Christ in Art

C. F. Barbur, who is credited with having one of the largest and best col-lections of pictures and lantern slides covering the life of Jesus Christ, will show his views tomorrow evening at the Knights of Pythias hall, under the direction of the Church of the New Jerusalem.

The pictures from which these slides were made represent the conception of artists who have made a deep study of the subject, from the earliest times, either from descriptions, given by those who lived during the life of our Lord on earth, or tradition, and are represented by rare specimens found in the Catacombs, then coming gradually down to the present time. Being more than 100 in number, they constitute a complete historical record.
