Resume of the Events of Friday Afternoon and Night; Paragraphed for Quick Digestion by Journal Readers.

Executive. Continental United States exportations of coal for 1913 will be about $100,000,000, which is third in coal exportations of the nations of the world, the figures being exceeded only by the United Kingdom and Germany. Representative Keating's attempt to secure a congressional investigation of the coal strike situation in Colorado failed. Adjournment was taken before the congressman's resolution could be acted upon. Miss Jessie Wilson, daughter of the president, is busy preparing for her forthcoming wedding, and needles are flying at the White House. A stray black cat has found a home in the White House. The cat appeared unheralded, and President Wilson will let the feline remain, considering the incident as a good omen. The relative home of John Hays Hammond at Washington has been bought by the Russian government as a home for the Russian embassy. Price paid was $300,000.

Foreign. The British government is being asked to come to an agreement with a measure for the enfranchisement of women can be made a part of the official program of the Liberal party. The government will consider a compromise based only on the reputation of the Women's Social and Political Union, and all its militant methods, it is said. Mrs. Emmaline Pankhurst, militant leader of English suffragettes, who is now at Minneapolis, declared that the suffragettes intended to end the life of the so-called Liberal party government. First Lieutenant August Dannemiller, Sixth Infantry, will visit various cities of Idaho with reference to the militia of that state. A series of entertainments in honor of Rear Admiral Charles J. Bagger, and officers and crew of the battleship Wyoming, has been prepared at Malta, where the vessel will arrive today. Admiral Cattolica, former minister of marine of Italy, arrived at Naples from Rome to welcome the American battleships Florida and Arkansas, on their arrival at Naples.

Eastern. President Faunce of Brown university, addressing the Baptist Social union at Boston, declared that the morals of the far east would be undermined by western independence. He said that

HUSBAND NAILED RUBBER ON GATES

Wife so Weak and Nervous Could Not Stand Least Noise — How Cured.

Munford, Ala.—"I was so weak and nervous while passing through the Change of Life that I could hardly live. My husband had to nail rubber on all the gates for I could not stand it to have a gate slam. "It also had back-ache and a fullness in my stomach. I noticed that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was advertised for such cases and I sent and got a bottle. It did me so much good that I kept on taking it and found it to be all you claim. I recommend your Compound to all women afflicted as I was."—Mrs. F. P. MULLENBORN, Munford, Alabama.

An Honest Dependable Medicine is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. A Root and Herb medicine originated nearly forty years ago by Lydia E. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass., for controlling female life. Its wonderful success in this line has made it the safest and most dependable medicine of the age for women and no woman suffering from female ills does herself justice who does not give it a trial. If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham, Medford, Co. (contidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

INCLEMENT WEATHER DELAYS PAVING WORK ON EAST THIRTEENTH

Until Concrete Work Is Finished Carline Compelled to Use One Track.

Sellwood, Nov. 8.—Owing to the inclement weather, the work of placing concrete between the rails of the car track on East Thirteenth street between Spokane, Avenue and Malden avenue, was not continued Thursday or Friday. Until this work is finished only a single track can be used for this distance, causing considerable delay. Thursday, owing to the putting in of a frog in the crossover, only a single track was in use over the entire distance between Malden avenue and the Golf Links.

The funeral of Joseph D. Stanley, who died November 3 at the home of his son Oscar, 484 Lexington avenue, was held Wednesday, and Thursday the remains were shipped to Fisher, Wash., for burial. Mr. Stanley's health had declined steadily since an outing at the coast last summer. He was a retired farmer, aged 78, and had been a prominent Mason for 40 years.

He is survived by a son, Oscar D., and two daughters, Mrs. Ida M. Parker of Forest Grove and Mrs. Emma Meyer of Corvallis.

HOLMAN SUES FOR ALLEGED FALSE ARREST

Albany, Or., Nov. 7.—Declaring that his "good name and reputation suffered to the extent of $5000 damage," W. B. Holman has filed suit in the circuit court against Mahlon Hawk, city marshal of Harrisburg, alleging that his marshal arrested him maliciously and without cause. According to the complaint the marshal arrested Holman at Harrisburg, June 18 last, without warrant and took him before a justice of the peace on a charge of violating an ordinance relating to the sale of intoxicating liquors. The plaintiff claims he secured his release by giving bail and, tending to "betray his allegations, claims that the justice dismissed the complaint and acquitted him. Holman asks for judgment in the sum of $5000 and costs and disbursements.

Fruit Rate Reduced.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.) Salem, Or., Nov. 8.—The railroad commission has been advised that the Southern Pacific has granted a reduction in the freight rate on car lots of canned goods from Creswell to Portland from 50 cents per 100 pounds to 17 1/2 cents. This action was taken following a complaint by the Fruitgrowers association of Creswell, which alleged that Eugene, which had a rate of 15 1/2 cents, had an advantage over the Creswell fruit shippers.

Navajo Indians Threaten.

Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 8.—United States Marshal Hudspeth left today with a posse for Shiprock, on the northwestern Navajo reservation, in response to a telegram from Agent Shotton telling him that the Indians threaten to massacre all whites on the reservation Monday unless prosecution is dropped of 11 Indians accused of riot and assault.

FIRST UNIT OF SCHOOL BUILDING SOON READY

Sellwood Will Have Structure of Most Modern Type In Near Future.

Sellwood, Nov. 8.—The first unit of the new reinforced concrete Sellwood school, which will be ready for occupancy during the term starting February, is now more than half finished. Steam heaters are being installed, and the building is ready for roofing. The structure which will be two stories high with full basement, will contain four classrooms, a principal's room, an emergency room, and will cost $45,000.

A year later if the board of education approves, the present frame building will be torn down and a second concrete unit started. The exterior of the present unit will be cast cement. Litherland & Abrey are the general contractors.

Next Friday at 8 p. m. the Parent-Teacher association will meet at the school. An invitation is extended to all who are interested in the school to attend. Besides a short program given by the children, there will be speeches by City Superintendent L. R. Alderman and by O. M. Plummer, member of the school board and secretary of the Portland Union Stockyards. Solos will be rendered by Mrs. F. H. Hayes on the piano, Miss Lillian Ward, soprano, and Richard Robertson, baritone.

Good Sport at Newport.

Newport, Or., Nov. 8.—Duck hunters are getting the limit on the bay and the tributary sloughs these days. A number of hunters are over from the valley and Portland. All are having good luck. The rains of the past week have brought the ducks in. Silverducks are coming in now better than they have been, owing to the heavy rains, and good catches are being made.
