

TIGERS TIE UP ELI IN THIRD PERIOD; FINAL IS 3 TO 3

Tie Score Results at Annual Yale-Princeton Game at New Haven; Princeton Was Favorite in Betting, 10-7.

YALE SHOWS UP WELL AGAINST HEAVIER TEAM

Guernsey Drop Kicks a Goal After Series of Rushes to 22 Yard Line.

By Hal Sheridan.
 New Haven, Conn., Nov. 15.—Thirty-four thousand wild eyed bulldogs and tiger rosters begged this afternoon for one punch to decide the supremacy between the Princeton and Yale football squads, but the game ended in a 3 to 3 tie. Blocked in their efforts to put over a final wallop on land, both squads took to the air, and the toes of Guernsey and Baker delivered, each drop kicking a field goal.

Guernsey registered the first goal and then in the next period Hobe Baker stood on Yale's 48 yard line and shot a long twister between the Yale posts, saving the Tigers from defeat.

The Yale spirit was there and the bulldogs fought the tiger to a standstill. The Blue Backs outstruck the Princetonians 2 to 1. The Yale line never was endangered, Yale in the final stanza putting the ball on Princeton's three-yard line and keeping the Tiger's on the defensive.

Princeton showed less today on a dry field than it did on a muddy field in last Saturday's game with Harvard. Yale coaches asserted this afternoon that the Yale team has a good chance to win from Harvard when the two teams clash.

WHOLESALE PRICE OF EGGS BREAKS RECORD

Jump to 50 Cents a Dozen Follows Deterioration of Cold Storage Article.

Sixty cents a dozen for eggs at retail and in some instances as high as 65 cents is the result of the advance in the wholesale market today to the highest price on record—50 cents a dozen.

The demand for eggs is today very heavy considering the height of the price. For a while the bulk of the trade, in fact most of it, was in cold storage stock, which was of rather good quality and sold at about 10 to 15 cents a dozen less than the fresh stock. The season for storage eggs is coming to a close and the quality is losing every day. For that reason the ice house offerings are not giving the satisfaction they were a week or 10 days ago.

Portland housewives might consider themselves extremely lucky that they are living in this city where eggs are not so scarce as elsewhere in the country. At this time the public is compelled to pay 75 cents a dozen for fresh eggs at most of the big markets on the Atlantic and Pacific coasts.

FORMER EMPLOYE IS CONSCIENCE STRICKEN

After 22 Years Man Returns Railroad $7.50 Which He Says Was Unearned.

With conscience awakening after 22 years, J. W. Collins yesterday turned over to the Oregon-Washington Railroad & Navigation company $7.50 which he declared he had received in unearned "time" at the O. R. & N. shops.

When he appeared at the city ticket office and asked for the "boss" City Ticket Agent J. S. McFarland admitted he was in charge.

"I want to give you this," said Collins. "In 1891 I turned in $7.50 in time that did not belong to me. Now I have got religion and don't want this old thing hanging over me."

And Mr. McFarland accepted the money, which he turned over to the auditing department with the proper notation.

Some of the employees figured out afterward that this $7.50, if figured at 4 per cent compound interest, would have earned $22.50 in the two decades.

Typoid Kills Captain Lawrence.

El Cajon, Cal., Nov. 15.—Captain Henry Clay Lawrence, 70, Civil war veteran and widely known Christian Science practitioner, died yesterday of typhoid fever.

GOVERNOR DECLARES HE WILL PUT END TO STATE DEPORTATIONS

Report of the Sending Away From Florence of Seven I. W. W. to Receive Attention

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)
 Salem, Or., Nov. 15.—Governor West will take immediate action to put an end to deportation occurrences in this state, he declared today when asked concerning the reported deportation of seven I. W. W.'s at Florence yesterday. He will use the power of the militia to do it. He said he will put Florence under martial law at once if the deportation occurred.

He made efforts today to obtain authentic information concerning the reported deportation, but had not been successful at noon. He said if it were true, he likely would go personally to the scene and investigate the causes for the failure of local authorities to enforce the law and prevent mob rule.

"If through a failure of local officials to enforce the law mob rule prevails, the city will be put under martial law and so kept until I have assurance that the laws will be enforced and all citizens will receive equal protection of the law in that community," he stated.

"I'm not in possession of facts, but merely stating what will happen if unconfirmed reports received are true."

"Those who engage in such practices know not what they do. They are tearing at the very vitals of established government, and pave the way for retaliation on the part of the victims and their sympathizers on the slightest pretext."

300 PASSENGERS TAKEN OFF LINER AFIRE ON ATLANTIC

Spanish Steamship Balmes Is Burning Off Cape Race; Cunarder Pannonia Stands By, Removing All Passengers.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 New York, Nov. 15.—The Cunarder Pannonia, Captain Capber, today took 300 passengers from the steamship Balmes, on fire off Cape Race, according to wireless messages received here.

Captain Ruf, of the Balmes, and his crew, remained on board to fight the flames, but the Pannonia was standing by to rescue them if the fire got beyond control.

The Balmes is a Spanish ship. It was bound for Bermuda.

S. P. STRIKE SETTLES INTO LONG STRUGGLE

No Hope of Early Settlement, Says Federal Mediation Commissioner.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 Washington, Nov. 15.—Commissioner Hanger of the federal mediation and conciliation board said this afternoon that there seemed no prospect of an immediate settlement of the strike on the Southern Pacific's Sunset lines.

The board, he added, would continue its efforts, but he would not divulge the result of his conference with the Southern Pacific officials.

His announcement came as a deep disappointment, a report having previously circulated that arrangements were likely for a prompt resumption of work pending a settlement.

President Wilson has received many messages from Louisiana and Texas interests begging him to do all in his power to terminate the tie-up, which threatens ruin to great industries.

MEXICAN REBEL LEADER IN NORTH AND VICTORIOUS GENERAL

General Venustiano Carranza, leader of the Constitutional forces in northern Mexico, and General Villa, who captured the city of Juarez this morning. The rebels are endeavoring to make as great a show of strength as possible against Huerta, in hope of recognition by the United States.

MEXICAN CONGRESS IS TO MEET TODAY, CALL FOR SECOND ELECTION

Carranza's Army Said to Be Growing Rapidly; Huerta's Retirement Awaited.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 Washington, Nov. 15.—Despite President Wilson's refusal to recognize it, Mexico's new congress was scheduled to meet today.

President Huerta had disregarded all pressure brought to bear on him to dissolve the body but it was the belief here that the lawmakers will attempt to act beyond declaring that neither president nor vice president were chosen at the recent election, questioning the legality of their own assembly and calling a fresh election.

The Washington administration was admittedly expecting news at any time that Huerta had retired. It did not credit reports that General Blanquet would succeed him. It was believed a satisfactory selection would be made.

Carranza's Army Grows.

Reports continued to reach here of successes by General Carranza's rebel army. It was said the number of his men had increased 10 per cent since conferences began with William Bayard Hale.

Messages from Mexico all indicated that Huerta was extremely anxious to reopen negotiations with Lind. The administration was convinced, however, that all he really wanted was a chance to spar for more time. For this reason it remained steadfast in its determination to hear nothing further from the dictator except that he has laid down his office.

If it was true, as a New York morning newspaper asserted today on the

BUDGET ESTIMATES APPEAR IN FULL IN THE JOURNAL TODAY

The budget estimates for the city for the ensuing year are published in full in the classified section of the Journal today, together with figures showing the expenditures for 1913. The tax levy for 1914 is based on these estimates.

Plans have been completed for the public hearing to be held Monday morning at 10 o'clock in the city hall, when all of those interested will be given opportunity to discuss the various estimates. The printed budget in the Journal may be used, as it was decided to have the estimates put out in this rather than pamphlet form.

LASH LAID ON BACKS OF BURGLARS IN DELAWARE

Negroes Suffer in Silence Before Audience of Score in Jail Yard.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 Wilmington, Delaware, Nov. 15.—Bound tightly to a whipping post, William Reason and James Bayard, negro burglars, were flogged in the state penitentiary here today before 24 spectators. Warden Leonard Crawford gave each man 20 lashes.

The two negroes suffered silently, though the flesh on their backs quivered from the punishment. Reason was taken to the jail yard at 10:30, and seven minutes later both men had been flogged, the punishment inflicted for attempted burglary.

Both Reason and Bayard's hands were manacled above their heads on either side of the pillar. Warden Crawford used nine leather thongs, each two feet long, attached to a wooden handle.

JUAREZ CAPTURED BEFORE DAYLIGHT, BY GENERAL VILLA

Federal Garrison of Border Town Taken by Surprise When Force of 2500 Rebels Swarm Into Streets.

DESPERATE BATTLE RAGES FOR TWO HOURS

American Tourist in Automobile Killed by Stray Bullet.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 El Paso, Texas, Nov. 15.—Colonel Castro, commander of the defeated federal garrison of Juarez, was not captured by the rebels, as was supposed earlier today. An El Paso merchant found him at 12:30 hiding under a bed in a little room at the rear of his store, and turned him over to the custody of General Scott, commanding the American border patrol. It could not be learned how Castro escaped from the Juarez police station, where he and his men took refuge during the fight.

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 15.—General Pancho Villa, at the head of 2500 rebels, captured Juarez early today. Villa stormed the city at 2 a. m. The federalists, taken by surprise, fought fiercely in the streets, but were quickly routed. Villa authorized the United Press to announce that American lives and property would be protected.

Three Americans were killed in the fight which preceded the capture of Juarez. The body of only one of them, however, G. S. Beggerson, a chauffeur, was identified.

The federal garrison was about 1500 strong. Of these 900 escaped into the United States.

The total casualties in the battle were 150 killed and 300 wounded. The latter will be brought to the Hotel Dieu here for treatment.

General Hugh Scott, commanding the American border patrol, took personal charge of the guards along the river front, to see that no more Americans entered the danger zone.

The rebels arrived at Juarez disguised as federalists and on what was supposed to be a federal troop train. Detraining, they authorized the United Press to announce that American lives and property would be protected.

The garrison was taken completely off its guard, and the rebels already had gained strong positions by the time Colonel Castro, the federal commander, had been able to organize any serious resistance. His men put up a stiff fight when he finally succeeded in rallying them, and for two hours the battle raged in the streets.

At 4:15 Villa captured the custom house and sent a detachment to seize the approaches to the bridge crossing the river to El Paso to keep the federalists from escaping.

Castro, with the remnant of his command, took refuge in the police station, where he and his men continued for some time to resist desperately. His position at last, however, was completely hopeless, although it was not known definitely whether or not he had been captured.

At 4:30 the city was completely in
