

ONE PASSENGER HURT
WHEN BEAVER IS HIT
BY NECANIUM AT SEA

Vessels Collide in Fog Off the California Coast; Neither Is Badly Damaged.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, Oct. 31.—The steamship Beaver, Portland to San Francisco, arrived with 569 passengers and an account of a collision in a fog with the steam schooner Necanicum, in which, miraculously, neither vessel was much damaged.

HOSMER ON TRIAL FOR CRIMINAL LIBEL

Mother Superior Says Miss Laseman Was Free to Go Any Time.

(Salem Bureau of the Journal.)
Salem, Or., Oct. 31.—J. E. Hosmer, editor of the Silverton Journal, is being tried here today on the charge of criminal libel alleged to have been uttered against the prioress of the Benedictine convent of Mount Angel. The jury was secured this morning and the prosecution is now presenting its evidence.

PACIFIC "U" CELEBRATES FIRST ALL-COLLEGE DAY

Pacific University, Forest Grove, Or., Oct. 31.—The first annual All College Day was held Wednesday. In the morning a short program was rendered in Brighton chapel. P. E. Schmidt, president of the senior class, presided.

CENSORS FIND SERVICE AT ARLETA SPLENDID

A committee from the Portland Council of Mothers, appointed to censor and inspect the hot lunch service at the Arleta school, has just made a report praising the service and those in charge, and recommending that the dining hall be enlarged to accommodate more students during the rainy season.

STREET SPEAKERS ARE PUT UNDER ARREST

Chief of Police Clark was called the "disgrace of Ireland" last evening by Thomas Burns, a radical street speaker, in a talk at Ankeny and Sixth streets. What an order was given by Burns was the cause for his arrest on a charge of abusive language.

ATTORNEY'S REMARKS RESENTED BY JUDGE

Attorney Isaac Swett was taken to task yesterday afternoon by Municipal Judge Stevenson for remarks made by the attorney about the court. Attorney Swett appeared for Mrs. Mary Schwab, charged with being disordered at a street speaking.
