross gave Lincoln their first touchdown.

Get Blocked Past.

A blocked punt of Shanifer gave Lincoln possession of the ball on the five yard line and Rusty Groce was sent through Finke's guard position for a second touchdown. Both attempts at goal failed.

Mulkey's playing was far above the average of any other player on the field with the exception of Finke. One of the Academy team, who is 40 per cent of his team's offensive and defensive strength.

The end playing of Whitmer was also a big factor in the success of the Academy team during the first three periods. Time after time he evaded Lincoln's interference and grabbed the runner with the ball. Woodcock played a good game at end also.

The line blocking of Rusty Groce and Schanifer's awkward although effective tackling were other good points of the game. Bookler played the best game of the season.

DOLAN THINKS AGGIES WILL MAKE A SHOWING

Former O. A. C. Coach Says Team Has Pulled Together for Oregon.

"In spite of the defeat by Washington last Saturday the Oregon Agricultural college football team is pulling together once more with the idea of making a creditable showing against the University of Oregon at Albany November 8," said Sam Dolan, former coach of the Aggies, who was in Portland yesterday attending the funeral of a relative.

"The boys are showing splendid spirit in view of the circumstances, and are trying to develop the team work necessary to hold or defeat their old rival Oregon. I think that the team will not be so badly beaten as some people imagine.

"Dolan is placed in a peculiar predicament at Corvallis. After coaching the football team two years, he was unable to agree with the policy of Dr. Stewart, the physical director, regarding the football instruction and retired this year, Stewart succeeding him as coach. It has been broadly hinted that the disension in the ranks of the Aggies following the 47 to 0 defeat was the result of partisanship of the players who favored Dolan and those who clung to Stewart. In justice to Dolan, however, it can be said that he has taken only the interest of a spectator in the Aggie eleven, and that he has never counseled disobedience to his successor's instruction of the football team. Dolan is through with football, and is now giving his time solely to his classes at the college.

QUARTET OF CLUBMEN OFF FOR VANCOUVER

Williams, Montpier, Boatright and Duff Make Up Multnomah Team.

Walter Williams, Frank Montpier, Ed Boatright and Ed Duff, representatives of the Multnomah Athletic club, leave this afternoon for Vancouver, B. C., where tomorrow night they will meet the Vancouver Athletic club athletes in an inter-club boxing and wrestling meet.

This will be Multnomah's first inter-club meet of the season. Williams will weigh 115 pounds and Montpier will mix things in the 125 pound class. Boatright will fight in the 145 pound class against Duff of Vancouver. Duff will wrestle in a special 150 pound match.

Instructors Tracey and O'Connell and Frank Harmer of the club boxing committee will accompany the winged "M" athletes.

Toomey's Team Wins, 44-0.

Ray Toomey's basketball teamers defeated Masters' players last evening in a postponed game by the score of 44 to 0. On Tuesday night, Pugh's team beat Bert Allen's players, 18 to 11.

BREMERTON'S LINEUP SHOWS EIGHT STARS PLAYED EIGHT YEARS

Multnomah Weakened by Loss of Patsy O'Rourke From the Line in Saturday's Game.

Eight members of the team, Harrigan, Armstrong, Reed, Carpenter, Baber, Boremann, Ogilvie and Sloan, have played together for the last three or four years. Ogilvie is one of the surest tacklers that ever played on Multnomah Field.

Multnomah's lineup will be weakened by the loss of Patsy O'Rourke, the left tackle, who had his nose broken in the W. S. C. game last Saturday. O'Rourke's place will likely be filled by Bill Bailey, who has been playing a guard position. Philbrook will be put in the guard position in Bailey's place.

The Multnomah club players will practice again this evening under a light on the club field. Quarterback Rodas, who was suffering from a bad "charley horse" after the W. S. C. game, is in good condition again.

IT'S A BOY AND HE'S GOING TO BE A BIG LEAGUER SOME DAY

There is a new colt in the corral of Manager Nick Williams of the Portland Northwestern league baseball team. The big boss of the Colts is the proudest fellow in the world for having successfully signed him up. Of course, he may not get into the game next season for lack of experience but it is pretty certain that he will be a big leaguer by and bye. Nick explains that he will be kept on the bench for some time to get a little experience, for you see he only came into the world Tuesday night. Then again he needs to put on a little extra poundage for he scaled only eight pounds when he signed up.

His name—oh, well he hasn't one yet. Williams says he'll probably be known as "Little Nick" to distinguish him from "Old Nick" until he is officially gazetted in the family Bible.

Mrs. Williams and the child are doing well.

It looks as if a season in the American association was just what "Cy" Falkenberg and Jim Vaughn needed.

STRANGE PACT LEADS TO FILING A DIVORCE

Rich Steel Manufacturer Seeks Separation From Wife After 14 Years Continuance.

(United Press Special Wire.) Philadelphia, Oct. 30.—Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Clement Cunningham, between whom a divorce suit is pending because the husband wanted to break a "purity pact" of 14 years' duration, were trying today to arrange a compromise.

The plan proposed was to permit the granting of a decree of divorce or of annulment and then for the couple to remarry. The friends argued that the "purity pact" would terminate automatically with the marriage to which it referred and would not apply to the new one.

Mrs. Cunningham asked her lawyers whether they agreed with this view and was awaiting their opinion. If they could convince her, she said, that her friends were right, she had no objection to the second marriage.

Cunningham, the rich steel manufacturer, could not be found by reporters and his lawyers would not tell where he was. They said they did not know whether he would be willing to remarry his wife if the proposed plan for ending the "purity pact" proved acceptable to his wife, but the couple's friends believed he would agree to do so.

Mrs. Cunningham supplemented today the curious story she told on the witness stand, with an equally curious interview.

"When we were married 14 years ago," she said, "we made a purity pact which we kept religiously on both sides until lately, when my husband wanted to break his oath. This was what led to the divorce suit. Nothing on earth could make me break mine. I have consecrated myself and subordinated everything to my redeemer."

M'INDOE AGAINST SAND ISLAND TITLE FOR STATE

(Special Bureau of The Journal.) Salem, Or., Oct. 30.—Governor West was advised yesterday afternoon in a message from his secretary, Miss Fern Hobbs, now in Washington looking after a number of state land matters, that Major McIndoe has filed with the war department an adverse report on Senator Chamberlain's bill to secure title for the state to Sand Island, near the mouth of the Columbia. Major McIndoe advises that the island may be needed for use in connection with the construction of the jetty.

In view of the above Governor West said he has urged to Washington arranging for a conference between Senator Chamberlain and Major McIndoe, who is now in Washington, with a hope of securing the war department's approval of an amended bill which, while removing said objection, will secure for the state the annual revenues derived through the lease of the island for the state to the government.

THIEVES VISIT PORTLAND MAN AT FOREST GROVE

Forest Grove, Or., Oct. 30.—Robbers and night prowlers have been active in Forest Grove the past week, and efforts have been made to keep the matter quiet in order that the guilty person or persons may be apprehended. The home of J. Peterson, an automobile dealer of Portland, who makes his home at Forest Grove, was entered while the family was sleeping, and a gold watch, cameo ring bracelet and other valuable articles were stolen. Peterson and family occupy upstairs rooms and were not awakened by the thief, who left tracks from his bare feet in the yard. The robbers also tried to enter the home of George Taplin, but were frightened away.
