DEALERS ARE PAYING 22 CENTS A POUND POTATO TRADE HERE ALMOST DEADLOCKED WHILE GROWERS HOLD

Are Demanding Higher Prices Than Trade Says It Can Pay; Result Is That Idaho Is Taking All Business of the Northwest District.

> Today's Produce Trads. Butter market weak, Cheese situation firm. Lettuce holding firm. Apple trade good. Fancy celery in demand. Grape market firmer. Potatoes rather quiet, Onions holding firm, Chinook salmon offering.

The potato trade is almost deadlocked. chase supplies at a price they can af-ford to take hold here, have generally ford to take hold here, have generally proven unsuccessful. Growers are firmer than ever in their views and it is like pulling teeth to get any of them to offer their stocks at any price just now. There is quite a fair demand for fancy potatoes from California but ordinary stock is not wanted there because the south has plenty of its own growth that would answer this description. The fact that California has scarcely been able to move a carload of potatoes to Arisona and Texas during the last three months owing to the unloading by Idaho at extreme low figures, has left greater stocks in the southern market than usual qonsidering the size of the yield.

than usual considering the size of the yield.

Idaho continues to offer its potatoes for anything they will bring. Growers there are losing no opportunity to unload on outside markets. The result is that values have been sliding rapidly. The too free offering has likewise resulted in greater rejections by Arisona and Texas buyers than ever before. This has caused further demoralization in the markets of the southwest.

Efforts to purchase potatoes here at a price that shipments can be made to alther Arisona or Texas have stopped. According to a prominent buyer of the Willamette valley, the growers are asking from 10 to 20c a cental above what dealers can sell the stock for to southwest points. Naturally this has caused a suspension of operations.

NAVELS ARE DUE TOMORROW

First carload of navel oranges for the season is due to arrive on the local market tomorrow. The oar will be dis-tributed among several dealers of Front street. Other shipments are now roll-

ANOTHER CAR OF LETTUCE

Another carload of California lettuce is coming to the local market. The shipment will probably arrive tomorrow. In the meantine quite fancy stock is coming forward from Hood River and is commanding excellent sale at $2.50 a crate.

CALIFORNIA TOMATOES COMING

A full carload of California tomatoes in lugs is due in the local market Wednesday. The salpment will be from southern California and the price will probably be around $1.50 per 30 pound lug. This is the same as the last cav.

CHINOOK SALMON ABRIVING

Chinook salmon is again coming forward to the local market. A fair sized shipment was this morning received from Tillamook and was priced generally at 5c a pound. Silversides are in good supply at 5c a pound.

FANCY CELERY IS SCARCE

There igla scarcify of fancy celery in the local market. For best quality of-ferings the price is today being held firm at 20c a dozen bunches while No. 2 stock ranges from 10 to 80c generally. Demand is quite good.

PRICE OF BEEF IS

Lower Cost of Livestock Recently Has Effect Upon Dressed Product; Hams and Bacon Follow Drop in Hogs in Local Market.

The price of beef is dropping. Values are ruling fully 1/2 a pound lower than last week in the wholesale market. Best steer beef is today queted no higher than 13c a pound, while cown are a cent below this for similar quality.

"There is an easier feeling all through the dressed beef market, says Fred Danielson, head of the local house of Frye. "Recent reductions in the price of cattle on the hoof have been reflected here by a cut price for the dressed product.

"The same reason has caused an ad-product.

"The same reason has caused an advance in the price of dressed mutton and lambs, Wholesale prices are following the price of livestock quite close. There has recently been quite an advance in the price of sheep and lambs in the livestock market.

"Hog products were lowered today because of the easier feeling and lower prices that have ruled for livestock. Bacon and ham prices are today off %c a pound."

a pound,"
The market for lard is holding rather steady.

APPLE DEMAND IS HEAVY

High Prices Are Offered but Many Growers Do Not Have Suitable Fruit to Participate.

Zena Spring Valley, Cr., Nov. 3.—The fallure of the eastern apple crop has created a demand for Oregon spples which is being felt here. There is a steady demand for Splizenbergs, Kings and Baldwins, which the orchardists of this section are seeking to supply, welcoming the good prices offered which are in great contrast to the low prices of a year age. Many orchardists here were so discouraged by the poor demand and low prices of last fall that they neglected to spray their trees, and as a consequence many of their apples will not grade high, and they are losing the benefits of the higher prices.

Some say that this will be a lesson to them, and that hereafter they will keep their trees in good condition.

There is a large crop of apples in this section this year, and those that cannot be sold through the fruit union for shipment find a ready market at the cannot be sold through the fruit union for shipment find a ready market at the cannot be ready as a section the fine weather of the last two weeks has been very favorable for the gathering of the fruit, which is now nearing the end.

Buyers Have Started Their Supplies and 22 Cents Has Been Paid in Country for First Class Dressed Offerings; Supplies Are Good.

Buying of turkeys at country points for the Thankagiving trade has begun in earnest and quite liberal purchases are reported both at southern Oregon and Idaho points.

It is reported that several local interests have purchased dressed turkeys for the holidays. In some quarters it is figured that extra select birds will be started at a higher figure than this.

As a general rule the price of turkeys along Front street during the Thanks-giving trade ranges from 22 to 25c a pound. There are occasions when it drops below this for first chass birds and at other times the price is fractionally higher. Averages, however, will range between the two figures.

Reports from the country indicate but little change in the output of turkeys that might be expected, as compared with a year ago. Some sections show an increase of 5 per cent, others show 10 per cent and still others are showing a loss as compared with last season.

The better feeling that has developed in the California trade is proving a big factor in the wheat trade here. While practically no open business has been reported from the south, the trade there is taking care of consignments and advices indicate that within a few days at the most, the price offered there will be sufficiently high to chable buying in this section.

California's chief wants of wheat here consist of club and red but a fair supply of bluestem is generally taken.

Wheat Market Opens Firm for December and May but Loses · Toward End of Day.

Chicage, Nov. 3.—There was fair strength in the market for wheat at the opening. December being 1/20 better and May 1/20. No change was shown at the start for July. Closing figures were 1/20 off each for the first two options and 1/20 higher for the July. Broomhall cabled from Liverpool that the decline in America and the heaviness in Winnipeg Saturday caused realizing at the opening. Later shorts covered, which resulted in an advance. Latest advices from Argentina are less favorable and Russian offers are firmer.

FOR THANKSGIVING TURKEYS

Business Is Much More Widely Distributed Among Buyers While Heretofore Operators Have Been Limited; Forecast an Advance.

Considerable business was reported in the hop market yesterday and today at 250 a pound for best offerings, although the balk of the business reported is around 226 25 26 a pound.

McNeff Brothers of this city were reported as offering 23 26 a pound for one lot at Dallas, and another at Newbers, but were unable to induce the grower to dispose of either lot. The same interests purchased 700 bales in the Yakima section during the last two days, 250 a pound being paid. They also purchased 480 bales of the Kennedy lot at Woodburn at 23 5c and 55 bales of the Whitney lot in the same section at 20 5c.

The market for hops is much firmer and there are additional forecasts of 25c deals within a very short time. The situation is far the best of the season to date, the buying being more widely distributed. Heretofore the builk of the business has been for two or three interests, but today many domestic buyers are in the buying field. Sales are ranging from 21c upward.

No late advices have been received from foreign markets, but the last cables indicate a strong tone at all points.

New York Market Under Pressure With Railroad Earnings Generally Showing Loss.

New York, Nov. 3.—There was a general loss in security values today with trading extremely light. As a general rule poor earnings statements were displayed by leading railroads and this together with the fact that the interstate Commerce Commission has refused to allow an advance in freight rates to various points, gave the market extreme bearish sentiment.

A cable from London said that finance contemplated, including the loan to the Balkan states, totaled $730,000,000.

American stocks were weak in London with losses of 4 to 1 point.

Extreme weakness is showing in the cattle market at North Portland. While there was nothing available today that could be placed in the topper class, therefore extreme quotations were not tested, it would take something out of the ordinary quality to bring even $7.25 at this time for steers.

There was a smaller run of cattle than had been generally expected and the poorness of quality was rather disappointing to the trade. paigns in the history of Vancouver. There has been no demonstration of any kind and each candidate and his friends have carried on a quiet campaign devoid of the mud-slinging and defamation of character prevalent in former years. There is nothing on the surface to indicate that the voters of the city will tomorrow select candidates for city offices and on three tickets, Democratic, Republican and Progressive.

However, "still water runs deep," and a poll of the city by precincts has been taken by a number of candidates and their ward workers, and perhaps a more thorough campaign of a quiet nature was never carried on in the city by estain aspirants. Henry Crass and John P, Kiggins, the only fight for the mayoralty nomination each claim victory by a good majority. Otto Zumsteg and J. P. Geoghegan, Republican candidates for the office of city tressurer, are causing more interest than any others save the head of the ticket. Zumsteg is a man of family and has never held office. Geoghegan is a single man and before he became treasurer held the office of city clerk.

Booths are being erected today in the various precincts of the city and an

FOR RAILWAY FRANCHISE

Oregon City, Or., Nov. 3 .- Stephen

Caever will at the next council meeting ask for a franchise to run an electric line through the heart of the city, specifying certain streets he wishes included

The proposed line would run on Canter street from the north boundary of the city to Fifteenth street, along Fif-teenth to Water street, the south ter-minus of the road.

The franchise wanted also provides that the road can be run by any power with the exception of steam, and that the cars shall travel through the city at a speed not to exceed 15 miles an hour, and to be at all times under the regulation of the city council. It also contains a common-user clause for the

Clackamas Southern railway and runs
