

NEWS OF WEDDING OF B. S. JOSSELYN JR. IS CONFIRMED BY LETTER

Relatives of Bride Get News From Chicago of Young Man's Second Venture.

Confirmation of the marriage of Miss Lucile Clemens to Benjamin S. Josselyn Jr., in Chicago last Thursday came to relatives of the bride in this city this morning. This is young Josselyn's second marriage leap within a period of a few days after a year.

The bride left Portland a week ago yesterday and relatives knew that she was to be married immediately on her arrival in Chicago to Josselyn. Until a few days before that time she was a teacher at the Russellville school, just east of Montavilla.

According to her sister, Miss Clemens is 21 years old. At the time young Josselyn was married about a year ago to Miss Marguerite Dosch at Vancouver in a sensational elopement, his age was given as 19 years.

The bride has been living with her sister, Mrs. James A. C. Tait, 550 East Sixth street south. She is a daughter of Mathias Clemens, a well known Portland resident, whose death occurred four years ago.

On statutory grounds and cruelty, the first Mrs. Josselyn, the bride of the elopement, was divorced from Josselyn in July.

The present Mrs. Josselyn is a cousin of W. J. Clemens, president of the Portland Automobile club and fire insurance agent. A telegram was received from B. S. Josselyn Sr., former president of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company, yesterday, in which he stated that a letter of explanation is now on the way to Mr. Clemens.

B. S. Josselyn is now in New York. His son went east with him, ostensibly to attend Cornell university at Ithaca, N. Y. His grandmother, Mrs. S. A. Josselyn, who resides in Portland, expressed the greatest surprise over the affair.

It is believed that the couple will reside in New York. Josselyn and Miss Dosch were married in Vancouver, November 4, 1912, and for several days the marriage was a secret.

A near relative of the girl said this morning that she had known Josselyn before he knew his first wife.

TAKEN AT ROSEBURG; WANTED ELSEWHERE

Officers Believe Fred A. Marshall Has Bad Record Behind Him.

(Special to The Journal)

Eugene, Or., Nov. 18.—Fred A. Marshall, alias J. H. Taylor, wanted at North Yakima, Wash., and Butte, Mont., on felony charges, was arrested this morning at Roseburg, upon instructions from Sheriff Parker of Lane county. He will be brought to Eugene tonight to answer to a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon upon his landlady here, Mrs. S. S. Taylor, which he may be sent to North Yakima.

Marshall is believed to be a desperado. He has several gunshot wounds received in fights in Montana, according to the description sent to local officers. Marshall had been in hiding here two weeks, never going out unless in a closed taxicab, and he was known to always carry a revolver.

Later the sheriff here received word from Sheriff Quinn at Roseburg that Marshall confessed to him that he had killed a man at Sandpoint, Idaho.

NO-STOP CARS ASKED TO ALBERTA STREET FROM THE WEST SIDE

Five Minute Service in Rush Hours Also Requested of City Commissioners.

Asking that the Portland Railway, Light & Power company run no-stop cars to Alberta street from the west side, with 10 minute service increased to five minutes during the rush hours by a car to East Thirtieth street instead of Twenty-second, a delegation from the Alberta Women's Good Government Improvement club met with Commissioners Bigelow and Daly this morning.

A number of facts concerning the present car service were discussed by Commissioner Daly and the women representatives. The women contend that the car company should be required to put heaters on the cars. They say that cars on the Alberta line are very poorly heated. Following a discussion of nearly an hour, Mr. Daly promised that the matter would be given prompt attention and that it would be taken up immediately with the street car company officials.

NOT ELIGIBLE TO RELIEF Pension Board to Ask People to Provide for Two Firemen.

That an initiative measure should be submitted at the special city election allowing the city to care for W. D. Whitcomb and C. D. Shane, two incapacitated members of the fire department who are barred from receiving relief under the firemen's pension and relief fund, was the belief yesterday of the members of the pension board meeting in Mayor Albee's office yesterday. Work will be started immediately to get the measure in shape to present to the people.

According to an opinion of City Attorney La Roche these two men were not eligible to relief under the wording of the law. As neither of these two men are able to do any work and are almost destitute, it was decided to put the matter before the people along with the charter amendments.

The board allowed relief to J. T. Perkins, fireman, who was injured in a motorcycle accident, and Edward McDonald, who is suffering from stomach trouble.

It is understood that the franchise will be granted.

The route proposed is from the city limits on the south on East Seventeenth to Main street, to East Fifteenth, to Beacon, to East Tenth, to Brooklyn, to East Ninth, to East Market, to East Third, to East Morrison, to East Third to Hawthorne avenue, across Hawthorne bridge, to Front, to Salmon, to Fourth, to Flanders, to Twelfth.

Terry's chauffeur testified he arranged with the owner of the auto to

BOY WHO ATTEMPTED SUICIDE IS RECOVERING

Verney Emrick, the 13-year-old lad who yesterday attempted to kill himself by shooting because he did not want to go to school, but preferred to work, is improving from the shock of the attempt he made on his life. A superficial wound was inflicted by the bullet. After the shooting, the mother took the son to a doctor, who found him to be suffering from Bright's disease, and who claimed that it has resulted in melancholy. The boy is not of a vicious disposition. Young Emrick lived with his mother, Mrs. Warren Emrick, at 488 Roselawn avenue. His complete recovery is predicted by the physician.

JONES CAME BACK TO DISCUSS THE SITUATION

Twice within an hour, William J. Jones, a steward, was arrested yesterday afternoon for causing trouble at the Brown & McCabe company, Second and Ash streets. The first arrest was made through the justice court, and the second through the municipal court. Both are for assault. H. Dilliant, general manager for the company, filed the first charge, while H. Rotchild filed the second. Jones is a former employe. He went there to discuss his discharge. The municipal court case will be heard Friday morning.
