

Social and Personal

MRS. AND MRS. J. C. AINSWORTH presided at a charming affair last night at the Waverly Country club when they were hosts at a dance. About 200 guests of the social elite were present.

Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Ainsworth was Miss Bernice Baker of Tacoma, who came over especially for the dance to visit Mr. Ainsworth's sister, Mrs. Ralph Jenkins. Mrs. Ainsworth wore a handsome gown of pink chiffon brocaded with cut velvet flowers and draped modestly over cream satin.

Announcements have been received of the marriage of Miss Lucile Parker, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Parker, to Eugene W. McCreary, which was solemnized Wednesday, November 13. Mr. and Mrs. Mercereau, who are both popular young people of the smart set, will make their home at Doty, Wash.

On Tuesday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Gibson, 1133 Williams avenue, Miss Colby Gibson was married to James M. Roberts, the Rev. W. D. Gray officiating. Before the ceremony Miss Phyllis McDuffee sang "I Love You So" in a most charming manner, and Miss E. Neilson played the wedding march.

Miss Margaret Gibson, who was her sister's maid of honor, and the best man, Ernest Roberts, brother of the groom, preceded the bride, who came in on her father's arm, meeting the groom and clergyman, who were waiting beneath a bower of foliage hung with tiny wedding bells.

The ring ceremony was used. Miss Gibson, who is a beautiful girl of a tall and graceful type, was exquisitely groomed in main cream color, elaborated with silk hand embroidered lace. The long veil, which fell to the hem of her train, was fashioned in a mob cap with a tiny wreath of orange blossoms.

The wedding of Wilmot Glidden Hastings, Portland, Or., and Miss Marjorie McVey, recently of Worcester, Mass., was very prettily and appropriately celebrated the evening of November 8 at the Hotel Chesterbury in the apartments of the groom's sister, Mrs. Alexander J. McDonald, Dr. John Boyd of the First Presbyterian church officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Hastings are at home to their friends, 701 Everett street, flat C.

The bride and groom were the recipients of many beautiful gifts. After several strenuous and unsuccessful efforts to escape from the house unnoticed by the guests, Mr. and Mrs. Roberts left for a short trip, and on their return they will occupy their new home on Melrose drive, which is rapidly nearing completion.

The Misses Wilda and Elma Buckman gave a dinner party to a few friends, Wednesday evening, November 13, to celebrate the 50th birthday of their mother, Mrs. Jane Buckman, widow of the late Cyrus Buckman.

Mr. and Mrs. Buckman came to Oregon via Panama in 1867 and located on a farm in the district on East Burnside and Couch streets, east of Eighteenth street. The family home at Eighteenth and East Couch is on a portion of the old farm. The guests who enjoyed the hospitality of the Misses Buckman included Madame E. M. Casseday, Miss Eva G. Purdy, Dr. and Mrs. Frank F. Casseday, Mrs. Hollowell, and Mrs. Cassie Buckman.

Complimenting Miss Mabel Morse, a bride elect, Mrs. F. H. Roberts entertained ten matrons at a most delightful dinner on Wednesday. Each guest gave housekeeping suggestions and was asked to give her best recipe on "How to make the Butterfly." The guest of honor was presented with a handsome and very useful cook book, made in the shape of a butterfly, containing favorite recipes. The table decorations were red and white, hearts being used for the place cards and in the decorations.

Mrs. Robert's guests were: Miss Morse, Mesdames MacFarlane, Hart, Bruechert, C. P. Morse, C. L. Smith, Robinson, Ostrom, Roeths and L. Morse.

Jonio Court No. 1, Order of the Amaranth, will give an informal dance and card party in the Masonic Temple on Monday evening, November 17th. The Order of the Amaranth is composed of members of the Masonic fraternity and their wives and daughters and as this is the first party given by them a large attendance is expected. An invitation has been extended to all Masons and members of the Eastern Star and their friends and an enjoyable time is promised to all. The committee on arrangements is composed of Margaret E. Howson, Metell D. Baker, Alta Ring and George E. Higgins.
