To Buy Where Goods Are the Cheapest and Best

This store, on account of its out-of-the-way location, has cut the price on nearly every article in the entire store. It may be only a few cents on a pair of socks or a necktie, but it is several dollars saved on a large sale-and is well worth walking a few blocks out of the way for, especially when the good quality of the goods has not been changed one bit. Since we have made a permanent cut in prices, the trade in this store has nearly doubled.
