

COTTAGE HOME PLANS WILL BE EXAMINED IN SALEM TOMORROW

Multnomah Delegation Seeking Ideas for Frazer Detention Home Buildings.

A committee composed of Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. W. B. Fehchelm and Mrs. J. P. O'Brien of the executive committee of the juvenile court, with Circuit Judge Gates of the juvenile court, will inspect the cottage system of the Home for the Feeble Minded at Salem tomorrow.

The idea at present under consideration is for a single building divided by a blank wall, on one side of which will be kept delinquent children and on the other side dependents. The two sides are to be subdivided for boys and girls of each class.

The question of providing the new building was placed before the county commissioners yesterday by Hon. J. B. Bondurant, representing the Woman's club and the Oregon Congress of Mothers, and the executive committee of the juvenile court composed of Miss Valentine Fritchard, chairman, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. Ben Selling, Mrs. A. L. Vesale, Mrs. J. P. O'Brien, Mrs. W. B. Fehchelm and Mrs. Jacob Kamm.

The commissioners ordered that the cow at the Detention Home be sent to the Multnomah farm and that the home be allowed a quart of milk a day, to be purchased from some dairy. The cow was unsatisfactory and it was considered cheaper and more sanitary to purchase the milk.

Other changes asked by the committee were the removal of the grand jury, better plumbing, new bedding and mattresses, additional gymnasium equipment, a phonograph, steel lockers and a team of horses.

A meeting of the executive committee will be held next Monday, at which further consideration will be given to the needs of the institution. Two prominent women have been asked to join the committee, Mrs. C. W. Hayhurst and Mrs. H. Bondurant, the present and past chairman of the juvenile court committee of the Oregon Congress of Mothers.

GOGORZA GIVES SONG RECITAL AT THE HELIG

Emilio De Gogorza, Spanish baritone and husband of Madame Emma Eames, gave a concert song recital at the Helig last night. He was in excellent voice, demonstrating a wealth of tone color and vocal finish. He sang to the edification of his audience in German, French, Spanish, Italian and English.

De Gogorza was accompanied by Henry Gilles, a young pianist from Paris, who gave several pleasing solo numbers. New Pulp Mill Starts. Marshfield, Or., Nov. 6.—The new paper pulp mill at the Marshfield plant of the C. A. Smith Lumber & Manufacturing company started this week.

Lists counties like Baker, Benton, Clackamas, Clatsop, Columbia, Coos, Crook, Douglas, Gilliam, Harney, Hood River, Jackson, Josephine, Klamath, Lane, Lincoln, Multnomah, Polk, Tillamook, Union, Wasco, Washington, Yamhill and their respective vote counts.

LINN AND LANE WILL ALSO BUILD A BRIDGE WOULD HOLD CONVICT FOR MURDER OF TIMOT

(Special to The Journal.) Albany, Or., Nov. 6.—Headed by their band, over 100 Harrisburg people came here yesterday in a special train, for the purpose of urging the county court to erect a bridge across the Willamette river at that city.

The crowd from Harrisburg, led by Mayor Long, was met at the Southern Pacific depot by a delegation of local business men and escorted to the courthouse by a procession including women and children. The Harrisburg people wore silk badges bearing lines, "Harrisburg Booster," "O Ferryland," and others.

A county ferry is maintained at Harrisburg now, for the convenience of the residents of that city. People are asking for the erection of a wagon bridge. People of that section say that the bridge is a necessity, and it was hoped that the meeting would terminate in the bridge would be erected in the near future.

Harrisburg people express the belief that Lane county will not assist in the construction of the bridge. Since the boundary of the two counties, since then the river has swerved until the entire stream is all in Lane county.

CHARGES VIOLATION OF CORRUPT PRACTICES ACT

Watcher at Polls in Milwaukee Accuses Deputy Sheriff T. W. Kelly.

Charges that violations of the corrupt practices act were perpetrated at the polls at Milwaukee Tuesday were made today by G. C. Pelton, a watcher who represented the "dry" faction at the election. Mr. Pelton declared that the repeated visits to the polls of Deputy Sheriff T. W. Kelly in automobile No. 706, hauling voters constituted one violation. When told that this was against the law, Pelton says Kelly scoffed at the warning.

Three automobiles and one horse vehicle, Pelton declares, made trip after trip to and from the polls despite warnings. Based on these charges, a delegation of the Milwaukee Good Citizens' league went to Oregon City yesterday and consulted Attorneys U'Ren & Scheubel, and Acting District Attorney Hedges.

The Commercial club of Milwaukee heard the charges of irregularity Tuesday night, and took action supporting the Good Citizens' league in its fight.

3000 TROOPS TO QUELL CAR RIOTS IN INDIANAPOLIS

business interest in the city. Chief of Police Hyland and Sheriff Porteus admitted their inability to keep order. Prominent merchants assured the governor that their trade had fallen off by fully one third since the strike began.

Governor Raiston asserted that his life had been threatened for calling out the troops. He could not tell, however, from whom the threat came or what form it took.

"I was elected to enforce the laws," he added. "I can't compel arbitration. At the next session of the legislature I will favor a law making it compulsory in such a crisis as this."

The strike leaders held a meeting on the state house lawn this afternoon, advising the governor's order forbidding them from gathering on state property. The speakers denounced President Todd of the traction company vehemently, but one of them said they had failed to convince Governor Raiston that Todd was not a god.

WILLIAM DUNBAR IS TRYING TO GET PARDON

Portland Merchant Who Was Member of Opium Ring Wants to Come Home.

Provided the efforts of Senators Chamberlain and Lane at Washington prove successful in securing him a pardon, William Dunbar, for 20 years a fugitive from justice, will return to Portland, his former home. Dunbar is now in China, where he fled after he had been found guilty of smuggling opium into the United States.

In asking for Dunbar's pardon, representations are made that he has suffered sufficiently for his wrongdoing by having to undergo self exile for so many years.

Dunbar was one of a ring of opium smugglers who operated in Portland in the early '90s. When arrested he had a store at Front and Washington streets. The ring operated two steamers between Portland, British Columbia and Alaska, the Haytian republic and the Wilmington, which were elaborately arranged for smuggling purposes.

His first wife is dead and he married several years ago in China.
