

Social and Personal

MISS FRANCIS BRADY, bride-elect of Arthur Maxwell Means, was the motif for a charming tea yesterday afternoon given by Mrs. Means' mother, Mrs. Samuel M. Means, at her home on Flinders and Twenty-second streets. About 50 guests called during the afternoon, and Mrs. William Webb, of Minneapolis, a sister of the bride, presided in receiving, and Mrs. Henry E. Jones presided at the banquet. Miss Frances Wilson and Miss Hazel Dolph cut the cake. Huge chrysanthemums in pink and mauve shades were arranged in effective clusters about the drawing room, and the tea table was centered with a mound of apples and grapes with ferns.

McGuire-Dent Wedding.
Word has been received from San Francisco of the wedding of Miss Teas Dent and Hollister Booth McGuire, at St. Paul's Episcopal church, the Rev. Coups officiating. Principally about People

"This is my uncle's certificate, and I wouldn't part with it for a good deal," said Chief Clerk Shaffer of the Imperial, as he displayed a formal looking legal document. "Three little Metchan youngsters have signed this, declaring me to be qualified by story telling, head patting, chin chucking and song singing to be a regular uncle to them."

Rev. A. J. Hunsaker of McMinnville, who recently kept a promise made 20 years ago that he would return to Tule after 30 years to preach to his congregation which heard his first sermon, is stopping at the Imperial, on route home.

Frank A. Moore, a business man and investor of Walla Walla, is registered at the Imperial, having come here on a business trip. "Things are moving along fairly well in Walla Walla," commented Mr. Moore.

Traveling by automobile overland and taking 15 days for the journey, L. E. Maxwell, U. B. Cook and Joe Southland, all of St. Louis, in Mr. Maxwell's touring car, arrived in Portland yesterday morning. To Portland was the first lap of a trip that the three men are taking that will encompass the United States. While in the city, the party is stopping with Mr. Maxwell's sister, Mrs. J. E. Horn, 1435 Belmont street. With the exception of encountering much snow in the Rockies in Wyoming and in the Bitter Root mountains in southern Idaho, the party did not have much trouble in getting through. From Portland they go south into California.

Postoffice inspectors Harry G. Durand and S. H. Morris, the latter of Roseburg, have left for St. Paul, Chicago and other eastern points to do some special work for the postoffice department. They will be gone about a month. Mr. Durand will be accompanied by his wife, who will visit friends in the eastern cities.

TOOK ADVANTAGE OF BOY, IS THE CHARGE

That Dick Weber, "an unsophisticated country boy," was taken advantage of by Deputy Game Warden F. Ervin and L. H. Truesdale and pleaded guilty on a promise of leniency to a charge of shooting a Chinese pheasant from a highway, is the charge made by Jack Rasmussen in his reply to William L. Finley.

Rasmussen sued Finley in the district court for the return of a shotgun or $50 damages. Finley answered that the shotgun was confiscated when Weber was arrested. Rasmussen alleged in his reply that he had the shotgun when Weber was arrested, that he let the deputies take the gun as surety that Weber would appear in the St. Johns justice court.

Weber appeared and was fined $25 and 15 costs. Rasmussen then demanded the gun and it was denied. District Judge Dayton refused to give judgment on the pleadings and will hear the case.

EXTENSION COURSE IN RHETORIC TO BE OPENED

Miss Mabel H. Parsons of the department of rhetoric of the University of Oregon will be in room A of the public library Saturday evening at 7:30 to meet applicants for two university extension courses which are just being opened. The first course is general instruction in English and the second is a course in short story writing.

TEN MORE CARRIERS ALLOTTED PORTLAND

Then usually the postoffice inspectors make their recommendations and the department heads at Washington order half as many men appointed as are asked for.

Red Tape Is Cut.
In this case, nothing of the kind was done. On October 21 Postmaster Myers wrote the senators, laying the case before them as completely as he could. He heard very little more about it until the word came this morning that on the recommendation of the Oregon senators, his requisition had been honored. The greatest confidence was placed in Senators Chamberlain and Lane in the matter. They called at the postoffice department in person on the matter.

Postmaster Myers' letter requesting the additional men was a report of the amount of mail handled, the new territory recently taken into the city, con-

SUFFRAGETTES ENTER NEW YORK CAMPAIGN

The 10 new appointees will be the 10 highest men on the substitute carriers' list. They will serve a probationary six months, and at any time within that period they may be dismissed from the service by the postmaster without the latter making any explanation other than the word "inefficient."

The men will be utilized in places where conditions are congested. The assignments will probably be distributed as follows: One man each at the main office, station C, 112 Union avenue; station C, Thirty-ninth and Belmont streets; station F, Union and Killingsworth avenues; Kenton, St. Johns, Rose City Park station, Montalvo station, Aleta station, Woodstock station, Sellwood station. All but one go to the east side.

The 10 men who will receive the jobs are: Elmer H. Roberts, 2508 Twenty-fifth avenue southeast; Walter E. Wood, Hillside; George R. Steele, 1194 East Twenty-fifth street; Earl M. Ward, 453 Yamhill street; J. Pike, 1941 East Stark street; George R. Dale, 554 East Madison street; Maurice E. Darguen, 230 Grant street; Charles E. Epton, Oak Grove; Sam P. Stewart, 550 Capital avenue; Clarence W. Prasad, 105 1/2 North Twenty-sixth street.

REUTERS SCANDAL IN LONDON MAKES PAPERS DROP FAMOUS AGENCY

Recently its financial department issued a circular urging advertisers to place their contracts through it on the ground that its news department enabled it to secure publicity for them in the news columns of the press. It was even intimated that the agency could influence editorial opinion.

The Times was particularly emphatic in its protest upon which the assistant secretary of Reuters' agency withdrew the circular, saying he regretted it had been misinterpreted.

This did not prove satisfactory, however, and Baron De Reuters, head of the agency, supplemented the assistant secretary's action by personally repudiating the circular, which he said was issued through the oversight of his financial manager.

The Times' only rejoinder was that Baron De Reuters did not seem to appreciate the gravity of the situation. The British press has hitherto published enormous quantities of Reuters' news, so that the sudden practical embarge placed on it by the Times, Mail and News was especially noticeable. As a substitute for the rejected portions of the service, the newspapers have been adding heavily to their orders from independent news agencies and for their own special.

MAKES AFFIDAVIT FOR DAUGHTER'S MARRIAGE

Albany, Or., Oct. 31.—That a wife made an affidavit before her husband for their own daughter's marriage, was the condition disclosed in an affidavit received at the county clerk's office yesterday morning.

The affidavit was sent through the mail from the home of M. J. Kneer at Mill City. It authorized the issuance of a marriage license to Arthur Kelley of Stayton, and Amy Edith Kneer of Mill City, and was made at the home of the bride to be, M. J. Kneer, the father of the bride elect, in justice of the peace at Mill City, and his wife swore to the affidavit before him, rather than go to the trouble of hunting up a friend of the family.

PROGRESSIVE SHOE STORES

NINE BUSY BAKER STORES ON THE COAST

G. H. Baker

LOS ANGELES-SAN FRANCISCO-PORTLAND

THREE BUSY BAKER STORES IN PORTLAND

There Are Many Good Reasons for the Rapid Growth and Acknowledged Supremacy of the Baker Shoe Business on the Coast, but we will cite but four of the principal ones, believing you will find them sufficient:

BAKER SHOES

Baker Shoes themselves are the first reason. Always carefully selected with the view of giving the greatest general satisfaction to the wearer in point of Style, Comfort and Durability. Positively NO BETTER SHOES CAN BE PROCURED to sell at equal prices with those bearing the name "Baker."

$3.50

BAKER SERVICE

Service is a matter that receives much attention at Baker's. We believe that, no matter how good the commodity, poor service will spoil it. We therefore at all times maintain an adequate corps of intelligent, courteous salesmen to insure a proper service of our superior Shoes.

BAKER VALUES

Baker values are the second strong reason for the success of the Baker stores. We wish to most emphatically state that OUR VALUES ARE THE BIGGEST to be obtained anywhere in the West. Our tremendous purchasing power, coupled with our "close margin" policy in selling, insures this fact beyond question.

$4.00

BAKER TREATMENT

We believe that the man who spends a dollar in a Baker store is entitled to full 100% value. This we are determined he shall receive. If for any reason you think you have not received this, we shall be only too glad of an opportunity to give you full satisfaction. We want YOU for a Baker customer.
