

FOUR OF FIVE LAWS PUT TO REFERENDUM WIN MAJORITIES BIG

Sterilization Act is Only One Voted Upon Which Is in Doubt.

almost unanimously in favor of the appropriations.

In Linn county, which adjoins Lane on the north, the university appropriations were voted down according to the unofficial returns.

Multnomah county had no direct concern in the county attorney act because it proposed for counties outside Multnomah system of electing a county prosecutor in effect here.

In no particular, for that matter, did Multnomah county disturb the general election of the state on the measures at issue yesterday.

Marion County. (Salem Bureau of the Journal.) Salem, Or., Nov. 5.—With complete returns from all but six precincts in Marion county, all the referendum measures have a majority in their favor except the state university appropriation measure.

Most of the Salem precincts gave majorities for all the measures, while most of the county precincts went against all the measures except the workmen's compensation act.

Complete returns from 45 precincts out of 61 in the county give: University repair fund, yes 2745, no 3535; university new building fund, yes 2490, no 3708; sterilization act, yes 3362, no 3316; county attorney act, yes 3014, no 2971; workmen's compensation act, yes 4136, no 2161.

Clatsop County. (Special to The Journal.) Astoria, Or., Nov. 5.—Seventeen precincts complete in Clatsop county give University repair fund, yes 912, no 325; university building appropriation, yes 853, no 372; sterilization, yes 425, no 794; county attorney, yes 780, no 389; workmen's compensation, yes 1055, no 177. It is estimated that the outstanding vote is in the neighborhood of 250.

The final count will show no material change in the situation. The measure providing for a bond issue of $400,000 to construct permanent roads in Clatsop county carried by a majority of 490.

Washington County. (Special to The Journal.) Hillsboro, Nov. 5.—Returns from 11 precincts heard from up to 11 o'clock today would indicate that the five measures have probably been defeated.

West Cedar, West Butte, South Tualatin, Reedville, Orenco, Gaston, Dillan, Banks, Beaverton and North and South Hillsboro have given a total vote as follows: Building repair fund, for 987, against 1152; university new building, for 691, against 980; sterilization, for 704, against 765; county attorney, for 799, against 516; workmen's compensation, for 1069, against 614.

"FATHER" OF BRIDGE IN CLARKE PLEAS

Attorney Stapleton Sees Great Future for County as Result of Election.

Vancouver, Wash., Nov. 5.—Attorney James P. Stapleton, who bears the distinction of being father of the interstate bridge movement in Clarke county, is perhaps one of the best pleased men in Vancouver today.

"I think Vancouver can begin to readjust itself and make ready for the greater and larger Vancouver that is going to be here as a result of the construction of the bridge.

The immediate effect will be the brightening up of conditions both in Multnomah county and Clarke county.

Of course, the ultimate greater and larger effect will not really be felt until the trolley lines begin running over the bridge and reach out for trade in southwestern Washington.

UNIVERSITY'S VICTORY REBUKE TO PERSONS BEHIND REFERENDUM

Eugene Brookings of Oregon Educational League Thinks Question Settled.

Eugene Brookings, president of the Oregon Citizens' Educational League, who directed the campaign in behalf of the university appropriations, believes that the vote at the polls yesterday was not only a decisive rebuke to the promoters of the referendum but should prevent the question ever being raised again.

The victory yesterday at the polls was decisive and complete. It is the wish of our people that our university be retained and sustained.

CARFARE ORDINANCE PASSED BY COUNCIL

President Griffith were Father Gregory of Benedictine Heights, A. M. Wells of Sellwood and others, while L. M. Lepper and Dan Kellaher of the East Side Business Men's club urged its immediate passage.

In a thrust directed at the railroad commission Mr. Kellaher stated that the figures of the franchise of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company would be far more equitable to the people than would be a revamp of the material by the railroad commission.

"We might as well get a railroad commission to represent the people or abolish it," said Lepper.

The members of the council took no part in the discussion beyond listening to the various arguments.

The measure was put to a vote Mayor Albert Bigelow voted for the fare reduction, while Commissioners Dieck and Brewster voted against it.
