

EASTERN FOOTBALL ELEVEN IS DENIED PORTLAND FANS THIS YEAR

M'CREIDIE WOULD PAY $2500 FOR ANOTHER MAN LIKE HAGERMAN

Portland Manager Will Take Chance on Grabbing Couple of Comebacks.

"Since returning from Columbus, where I failed to do anything in the latter line, I have resolved to sit back and await the result of my drafts on the turnbacks of the major leagues," said Manager Walter McCredie of the Beavers this morning. "This will be sometime in February or March, and I hope to land a couple of good pitchers and a utility man. The major leagues made the greatest inroad in history on the minors, and left nothing for the class AA clubs to corral."

"There will be a merry scramble for the comebacks. Del Howard told me that he, too, was not going to do much purchasing, but would rely on getting several good men when the majors were forced to cut down and offer their drafted players to the class AA leagues. It will then be possible for us to secure players at an outlay of $1500 from class A draftees and $1200 from class B draftees."

"If I have to purchase in the open market I would not mind paying $25,000 for a pitcher if I could get as good a man as Rip Hagerman proved last year. Rip was purchased from Lincoln of the Western league last year, and was worth every cent of the money paid for him."

J. Newton Colver, sporting editor of the Spokane Spokesman-Review, who was in Portland Tuesday to attend the White Sox-Giants game, believes that Spokane is in the hands of the right party is one of the best money towns in the Northwestern league.

Colver produces figures to show that the traction company which took over the franchise from Joe Cohn flunked, made a proportionate difference of $23,000 in the yearly receipts. In the last four series under Cohn the club's receipts were $227, while under the traction company they were $142, not counting Labor day. After President Farr was placed in charge by the traction company, the club showed a profit of $580, while Cohn's books showed a loss of $350. The change was made June 28. Of course, counted in the traction company's profits was the sale of players. In addition to Cohn's net loss on the season he let slip away from him by release three players who were afterward secured for a sum of $2000, Bobby Davis from Walla Walla to Portland, Risberg from Ogden to Chicago, and Pat Bohan from Missoula to the Philadelphia Athletics.

JEFF SNOWBOUND WHEN HE GOES TO KILL DUCKS

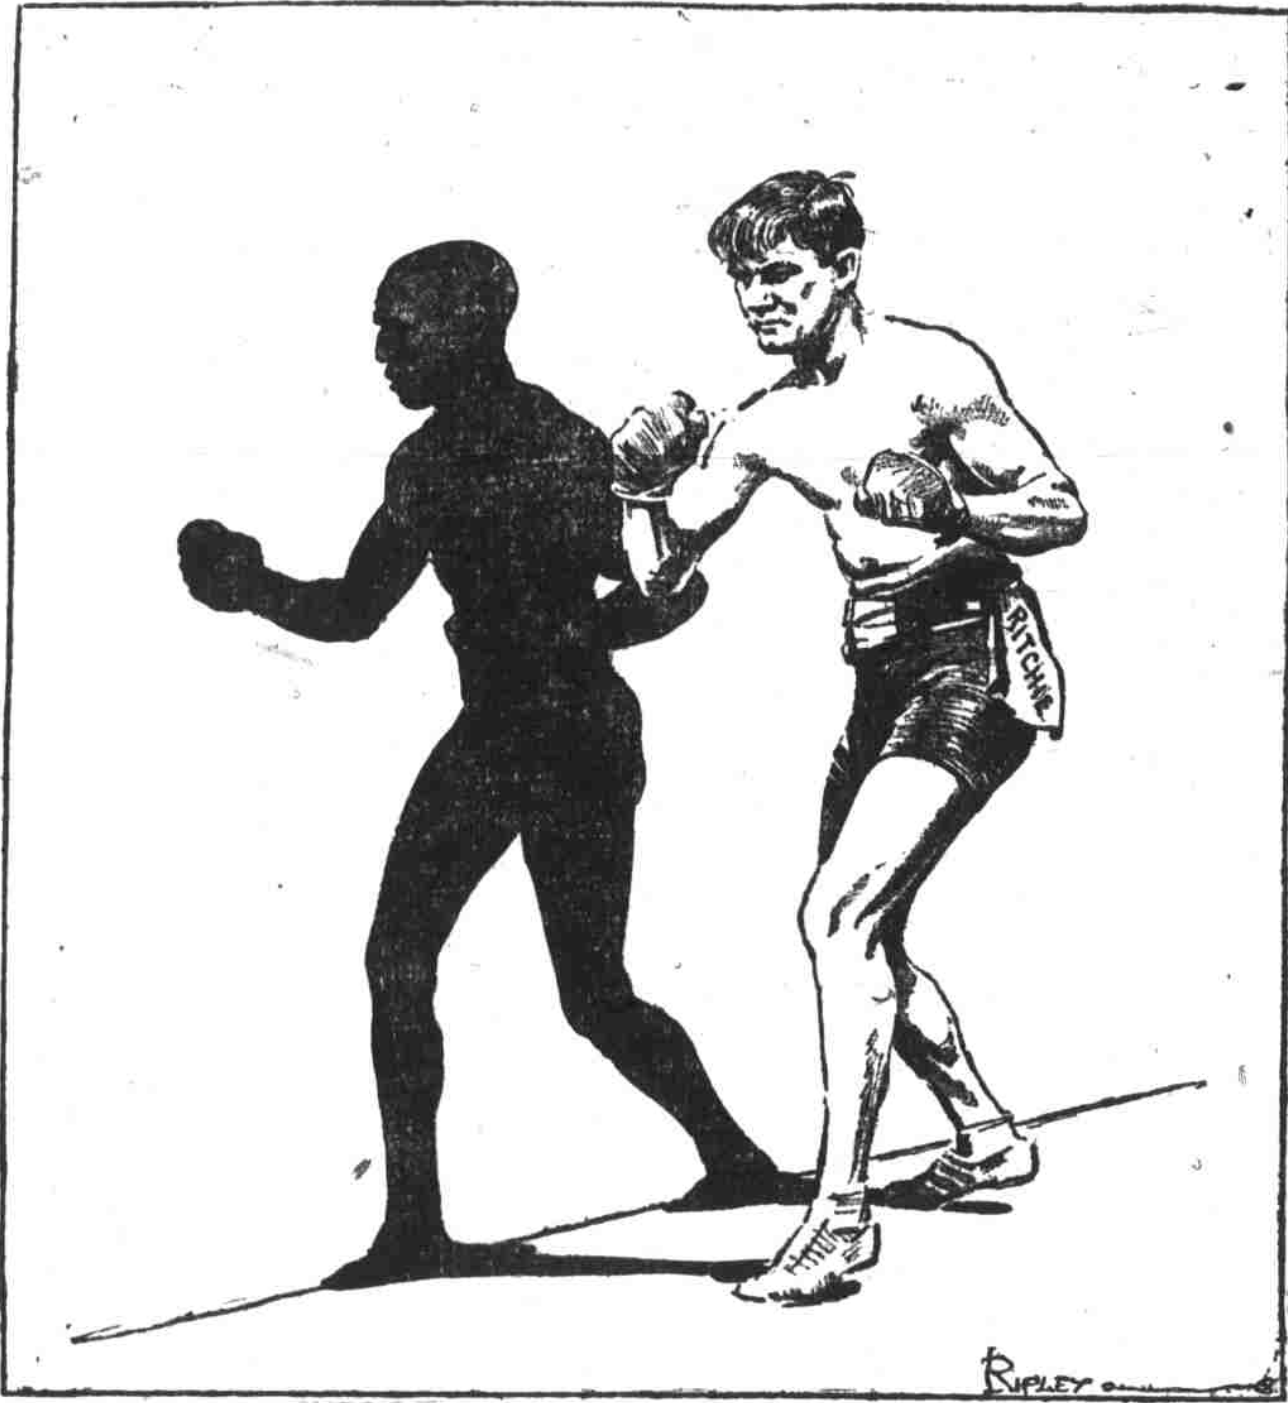

San Bernardino, Cal., Nov. 21.—James J. Jeffries and four other Los Angeles sportsmen are snowbound in Bear Valley, San Bernardino mountains, where they went before the recent storms, to hunt ducks.

The party carried provisions sufficient for a week, but there is slight chance that they can reach civilization for several days. Snow lies five feet deep on the level, and fills the canyons, which are impassable.

Little apprehension for their safety is felt, however, as mountaineers here believe that, should their provisions run short, they will be able to kill sufficient game to provide food.

RITCHIE WILL WEIGH 135 POUNDS 1 HOUR BEFORE MURPHY GO

Harlem Tommy Gets What He Wanted From Champion for Fight on December 10.

San Francisco, Nov. 21.—Willie Ritchie, the lightweight champion, and Harlem Tommy Murphy have patched up their weight differences today, and will be seen in action in a 20-round bout here on the night of December 10. The match was clinched when Manager Harry Foley agreed to Murphy's demand for 135 pounds one hour before the battle. "That is virtually ringside weight," Foley said. "It gives the champion a chance only to weigh in, rush across the street to his hotel, have a cup of broth and then get into his fighting togs."

With the weight controversy strengthened out, Coffroth immediately wired Jim Buckley, Murphy's manager, to start for the coast with Murphy at once. Ritchie announced that he would not

DONALD ON WAY SOUTH TO PICK TRAINING CAMP

San Francisco, Nov. 21.—Dick Donald of Medford, manager for Bud Anderson, the lightweight prize fighter, accompanied by Mrs. Donald, a bride of two days, arrived here today en route to Los Angeles to secure training quarters for Anderson, who has been matched to meet Jack Britton at the Vernon arena either December 16 or December 20 in a 20 round bout. The men, Donald said, would weigh in at 135 pounds three hours before the contest.

WE THOUGHT JEFF'S DAD LIVED IN THE OZARKS

Centralia, Nov. 21.—Preparatory to a reunion of the family of J. E. Tesreau in Centralia today, Mr. Tesreau and his three sons, H. A., A. L. and William, the latter being the famous New York twirler, whose name is familiar in every town between the Atlantic and Pacific, yesterday went bear hunting. The bear player brought down a bear. In addition to the boys, Mrs. L. A. Ashlock and Mrs. Robert Davidson, the elder Tesreau's daughters and residents of Centralia, were present at the reunion here today, the first the family has held in four years.

SOLDIERS STRONGER FOR GAME TOMORROW WITH M. A. A. C. MEN

Preliminary Game Will Start at 1:30 o'Clock and Main Event an Hour Later.

Football fans will have an opportunity of witnessing two good gridiron struggles tomorrow afternoon on Multnomah field for one small admission price. A preliminary game between the Multnomah second eleven and the St. James team of Vancouver will be played before the Multnomah-Soldiers game. The preliminary game will start at 1:30 o'clock.

Manager Plowden Stott has perfected the offensive attack of his players by shifting the backfield and some of the line players. Stott decided to shift his backfield players nearly two weeks ago, after seeing Francis and Conville in action against the Multnomah rookies. With Conville, Keck, Francis and Rodes in the backfield, Stott has a quartet of players which should show equality as much strength as the Clark-Wolf-Keck combination of last season. Francis is much heavier than Clark and tears through the line on the same style as Miller of Washington.

The soldier team is much stronger than it has been for a number of seasons. The return of several companies from the Philippine Islands has added strength to the soldiers' line, which will average close to 175 pounds.

The Vancouver barracks band will accompany the team to Portland. The lineup of the teams:

Soldiers	Pos.	Multnomah
Lauffer	L. E. R.	Striebig
Padgett	L. T. R.	Hickson
Horler	L. G. R.	Bailey
Millard	L. C.	Rogers
Lynch	L. R.	Cherry
Bombold	R. T. L.	Rupert
Fox	R. L.	Philbrook
Hafian	R. E. L.	McRae
R. Hunter	R. L.	Pixlee
W. Hunter	R. L.	Rodes

THIRD WATER POLO GAME TO BE PLAYED TONIGHT

The third water polo game between the Multnomah club and Portland Swimming association teams will be played this evening in the Multnomah tank at 9 o'clock. Each team has one victory to its credit and a close contest is expected. Several changes have been made in Multnomah's line-up.

The line-ups:

PENDLETON-WALOWA GAME TO SETTLE TITLE

Pendleton, Or., Nov. 21.—The Pendleton and Walowa high school football teams will fight it out for the championship of eastern Oregon in this city on Thanksgiving Day, negotiations for the game having been completed yesterday. When the local team defeated Baker last week 14 to 7, it was thought that the claim to the title had been decided, but since then Walowa, by defeating both La Grande and Union by one-sided scores, has forced the Pendleton boys to recognize her as a contender for the honors. The Pendleton team will meet the Walla Walla high school this afternoon.

Gruman to Meet McVeigh.
San Francisco, Nov. 21.—Johnny O'Leary of Seattle and Joe Getz of Johnston, Pa., will furnish the main event at tonight's four round boxing show here. Among the other bouts are Antone La Grue vs. Al Rogers, Ralph Gruman of Portland vs. Jimmy McVeigh, and Jimmy Carroll vs. Harry Dalk.

NOTRE DAME ELEVEN DECLINES PROFFER OF JAUNT TO PORTLAND

Last Chance of Bringing Big Eastern Team Goes Glimmering; Idaho Selected.

The last chance of bringing an eastern or middle western team to Portland for a game with the Multnomah club eleven New Year's went glimmering today, when Manager Plowden Stott announced that he had received word from the Notre Dame college to the effect that its team would be unable to tour the northwest.

The Notre Dame officials thanked Manager Stott for his offer, but in view of the team's heavy schedule during the season it would be impossible to play two games in the northwest.

Alumni of Notre Dame here sent several wires east in hopes of persuading the officials of the school to send the team west, but to no avail. It is likely that arrangements for a trip west will be started earlier next season.

Following the declination of the Notre Dame team to play here New Year's day, Manager Stott will likely arrange a game with the University of Idaho. Idaho has a good fast team and has not appeared in Portland for a number of seasons. The arrangements for the game will probably be completed when Coach Griffith passes through Portland next week on the way to Corvallis, where his team meets the Oregon Argies.

Two games with the Seattle Athletic club team are on Multnomah's schedule for the season, but no dates have been agreed upon by the managers of the teams.

Gruman Training With Clabby.
Ralph Gruman, the Portland featherweight, is meeting one of the tough boys in San Francisco tonight in Jimmy McVeigh. December 5 he will box one of the special main events in the four round show. Gruman has been training with Jimmy Clabby, who thinks he will be one of the best featherweights in the country with some experience.

Washington Beats Trade School.
The Washington high school basketball team defeated the Portland Trade school five last evening, 18 to 11. The playing of Jewell featured the game.

OREGON TEAM BREEZES IN ITS PRACTICE WORK

Coach Bezdek Lectures on Letting Up of Enthusiasm for Multnomah.

University of Oregon, Eugene, Or., Nov. 21.—The Oregon team has been taking it pretty easy since Saturday's game. No practice was held Monday evening and Tuesday the squad listened to a lecture by Coach Bezdek on the importance of the Multnomah game. There is a tendency among the members to carelessness now that the annual clash with Doble's men is over.

Bezdek said to them, in part, "Now if this game is worth while at all, it is worth going after hard. It is going to be a hard game. I don't think you fellows think it is easy for if you do you are mistaken, but I believe you are letting up on your enthusiasm."

After the test-a-tets the men "mon-keyed" about the field, playing out of their regular positions and generally having an easy time. Parsons and Cornell are out on the field and seem to have suffered no ill effects from Saturday's hard tussle.

RIGHT SWING TO JOWL QUEERS BIG ED HAGEN
New York, Nov. 21.—Ed Hagen, Seattle heavyweight, is in the pugilistic discard here today, following a scheduled ten round bout here with Battling Levinsky of Philadelphia. Levinsky knocked out Hagen with a right swing to the jaw in the seventh round. Hagen was originally matched to meet Gunboat Smith, but a damaged eye received by Smith in his recent bout in Boston with Sam Langford caused him to withdraw and Levinsky was substituted. Levinsky weighed 170 pounds and Hagen 186 1/2.

J. B. A. C. Seconds Win Game.
The J. B. A. C. second quintet had little trouble defeating the Oregonus club last evening, 32 to 2. The playing of Cohen of the winners was a feature. Meyer scored the lone points made by the Oregonus team. The Oregon Law school team failed to appear to play the first J. B. A. C. five. Manager Hyman Schwartz is anxious to arrange games with other local teams. Write him care Franklin hotel.

"HOW can he do it?"

You often hear men ask when someone talks about the immense rental a ground floor clothier is paying. Listen! He can afford to pay a big rent as long as you will pay them a BIG enough PROFIT.

The identical Men's Suits, Overcoats and Raincoats are here at $15, that high rent stores must sell for $20 and $25! That's worth saving, isn't it?

Overcoats full of "pepp" and smartness! Belted backs, Raglans, English models. Also new mid-season arrivals in Suits, Cheviots, New Stripes, Blue Serges, London Mixtures. I continue to say modestly
